THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Joseph Bros. & Co. last week sold their team of driving horses to H. C. Woodring, the Port Matilda liveryman.

—Tommy Jodon has bought the "Black Barn" farm, near Ax Mann, from Edmund Hayes. The price given was $57.50 per acre.

—A private dance was held in the hall in the public building on Tuesday evening by a number of young men and ladies of Bellefonte.

—Irvin J. Dreese, of Lemont, sold his E-M-F automobile and on Saturday received a 1913 model Buick car, equipped with electric light, etc.

—The many friends of Mrs. John P. Harris favored her with a post card shower on Tuesday on the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

—The interesting occurrence next week will be the election and the interesting occurrence the week following will be the teachers' institute.

—A little son arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Daggett on Sunday and the young gentleman has been christened Wells Lewis Daggett 2nd.

—Mrs. Donald Potter and Mrs. H. Laird Curtin entertained at Mrs. Potter's home on Curtin street Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Margaret Thomas, the bride of the week.

—A missionary tea will be given by Mrs. John A. Woodcock, at her home on Spring street, this afternoon from three until five o'clock. All the members of the home missionary society of the Methodist church are most cordially invited.

—Thursday, November 22nd, will be Pennsylvania day at The Pennsylvania State College. Gov. Tener will preside at the exercises of the day, Attorney General Bell will make the address and Adj. Gen. Stewart will review the regiment of cadets.

—"The Count of Monte Christo" is the subject of the feature picture which will be shown at the Scenic this (Friday) evening. Inasmuch as this remarkable work affords ample opportunity for staging and action the picture ought to be a very interesting one.

—It was just forty-six years on Sunday since Rev. and Mrs. Hewitt registered their marriage vows, and although the anniversary is one they always remember with a great deal of sentiment they made no attempt to have any special celebration in honor thereof.

—George T. Bush, who has been housed up a good part of the past three months as the result of complication arising from an operation for appendicitis, is now out and around and feels more like his old self than he has at any time since he was taken sick.

—When you feel like taking an hour's pleasant relaxation during the evening go to the Lyric and see the moving pictures. It will cost you only five cents and its worth double the money. Three thousand feet of film every evening and always something new.

—The Woman's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold an Exchange on Saturday afternoon, November 2nd, at 2 o'clock, in the store room of Mr. Paul Sheffer, opposite Petrikin hall. There will be on sale bread, rolls, cake, candy, etc. Your patronage is solicited.

—Hon. Lincoln Walters, of Mt. Carmel, has accepted an invitation to deliver the memorial address at the Bellefonte Elks lodge of sorrow which will be held the first Monday in December. These exercises are always open to the public and a full program will be made public later.

—A party of ten young men and women of Bellefonte drove to State College in two automobiles, Tuesday evening, for a candy making and taffy pulling party at the Thomas Weber home. It was quite late when they returned but the fun they had compensated for the loss of sleep.

—A three pronged buck with a bad bullet wound in the hind quarter was found on the Aaron Ulrich farm in Penn township on Monday. Mr. Ulrich captured the animal and put it in his barn then notified forest ranger Selzer, of Coburn, who took it in charge. The deer was the victim of some illegal hunter.

—Rev. Ralph W. Illingsworth, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Bedford, was admitted to practice law at the Bedford county bar last week, having read law during his leisure hours as a minister. Rev. Illingsworth is well known in Centre county but it is not yet known here whether he will give up the ministry for the law or not.

—Speaking about the unseasonable season of this time of year Joe Undercoffer says his strawberry plants are almost as full of blossoms now as they were in the spring of the year, although he does not anticipate a second crop on account of the lateness in the year. He also trimmed his raspberry bushes one day this week and discovered quite a lot of blossoms as well as green berries as large as a pea, though there were no ripe ones.

ACADEMY STUDENTS ARRESTED WITHOUT WARRANT.—Twenty-five students of the Bellefonte Academy were given a hearing before justice of the peace Henry Brown last Saturday morning on the charge of creating a disturbance on the streets but there was no evidence against them to justify the charge and they were promptly discharged without even a reprimand. The particulars of the case are as follows:

On Wednesday of last week a local piano dealer delivered a piano to Mrs. Roy Brandon, at her rooms on the second floor of the Benner building. It being impossible to take the instrument up the stairway it was hoisted to the second story by rope and tackle and taken in the window. While the work was in progress twenty-five Academy students were on the Diamond and in a joking way called over to several young ladies who were there at the time and asked if they needed any assistance. Policeman Bezer happened along and told the boys to keep quiet. The students then left the Diamond and walked down to Bishop street and continued on their way up toward the Academy. They were naturally joking and talking and singing snatches of popular songs. Policeman Bezer, according to the evidence, went through the Brockerhoff alley and up Spring street to Brockerhoff's corner where he again told the boys they were making too much noise. The boys contended they were doing nothing out of the way and the result was more or less of a discussion between the students and the policeman until the latter called out Seidel and Holmes, the only two he knew by name, and told them they were under arrest.

When headmaster James R. Hughes heard of the affair he protested against what he considered an unwarranted action on the part of the police and in order that Seidel and Holmes should not stand the blunt for the actions of the entire crowd, if there were any offense committed, he voluntarily gave the names of the other twenty-three and asked that they also be held. At the hearing there was no evidence to show that the boys did anything out of the way while a number of witnesses testified to the fact that they had done nothing unseemly and had created no disturbance. "Squire Brown, therefore, promptly discharged them all with out any costs of suit, etc.

MORE ABOUT THAT SPLASH BOARD.—If borough solicitor J. Thomas Mitchell tells borough council, at the regular meeting next Monday evening, that they will have the right to remove the splashboard from the dam in Spring creek, if Gamble, Green & Co. persist in their refusal to do so, they will have more of it to remove now than they would have had two weeks ago. Because on Monday Mr. Gamble had that portion of the strip which had been torn off on the east end of the dam replaced and now there is practically no flow of water down the creek during the day time.

The writer makes no pretense to knowing the law, but whether it is law or not, it seems good common sense that no individual or firm has the right to divert the entire flow of water from a stream—which is a public highway—to the disadvantage or menace of other property owners contiguous to the stream; whether the water is used for manufacturing purposes or otherwise. And if the diverting of the water of Spring creek by way of the mill race through the main part of the town, to be returned to the course of the creek only after the closely built up district has been passed, is not to the disadvantage or menace of the people of that territory we would very much like to know what would be. If such a condition is allowed to continue the borough authorities will some of these times be called to task by a higher authority and compelled to do something to better or get rid of the condition of Spring creek, as it exists when there is no flow of water.

The WATCHMAN is not going into the question of the legality of the splash board, only it would appear to us to be prima facie evidence that at the time it was placed there eighteen years ago the owners of the dam did not consider they had the right to put it there, else why did they go to council and ask permission to do so and agree to the proviso of council that the board be removed whenever council requested it. But whatever action is taken, there ought at least be some flow of water down the creek during the day.

HALLOWE'EN HAPPENINGS.—In accordance with the custom every year quite a number of Halloween parties were held in Bellefonte last night. Miss Catharine Willard was the "witch and hostess" at a "ghost and ghouster" party given at her parents' home on Thomas street. Thirty-two young lady guests were present and their costumes very much resembled pillow cases and nightgowns. The refreshments were in keeping with the celebration and appropriate little favors were conferred. Other delightful little parties were given by Mrs. Edward Gehret, Miss Rachael Lambert and Miss Marie Sherry.

Though one day late probably one of the largest Halloween gatherings will be held this evening when Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes will entertain the members of the Westminster League. The League will meet at the chapel, in costume en masse, and at 7:30 o'clock will march to the Hayes home along the state road. The hostess has prepared a very entertaining program for the evening.

—Notwithstanding the fact that the apple crop in Centre county is considered a short one the fruit is being shipped to eastern markets by the car load. And the apples are as fine in quality as any grown in years.

—David F. Kapp, cashier of the First National bank of State College, underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Blair Memorial hospital at Huntingdon last Friday evening. He stood the operation fairly well but on account of his weakened physical condition it is impossible to say at this time whether the operation will result in a permanent recovery.

—The three men arrested in Jersey Shore last week on the charge of being the highwaymen who the Sunday previous held up and robbed W. A. Schreffler, of this place, while on a visit to Lock Haven, were identified by the latter and have been held for trial at court. The men are Lee Williams, Charles Cupp and George Walker, and their reputation is said to be none of the best.

—If today is rather quiet in Bellefonte, with few people on the streets, just remember that it is the opening of the hunting season for squirrel, rabbits, quail, pheasants and wild turkeys, and that about every American citizen who owns a gun and could get away is out in the woods after game. To get an idea of how plentiful game is this fall take a squirt at the game bags of the various hunters when they come home this evening.

—John Toner Harris, of Harrisburg, was twenty-six years old—or thereabouts—on Tuesday, and his business as traffic manager of the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania having called him to Altoona his friends there decided to celebrate the event. District superintendent Elwood Mater was master of ceremonies and an impromptu banquet was held at the Colonial hotel at which Mr. Harris was given the chair of honor. A dozen or more guests were in attendance.

—The Panther hunting club held a meeting at the Elks club last Thursday evening and decided to make their annual trip to the Alleghenies this year for a two weeks deer hunt. They will go out about November 13th and pitch their camp on practically the same spot on which they camped the past two years. The personnel of the club has not been fully made up, but there will be the usual crowd of ten or a dozen. They will also go prepared to hunt small game as well as deer and bear.

—Bellefonte motorists who travel to or through Tyrone should heed the warning of the Altoona Motor club that the Tyrone authorities have set a trap to catch unwary motorists who run over twelve miles an hour through the town. Altoona motorists have reason to know whereof they speak, as a number of them have been arrested recently for exceeding the speed limit in Tyrone and made to come across with the long green for a pretty stiff fine and costs. So when you drive into Tyrone drive slowly.

—The big feature pictures at the Scenic every Friday evening and the Pathe weekly on Tuesday evenings are attractions that widely advertise this popular place of amusement. There is no motion picture show in any town in the State that is conducted in a more up-to-date manner, and gives its patrons a better service for the five cent price of admission than the Scenic. It is always a leader, never an imitator. Nothing is ever shown that will offend the most exacting, so that parents never have any hesitation in allowing their children to attend.

—The Western Union telegraph company and the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania have made arrangements to completely cover the election returns next Tuesday night. That is the telephone company will be open until late at night to receive and handle the county returns, while the Western Union will receive the complete returns from all over the country. These returns will not only be furnished to the general public in Bellefonte, but to State College, Centre Hall, Spring Mills and Millheim. The Bellefonte club and the Elks have arranged for special wires right into their houses for the purpose of receiving the returns while both the Democrats and Republicans will receive the complete returns at their headquarters, so that every facility will be open to the public for getting the news.

—The rummage sale held by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital, in the Brockerhoff house on Spring street, came to an end last Saturday evening after being open since noon of the Saturday previous. The total receipts were a little over $960. The proceeds are to be devoted to equipping the proposed new laundry with electrical laundry machinery and as the ladies object was to raise a fund of $1,000 they will gladly receive cash or other donations from any one generous enough to contribute. Everybody connected with the holding of the sale not only contributed liberally of various articles but gave their time and a lot of hard work to the cause, and they surely deserve the encouragement of the public in general. A new laundry for the hospital is as necessary a part of the institution as a ward, and next to having the laundry is its proper equipment. Therefore the reason why those interested should help the ladies in completing their one thousand dollar fund.

DAVIS—ETTERS.—Over one hundred and fifty invited guests were present at the wedding of Howard DeHaven Davis, of Wilkes-Barre, and Miss Jessie D. Etters, of State College, which took place in the Presbyterian church at the latter place at six o'clock on Wednesday evening. The ring service was used and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. T. Scott, of Somerville, N. J., assisted by the bride's pastor, Rev. Samuel Martin. The bride wore a gown of white crepe charleuse with trimming of hand made Battenburg lace, with a veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Mrs. Fred Robinson, as matron of honor, and her sister, Miss Katharine Etters, as maid of honor, and was given in marriage by her father, David B. Etters officiated as best man to the bridegroom while the ushers were Henry G. Fasset, J. Jonald Pharo, R. Machamer, Alex Williams and Paul M. Etters. The wedding march was played by Miss Marion Long, of West Philadelphia. The church and house decorations were of southern smilax and spruce with bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was tendered the young couple at the home of the bride's parents and later they were driven to Bellefonte in an automobile and left on the night train for a wedding trip through the south. Upon their return they will make their home for the present with the bride's parents. The bride is the eldest daughter of county superintendent of public schools and Mrs. David O. Etters and is an educated and accomplished young woman. The bridegroom is a graduate of State College, class of 1912, and holds a position as an assistant professor in that institution. Among the guests who were present at the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Scott, of Somerville, N. J.; Mrs. W. H. Tuck, of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. John Koch, of Harrisburg; Miss Jeannette Irving, of West Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Etters, of Wilmington, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. James Uzzie, of Snow Shoe, and quite a number of friends from Bellefonte.

GEPHART—THOMAS.—About eighty guests were present at the wedding of Miss Margaret Robertson Thomas, eldest daughter of Supt. and Mrs. F. H. Thomas, and Wallace Hayes Gephart, which took place at the home of the bride's parents on east Linn street, at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white crepe meteor, with a veil, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. There were no bridesmaids but the bridegroom was attended to the altar by J. Norman Sherer, of Harrisburg, while Henry S. Linn and Francis E. Thomas acted as ribbon bearers. The wedding ceremony was performed by Dr. George E. Hawes, of the Presbyterian church, the ring service being used. The house decorations of autumn leaves were beautifully and artistically arranged.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held and at 9:45 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Gephart left on a special train over the Central railroad of Pennsylvania for a wedding trip through the east and south and upon their return will live in Mrs. James B. Lane's house, which they have rented for the winter. The bridegroom is a son of the late J. W. Gephart and since the death of his father has been general superintendent of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, a position he has filled very creditably. His bride is a charming young woman and the WATCHMAN extends congratulations and best wishes.

Among the guests present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. George Kellmer of Hazelton; Mrs. H. C. Bubb and Misses Katharine and Rachael Stearns, of Williamsport; Miss Elsie M. Boyd, of Danville; Miss Mary B. Hudson, of Huntingdon; Mrs. Victor J. Roberts, of Norris-ton; Miss Mary Wolf, of Curwensville; Mr. John S. Elliott, of Newville, and Mr. Paxton Cantner, of Greencastle.

JOHNSON—LEWIS.—Frank Kaylor Johnson and Miss Kathryn Lewis, both of Tyrone, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gill, Altoona, on Tuesday evening, by Rev. H. L. Bowlby. The bridegroom, who was born and raised at Milesburg, this county, is a fireman on the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania railroad and is an industrious young man. The young couple will go to housekeeping in Tyrone.

SHOWERS—TWITMIRE.—Ward M. Showers and Miss Lila E. Twitmore, both of Pleasant Gap, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the United Brethren church in this place, at noon on Thursday of last week, by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey. Their many friends wish for them a long and happy married life.

HOCKENBERRY—SHULTZ.—Robert C. Hockenberry, of Bellefonte, and Miss Annie E. Shultz, of Milesburg, journeyed to Hollidaysburg on Monday and after procuring the necessary marriage license were united in wedlock by justice of the peace M. Calvin Lewis.

—At the annual meeting of the district deputies of the Knights of Columbus of Pennsylvania, held in Philadelphia on Sunday, it was decided to erect and endow a ten thousand dollar Catholic chapel at State College, for the purpose of affording ample church accommodations to the large number of Catholic students in attendance at the College.
