Congress. JAMES GLEASON, Houtzdale. Legislature, ROBERT M. FOSTER, State College. General Miles' Estimate of Roosevelt.

No living man has a better understanding of THEODORE ROOSEVELT than General NELSON A. MILES. During the Spanish war General MILES was field Commander-in-Chief of the army. He directed the operations of our forces both in Cuba and Porto Rico. He served as the head of the army during a considerable part of ROOSEVELT'S term in the Presidency and was in close touch and intimate official relations with the President during all that time.

General Miles has given the public his estimate of THEODORE ROOSEVELT in a statement recently issued which will be eagerly read. He says the third term aspirant is "a lover of strife in whose mind virility lies only in the desire to kill something." He declares that ROOSEVELT is "a pretender-claiming honors he never won." He adds that ROOSEVELT is, moreover, reckless, insolent and undemocratic and "did more Republics and is now seeking to undermine the great Republic and establish for himself a dictatorship upon its ruins."

General MILES further characterizes ROOSEVELT as one "whose treatment of many persons in our country and millions of people in the Philippines was most unjust and cruel." He accuses the ex-President of interfering "in domestic as well as foreign affairs who not only disregards the law, but in the absence of law assumed unwonted authority that involved the expenditure of many millions of dollars." Finally he pronounces ROOSEVELT "a demagogue who is creating dissension and disaffection among the laboring classes and yet is the daily companion, supported by and intriguing with men of colossal wealth whose fortunes have been drawn from the people through trusts and monopolies."

Are the people of this country willing to give support to such a man and aid to such ambitions. General MILES has no selfish purposes to subserve in making such charges against one who was once his constitutional chief. He is influenced only by motives of the highest patriotism and his timely words of caution are entitled to the highest respect and consideration.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

KATZ.-It was with deep regret that the people of Bellefonte heard of the death of Mrs. Aaron Katz about 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, although it had been feared for a week that her death was imminent. Three weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Katz went to Atlantic City for a stay of two weeks. Last week Mrs. Katz went to Elkins park, near Philadelphia, to visit her sister, Mr. Katz expecting to join her there on Friday evening and both return home Saturday. On Friday morning, however, she was stricken with apoplexy becoming unconscious in a few minutes. Mr. Katz hurried to her bedside from Atlantic City and her son Joe went down from Lewistown the same day. On Sunday she was taken to the Jewish hospital and everything possible done to save her life but she never regained consciousness and died without even a chance to say good-bye to her loved ones.

Deceased was born in Baltimore and was a little over sixty-two years of age. Her maiden name was Miss Maria Lewison. After her marriage to Mr. Katz the family lived in the south and west until about eighteen years ago when they moved here from Wichita, Kan. In the years that they have lived in Bellefonte Mrs. Katz endeared herself to everybody who learned to know her. She was always kind and affectionate, very solicitous of the welfare of others and irreproachable in every demeanor of her life. As Lyon, Shorb & Co., died at the home of a wife and mother she was very devoted. and her loving ministrations will be sadly rone, on Sunday morning, of general missed by her surviving husband and two debility, aged 86 years, 5 months and 19 sons, Joseph, of Lewistown, and William,
