LABOR DAY SERVICES.

Arrangements are being made for a proper observance and of Labor Sunday in the Bellefonte Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday, September 1st.

—A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Engles, of Altoona, in the Bellefonte hospital, on Wednesday, and it has already been named for its father.

—Over five hundred students have already been enrolled for the Freshman class at The Pennsylvania State College and sixty have registered for the two years course in Agriculture.

—At the second annual convention of the Pennsylvania branch of the National League of Postmasters, held at Huntingdon this week, postmaster C. A. Krape, of Spring Mills, was elected vice president and Bellefonte was selected as the place for holding the convention next year.

—While helping to load junk at the Armor Gap quarries yesterday morning a heavy piece of iron fell on Harry Dunlap's hand badly mangling the thumb and several fingers. His leg was also badly bruised from the iron striking it.

—On Thursday of last week Mrs. Mary Page and daughter, Mrs. Wireman Noll, of Linden Hall, with another lady from New Jersey, were driving from Linden Hall to Boalsburg when the hold-back straps came loose allowing the buggy to run against the horse.

HARVEST HOME CELEBRATION.—The Harvest Home celebration will be held at Grange park, on Sunday, September 15th, during the annual encampment of the Patrons of Husbandry.

SPRING MILLS.

C. A. Bogar, of New Berlin, made us a flying visit here last week. The Condensary company here ship from thirty to fifty cans of milk daily.

Rev. McClellan, of Milton, was here a few days last week, a guest of Mrs. Lucinda Runkle. Jacob Lee, our popular railroad agent, after a two weeks vacation resumed his duties last week.

In the absence of Miss Mabel Brown miss Emma Zanes acting as assistant to postmaster C. A. Krape. Jas. U. Leitzell, of Benton, Wis., formerly of this place, has sold one of his desirable properties on the "Hill," a fine residence.

Politics are very quiet in this valley just now. No doubt its calm which precedes the storm. If one does hear anything politically, its Wilson. Very little is said in favor of Taft, and no mention is made of the Bull Moose.

S. M. Long has placed at the portico of his handsome residence concrete steps, and also put down a three foot cement walk to the road which in addition to its convenience, adds greatly to the appearance of the property and neighborhood.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Miss Mary B. Meek is housed up with a bad attack of bronchitis. Miss Blanche Neidigh is spending a week with her sister, at Patton. Mrs. Lizzie Bush, of Mt. Vernon, visited friends at Pine Hall last week.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss was in Bellefonte on Monday on a shopping expedition. Ed Isenberg had his left foot injured Saturday, while riding at the picnic.

A nice little girl has arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harper. J. Herbert Ward and daughter Lizzie came here from Trevorton Sunday.

C. C. Gooding and wife are spending their vacation among friends at York Pa. Prof. George Johnstonbaugh is visiting at the home of W. C. Collins, on Main street.

The Presbyterian church here is undergoing repairs. Simon Ward has the contract. Justice Neidigh, of Patton, is making a two week's visit among his Centre county chums.

Tuesday Miss Nannie Snyder took rooms with her nephew, Charles Snyder, at State College. C. B. McCormick is unloading twelve car loads of fertilizer among the farmers of this section.

Geo. Wakefield, of Pittsburg, and Thos. Foust, of Tyrone, are visiting the Geo. Behrers home. Mrs. Marcellus Sankey and little William were visitors at the aunt Sarah Hess home, Tuesday.

For the fourth time Mrs. Bessie Rentchler has undergone an operation in a New York hospital. Assistant postmaster George Glenn is spending his vacation among friends down Bald Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hoy, of State College, were Sunday visitors at the C. B. McCormick home. Tommy Glenn, one of Joseph Bros. genial clerks, spent Sunday with his parents west of town.

F. B. Krebs took a few days off and visited old friends at Spruce Creek in the early part of the week. Jessie B. Piper and friends were over from Alexander mingling among the throng at the picnic.

Aunt Julia Olewina and daughter are down from Altoona visiting relatives in and about Baileyville. Benner Rumberger, H. M. Krebs and Ernest Hoy were among the excursionists to Gettysburg Sunday.

John Will Wagner, wife and daughter Helen came from Altoona for a few days' outing down Pennsylvania. W. K. Corl is having his barn and outbuildings re-roofed with galvanized roofing. The Wards have the job.

Master Paul and Hugh Goss, of Tyrone, are making their mid-summer visit to grandpa Goss on Main street. Mrs. Jessie Whitehead and two sons, of Harrisburg, are being entertained at the Mrs. Francis Bates Knoche home.

Prof. S. C. Miller, who recently underwent an operation in the U. of P. hospital, came to his parental home last Wednesday. A splendid monument marks the last resting place of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Campbell, in Meek's cemetery. B. F. Mays did the job.

While cutting oats last Friday J. H. Williams' team ran away throwing him off the binder and breaking the machine. He was uninjured. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Brungart, of Zion, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller were welcome visitors at the Jacob Reish home at Rock Springs Friday.

Mrs. Sadie Gardner, who has been ill at her home in the Glades, is much improved and will be taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Gates, in Altoona, to recuperate her shattered health.

Next Saturday, the 24th, the annual Harvest Home picnic will be held by the Penn Hall Lutheran and Reformed Sunday schools, in the Johnson grove. A ball game is billed for the afternoon and good music and speeches will be in order.

The other day while John Klinger, tenant farmer on the N. E. Hess farm near Shingletown, was ploughing, the ground caved in and one of his horses dropped off of sight. The cavain was about ten feet deep and it took a rope and tackle to bring the horse to solid terra firma. The animal was uninjured.

Among those from a distance at the big picnic Saturday were Mrs. Sue Fry, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mallory, Adam Bucher, Mrs. W. H. Sasserman, Samuel P. Weaver and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bloom and W. K. Goss and wife. The affair was a success, socially and financially. Over one hundred gallons of ice cream were sold as well as loads of other dainties. $245 were realized.

LEMONT.

Charles Mays returned to Watsonstown on Monday. The schools of College township will open on Monday, September 9th. The plum crop is a fairly large one and the fruit is selling at a good price.

Mrs. Helen Sellers came to town to spend a few days at the home of her father. The song of the katydid reminds us that fall is at the door and we must get ready for it. William Hoy's house looks like a new building since he put on the new weather boarding.

Mr. Twigg, from Sandy Ridge, was in town Monday putting down a new walk for Link Dootor. The two hundred or more people who took advantage of the excursion to Gettysburg on Sun' day, from this place, all report having a grand time.

Prof. David O. Eters came to town Friday evening and attended the directors and teachers meeting, which was turned into a school of instruction, and everyone was profitably entertained. We hope that he will come often.
