Bellefonte, Pa., August 9, 1912.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications hed unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Are you getting ready to attend the fair. It is only three weeks off.

-Remember that the Great Centre

-A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Meyer, of Spring street, last Saturday night.

-The proposed amendments to the constitution of Pennsylvania are published in this issue of the WATCHMAN. -"The Siege of Petersburg," a two reel feature film, will be the attraction at the Scenic this (Friday) evening. -Under the direction of the State

--- The McGovern family, who have there into one of the flats in Crider's Ex-

-The Woman's Club will hold an informal meeting at the Nittany Country club on the last Friday of August. Club members and their house guests will be change.

-The cattle exhibition sheds on the fair ground have been moved up to a point just below the lower gate which will make them much easier of access to both exhibitor and visitor.

---The Basket Shop will hold a special the side entrance of Mrs. E. M. Blanchard's residence, west Linn street.

-A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kottcamp live in Brooklyn, but have June.

---Herman Holz has been confined to bed the past week, taking the rest cure for indisposition caused by the depressive weather and too close attention to his business. His condition, however, is not considered at all serious.

-About fifty people participated in the sociability run of the Tyrone motor club to Penn Cave on Tuesday afternoon. They went down by way of Bellefonte and returned via Boalsburg and Pine Grove Mills. The entire party had supper at the Penn Cave hotel.

--- Miss Mary Snyder who packed and stored the furniture and furnishings of her house a month ago, in order to give her house to Mr. Fallon and his family for occupancy, has reserved one room in the house for her own use and will board with Mrs. Tanner, on High street.

-You can always tell by the noise he makes in managing his car, how little the automobile driver knows of the machine he is running. Many of the Bellefonte operators can out-do a threshing machine in this line, and should be arrested for "disturbing the peace" of the community that tolerates them.

--- The Allison motor party, consisting of William Allison, of Spring Mills, with his children, Mabel and Frank and William Allison Jr., of New York city, and Edward Allison, of Potters Mills, returned from a trip to Mercersburg, where Mr. Allison will enter his son Frank at the Mercersburg Academy in September.

-If it is a big program of moving Lyric. Never less than three full reels streets.

-Fifteen of State College's best shots were in Lock Haven this week taking part in the eighth annual tournament of the Lock Haven gun club and Slagle, one of the bunch, won the merchandise event and got a $25 suit of including his handicap. Fifteen men were tied for this prize and it required three shoot-offs before Slagle won out, so that his achievement was something to be proud of

--- The card party given by Miss Lil-Ohio. The dinner list of Mrs. H. Laird Curtin, whose family dinner was given at Curtin Monday, included Mr. and Mrs. George Potter and their son Harris, of Baltimore. The same evening Miss Eleanor Parker entertained with a Scenic party, concluding the entertainment at the Parker home on Thomas street. Miss Parker's honor guests were the Misses Nell and Mabel Pletcher, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Nannie Rhinesmith, of Clear- the duties of his new position on Monfield. Miss Mary Kline, of Curtin street, day, August 19th. gave an evening party Tuesday. At Mrs. Wells L. Daggett's bridge luncheon, given Wednesday for Miss Carpenter, of Elmira, tables were arranged for twenty- cil and Gamble, Gheen & Co. get that five guests.

JACOB JACKSON ARRESTED FOR STEALING bail for stealing chickens.

Some time last Thursday the two men hired a team from liveryman Evey at State College and drove to Bellefonte. They had supper and spent the evening at the Haag house leaving along toward midnight. About 3.20 o'clock Friday morning they returned to Bellefonte -Mrs. Rebecca Welsh, was taken to with a bunch of chickens and drove to their horse watered and fed. They then went to the Haag house for breakfast. County Fair will be held the first week in An hour or so later they got their rig creek home.

down among the Pennsvalley herds this tion and it did not take long to unearth contributions will be cheerfully received their best, the day when the premiums the fact that butcher Gettig, or rather either in the box or by mail. * * the man who works for him, had that been occupying the Strickland home on morning bought some chickens from Bishop street, will shortly move from Jackson and Murray and that they had been shipped to a commission house in Altoona. Word was immediately telephoned to Altoona that the chickens had been stolen and they were returned on

Early Saturday morning a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of both Jackson and Murray and the latter gave bail for a hearing while the former was brought to Bellefonte and put in jail. They were given a hearing before 'Squire Henry Brown on Monday and at that time Mr. Murray's testimony was in accord with the above story with the exception that sale of greatly reduced baskets, Friday he stated that when they left Bellefonte and Saturday, August 9th and 10th, at they drove up past Roopsburg and that at every barn they would stop, Jackson would disappear for a few minutes and when he returned would have his hands Mrs. John Kottcamp Tuesday. Mr. and full of chickens. He did not know the names of any of the farmers until they been at State College with Mrs. Kott- reached Marshalls. When Jackson came FONTE.—The State Railroad Commission camp's father, Dr. W. S. Glenn, since away from the Marshall barn, he said, he composed of Nathan Ewing, chairman, of > about it." that he had served time before for larce-

Brown fixed the amount of bail for Jackson at $700, and being unable to secure the same he was committed to jail. Murray's bail was fixed at $500 and he gave bond for his appearance at court.

On Wednesday Jackson was taken inby Judge Orvis to not less than nine months nor more than three years in the western penitentiary, and he was taken to that institution yesterday by sheriff Gettig is out his six dollars and policeman Harry Dukeman has the chickens.

pictures you desire, you can get it at the both Mr. Ream and the boy out. The The building operations are under the suand some evenings as high as five and rolled along the ground a short distance Condensary company. The company besix reels are shown, a two hours show by the rear wheels of the machine. The gan buying milk on Monday and when for five cents. Can you beat that for an driver threw on his brakes and was able the plant is completed and in operation evening's entertainment for five cents? to stop the car before it ran over the boy, they will employ about forty men. Feature films are also shown at the but at that he was badly bruised. The Lyric. Corner of Allegheny and Bishop car was from Ridgway and bore the number X268.

One day last week John Hatton and family, of Wilkes-Barre, came to Bellefonte in a Ford touring car to visit Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rees. On Saturday morning Mr. Hatton and Fred Rees got in the car to take a spin. The former underclothes by scoring one hundred straight, took to turn around in the road in front of the Rees home and backed through the boardwalk and down over a twelve foot stone wall and collided against the cellar wall of Samuel Tressler's house. Neither of the occupants had time to jump and as the machine was all the time right side up they were not thrown out lian Rankin Saturday evening, was in and were not hurt in any way. The honor of her guest, Mrs. Kahl, of Lima, only damage to the machine was a slightly bent fender.

> -At a meeting of the board of directors of the First National bank of Bellefonte on Monday Lewis Schad, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schad, was selected from a list of twenty or more applicants to the clerical position in the bank made vacant by the resignation of Charles Lukenbach. He will enter upon

-Bellefonte borough may become court involved before the borough coundam question settled.

-The eating house on the fair CHICKENS.-Jacob Jackson, of Lemont, grounds has been converted into an ex- book and premium list for the thirteenth was in the Centre county jail, and John hibition building for hoticultural prod-Murray, aged seventy-six years, of the ucts. The change is a good one as it adds Agricultural Exhibiting company, which same town, is under five hundred dollars a much needed permanent building to a will be held in Bellefonte September 3rd growing department of the show.

-"Martin Chuzzlewit" arrived in Bellefonte on the 8.30 train on Monday evening but it was too late to be thrown upon the screen in moving pictures at the Scenic, and that is the reason the usual program was given. Manager Brown has continually experienced diffithe Danville asylum on Thursday of last Thompson's livery stable, where they had culty in getting his feature films through on time, and this time when it came too late he sent it back.

> butcher shop where Mr. Murray sold the Boys and girls of the poorer sections of if it merits it. Therefore if you have any-Marshall, a farmer living on the cross by the officers of the army. Prizes will promises to be.

> > ----Samuel Spicer, of Tyrone, was in the Centre county jail because he refused to settle a livery bill with Frank P. Bartley. On Sunday he hired a rig from Bartley to attend a funeral at Runville. When he returned he told Mr. Bartley that he might go home on the 4.44 train but if supper for his wife to take a drive. He Frank Clemson's residence, near Gray's for a few days. didn't go home and after supper telephon- church, on to-morrow, Saturday, aftered for the rig. It was sent around by a advance, but while he and Spicer were expected. Those who want to enjoy a parleying over the matter the women jumped in the rig and drove off. When bors should be sure to go. the rig was finally returned Spicer refused to pay, declaring that he had hired it for the day. He was arrested and in default of bail was bound over for court, but on Wednesday his father came to town and settled the bill and Samuel was

RAILROAD COMMISSION VISITS BELLEwas running and quite excited and as Uniontown; Milton J. Brecht, Lancaster; soon as he could do so jumped into the former Governor Samuel W. Pennypackbuggy and drove rapidly away. It was er: John P. Dahony, marshall, of Harafter they had started that the two shots risburg, and A. R. Miller, secretary, were fired. When asked why he went of Harrisburg, visited Bellefonte last Friinto Gettig's to sell the chickens Mr. day evening to hear the complaint of the Murray said that Jackson told him to go Empire Lime company against the Cenbecause if he went himself "they might tral Railroad of Pennsylvania for alleged Tuesday, is expected in Bellefonte about the think there was something underhand discrimination in freight rates. The complaint is based on the fact that the rail-Jackson was heard in his own defense road company has been charging them tted that what Mr. Murray higher rates for hauling cars from their said must be true, but said that he did'nt quarries east of Bellefonte than they remember anything about it, as he was charge for shifting from the Morris quarlikely drunk at the time. He admitted ries along the state road. Considerable testimony was heard after which the ny but maintained that he was innocent. Commission took the question under con-At the conclusion of the hearing 'Squire sideration but so far have rendered no

WORK BEGUN ON SPRING MILLS MILK CONDENSARY.-On Tuesday of last week the Spring Mills Condensary company began operations on the erection of their to court, plead guilty and was sentenced plant at Spring Mills. They recently purchased from C. P. Long the lot on which the planing mill now stands, which is 350 by 150 feet in size. They also purchased the building formerly used by Arthur B. Lee. In the meantime butcher the Wilson brothers as a skimming station. This room is equipped with all the necessary machinery and fixtures, and adjoining it has been erected a boiler Two Auto Accidents.-On Saturday and engine room which has been equip morning H. P. Ream, accompanied by ped with a thirty horse power engine. Bond White, a young son of Ellsworth The main building will be 164x96 feet in White, of Axe Mann, was driving out the size with an annex 60x40 feet. It will be pike beyond Axe Mann when a large pushed to completion as rapidly as possitouring car came along at a high rate of ble and when finished will be equipped speed, collided with the wagon and threw with all the latest improved machinery. latter was hurled under the auto and was pervision of L. F. Miller, of the Mill Hall

> TELEPHONE IMPROVEMENTS.-In order to have its plant in the very best condition when the new common battery central office is opened, the Bell Telephone expects to start to work at once on new construction and rearrangements on a great deal of its outside wire. It is expected that the new office will be opened about December 1st. According to her daughter, Mrs. Wray, who is the guest W. S. Mallalieu, local manager, the company is anxious to have everything in such shape that Bellefonte will have a telephone service second to no other city ble. Altogether over 12,200 feet of cable will be placed and in addition there will be about 265 feet of underground cable. coat, provides a much better and more certain service as there is no danger of of the high cost of all the necessaries of life. trouble from storms and wind. In addition there will be a great deal of re-wirit is said, to over $11,000. The company will, it is promised, follow up its other work in this vicinity with the entire rebuilding of toll lines between Lewistown and Bellefonte, a distance of about thirty miles.

THE CENTRE COUNTY FAIR.-The fair annual exhibition of the Centre County to 6th, is now being distributed among street. the farmers and others of Centre county. Two weeks ago the WATCHMAN told you about the increase in the amount of the purses this year, and if you will now study the premium list closely you will see where there have been a number of increases in premiums, as well as premiums offered for articles not heretofore at Wildwood, N. J. listed. Everything raised or grown on the farm; all kinds of fancy and needle work; every product of the thrifty housewife's -The Salvation Army intend holding kitchen, in the line of baking, cooking, and drove down street to L. H. Gettig's an outing in the Grove near Bellefonte. preserving, etc., is entitled to a premium, chickens-seventeen in all-for $6.00 town can get a ticket by applying to thing excellent or superior, bring it in the and later in the day drove up Spring Capt. Bowie. There will be plenty of ice first day of the fair and place it on exhicream and lemonade for all and any not bition. It will mean money in your pock-Along about noon on Friday Lewis C. able to bring their dinner will be supplied et, and help make the fair the success it road from Houserville to Buffalo Run, be awarded to the Sunday school schol. It might here be stated that the way came to Bellefonte and made complaint ars of the Army for their attendance at the program has been arranged for this to the authorities that he had been rob- Sunday school. A free will offering was year every day should be a big day. The McGarvey automatic electric scale, in which he bed of some chickens the night before, taken at the Diamond last Saturday to racing on Wednesday will be as good if and that he had fired two loads of shot help defray expenses. A Salvationist not better than on any other day. So Live Stock Sanitary Board Dr. W. H. after the robbers as they got away in a will be stationed at the corner again next don't wait until Thursday. Come in on Fry is making some tuberculin tests buggy. The police began an investiga- Saturday with a collection box and all Wednesday when all the exhibits are at lakes and streams of that section. will be announced; when the fast 2.12 race will be pulled off, and you will not regret it. There will be lots of doin's the whole week and if you miss one day of the fair you'll miss a good and interesting time.

--- The Sunday schools of Buffalo Run and Halfmoon valleys propose holding a he did not he would like the rig after general picnic in the grove adjoining Mr. noon, at which a very large attendance boy who had instructions to collect in is looked for, and a general good time short time with their friends and neigh-

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Clayton, of Philadelphia, is a guest her sister, Mrs. Kilpatrick, on Curtin street. -Judge and Mrs. Frank Keller, of Charleston W.Va., are guests of their relatives at Boalsburg -Mrs. Jared Harper left Bellefonte Tuesday. expecting to spend some time with relatives a

-Mrs. W. E. Seel, of Paxtang, who is with her mother, Mrs. M. Fauble, came to Bellefonte

-Miss Claire Shields, of Columbus, Ohio, and

Mrs. LeRoy Fox, of Lock Haven, spent yesterday -Misses Rachael Hov. of Lemont, and Eva Kline, of Milesburg, are guests of Miss Hazel

-Mrs. W. F. Reeder, who landed in New York

-Mrs. C. D. Casebeer is in Bellefonte at her home on Curtin street, after spending a month

-Miss Musser, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kline, of Bishop street, return ed to her home at Altoona, Wednesday. -Miss Elizabeth Galbraith left Wednesday Salona, expecting to visit with friends there and at Renovo before returning to Bellefonte. -Mrs. E. F. Tausig and her children, who have been visiting with Mrs. Tausig's mother, Mrs. Fauble, returned to Harrisburg Tuesday, -Mrs. Roy Brandon having gone to New Cas tle Wednesday, will spend three or four weeks at her home there, before returning to Belle-

-Wm P. Kuhn, of Williamsport, with Mrs Kuhn and their family are in Centre county, for a visit with their friends near Bealsburg and at

-Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bartley, of Lock Haven, came to Bellefonte Wednesday and dur ing their short visit will be guests of Mr. Bart lev's parents.

-Miss Katherine Allison will leave for Spring Mills to-day, to spend the greater part of the month of August with the family of her uncle. William Allison.

-Mrs. R. A. Beck and her two children Mary and Robert, returned from Hanover last week, where Mrs. Beck had been spending some -Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Baisor, of Joh burg, are spending Mr. Baisor's vacation of a onth with their friends in the Buffalo Run valley and at State College. -Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rumberger and son Tru man, of Tyrone, and Miss Ada Rumberger, of Philipsburg, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Tibbens. -Iohn Gilmore, of New York city, is the gues of his brother, Charles Gilmore. Mr. Gilmor came to Bellefonte Wednesday expecting to visit with his brother until Saturda -Miss Rebie Noll a daughter of Emanuel Noll, left Bellefonte Wednesday for Michigan, where she will visit at Clark Lake, the summer home of her sister, Mrs. Chauncey F. York. -Mrs. Sarah C. Brown, who has been for som weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Wray, at Driftwood, arrived in Bellefonte on Wednesd for an indefinite visit with Mrs. James Harris. Mrs. Brown was accompanied to Unionville, by Miss Mary Griest. -Mrs. Peter Smith's guests during the pa week include Miss Bertha Strohmeir, of Centre Hall, who came to Bellefonte Saturday remaini until Tuesday. Since Tuesday Mrs. Smith has of its size in the country. Much of the been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. James Lohr, of overhead wiring will be replaced by ca- Philadelphia, with their two children, Nell and Mabel, and Mrs. Lohr's mother, Mrs. Weishthe party will leave Bellefonte to-day.

-Among the Bellefonte visitors on Wedn and a welcome caller at this office was Edward The placing of the wires in cable in which from 25 to 200 or 300 wires are grouped together and sheathed in a lead see very little of him, but that is because he is too busy making a good living for himself and fam ily, which is a rather difficult job in these days

-Miss Mary Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs ing in order to provide for the semi-se- M. A. Landsy, Col. and Mrs. Taylor with their lective ringing which, it is believed, will children, Mary Parrish, Mrs. Harmer, Mrs Gamble and Mrs. Samuel Rine were among greatly please the subscribers. The total those who left Bellefonte Thursday morntng o cost of this new construction will amount the Atlantic City excursion. Mary Parrish and Mrs. Samuel Rine were going to Coatesville where Mary will visit her aunt, Mrs. Gearhart and Mrs. Rine will visit her daughter, Mrs. Jack Norris. Mrs. Harmer was returning to Philadel phia, after spending some time in Be efonte with her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Tate, and Mr. Landsy

-Mrs. Shook, of Williamsport, is in Bellefonte for a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Bower.

-Miss Maude Whittaker, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of Mrs. Walter Fulton, of Lamb street. -Miss Anna Ross, of Lemont, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Straub, on south Spring

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming Ir., of Beaver Falls, are guests at the Fleming home on Willowbank street.

-Iohn Beezer, one of Tyrone's up-to-date butchers, was a Bellefonte visitor the fore part

-Mr. and Mrs. John Leepard and family returned on Tuesday from their summer's outing

-Miss Elder Shearer, of Curwensville, has een a guest this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eberhart, on Lamb street.

-Col. Keister, of Philadelphia; Thomas H. Harter and William Meyers, of Loganton, were Bellefonte visitors on Tuesday evening, -Mrs. Edward Brown Jr. and her daughter,

Miss Catharine, of Parksville, Tenn., are here for a weeks visit among their many friends. -Miss Marion Spangler returned home last Saturday after a lengthy visit with her sister. Mrs. Arthur Brown Jr., and family, in New York

-Guy Linn, of Beaver Falls, has been in Bellefonte this week looking after the interests of the

-Charles F. Mensch went up to Montrose on man and family and fish for bass in the various

-Miss Mary McGarvey is again at her studio, after spending two weeks in Philadelphia, where she had been attending the Photographers Association in convention there for a week.

-Mrs. Rose McKibben Kahl, of Lima, Ohio, a been visiting in Bellefonte, a guest of Miss Lillian

-Mrs. R. A. Kinsloe, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Hastings. Next week Mrs. Hickok will entertain Mrs. Olmstead, Miss Halderman and Mrs. Frank Hall, of Harrisburg,

-Miss Mollie Snyder returned last week from a months visit to Baltimore, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Cooke and daughter, and to Washington, D. C., and other historic points in that locality.

-Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joshenhans and little son Charles, of Pittsburgh, who were visiting in this place for ten days with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCafferty, returned to their home Sunday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheffer with their daughters Mabel and Eleanore drove over to Milroy on Monday to bring home their son Paul, who spent the past two months at the home of his uncle, Lester Sheffer. They returned home on Tuesday. -Miss Celia Haupt, of Philadelphia, arrived n Bellefonte last Saturday from Lock Haven, where she spent two weeks with her sister, Mrs. LeRoy Fox, expecting to be for an indefinite time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry

-Mrs. Frank Driscol and little daughter, of Pittsburgh, spent Monday in Bellefonte with her aunts, the Misses McDermott, on Bishop street, leaving the fore part of the week for Snow Shoe to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Burns, for a month.

-J. R. Smith, of Pine Grove Mills in a letter. renewing his subscription to the WATCHMAN writes, "We all hope that Woodrow Wilson will be elected, and that that will secure us cheaper living, and voters hereabouts are going to do their best to bring this about."

-Mrs. Catharine McClellan, who has been visiting friends in Freeport, Pa., the past two months, returned to Bellefonte last Saturday and will spend the balance of the summer and the winter with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Sheffer, on Curtin street.

-John Andy Hunter, who has been sp the summer in Pennsylvania with his father, Capt. John A. Hunter, near Stormstown, and with other relatives and friends in this section of the country, will leave for Boulder, Col., next week, to resume his work in September.

-The Misses McKnight, of Buffalo Run, have been putting in a good time the past few days entertaining the interesting and bright little daughters of their brother, Robert McKnight of Philadelphia. The children expect to return nome in time for the opening of the fall school

-Mrs. Wm. Schroyer, who has been spending the week in Bellefonte visiting, returns to Pleasant Gap to-day, where she has spent the past ten months taking care of, her sister, Mrs. Walz Mrs. Schroyer will remain there until the settling of her sister's estate, expecting then to leave ediately for her home at Williams

-Mrs. A. W. Harris and daughter Miss Margery, of Lock Haven, who have been in Bellefonte for some time, on account of the illness of Miss Catharine Harris, who is in the Bellefonte hospital, and though not improved enough to be discharged is getting along nicely. Mrs. Harris and daughter left Tuesday noon for

-Miss Sue Herlacher and her cousin, Miss Luella Dorsey, of Brama, Missouri, who is spending the summer in Centre county, spent Monday in Bellefonte. Miss Dorsey came east with Miss Edith Herlacher a month ago, when Miss Her jacher came from Madison, Wis., to spend the omer with her parents up Buffalo Run. She will return to the west about the first of Sep

-Having completed the summer course for teachers at State College Miss Naomi Dixor came to Bellefonte on Monday noon accompanied by Miss Krebs and Miss Cooper. The two latter inspected The Basket Shop before leaving for their home in Johnstown the same evening while Miss Dixon was a guest at the The Best Advertising Medium in Centra ome of her uncle, Charles L. Gates and family, until Tuesday when she was called home on ac unt of the illness of her brother.

-C. H. Hile, better known to his many friends hereabouts as "Harvey," who is away up in the management of the Boston Elevated R. R. Co., in renewing his subscription writes: "I can assure you that I would not do without the WATCHMAN Its weekly appearance is like getting a real glimpse of my home community. I was exceedingly disappointed in not being able to get up to Centre county last June for I had planned months ahead for such a trip. Unfortunately on the day I planned to leave Boston a strike was ugurated on the Boston Elevated Railway Co. and since then we have had a most strenuo

-Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Miller and little son and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hess and little son, of Altoona motored to Penn Cave on Sunday and after a look at the wonders of that underground cavern came over to Bellefonte and spent the night at the Brockerhoff house. Mr. Miller is landlord of the White Hall hotel in the Mountain city and a love of fast horses, having for a number of years pas had one or more entered for the races at the Centre county fair. This year, however, he is minus a horse, but he is coming to the fair just the same. Mr. Hess is a son of Mrs. Michael Hess, of this place, and was born and raised i Ferguson township. He is now a passenger engi neer on the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad and one of the company's most

-Mrs. Andrew Hall, of Dix Run, was the guest of Mrs. S. A. Bell during her visit to Belle

-Mrs. Harris Mann came from Lewistown Satrday, and while in Bellefonte has been the guest of Mrs. William T. Speer.

-Miss Shay, who has been living in Bellefonte with her grandmother, Mrs. Theresa Tate, for some time, returned Saturday from a two weeks visit in Lock Haven -Mrs. Harlan Peabody, who is the guest of her aunt, Miss Powell, at the Brockerhoff house, will visit in Bellefonte for a week before return-

-Mrs. Robert Sechler is again in Bellefonte, after having spent the greater part of the su mer with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Cox, in Franklin, and with friends in Altoona

-George C. Harris, with the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. at Wheeling, W. Va., is spending his vacation in Bellefonte, with his mother, Mrs. John Harris, at her home on Spring street.

-Mrs. Bellringer and her three children, who have been in Bellefonte since June, with the children's grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck, returned to their home in Jamaica Wednesday.

-Miss Nannie Rhinesmith, who has been the guest of Miss Lois Kirk for two weeks, left yesterday for her home at Clearfield. Miss Rhi smith is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel -Mr. and Mrs. Pletcher, of Pittsburgh, with their daughters, Ruth, Lucy and Marion, returned home the fore part of the week, after a visit Monday to spend a week with Prof. John Hoster- of ten days with Mrs. Frank Wallace, at her home on west High street. -Mrs. Hiram Fetterhoff returned to Bellefonte daughter of the late Ira C. Mitchell Esq., at one of Cincinnati, and her two children, Virginia and time a well known attorney of this place, has Pendleton. Mrs. Rogers came to Bellefonte the latter part of last week. Mrs. Ross, of Altoona, is also a guest at the Morris home -Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, of Baltimore, and their son Harris, came to Belletonte the la ter part of last week, being guests during their visit here of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds. They will leave in their Alco car to-day for the return journey.

Tuesday, after visiting in Jersey Shore for two weeks. During Mrs. Fetterhoff's absence, her mother, Mrs. Tate, spent the time with Mrs Rachael Noll, at Pleasant Gap. -Miss Lida Morris is entertaining Mrs. Rogers.

-Mrs. Harry Curtin, of Curtin, went to Erie last week to attend the funeral of her uncle, Erastus B. Lipton, who was buried from his home in that place Thursday. Mrs. Curtin re mained in Erie for a short visit with the family of Mr. Lipton.

-Mrs. Philip Waddle left yesterday afternoor for Lancaster and Millersville, where she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Twitmire and Dr. and Mrs. Pickle. Mrs. Waddle's father, W. T. Twitmire will join her in Lancaster to-morrow and after a visit with his daughter and son, will go with Mrs. Pickle to Asbury Park, for a short

-Mrs. Elvira Cramer, of Richmond, Indiana and Miss Laura Hawes, of Fair Haven, Ohio, sisters of Rev. G. E. Hawes, are guests of Mrs. Hawes, at the manse. Mrs. Hawes is also enter taining a house party for her daughter Helen, the members of which include the Misses Ruth Clifford and Emily Nicholson, Messrs. Howard Fellenbaum, Kirk Crozier and Edwin Hurrel, all of Braddock, Pa.

-Miss E. M. Thomas, who has been spending the greater part of the summer traveling through the west, will arrive in Bellefonte this week, and while here will live with Dr. Edith Schad, on Spring street. Miss Thomas and Mrs. Breese, left the east for the Yosemite valley about six weeks ago, and from there went to the coast, the return trip being made over the Canadian Pacific and included stops at all places of interest in the

-An always welcome and pleasant visitor to the WATCHMAN office is Mrs. Mary N. Dolan, of Pleasant Gap, who never fails to know just how the tab on her paper stands, and never fails to keep it so that this establishment is continuously in her debt. On Saturday last she found time to do a little shopping in town, and to call on some friends but was sure to know that the figures on her paper were advanced for over a year before undertaking anything else. If everybody was as prompt as Mrs. Dolan in attending to their business arrangements, collectors, justices of the peace, lawyers, and those who make a living in keeping the affairs of others straightened up, would have to find a different calling pretty quick, or be content with smaller incomes than ome of them now have.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce
Potatoes per bushel, new$ 1.0	05205
Bellefonte Grain Markets.  Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER.

The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. Rye, per bushel.... Corn, shelled, per bushel... Philadelphia Markets

The following are the closing prices of the Flour —Winter, per barrel —Favorite Brands... Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Paid strictly in education

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-ess paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be liscontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-ept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be old at the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Per inch, each insertion......25 cts. The following discounts will be allowed on ad

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents, are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless recommend by the contract of the contrac