Bellefonte, Pa., March 29, 1912.

To Correspondents.-No communications published unless accompanied by the real name

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Next Monday will be the first of April, "All-foot's day" and moving cay. on Tuesday.

Run on Wednesday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Upton H. Reamer where they will make their future home. -There were plenty of "hats in the ring" in Bellefonte this week-several of pneumonia and big doctor bills.

-Thomas A. Shoemaker intends havments put down at his home on Allegheny street, and has awarded the contract for the same to Edward Haupt.

amounted to a little over $4,100. One urday afternoon aggregated $2,300.

-- The Madame Sherry company will come to Bellefonte next Tuesday thirty people strong. It is the leading company on the road and will be one of the best entertainments at the opera house this ---Sunday was a veritable March day, with rain and snow, high wind, moderate , temperature during the day and cold at night. But that was not the only day, as March weather has prevailed most of the time since.

-Highway surveyors are now at work in Huntingdon county surveying the route for the state highway between Warand State College.

-The Undine Fire company will hold a progressive euchre and five hundred social on Tuesday evening, April 9th, at their hall on Bishop street, at which the public is cordially invited. Admission will be 25 cts. and prizes and refreshments furnished.

-Now that spring is here and the weather is warming up talk of the trolley between Bellefonte and State College is being revived. In fact the proposition is being investigated by several parties so that all hope of the building of the trollev is not yet dead.

-The titles to the land for the new penitentiary site have practically all been cleared up, the deeds are now in course of preparation and it won't be long now until the various properties will be conveyed to the title of the Commonwealth and the present owners get their money.

-- The concert given by the Susquehanna University glee club in the opera house on Tuesday evening was much enjoyed by one of the largest audiences that has been at Garman's this winter. The young men showed the result of a careful and thorough training and it was a delight to hear them in the different numbers.

township, will ship on Saturday, to Perry county, a pair of full-bred registered Jerseys. Mr. Musser has been raising thorough-breds for some time, and has found ready sale at good prices for them. He has another young heifer old enough Jersey can find it there.

At a meeting of the board of governors of the Nittany Country club, last Saturday, it was decided to dispense with the house committee for the present and leave the entire management of the club in the hands of the new steward, Hugh M. Bell. The house committee was com gosed of Hard P. Harris, chairman: Col. W. Fred Reynolds and J. Norman Sherer.

---- Madame Sherry is replete with funeful melodies and catchy songs. Nothing old and time worn, but the newest, up-to-date music, sung by a chorus of sprightly, fascinating girls. One night only at Garman's Tuesday evening, April 2nd. It will be the last opportunity to sympathy with the class of men who are see such a good play this season. Get your seats early and be sure 'of a good method of obtaining fish of any kind and

-Antrim & Landsy, of Philadelphia, the late John I. Potter, of this place, for the Bellefonte club. It is a life-sized portrait and a very good likeness. The picture arrived in Bellefonte this week and will probably be an exhibition a day or two before being hung in the club, of which he was president a number of years.

Novey, an attractive young lady of Phil-

M. E. CONTERENCE NEWS.-In his re-Pennsylvania M. E. conference, at Williamsport last Friday, district superintendent B. C. Conner, had the following dists:

Bellefonte congregation spent $2,000 on repairing the church after it was damaged by fire, and enlarged, refitted and -Another little baby girl arrived in Ridge expended $253; Halfmoon $84; will give their annual performance in the and Jean Ann Stewart McCoy and was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mallory Scotia $89; Grays $30; Stormstown $83; opera house in the evening. In addition born in the old stone house at McCoy's guest at the Bush house while spending an indefi -Quite a number of Bellefonters at- expense paid: Pennsvalley $125; Philips- have in contemplation the holding of his death was 68 years, 1 month and 23 tended the Frank Clemson sale up Buffalo burg $600; Pleasant Gap $166; Snow their annual banquet in Bellefonte the days old. He was educated in the pub-

Under the head of "new churches" he flitted to Williamsport on Wednesday, gave quite a lengthy account of the erection and dedication of the new St. Paul's church at State College and after telling that the entire debt was cancelled with the exception of $2,000 stated that a the large stores had their millinery openmovement was at once set on foot to have twenty individuals pledge themselves for one hundred dollars each to clear up ing concrete porches, steps and pave- the above debt and already fifteen such further he stated that as soon as this debt was cancelled a movement should ----Yesterday was quite spring-like, be started to create an endowment fund but don't be deceived into laying aside of at least $20,000 the interest of which young man who has figured in a number wise supervision, being one of the very nine weeks, returned to Bellefonte Wednesday. your flannels. Jumping into spring would be used to supplement what the of conspicuous incidents, was arrested in clothes too soon is one of the causes of people locally can pay for pastor's sup- Lock Haven last week for soliciting mon-The Harry Harter sale last Friday In his judgment, there is no more strategic the authorities got next to the fact that of the Bellefonte Electric company which point in the conference than State Col- Mongdon had at one time been a deserter was organized in 1882, and being the black mare sold for $270. The Mrs. lege, and when pastoral assignment for from the United States army and the principal stock-holder was elected presi-John W. Stuart sale at State College Sat- that place is under consideration, the War Department at Washington was dent, a position he held until his death. considered.

> Bellefonte church reported 63, Halfmoon railroad accident he had been given a unassuming, even retiring in his disposi-48, Karthaus 20, Philipsburg 29, Port dishonorable discharge. A letter from tion, Mr. McCoy was a man slow to form Matilda 70, Salona 193, and Snow Shoe the War Department confirmed the young acquaintanceships, but a friend once 34. The various contributions for the man's statement and he was discharged made was a friend forever. He was a year 1911 exceeded those of the former by the Lock Haven police. year by a very appreciable per cent.

At Monday's session of conference Al-

ALTOONA DISTRICT.

Clearfield—Trinity, Henry R. Bender; Eleventh Street, Richard S. Oyler; West Side, Bert A. Salter; Circuit (supply.)
Coalport and Irvona—George L. Comp. Curwensville—Edwin H. Witman. Flemington—Franklin E. Hartman. Glen Campbell—Stewart H. Engler. Glen Hope—Benjamin F. Hilbish. Half Moon—Marion J. Runyan. Hastings—William C. Wallace. Houtzdale—Jacob H. Diebel. Howard—James E. Dunning. Karthaus—William B. Cook Jr. Lumber City—Elmer E. Ilgenfritz. Mahaffev—Abraham L. Frank. Milesburg and Unionville—Henry K. Ash. Milesburg and Linonville—Henry K. Ash. Milesburg and H. Colburn. New Millport—Omer B. Poulson. Oscola Mills—Hetman H. Crotsley. Patton—David D. Kauffman. Penns Valley—J. Max Lantz. Philipsburg—George M. Glenn. Pleasant Gap—David J. Frum (supply.) Port Matilda—William F. Gilbert. Ramey—Thomas A. Elliott. Salona and Lamar—Willis A. Graham. Shawville—John F. Cobb (supply.) Snow Shoe—R. Frank Ruch. State College—James McK. Reilev. Wallaceton—George M. Frownfelter. Woodland and Bradford—William H. Hartman, Superannuary—Elbert V. Brown. Superannuary—Elbert V. Brown.

so small as to stoop to this unlawful

-Mr. George H. Musser, of Boggs PAID FINE FOR DYNAMITING .- Friday afternoon of last week John Jackson, of Lemont, who at a hearing before justice to ship, and any one wishing a pure-bred of the peace W. H. Musser, on Tuesday, was fined one hundred dollars and costs for dynamiting fish in Spring creek, through his attorney, Col. H. S. Taylor, settled the case by paying the amount of the fine and costs, or $118.00 in all. Jackson did not appear in person, the authority to settle the same and the money for the payment of the fine and costs having been brought to Bellefonte by another gentleman from Lemont. The WATCHMAN does not presume to sit in judgment upon either the guilt or innocence of Mr. Jackson, but the fact that he paid his fine and costs in settlement of the case is somewhat incriminating. There are many rumors of various trout streams in the county being dynamited and we have no we commend the work of any fish warden who possesses the nerve to go after have just completed a sepia portrait of culprits and bring them to just punish-SACRED CONCERT.-On Thursday even----On Saturday of last week Miss Ida two numbers from another cantata called to his farm near Milesburg. John Shutt, Charles; also her parents and the following, April 4th, in St. John's Episcopal church, beginning at 8 o'clock, a choir of thirty voices will render the beautiful and devotional sacred cantata, entitled "Olivet "The Darkest Hour," by Harold Moore, ipsburg, brought suit for breach of prom- The soloists will be Mr. Alex. P. Gray the Haupt flat on Thomas street. Harry ise against Simon Ziff, a green grocer and 3rd, of West Chester, Pa., a member of Harper, machinist at the Keichline ga- lerman, of Snow Shoe Intersection; Mrs. vegetable dealer, asking five thousand the Senior class at State College; Mr. and rage, will move next week from Centre dollars damages. Mr. Ziff gave bail on Mrs. Russel Blair and Mrs. Philip Wad- Hall, to the Gerberich double house on Saturday in the sum of $1,500 for his ap- dle. The offertory solo "My Redeemer Curtin street, Mr. Mowery operator of Ohio. The funeral was held from the pearance in court for trial, when the and My God," by Dudley Buck, will be the lantern at the Lyric, will move his Catholic church at ten o'clock yesterday be asked.

TO QUARANTINE FOR MEASLES .- H. C. port at the annual session of the Central Quigley, secretary of the local Board of morning Mr. Frank McCoy, one of the Health, late yesterday afternoon received best known and most widely esteemed positive instructions from the State Poard on west Linn street. He had been a to say of interest to Centre county Metho. of Health to quarantine every case of sufferer with heart trouble for the past measles in Bellefonte. So be prepared year or two and last fall he had a col-In the matter of improvements the for the quarantine officer when he comes lapse which was the beginning of a gen- at Milton. around with his card this morning.

-Saturday, April 13th, will be pri- that he was confined to bed most of the repainted the parsonage at a cost of $600, mary day, and it will also be the date on winter. most of which is paid. Centre and Sandy which The Thespians of State College Deceased was a son of John M. and Prince at Crafton. Milesburg installed new heating plant, all the members of the Sigma Chi fraternity works on February 1st, 1844, hence at

-Madame Sherry will be here next Tuesday evening but the Scenic is here hour of interesting entertainment and pictures are always new, no old-timers, and many of the happenings of the day are brought right up to date. The hall is always as comfortable as your own sitpledges have been received. Speaking ting room and manager T. Clayton Brown always maintains the best of order.

port and for increased current expenses. ey on the street. Following his arrest that he had deserted at one time but after church and for a number of years past Under the head of "Conversions" the losing a portion of one of his hands in a was an elder in the same. Quiet and

WORK RESUMED ON HIGH STREET daily associations with his fellowmen, toona was selected as the place of meet. BRIDGE .- On Friday of last week a crew and an esteem once won he never lost. ing next year, though Harrisburg was a of men from the York Bridge company While practically all his life was devoted close second choice. At Tuesday's ses- arrived in Bellefonte and went to work on to operating the McCoy-Linn iron works sion Rev. C. V. Hartzell, who holds a po- the completion of the new High street he was not unmindful of the other busilitical appointment at Harrisburg, was bridge over Spring creek. The entire su- ness interests of Bellefonte and frequentput on the supernumary list. He fought perstructure of the bridge was put in last ly contributed his wise counsel, time and his case hard, but the movement went fall and the concluding work to complete money to any worthy project. He was riorsmark and Bellefonte by way of the through and he is now out of active min- the structure will be putting on the con- the kind of a man who will be missed Spruce Creek club, Pennsylvania Furnace istry. The appointments for the Altoona crete, the two-inch cushion of sand and personally and by the community. District Superintendent, Simpson B. Evans, Altime R. B. Taylor has the contract for son, a daughter of William Allison, of

was a most creditable affair. It was certion. The judges were Rev. George E. Hawes, D. D., George R. Meek and James C. Furst Esq. They awarded the prizes in equal proportions to three of the nine contestants, namely: Arthur Roderick, of Hazelton; Gustave Chartner, of Pittsburgh, and George Arbenz, of Wheeling, W. Va. Interesting music was interspersed between the speeches. The contestants and their subjects were as follows:

"The World's Stories," Louis Schad, Bellefonte.

"Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua," Gustave Chartner, Pittsburgh, "The New South." Herman Wadlinger, Potts-"Lasca," William Bemus, Jamestown, N. Y.

"The Hundred Point Man," George Arbenz Wheeling, W. Va. "Rienzi's Address to the Romans." John Wilhelm, Pottsville.

"The Fatal Success." Arthur Roderick, Hazel-"The Execution of Major Andre," Alvin Luden, Wilkes-Barre. "The New South and the Race Problem." Schuman Hart, Harrisburg.

MOVINGS.-In addition to the changes made in Bellefonte, mentioned in other issues, we will add those of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burkholder, who will move from the apartments in the Shoemaker house on Spring street, to the Barnhart property on north Thomas street, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Osman, who have been living there, having gone to Sunbury. Charles Noll and his family left one of the Jacob Marks houses on Bishop street and has taken the Monroe Armor house on east Linn street, vacated by A. V. Miller. Miles Walker with his family leaving the Mrs. Edward Powers home on Spring street, will move into the Adam Moyer house on east Linn street, some time ago occupied by Mrs. J. M. Dale. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith leaving an apartment in Crider's Exchange, will go to the Satterfield house on Bishop street, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brackbill moving from a smaller apartment in the Exchange into the larger one occupied by the Smiths. John C. Rowe leaving the Joseph house on Curtin street, is packing and shipping his goods to Philadelphia, where having the past five weeks. She was a secured a lucrative position, he and his family will make their home in the fu- and was 28 years and 6 months ture. Christ Beezer moved this week to Calvary," by J. W. Maunder. Also, from the Joseph house on Logan street four children, Catharine, Mary, John and Thursday went from Howard street to case will likely be aired from beginning sung by Mr. Gray. A silver offering will family from Potter township to occupy morning, burial being made in the Caththe other half of the house.

McCoy.-At three o'clock on Sunday residents of Bellefonte, died at his home eral dissolution. Later he was stricken with paralysis and his condition was such lic schools and at the Farmer's High School, (now The Pennsylvania State their daughter and her husband Mr. and Mrs. sonage of the United Evangelical church College,) from which institution he grad- Ira McClintick for the week-end. uated in 1862, in the same class with the his father, Dr. McCoy, was associated pleasurable amusement by attending with James H. Linn and others in conregularly every evening in the week. The ducting the McCoy & Linn iron works and preferring the iron business to all ciated with the firm and in a short time and James, on their farms near Howard. was given the position of manager. On the death of his father he succeeded to the principal ownership and the same -Brinton Mongdon, the Bellefonte has been conducted ever since under his her sister and aunt in Philadelphia for the past few charcoal plants yet remaining in Pennsylvania.

> Mr. McCoy was one of the projectors man of the strictest integrity, upright in all business dealings as well as in his the brick paving. The work ought to be On October 30th, 1879, he was united completed within a month. In the mean- in marriage to Miss Esther Eleanor Alli-District Superintendent, Simpson B. Balands toona.

Allegheny—James Doherty.

Altoona—East. Otto C. Miller: Broad Avenue and Llyswen, Gordon A. Williams: Chestnut avenue. George W. Faus; Eighth Avenue. Wilfred P. Shriner: Fairview, John C. Young: Fifth Avenue on John H. Mortimer: First church. Horce L. Jacobs: Italiam mission. Joseph Paciarelli: Junitar, Ctarles W. Wasson: Simpson: Vaughn T. Rus; Waln t Avenue. William Moses.

Balkerton—William C. Robbins.
Balkerton—William C. Robbins.
Baleflonte—Ezra H. Yocum.
Bellefonte—Ezra H. Yocum.
Blandburg—Walter H. Miller (supply.)
Centre and Sandy Ridge—Harry F. Babcock.
Charre Tree—Jesse V. Krall (supply.)
Centre and Sandy Ridge—Harry F. Babcock.
Charre Tree—Jesse V. Krall (supply.)
Centre and Sandy Ridge—Harry F. Babcock.
Charre Tree—Jesse V. Krall (supply.)
Charre Tree—Jesse V. Krall (supply.)
Centre and Sandy Ridge—Harry F. Babcock.
Charles Tree—Jesse V. Krall (supply.)
Centre and Sandy Ridge—Harry F. Babcock.
Charre Tree—Jesse V. Krall (supply.)
Centre and Sandy Ridge—Harry F. Babcock.
Charles Tree—Jesse V. Krall (supply.)
Centre and Sandy Ridge—Harry F. Babcock.
Charles Detween the two bridges and as far up High street as the Children, Miss Anna Allison McCoy and Children, Miss An bridges and as far up High street as the children, Miss Anna Allison McCoy and Lose, who was admitted to the hospital in that tainly the best ever held in that institu- Gatesburg, after a year's illness with tu- which will take place there on Saturday of this berculosis. Deceased was a daughter of the late John W. and Sarah A. Rider and was born near Gatesburg on July 14th, 1852. She grew to womanhood on the Rider homestead farm and on September 7th, 1871, was united in marriage to Joseph Meyers. The family have resided at Gatesburg ever since. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: Edward, of Jeanette: Wilson, of Wilkinsburg; Mrs. Maude Ellenberger, of Marengo; Clara, John, Ray and Earl, at home. She also leaves one brother and two sisters, Samuel G. Rider, of Manor Hill; Mrs. Rebecca Barr, of Gatesburg, and Mrs. Sarah Devore, of Warriorsmark. Deceased was a faithful member of the Ross Methodist church the past forty-five years and Rev. Brouse. of Warriorsmark, had charge of the funeral which was held from her late home being made in the Gatesburg cemetery.

DEITZ.-About four o'clock on Sunday afternoon, March 17th, William Deitz, a well known resident of Tacksonville, died suddenly of heart disease. He had been ailing for about a month but for a week was feeling considerably improved and was busy making arrangements to go to farming on the first of April on the farm of his sister, Mrs. Yocum, near Hublersburg. On Sunday he had a collapse and it, by rest and an out of door life. died in a short time. He was a consistent member of the Reformed church of Jacksonville, of which he had been an elder for a number of years. Surviving him Rev. E. F. Faust, of Howard, officiated at some time before returning to her hor the funeral services which were held in the Reformed church at Jacksonville, at two o'clock the following Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in the Reformed cemetery. MARTIN.-Mrs. Susan May Martin, wife of James Martin, died at the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday night, after undergoing treatment in that institution daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Estright old. Surviving her are her husband and ing brothers and sisters: David, Henry, Mrs. Anna Somers and Mrs. Harry Kel-Charles Meyers and John, of Tyrone; William, of Coalport, and Isaac, of Akron olic cemetery.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL

-Miss Pearl Mewshaw spent last Friday visit-

-Mrs. S. H. Bennison, of Howard. Thursday shopping in Bellefonte.

-Emanuel Noll, baggage agent for the P. R. R. at this place, was the week-end guest of friends

-Miss Lida Morris returned to Bellefonte Saturday, after a three days shopping trip to

-Franklin Ballou, of Philadelphia, will be nite time in Bellefonte. -- Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boozer came from their home at Centre Hall Thursday, devoting the day to visiting and shopping.

-Miss Sarah Potter, while visiting in Philadel- The young couple expect to make their every evening. You can always get an late John I. Potter. When he graduated phia since Wednesday of last week, has been the home at Hecla Park. guest of her cousin, Mrs. Hensey.

-Mrs. Clevan Dinges, who went to Williamsport Tuesday, will spend a week visiting with friends before returning to Bellefonte.

-Mrs. Katherine Gault- of Curtin street. has other propositions deceased became asso- been visiting for two weeks with her sons Henry Shay, both of Milesburg, were married -Mr. and Mrs. Reamer, who have been residents of Bellefonte for seventeen years left Wednesday for their new home in Williamsport. -Miss Mary S. Thomas, who has been with -Dr. Thomas C. VanTries is in Bellefonte after having spent three weeks at Atiantic City, and through the eastern part of Pennsylvania.

-Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside came to the Bush house this week, expecting to live there, until her house on Allegheny street is ready for occupancy. -Mr. and Mrs. William Rishel, of Pitcairn were called to Bellefonte the latter part of last question of salary should not have to be communicated with. Mongdon admitted He was a member of the Presbyterian week on account of the death of Cloyd Kreamer. -Budd Walker, an old Academy student, re turned to his home in Butler this week after spending ten days among his old friends in this erty at State College and will move there -Miss Ella Lucas, of New York City, who is a for students. It is her intention to enter guest of Miss Hill at Mrs. William P. Wilson's her eldest son as a student in Girard colwill visit in Bellefonte until the afterpart of next -Luther E. Hughes, who with his family have lately moved to Philadelphia, visited for a few days last week with his father, Rev. James P. Hughes.

Monday, for a short visit with her aunt, Mrs. D -Miss Laura Runkle, of Centre Hall, spent the greater part of last week in Bellefonte, a guest of both Miss Helen Schaeffer and Miss Louise -Mr. and Mrs. Wagner Geiss and their three children, were in Centre Hall Thursday. to aid in at dinner Saturday for Miss Brisbin.

George L. Goodhart. -Miss Harriet Foster went down to Lock Hapaving the street between the two Potters Mills. She survives with two ven on Saturday to be with her aunt, Mrs. Isaac city for an operation.

-Hassel Montgomery, who has been in New York and Philadelphia for the past ten days, returned to Bellefonte yesterday with his mother, Mrs. Frank Montgomery.

-After spending the greater part of the winter in Philadelphia, Mrs. Frank Montgomery returned to Bellefonte yesterday, to open her home on

-Miss Helen White and her aunt, Miss Powell, went to Williamsport on Wednesday, to make day evening, March 16th, at her home at | final arrangements for Miss White's wedding, > week. -After being in New York the past three months undergoing medical treatment Mrs. W A. Lyon returned home yesterday much improved > day with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Keichline, having stopped on his return from a short visit with his brother, Dr. John Keichline, at Petersburg.

> -Daniel Martin a brother-in-law of Mrs. James Martin from Steubenville, Ohio., and Miss Anna Bowes of Buffalo, New York, came to Belle fonte the forepart of the week, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Martin.

> -Rev. William Vantries and Mrs. VanTries, of Altoona, were in Bellefonte Thursday of last week, to spend a day with Mr. VanTries' aunt-Mrs. Louisa Harris, who had been ill for a week at her home on Allegheny street. -Joseph Shaughensey, a member of the State constabulary, spent part of the past week visiting his parents in this place. He is now stationed at Wyoming in Luzerne county, and will be there on Tuesday morning, March 19th, buriaj until the first of April when he is likely to be moved to some other point. -Miss Joe White will go to Williamsport to-day to attend the wedding of her sister Miss Helen White, which will take place to-morrow. No invitations have been issued for the wedding which will be a very quiet affair at the apart nents of Miss White's sister Miss Marie White.

-Mr. and Mrs. George Sellers, who are a Stoyestown, Somerset county, with relatives, are east to spend an indefinite time in Pennsylvania. Having come from their home at East Helena, Mont., on account of Mr. Sellers health. Much of the time will be spent seeking to benefit

-Mrs. Sarah Brown and Miss Ida Keeley went to Unionville on Monday to spend several days with the former's brother, Howard Holzworth and family. Yesterday Miss Keeley, who has has been in Bellefonte the past month visiting are his wife, one son and two daughters. Mrs. James Harris, went to New Jersey to spend

> -Harry Buckingham, of York, left Bellefont Tuesday after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Schaeffer, for Williamsport, to be present at the close of the Conference. Mr. Buckingham who is deeply interested in Methodism, has been chosen as a delegate to the National Conference, which will hold its session in Minneapolis during

> -Mrs. Charles A. Magnuson, of St. Paul, who came to Milesburg a month ago, to be with her mother, Mrs. Jemima Parsons, during her illness was joined last week by her husband, and will return to Minnesota with him after spending some time visiting in the east. Mrs. Parsons was discharged from the Bellefonte hospital a short time ago being taken immediately to her home in > -The people from a distance, who were in Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of Frank McCoy were Alexander McCoy and Edward Allison of Potters Mills; William Allison, and his four children, Miss Mable Allison and Frank Allison of Spring Mills and Charles and William Allison Jr. of New York city; Mrs. John F. Alexander and Miss Emma McCoy of Budd Thompson, of Martha Furnace

-Miss Louise Brachbill is in Lock Haven, where she is visiting with Miss Nell Shoemaker. -Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Richards returned to Bellefonte Monday after spending ten days in Philadelphia.

HOY-VONADA.-Wednesday afternoon, March 20th, at the Reformed parsonage, Bellefonte, the Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt united Mr. Edward Hoy and Miss Mary Vonada in holy wedlock. Both the bride and groom are well known residents of -Mrs. Donald Potter is again in Bellefonte, Nittany valley, Mr. Hoy being the son of after a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoy Jr., of Hublersburg. Mr. and Mrs. Hoy will make their home with Mrs. Hoy's parents.

HALL-WEAVER .- On Thursday evening of last week John F. Hall, of Howard, and Miss Clara M. Weaver, of Hublers--Mr. and Mrs. James Kellerman entertained burg, were united in marriage at the parat Clintondale by Rev. R. S. Daubert.

> LUCAS-SHAY-At the Reformed parsonage Wednesday afternoon, March 20th Mr. Orrin D. Lucas and Miss Della Mae by the Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt.

> -Lewis McQuistion, who has been ill with typhoid fever for six weeks, and a part of that time critically ill, is slowly convalescing. The condition of Col. E. R. Chambers, who has been seriously ill during the past week, is slightly improved-Mrs. Harriet Thomas Kurtz, suffering from a severe attack of the grip since last Sunday, is rapidly growing better.

----Mrs. C. Dale Musser, who with her three children has been in Bellefonte most of the time since the death of her husband, has rented the McCalmont propon Monday and keep a boarding house lege, Philadelphia.

-The April meeting of the Woman's club of Bellefonte will be held in their rooms in Petrikin hall, Saturday after--Mrs. John Sides, who has been for a number noon at half after three o'clock. At this of years living at Yardley, Pa,, came to Bellefonte | meeting a paper on "The Civic Sunday" will be read by Dr. Edith Schad.

> -Mrs. Wagner Geiss entertained Friday of last week in honor of her house guest, Miss Roxanna Brisbin, of Centre Hall. Miss Adaline Olewine entertained

> ---John C. Rumberger has accepted a position as traveling salesman for G. R. Danenhower & Son, of Camden, N. J., wholesale grocers and importers.

> -James Cornelly was entered for treatment at the Bellefonte hospital Wednesday.

> WILLIAMSPORT COMMERCIAL COLLEGE. -Business, Shorthand and Typewriting school that prepares young School people for business positions. Spring term begins April 8th. Start then and be ready for position this fall. A young man completed a course in eighty-five days and is receiving $800 a year. Write for catalogue.—F. F. HEALEY, Proprie-

> Satin comes in plain and striped colors; black and white, gray and black and blue and white are among the best choices

	Bellefonte Prod	uce Markets.
		R. S. Brouse, Groce hose paid for produ per bushel, new	r
Eggs, per			2.
Lard, per	pound
Country	Sides	•••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••••
	Hams
	er pound

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,

The following are the quotations up to six o'clock

Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press Rye, per bushel..... Corn, shelled, per bus Corn, ears, per bushel..... Oats, old and new, per bus Barley, per bushel..... The following are the closing prices of the Corn The Best Advertising Medium in Central Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance...... Paid before expiration of year..... Paid after expiration of year..... Papers will not be sent out of Centre county less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions discontinued until all arrearages are settled, the critical of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be sold at the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising running for BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS. Per inch, each insertion......25 cts. The following discounts will be allowed on ad-ertisements continued for Four weeks, and under three mos...10 per ct.

Three mos. and under six mos......15 per ct.
Six mos. and under 12 mos............25 per ct. Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agen

Centre Hall: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell and Miss Maude Mitchell of Lemont; Hamilton B. Humes and Shem Spiglemyer, of Jersey Shore, and Budd Thompson, of Martha Furnace.

Advertisets, and especially informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless accompanied by the cash.