through to the other side. I had seen the boys do it in play. "It was very dark, and the current is swift. Sometimes I struck upon the rocks, but I came into the blessed air again..."

EXPLAINING WHY ONE LIVES

There Are Times When Logic and Devotion Require That You Should Be Dead.

The Dominic had another observation or two to make in the line of his usual thoughtfulness. "Did it ever occur to you," he asked, "that one of the hardest tasks a man may have to perform, sometimes, is to explain why he is alive?"

FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN

DAILY THOUGHT.

The common problem, yours, mine, every one's, is not to fancy what were fair in life. Provided it could be, but finding first what may be, then, find how to make it fair...

Quite the newest conceit in decorative table linens and sets of doilies is an embroidered design in the pattern and coloring of the china with which it is to be used...

FARM NOTES.

Hogs on pasture will grow some, but they will not make the most profitable gains on green foliage alone. Young growing pigs should be given all the rich slops from mill feeds that they will consume...

Man Power and Coal Power.

Does any one realize the power of coal as a worker? A man was set to work to pump as hard as he could all day, and at the end of ten hours it was found that he had done just as much work as a little less than two ounces of coal could do.

Captain's Specific Orders.

Capt. John L. Lewis, an official of the Arundel Sand and Gravel company of Baltimore, has toured the world. Captain Lewis in recalling some of his trips said that he met a friend one time, and they talked of the dangers of icebergs.

The English as Klaw Sees Them.

Mr. Marc Klaw, the American theatrical manager, who was quoted as saying that the English "are just about as emotional as a Limburger cheese," writes that what he really said was: "The English are a warm-hearted people, but are usually shown in demonstrative as fromage de Brie (a large flat cheese)."

Pretzels.

Five cups of dark brown sugar dissolved in a cup and a half of water, one cup of lard and one-half cup of butter melted together, two eggs beaten light, one-half cup of aniseed, one teaspoonful of soda, one tablespoonful of melted chocolate, enough bolted rye flour to make a dough as for cookies. Roll into the form of a snake, cut and bake.

The Best Woman.

Miss Susan B. Anthony, the social reformer, had no more bitter opponent than Horace Greeley, the famous editor and journalist. It was for a long time his custom to wind up all debates with the conclusive remark: "The best women I know do not want to vote."

All Fond of Walking.

Quite the whole Supreme court can be seen walking in Washington. Chief Justice Fuller was too old to walk, and he rode, but Chief Justice White dearly loves to walk, and is usually seen in company with some of his Associate Justices, Holmes, McKenna, Lamar, and now Pitney, who promises to use the streets of Washington as often as his distinguished predecessor, Justice Harlan. And since he requires some coaching from the Chief Justice, it is natural to see him in Justice White's company. Justice Hughes is also often seen walking on the streets of Washington.

Indian Pudding.

Five cups of scalded milk, one-third cup of Indian meal, one-half cup of molasses, one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of ginger. Pour milk slowly on meal, cook in double boiler 20 minutes, add molasses, salt and ginger; pour into buttered pudding dish and bake two hours in slow oven; serve with cream. If baked too rapidly it will not wney. Ginger may be omitted.

Brown and White Sandwiches.

Brown and white sandwiches—Boston brown bread, white bread, creamed butter, chopped olives, celery salt, red peppers. Season the butter with a bit of celery salt, finely chopped red peppers and olives; work to a paste. Cut the brown and white bread into thin, even slices and trim off the crusts until the pieces of bread are of the same size; then spread on the butter. Place the slices alternately, first a white and then a brown slice, until you have five layers. Press these down firmly but evenly, and with a sharp knife cut down slices about half an inch thick.
