Bellefonte, Pa., March 1, 1912.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications blished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

PHINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY, which they failed to notice. .

--- More courting next week.

(Friday) evening to elect a second lieutenant for Company L.

FOR RENT.-Brick livery stable, the best location in town. Particulars, Lyon & Co. Bellefonte, Pa. 57-3-tf.

Gummo, of Beilefonte, and Miss Josephine Loucks of Bellwood

State College, Sunday.

the John's Hopkins hospital for an operation, which will be performed this morn-

-The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a chicken and waffle supper in the Y. M. C. A. next Thursday evening, March 7th. The public in general is invited

--- The home and entire contents of stroyed by fire last Thursday night. There was no insurance.

-Bellefonte friends of J. C. Weaver will be sorry to learn that he recently fell on the ice in Philadelphia and broke his left arm. But regardless of the mishap he continues to work every day.

this week to the members of the Bellefonte Board of Trade and the secretary hopes to have the list of members complete and in shape for publication next

- Mr. James R. Hughes will give his annual athletic banquet to the Academy athletes at the Brockerhoff house to-morrow (Saturday) night. It will doubtless be a most delightful affair, as it always has -A supper for the benefit of the Buffalo Run Presbyterian church, will 4 track and stepped back fonto No. 3 be given at the home of Mr. Al. track. He failed to notice the approach Garner, on Buffalo Run, on Friday evening, March 1st. To which everyone who enjoys a good feast is most cordially in--The spring inspection of the model orchards under the supervision of the division of economic zoology will begin early in March. The first inspection in Centre county will be on March 11th in the orchard of A. E. Bartges, near Millheim.

-The Epworth League of the Milesburg M. E. church will hold a birthday social in the firemen's hall in that borough on Saturday evening, March 2nd. Refreshments will be served and a short program rendered. The public is inited.

--- The engineers surveying the lands for the new penitentiary site completed their work last Saturday and departed for their homes in Pittsburg. It will now be only a question of a week or two highly esteemed by a wide circle of until the deeds will be signed and money

--- Last Wednesday night while station agent Wm. Shuitz was over in Philipsburg visiting his parents the station at Port Matilda was broken into and robbed. Eight mileage books and a small amount of change was the amount of the booty the robbers secured.

-The Methodist Episcopai church of Pleasant Gap will hold a church birthday party on Saturday evening, March 2, 1912, in the Pleasant Gap church. A musical program will be rendered, and refreshments served free. Everybody is invited to come and all will be made welcome.

-- The WATCHMAN'S Spring Mills letter was missing last week, not because our correspondent forgot to send it but because it got lost in some way in the Bellefonte postoffice and did not reach this office until Friday morning, when it ought to have been delivered Tuesday evening.

--- The March meeting of the Wom-At this meeting Mrs. J. C. Harper will friends are invited to hear.

---Emily Parker, who last week was reported ill with scarlet fever, has recovered, and as the rest of the children are now being cared for at the home of their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield, the entire family is very comfortable, and suffering only the inconvenience of the quarantine.

fully located at the Bush house during sible. He is now getting along all right their heads, and the would-be burglars tin. Mrs. Sheldon, having gone to Phila the winter, are contemplating returning and suffering very little pain. to their home, "Mapleshade," for the summer. Arrangements not having been completed for the opening of their house, Young Men's Christian Association will them a good lecturing Larimer gave them

TWO CENTRE COUNTIANS KILLED ON RAILROAD.-Robert M. Leech, of Shinglerailroad three miles west of Altoona, at less than twenty-five hours later Charles on the evening of the 29th of May. A. Ishler, of Tusseyville, was killed in the Altoona yards, both of them by being struck by an extra engine the approach of Leech went to Altoona about two months ago to seek employment on the -Lewis McQuistion is ill with ty- railroad but there being no position open phoid fever, at his home on west High at the time he accepted a job in a restaurant. On January 30th he was given a -Another effort will be made this position as fireman on the Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania railroad and last Thursday morning was assigned to duty on an engine acting as helper on an extra freight up the mountain. At by a red block and Leech got off the -A marriage license was granted in engine and was standing on track No. 2. Hollidaysburg on Wednesday to Harry A blinding snow storm was raging at the time and he likely failed to see an empty engine coming down the mountain in -Mrs. Helen Atherton Govier will time to get out of its way, and he was have charge of the pipe organ in the new struck and 'instantly killed. His skull any municipality in that section of the Methodist church to be dedicated at and jawbone were fractured, left leg and both arms broken and his body badly -James H. Potter went to Baltimore crushed. Death was instantaneous. The in the beginning of the week and entered remains were taken to Altoona and prepared for burial before being shipped to his old home at Shingletown.

Robert M. Leech was a son of John (deceased) and Mrs. Eliza Leech. and was born at Shingletown on January 9th, 1890, so that he was just 22 years, 1 month and 13 days old. All his life was spent in the neighborhood of his birth until he went to Altoona a short time Martin Steiner, located between Port church and an industrious young man of good morals and habits. Surviving him are his widowed mother, Mrs. Eliza Leech, and the following brother and sisters: William, of Boalsburg; Mrs. William Stewart, of Boalsburg; Mrs. Blaine Brown, of Tyrone; Mrs. Edna Musser, of State College, and Miss Anne Leech at home One brother, John Leech, was killed in --- Membership tickets were sent out the Altoona yards almost three years ago while employed as a fireman. The remains were sent to his late home in Shingletown on Friday and the funeral held on Saturday afternoon. The Bear Meadow Lodge Knights of Malta were in charge and Rev. Stonecypher officiated at the services.

> Charles A. Ishler, who was a car inspector in the Altoona yards, was killed at 9:15 o'clock Friday morning. He had just completed inspecting a train on No. of an engine which was being backed down the track and the crew didenot observe Ishler in time to stop. He was dead. His chest was crushed, right arm fractured and left leg ground off below the knee. Undertakers were notified who took the remains and prepared them for burial.

HOW CHARLES ISHLER WAS KILLED.

Deceased was a son of William and Mrs. Annie Ishler and was born at Tussey- Washington's birthday, and was the only ville twenty-nine years ago. Seven years representative from the Bellefonte bankago he went to Altoona and secured employment with the Pennsylvania railroad had been a car inspector under foreman Harry Geesey. He was a member of the Red Men, the Grand Fraternity and the Pennsylvania Railroad Relief association. He was the sole support of his widowed mother, a man of exemplary habits and friends and fellow employees.

He is survived by his mother and one sister, Miss Edna, at home. The remains were taken to the home of his mother at Tusseyville on Saturday and the funeral held on Tuesday. Burial was made in the Tusseyville cemetery.

REV. HARNISH IN MISHAP ! RECEIVES BROKEN ARM.-On Thursday night of last week Rev. W. K. Harpish, of Lemont, while on his way home from preaching at Filmore, was thrown into Spring creek by his horse backing the sleigh over an embankment and not only received a good ducking but a broken arm and had some difficulty in getting out of the icy waters. He was conducting revival services in the Filmore church and at their conclusion started for home through the rain. He was driving along in the neighborhood of Danial Houser's residence on Spring creek when it began to thunder and lightning. His horse frightened and the reverend had considerable difficulty holding him in check. an's Club of Bellefonte, will be held in An unusually loud peal of thunder caused their rooms in Petrikin hall, Saturday, the horse to plunge and start to run. Rev. March second, at half after three o'clock. Harnish did not lose control of the animal but after he succeeded in checking read a paper on "Municipal House Clean- him he began to back and sleigh and all ing," which all club members and their went over the embankment into the creek. The reverend gentleman was entangled in the lines and robes and it was with some difficulty he freed himself, considering the fact that his one arm was broken by the fall, but he finally managed to do clothing. Mr. Houser got the preacher's -Dr. and Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes and home at Lemont so as to permit of his with hands up. In a very short time two their family, who have been so delight- fractured arm being set as soon as pos- men emerged holding their hands above

-Dr. J. George Becht, secretary of town, was killed on the Pennsylvania tion, has been chosen to deliver the com- week's Keystone Gazette editor Charles R.

-Rev. W. A. H. Streamer, a Senior student at Susquehanna University, who has been extended a call by the Bellefonte Lutheran church and signified his intention of accepting the same upon his graduation in June, is a son of Rev. Charles Streamer, for many years a prominent Lutheran minister in Central Pennsylvania, and before he went to college was a clothing merchant in Philips-service that is recognized as the best that combined efforts of several men and the State enjoys

-Scenic patrons were considerably disappointed last Friday evening by the failure of the Vanity Fair films to arrive in time to be shown that evening. A delay on the part of the express company held them back until too late for exhibition. Manager Brown, however, secured a return date for March 9th, when they will be here without fail. In the meantime the Scenic is showing a good program of pictures every evening and one that always pleases the audience. Try it once, and see, if you are not now a regular patron.

-Some fifty-five Academy minstrels will appear in minstrelsy this year. This performance will eclipse any preceding one in size and in musical ability. The date of the show is not yet fixed, but it will be either the last of April or the first of May. The boys are practicing hard twice a week. The object of the minstrels is to secure enough money to build a running track around the foot ball field for the track athletes of the schools heartily encouraged.

-The mild weather of Saturday and Sunday and the rain of Monday melted in the county. Spring creek had a two ored (?) with another visitation of muddy struck and knocked down, and when fel- about a foot. Most of the snow has dis- son, who was host of the party, occupied low workmen reached his side he was appeared, however, but there is still considerable ice on the roads and streets.

-James K. Barnhart, cashier of the First National bank, attended the annual meeting of the American Bankers association for the sixth Pennsylvania district company and during the past six years National bank of State College. About elected president for the ensuing year and James K. Barnhart secretary. The place for holding the next meeting will be decided later.

> -In addition to the room in the Reynold's building on Bishop street, given good dinner served. for the storing of papers and magazines, Mrs. D. G. Bush has kindly consented to the use of the vacant store room in the Arcade, during the month of March. Everyone in the locality of either of these rooms is asked to carry their papers there, so as to lighten the expense of the cartage. The work has been so systematized. that if the weather be propitious, it is hoped the first collection over the entire town will have been completed by the last of next week, but if any place should be overlooked, by notifying Mrs. J. E. Ward, a drayman will be sent immediately. Those from the country wishing to contribute to this Hospital benefit, will kindly bring the papers, magazines or books to either of the above mentioned placesthe keys of the Bush room to be gotten from George T. Bush or at the book store in the Arcade.

-Lee Larimer, of Jersey Shore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Larimer, had quite an experience with two would-be burglars last Thursday night. His wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCullough, are spending the winter in Florida and their house is locked up. Thursday night a passerby noticed some person trying to Mrs. Arthur Brown, returned to Bellefo break into the McCullough residence and he at once notified Mr. Larimer by telephone. The latter accompanied by Dr. New York State and Massachusetts, returned to Goodman, both fully armed, went to the house and followed footsteps in the snow leading up to the front porch. When so and make his way to the Houser home Larimer attempted to open the storm where he was taken in and given dry door he discovered that it was held by someone on the inside. Drawing a revolver this week, and in order that Mrs. Philips might horse and sleigh out of the creek and he threatened to shoot if the person or keep in touch with her friends in this section, had hitching up his own rig drove him to his persons did not immediately come forth the WATCHMAN sent to her address in Philips proved to be two well known men of the last week on a business trip, was away from -The Women's Auxiliary of the them plead for mercy and after giving town, one of whom is married. Both of Bellefonte during her sister's visit. will necessitate their remaining in town meet in the Y. M. C. A. building Monday their liberty on their solemn promise never again to attempt an unlawful act.

FIGHTING ON SUNDAY MORNING.-Anthe Pennsylvania State Board of Educa- gered by an item that appeared in last mencement address before the graduat- Kurtz, of the Centre Democrat, assaulted ed-8:30 o'clock last Thursday morning, and ing class of the Bellefonte High school, itor Thomas H. Harter, on the street about ten o'clock on Sunday morning and after on Monday striking him one blow the men were separated by bystanders. Mr. Kurtz and attorney W. D. Zerby were standing on the corner of the Diamond at Beck's barber shop talking when Mr. Harter happened along on his way from the postoffice to his own office. Not a word was spoken between the men but as editor Harter was passing editor Kurtz struck him in the face then threw his arm around his neck. Before the latter could strike a second blow, if such had been his inten--Another Centre county boy who is tion, he was seized by bystanders and making good away from home is Ralph pulled away. Mr. Harter made a pass at McGarvey's station the train was stopped E. Thomas, son of Mr. W. B. Thomas, of Mr. Kurtz but they had already been Milesburg, who is showing the citizens of pulled so far apart that he failed to land Londonville, Ohio, the kind of graduates a blow. He expressed himself, however, the department of electrical engineering in some very loud and emphatic language at the State College turn out, and at the and Herbert Auman, attracted to the same time securing them an electrical scene, also wanted to fight. It took the sheriff to restore order.

On Monday Kurtz, Harter and Auman were called before burgess John J. Bower, on information made by chief of police Harry Dukeman, and Kurtz was fined five dollars and costs for fighting and Harter and Auman two dollars each and costs for swearing and creating a disturbance on the Sabbath. Kurtz and Auman paid their fine and costs, but Harter at the time refused to do so, stating that he would appeal the case to court, but since then he has paid it upon the advice of his attorney. Mr. Harter took the ground that he had been assaulted without provocation and since the bystanders wouldn't let him get at his assailant he was so mad he just couldn't help swearing long and loud and in such fancy variety as is seldom heard. He is wearing a black eye and a scratched cheek as a result of the fight.

Ex-Sheriff's Association Reunion. -The second annual reunion of the exsheriffs of Centre county and their deputies was held at the Country club last Thursday afternoon and evening. Those presand town. This is a most interesting ent were ex-sheriffs D. W. Woodring, and worthy object and ought to be Benjamin F. Schaffer, W. A. Ishler, John P. Condo, W. M. Cronister, Henry Kline, W. E. Hurley and A. B. Lee; and exdeputies L. A. Schaeffer, L. T. Munson, W. D. Dukeman, Harry J. Jackson and the snow and ice and filled up the streams Edward McKinley. The afternoon was spent in recounting reminiscences of and a-half foot flood and for a time on each one's official career and some of way to Howard to attend a meeting of the How them were very interesting. At six o'clock and brick company, called for the purpose of WATCHMAN press room would be fav- the dining room doors were thrown open water but fortunately it grew cold in time the table to enjoy a turkey dinner that to the guests and they all gathered around on Monday evening to put an end to the was a bird—we mean the turkey, as it locality, attended court in Bellefonte on Tuesday, thaw and the water did not reach us by weighed twenty-nine pounds. Mr. Mun- and afterwards went to Tyrone for a visit among

After the ex-officials had made a prisoner of everything possible Mr. Wood- of last week with their friends in Bellefonte, rering was selected as toastmaster and a turning in a motor car to Centre Hall late in the number of interesting talks were made by some of those present. The question held at Mt. Union on February 22nd, of the inclement weather at this time of year, which no doubt has the effect of keeping some of the members away from ing institutions. He was accompanied by the reunion, was discussed and it was Nelson E. Robb, representing the First decided to hold the next meeting during warmer weather, at a place and date to one hundred and twenty members were be fixed by the committee of arrangepresent and at the business meeting in ments. It was also decided to include Lutheran church, the Improved Order of the afternoon Hon. A. G. Morris was the ladies,—wives and sweethearts, at future gatherings which will undoubtedly make them more interesting. Before leaving for home the members extended a vote of thanks to Mr. Munson and Monday fire was discovered in an old stable on the A. C. Mingle property just south of the steam heating plant and before the flames could be extinguished the entirely destroyed. The stable was leased by Harry Rerick who kept his rural five dollars insurance on the buildings.

BENEFIT OF COLEVILLE BAND .- The Coleville band will hold a series of four concerts in connection with the moving ictures at the Lyric theatre on the folowing evenings: Thursday, March 7th, Thursday, March 14th, Thursday, March 21st, Thursday, March 28th, 1912. The usual number of shows will be given each mission 10 cents.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Helen Schaeffer was the week-end guest of Miss Laura Runkle at Centre Hall -Mrs. J. Howard Spangler, who has been in

New York for several weeks with her daughter, -Mrs. H. C. Quigley, who has been visiting the past three weeks with friends in Philadelphia -Miss Lulu McMullen returned to her home at Hecla, Tuesday of last week, after spending a month with her cousin, Mrs. Johnson, at Macbeth, near Philadelphia. -C. E. Philips, of Tyrone, was in Bellef

-Mrs. George Dallas Dixon, of Philad spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Jule Cur-

-Miss Harriet Hall, of Dix Run, was in Belle

-Josiah Pritchard, of Philipsburg, was a Bellefonte visitor over Monday night

-Miss Anna Miller, private nurse for Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, spent Sunday at her home at Salona -David J. Gingerich, of Martha Furnace erman and farmer, was a Bellefonte visitor

-J. Harris Hoy, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday Bellefonte at the home of Col. and Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds

-Miss Margaret Garman, of Williamsport, ame to Bellefonte on Saturday to visit friends for a few days.

-Miss Myra Seckler spent last Sunday with friends in Lewisburg, having gone down to attend a dance at Bucknell.

-Miss Carrie E. Miller returned home Monday from a week's visit with friends in Altoona, Huntingdon and other places,

-Miss Daise Keichline went over to Petersburg last Saturday, called there by the illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Keichline, Jr. -Dr. Hiram Hiller, of Chester, came to Belle onte Saturday, and while here was the guest of Mrs. Hiller's mother, Mrs. William P. Wilson.

-Herbert M. Bartley, of the Clark Printing ompany, Lock Haven, spent Monday in Belleonte visiting his friends and looking after a few usiness matters. -Hon. J. W. Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, made a business trip to Bellefonte on Monday and found time to discuss the political situation with -Edward Keichline, who holds a good position in the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Renovo, spent last Friday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Keichline. -Joe Fauble, of Monongahela City, arrived in onte on Sunday evening, coming here to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Nathan Newman, on Monday afternoor -Reuben M. Glenn, who came to State College from Oklahoma in December on account of the illness of his mother, left Centre county last week to return to Tulsa to resume his work as an oil -Having finished his job of closing out a store and its language.

in York Harry Baum returned home on Sunday evening and will spend a few days here before going to the western part of the State on a simi--Mrs. Robert Wray, of Driftwood, has been in Harris' and with Miss Mary Thomas at her home on Linn street. -Mrs. Anna E. Stonerode, who has been all to Jackson, Mich., where she has made her home with her daughter since leaving Milesburg a number of years ago.

-General and Mrs. James A. Beaver went to Atlantic City on Monday to spend time enough Mr. Bottorf's mother, Mrs. Dale and Mrs. Jacob to allow the General to recuperate from an attack of the grip which kept him confined to the house for a week or more. -On Thursday evening of last week Mrs. J.

Collins Mattern and daughter Emily, of Storms town, were guests of honor at a Washington's birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rothrock, of Lock Haven -D. Allison Irvin, of Ebensburg, spent Thursday afternoon of last week in Bellefonte on his voting upon the question of a reorganization. -Squire T. B. Jamison, who hands out justice in Gregg township in a way that meets with the universal approval of the good citizens of that friends. tion "Billy" Magee, of Philadelphia, with Miss Huyett, of Center Hall, spent Saturday afternoon evening. -Miss Bess Cooney, one of Bellefonte's accomplished milliners, is now looking up the spring styles in Philadelphia and New York preparatory to her return to Lancaster for the season, where her selections are greatly admired, and her services always in demand. -Edward Cooke spent last Sunday in Belle fonte with his wife and daughter, and while here aided Mrs. Cooke in completing arrangmentes for the moving of the family to Baltimore, where Mr Cooke has been engaged in business for some time, and where they anticipate making their went to Auburn, N. Y., on Tuesday to see his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Jane Petty, whose life Hard P. Harris for the privilege of meetis slowly ebbing away. She is past ninety-four ing at the club house and also for the aremarkable woman in many ways, until her recent indisposition being in full possession of all her faculties. One of her grandsons is a judge in -Shortly before twelve o'clock on the appellate division on the Supreme court bench of New York.

-Miss Helen E. Overton returned to Bellefonte Monday from Wilkes-Barre, where she had been since Wednesday of last week attending the cel bration of the fiftieth anniversary of her aunt, stable and an old carpenter shop were Miss Frances Jane Overton as a teacher. Over forty years of that time having been spent in the public schools of Wilkes-Barre, the exercises mail delivery outfit there, but he got it all out safe. Mr. Mingle had seventywhich the entire city were interested were arrang, Overton had been associated, and the schola who had been under her during that time.

-Mrs. H. R. Benner spent Saturday in Belle fonte, shopping and looking after some business of both her husband, H. R. Benner, of Oak Hall, and of her father, Watson Struble, of Rock Forge. Mrs. Benner has been for the greater part of th time since her marriage in December, with her parents at Rock Forge, helping them in their arrangements for moving to the College. Having sold the farm Mr. and Mrs. Struble anticipate evening, beginning at seven o'clock. Ad- home they have built at State College. At the The Best Advertising Medium in Central same time Mrs. Benner will go to Oak Hall to jo

-Two welcome visitors in Bellefonte Monda were John I. Rankin, of Philadelphia, and his step-son, Walter B. Lembkey, of Washington, and this was their first trip here in a number of years. They came to Boalsburg on Saturday and spent the Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane, coming to Bellefonte Monday morning and remaining until Tuesday afternoon. Of the two men Mr. Lembkey has changed the most in the eyes of his old friends here, but that maybe because of spending his summers so far north. He is in the employ of the government and helps to ook after the seal fisheries at the Alutian island station in Alaska. He spends his summers there and his winters in Washington, so that he has a pretty nice berth of it.

-George W. Fisher, of Halfmoon township, was business visitor in Bellefonte on Monday. He s now connected with the Halfmoon rural telework takes up all the time he can spare from the management of his farm. The Halfmoon Com pany was organized about two years ago to run from Tyrone to Stormstown and across by Baileyville and Pennsylvania Furnace then down to Spruce Creek. At that time the projector figured that they ought to secure forty or fifty subscribers but they already have a list of over one hundred and eighty, and they are now look ing forward to passing the two hundred mark.

-Thomas Shaughensey Jr., is home for a few days visit with his parents

-Miss Bess Hall visited last week in Altoona being while there, the guest of Miss Grace Hare. -Mr. and Mrs. George Sherry and daughter Marie left yesterday for a week's trip to New York city

-- Miss Adelaide Anderson, of Greensburg, is in Bellefonte, visiting with her cousin Mrs. Charles Lukenbach.

-- Harry Stover, of Altoona, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Stover's mother, Mrs. Katharine Gault, of Curtin street.

-Mrs. John M. Clark, of Rochester N. Y., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Barnhart on Linn street.

-Miss Blanche Underwood went up to Renovo on Saturday and spent Sunday with her brother-Irvin Underwood and family.

-Mrs. Horace Musser is in St. Louis, having gone out on account of the illness of her mother, who died this week at her home in that place, -Hudson Crissman, of DuBois. spent a short time in Bellefonte Monday, with his brother, W. Homer Crissman. Mr. Crissman was on the way to visit with his son at Renovo -The Misses Snook, who several years ago moved from Bellefonte to Philadephia, will sail or Europe in May, expecting to spend the summer traveling on the continent -Mrs. Paul M. Reish, of Mifflinburg, with her on Hayes came to the Bush house, Friday of ast week, and were guests of Mrs. Reish's brother, Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, until returning Wednes day to Mifflinburg -Mrs. H. D. Meek was in Bellefonte Tuesday completing the preparations which she, along with all the Methodists at State College are making, for the entertainment of the guests who will attend the dedicatory services in their new church

-Claude Aikens, a son of Rev. C. T. Aikens, of Selinsgrove, will after taking his degree at Yale in June, join a party of Yale men who will spend the summer studying in Europe. Claude Aikens who will not return to America until November. will devote the greater part of his time to France

-Rev. J. R. Woodcock, of Birmingham, who is spending this week at Atlantic City as a delegate to a ministerial convention in session there, left Centre Furnace Tuesday, hoping to be benefitted in health by a short stay at the shore. During Bellefonte since Saturday of last week visiting his absence Mrs. Woodcock and the children with her mother, Mrs. Sara Brown, at Mrs. James have been at Centre Furnace, expecting to remain with Mrs. Thompson for a visit. -The oldest daughter of Mrs. Linn S. Bottorf, who came from Ashville, N. C., with her mother, winter in Snow Shoe with her brother, has gone last week, has entered the public schools of Bellefonte, expecting to spend the spring and early ummer with her aunt, Mrs. John Olewine. Mrs. Bottorf and the younger children will be for an indefinite time at Lemont with her mother and

-After visiting in Bellefonte for five weeks, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lonsberry, parents of Louis Lonsberry, left Thursday morning for their home at Corning, N. Y. Having expected to spend the spring in Bellefonte, Mr, and Mrs. Lonsberry re. turned unexpectedly to Corning in order that they might make arrangement for closing their large house and moving into apartments before April.

-Mrs. William Becker, of Philadelphia, who has been traveling and visiting through the west since last June, has been sepnding a short time in Bellefonte, the guest of Mrs. John Rumberger. On returning east in December Mrs. Becker stopped in Unionville with her mother, Mrs-Samuel Brugger, and has continued her visit there that she might be at the celebration of Mrs. Brugger's birthday on February 29th.

Sale Register.

TUESDAY, MARCH 51H.—On the Samuel Garner farm near State College Fred Garner will sell two (2) dapple gray teams, mated, weighing 3,000 and 2,800 pounds; one 3-year-old colt; span of mules, 2,400 pounds; 7 milk cows, some fresh by time of sale; bull, 4 head young cattle; brood sow, 5 shoats and full line of farm implements. Sale begins at 11 a. m. L. F. Mayes, auctioneer.

Sale begins at 11 a. m. L. F. Mayes, auctioneer.

MAR 14, 1912.—One mile south east of Filmore'
Wm. E. Rumberger will sell the following personal property—Consisting of brood mares, young horses; some mated teams and colts, some very nice young cows, fresh at time of sale, and near time of sale. Some young bulls and young cattle'and calves, hogs, consisting of 9 brood sows and shoats and pigs. A line of implements also will be offered consisting of plows, harrows, binder, mowers, corn planter, harness, etc. Come early—Sale 9 o'clock
Free lunch. L. Frank Mayes, auctioneer.

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce. Potatoes per bushel, new Tallow, per pound Butter per pound. Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER.

The following are the quotations up to six o' Thursday evening, when our paper goes to	clock press.
Red Wheat	$1.00
White Wheat Rye, per bushel	95
Com, shelled, per pushel	75 70
Corn, ears, per bushel	70 55 65
Philadelphia Markets.
The following are the closing prices of Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening	the
Wheat-Red $ 9714	@.99
-No. 2	@98½
	5@66 4@65
Oats 576	9571/2
	@4.10 @6.00
Rye Flour per barrel 5 000	@5 25
Mixed No. 1 21.00@	25.50
Straw 12 506

Pennsylvania. A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year. Paid after expiration of year. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-ess paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be inscontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-ept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES ed amount of advertising space will be e following rates:

LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising running for our weeks or less,

ESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS Per inch, each insertion......25 cts.

our weeks, and under three aree mos. and under six m x mos. and under 12 mos...