THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Miss Margaret Thomas having resigned as secretary for Miss Mary Blanchard at the Basket Shop, the position will be filled by Miss Mary Hoy.

—The brick work for the new building at the Pennsylvania Match company plant is now more than half up and the building will be finished before cold weather sets in.

—The Lyric moving picture show continues to please its patrons with a good program of interesting pictures every night. Just the place to spend an hour each evening.

—A National Guard inspector is expected in Bellefonte in the near future to make an inspection of the armory of Company L, with a view of completely remodeling the building.

—Yesterday was Rosh Hoshana, the Hebrew New Year, and in consequence all the stores in Bellefonte owned by members of that faith were closed until six o'clock in the evening.

—In some parts of Centre county it is estimated that the potato yield will average from 150 to 200 bushels per acre. The outlook for cheap potatoes, at least, the coming winter is very good.

—Charles Gilmour, a nephew of Charles Gilmour, of Bellefonte, is quite ill in a Philadelphia hospital as the result of an operation for appendicitis he underwent about two weeks ago.

—The Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania have moved their business office and the Western Union telegraph office from the second floor of the Bush Arcade to the room on the first floor next Daggett's pool room.

—Announcement has been made of the engagement of Lawrence McCure, a former Bellefonte boy, but now of Renovo, and Miss Carrie Miller, of this place, the wedding to take place the latter part of this month.

—On Friday evening Madeline Kniesly, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kniesly, was sliding down the banister when she slipped and fell, breaking her nose and knocking out eight teeth. Her lips were also cut and her face badly bruised.

—On Sunday evening Dr. R. G. H. Hayes was coming in Spring street and as he was turning the corner at the Centre county bank to go down High street one of the rear wheels came off of his car. Fortunately he was not driving fast and was not thrown out.

—The hottest weather of the summer has prevailed the past week without any indication of a let up. In fact some of the old time weather prophets are predicting a late fall and hot weather until late in October. Such weather will prove timely for the corn crop.

—Major Stayer, who will be chief marshal of the military and schools parade during the semi-centennial of the War Governor's conference in Altoona the latter part of this month, has appointed Col. H. S. Taylor one of his aides for that occasion and the colonel has accepted.

—Daniel Graham, a member of the 1912 graduating class of the Harrisburg High school, has been awarded the McAllister scholarship at The Pennsylvania State College, with a grade of ninety-five per cent. The scholarship carries free tuition in whatever course the young man may elect to take.

—Two bands and twelve ponies will be featured of the big parade of the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" show at noon next Thursday. Don't miss seeing it. The admission price for children, under ten years of age, when accompanied by their parents, at the performance in the evening, will be fifteen cents.

—Superintendent W. D. Meyer and his force of workmen have rebuilt the Nittany valley road to a point just this side of Zion. It is slow work owing to the inability to get the crushed stone fast enough, and if they succeed in building the road as far as Hecla this fall it will be about all they will get done.

—While in Bellefonte attending the Centre county fair last Thursday Charles P. Smith, of Blanchard, either lost his pocketbook or had his pocket picked. He did not discover the loss until on the train on his way home in the evening when he reached for his pocketbook to get his railroad ticket and discovered that the pocketbook, ticket and all were missing. Fortunately he had only a small sum of money with him, so that the loss was not very great.

—The condition of J. C. Harper Esq., is extremely critical. He has been unconscious for hours and the attending physician gives no hope of a rally. Herman Holz, who has been ailing the past month, has been feeling some better the past few days. George T. Bush is still kept close to the house with a few minor complications following an operation, and Miss Elizabeth Morris has now so far recovered from an operation for appendicitis that she is able to sit up in a wheelchair. Sidney Keefer, who has been in poor health for some time, left yesterday for White Haven for treatment in the sanitorium there.

OLD SOLDIERS REUNION A BIG SUCCESS.

—The semi-centennial anniversary of the organization of the gallant old 148th regiment was most fittingly celebrated last Friday when a large number of survivors held their annual reunion in Bellefonte. The comrades began to gather as early as Wednesday and had a good time attending the fair on Thursday.

The business meeting of the association was held in Gregg Post rooms at 10.30 o'clock on Friday morning. Gen. James A. Beaver, the old colonel of the regiment, not being able to be present on account of ill health, comrade Robert A. Cassidy, chief musician of the regiment, was chosen to preside and William Gemmill was elected secretary. As a fitting opening of the meeting the old comrades sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee," after which Rev. Emory M. Stevens, of Williamsport, a son of the chaplain of the regiment, invoked the Divine blessing. The roll call showed a good attendance. A letter of sympathy to Col. Beaver was prepared, read and ordered signed by all present, then sent by special messenger to the colonel. Owing to the fact that some of the old comrades present failed to hear or understand the motion a number failed to sign the letter, but it was purely an oversight.

On motion the presiding officer appointed the following committee to make arrangements for a reunion of the comrades at the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, which will be held at Gettysburg on July 1st, 2nd and 3rd, 1913. D. F. Fortney, Luther D. Kirk, David W. Miller, Shelumiel Swineford and the secretary, William Gemmill. Brief addresses were made by Rev. Emory M. Stevens, Thomas P. Meyer and Robert A. Cassidy after which the meeting adjourned.

During the afternoon a large delegation of the old soldiers visited the grave of the old "War Governor," the late Andrew G. Curtin, and from four until six o'clock the comrades were guests of the Elks, at their home on High street, an excellent luncheon being served to all.

The camp-fire in the court house, from eight to eleven o'clock, was largely attended, not only by members of the regiment but by many citizens of the town. Bellefonte's double male quartette was present and during the evening sang "America," a medley of war songs, "Tenting On the Old Camp Ground" and "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again."

The camp-fire blazed brilliantly all evening and fiery coals of enthusiasm were thrown at the audience by Robert A. Cassidy, Rev. John Hewitt, Col. H. S. Taylor, Dr. George P. Bible, Rev. William Gemmill, Rev. E. H. Yocum, James Gleason Esq., T. P. Meyer, Clement Dale Esq., Hon. W. C. Heinle and Col. D. F. Fortney. Before adjourning the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we extend to Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., our thanks for the use of their Post rooms in which to hold our day meetings.

Resolved, That we also return our thanks to the Order of Elks for their kindness in extending to us a reception and for the royal entertainment they have us while their guests. We thank the commissioners of Centre county for having granted us the use of the court house for our evening meeting. To the quartette of singers for the pleasure they have given and the help they have been to us in making our camp-fire a success by rendering a number of hymns and war-time songs, and to the citizens, who have by their contributions enabled us to celebrate the 50th anniversary of our organization as a regiment.

Following is a full list of the survivors of the regiment present at the reunion:

PEACHES.—We will have a car of fancy Alberta peaches here about the 17th. Leave your orders with your merchants.

LAUDERBACH—BARBER CO.

—The scenic has come to be regarded as a household word in Bellefonte because everybody knows that it stands for the best and latest in the moving pictures that it is possible for manager T. Clayton Brown to obtain. Mr. Brown is the inaugurator of the three reel show, with a change of films every night and his continued large patronage proves that his efforts to give the people a whole lot for their money are appreciated. The Scenic is always right in program and in price.

—The time planned by the auxiliary for holding the rummage sale as a hospital benefit, will be from October 19th to 26th inclusive, afternoons and evenings. The town will be thoroughly canvassed for anything and everything you can spare from your wardrobe, your home or your garden that could be utilized by your less fortunate neighbor. Contributions are solicited from over the entire county either from auxiliaries or individuals and can be sent at your convenience to Mrs. Joseph Ceadar, any time before the sale. The proceeds are for equipping the laundry with all modern laundry machinery.

—J. Howard Lingle is in Bellefonte on the first visit since the closing of his foundry and machine shops here. He is endeavoring to make some arrangements whereby the foundry can be put in blast to run in conjunction with a large machine shop he has about arranged to operate in DuBois. The principal output of the machine shop will be brass water, steam and gas fixtures of the kind that he was experimenting with here. We understand Mr. Lingle has plenty of capital at command for the DuBois undertaking and we sincerely hope that he makes a great success of it. There is no gainsaying the merit of the "no-pack" valves and there is no question of Mr. Lingle's energy.

—Dr. Thomas Tobin, well known in Bellefonte and Centre county and president of Tyrone borough council, is under five hundred dollars bail for trial at court on the alleged charge of accepting a bribe. The charge was made by Frank M. Waring, cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank of Tyrone, and secretary of the taxpayers league. Dr. Tobin characterizes the charge as a "frame-up," and declares Mr. Waring's object as by no means praiseworthy. The accused was given a hearing before alderman Louis Casey, in Altoona, Saturday evening and held for a court trial. Oh Monday he brought a counter suit against Mr. Waring and several others on the charge of attempted bribery.

—The dinner given at the Country club Monday evening by Miss E. M. Thomas was in honor of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Walmsey, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Mary Thomas's guests; at Mrs. Shoemaker's dinner the same evening at the club Mrs. W. F. Reeder was the honor guest. Mrs. Charles Shaffner entertained with cards Tuesday night for Miss Thomas's guests and that evening a dance in the town hall was given by the boys of the young set for the girls who leave for boarding schools. Thursday afternoon Mrs. N. B. Spangler entertained a large party at the Country club; Thursday evening Miss Wilkinson and Miss Powell gave a card party in honor of Mrs. Shaffner and Mrs. Hewitt at which fifty, five hundred and bridge were in play. Invitations have been issued by Miss Humes for tonight when Mrs. Hickok, of Harrisburg, will be the guest of honor.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.—Uncle Tom's Cabin show, renowned as the largest and best; the most thrilling ice scene ever witnessed; pictures of the old South before the war; colored band and wing dancers; two colored quartettes, male and female; the Alabama mandolin students; the Suavec river by moonlight; a pack of Russian blood hounds; the only company presenting perfect pictures of places and people of the Southland in the early fifties, with a metropolitan class of fifty people; ten high class vaudeville acts; see Marks the lawyer and the great cotton picking scene in the fourth act, with twenty colored people from the cotton belt; company carries own band and orchestra. Parade at noon and band concert in the evening. At Garman's Thursday, September 19th. Prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents.

OPENING OF BELLEFONTE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

—All the schools of Bellefonte opening for the ensuing term on Monday morning with the largest enrollment in years, the total number of students being about eight hundred. The new High school building, which when it was built two years ago was claimed by many to be entirely too large for the town, is now filled to the limit, even to the fitting up of the library and directors' room for use for recitation purposes. There are 240 students in the High school alone, making it probably the largest first grade High school in the State in a town of the size of Bellefonte.

Out of a corps of twenty-one teachers sixteen were in attendance at the summer sessions of Harvard, Columbia and State College, and have brought to work this fall a spirit of enthusiasm and progressiveness never before exhibited in our schools.

Among the popular extensions of the work are the manual training and commercial courses in the High school, and the course in sewing in the grades. The manual training work will be under the direct supervision of the Department of Industrial Engineering at State College, thus assuring that it will be organized and conducted under expert guidance. The commercial work will be conducted by Miss Jessie Graham, who has just come from Staten Island, New York, where she was doing special work for the Underwood Typewriter company. The course in sewing for grades V to VIII, inclusive, has been extended and is now practically the same that is given in the schools of Boston. The introduction of this vocational work has been the means of bringing back a number of pupils who had dropped out during the last few years.

Owing to the increased cost of educating pupils, the school board has decided to raise the tuition in the High school from $2.50 to $4.00 per month, and in the grades from $2.00 to $2.20 per month.

BELLEFONTE ACADEMY OPENS VERY AUSPICIOUSLY.—The Bellefonte Academy opened on Wednesday and there is every indication that the ensuing term will be the banner year in the history of that institution. While all the students have not yet arrived it is confidently expected that the final enrollment of young men from a distance will be from seventy-five to eighty, which is a good per cent. of increase over last year when the total was not over sixty-five. This increase required more rooming space and headmaster James R. Hughes has leased a number of rooms in the Warfield house on Curtin street, where a number of the boys will be quartered and will take their meals at the Fraternity house.

As an example of how the reputation of the Academy is extending students have come in this term from twenty new towns, which have never before been represented. The western part of the State has its usual good quota while West Virginia is also represented, as it has been for a number of years past. A large number of the boys are big, husky fellows, and the outlook is very good for all branches of athletic sports. There are several additions and changes in the faculty this year, announcement of which was made in last week's paper, so that the teaching force will be considerably strengthened.

KILLED IN RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—James W. Quick, a native of Centre county, was one of the victims of a serious railroad disaster near Latrobe on Tuesday. Quick, who lived in Altoona, was flagman on a freight train on the Pittsburg division and while on a western trip was on the "pushing" engine. The latter was running light when it was run into by the New York and Chicago passenger train No. 21. Two men were killed and a half dozen injured.

Mr. Quick was born near Milesburg, in Bogg's township, on October 1, 1870. His early life was spent in that vicinity but nine years ago he went to Altoona and entered the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company. He was an industrious and conscientious employee. For a number of years past he had been a member of the Railroad Relief association. Surviving him are his wife in Altoona; one daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Allen, of Corry; his father, John W. Quick, of Bogg's township, and three sisters, namely: Mrs. Mary Walker, of Altoona; Mrs. Gertrude Clary, of Chicago, and Mrs. Minnie Coughton, of Michigan. The remains were taken to Altoona for burial.
