

NEW YORK GOES DEMOCRATIC

Wilson and Marshall Sweep the State.

SULZER ELECTED GOVERNOR

For the First Time in Years a Democratic Presidential Candidate Carried the State Outside of the Big City.

New York, Nov. 7.—Wilson and Marshall have carried New York state by pluralities of 200,000.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in years a Democratic presidential candidate has come down to the Harlem river with a plurality to add to his own plurality in the greater city of New York. Wilson and Marshall have outrun both Roosevelt and Taft in the Republican strongholds beyond the northern barriers of the Democratic city of New York.

But the Democrats this year have seemed to stop at nothing. Congressman William Sulzer has knocked the spots out of both Oscar Straus, his Progressive opponent, and Job E. Hedges, the Republican standard bearer. Mr. Sulzer has a plurality of 140,000. Wilson has carried the greater city by not far from 125,000.

New York, in addition to choosing Democratic candidates in the state and nation, has put the Democrats in power, apparently, in both branches of the state legislature. The state senate will stand 33 Democrats to 18 Republicans and Progressives. The lower branch of the state legislature will be almost two to one Democratic. It will stand 100 Democrats to 50 Republicans.

The Democrats have also elected their associate judges of the court of appeals.

The party of the Bull Moose has run second in New York state and the Republican party third. It has been said that the Republican bosses would at most as soon have seen the Progressive ticket win in the state of New York as to have run second. To run second means that the Bull Moosers will have second place on the ballot at the next election, and it will mean that they will share with the victorious Democrats an equal division of the election machinery of this state.

If there be real cohesion in the Progressive party and if, as their national leader has said, the Progressive party is more than a man and an eternal principle, this second place in the race this year will give them a very considerable advantage in the election machinery of the next election and, so far as the election machinery is concerned, the Progressive party will be the real party in opposition to the dominant Democrats.

DELAWARE IS CLOSE

Wilson Ahead of Ticket and Republicans Elected Governor.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 7.—Returns from 165 out of 177 districts in Delaware give this result:

President, Wilson, 20,413; Taft, 13,835; Roosevelt, 7522. The remaining districts will not materially affect this standing.

The same districts give Charles R. Miller, Republican, for governor, 20,405; Thomas M. Monaghan, Democrat, 19,482. Miller's plurality is 912. The districts to be received will not affect this relative standing.

Josiah O. Wolcott, Democrat, for attorney general, runs largely ahead of his ticket, and is believed to have been elected by a small plurality. The vote on the remainder of the state ticket is close. Franklin Breckson, Democrat, for congress, will have 300 to 500 plurality.

The next legislature is divided as follows: Senate, Republicans, 9; Democrats, 8; House, Democrats, 22; Republicans, 13. Joint ballot, Democrats, 30; Republicans, 22.

Wilson's plurality in the state will be at least 10,000.

The Democratic majority in the legislature insures the election of a Democrat to succeed Senator Harry A. Richardson after March 4, 1913.

OHIO FOR WILSON

The Democratic National and State Tickets Win.

Columbus, O., Nov. 7.—Wilson has carried Ohio by a plurality of 115,000, and Cox, the Democratic candidate for governor, is elected by an even greater plurality.

The Democrats have elected their state ticket complete and have re-elected their eighteen out of twenty-one old congressional districts, and probably added one or two more besides carrying the new district at large.

They have also elected a large majority in both houses of the assembly. One of the most bitter fights was for congressman in the Twelfth district, where from indications C. L. Brumbaugh, Democrat, endorsed by the Progressives, has beaten E. L. Taylor, Jr., who has represented the district for six years.

Virginia Gives Taft 40,000. Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—The Old Dominion polled its usual heavy majority of about 40,000 for the Democratic ticket. The Republican and Progressive vote was light.

"Fatty" Bush, the one-time good Democrat, who flopped to the Bull Moosers, is hearing the news that sends him right back up Salt River with a new crowd.

NEW JERSEY DEMOCRATIC

Sweep the State and Elect Eleven Congressmen.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Practically complete, though unofficial, returns show that New Jersey gave Governor Wilson a plurality of 35,000, elected eleven Democrats out of twelve congressmen, and turned the state legislature from Republican to Democratic by a large majority, insuring the election of former Congressman William Hughes, Democrat, in place of the present senator, Franklin O. Briggs, Republican, whose term expires on March 4, 1912.

Roosevelt defeated Wilson in Essex by 7255 and Taft by 16,749. The figures are viewed as indicative of former United States Senator James Smith, Jr.'s handwork. Smith has hated Wilson ever since Wilson as governor blocked Smith's way to reelection to the upper house at Washington. Smith's followers, on the face of the returns, voted for the Bull Moose instead of the donkey in the hope, since proved forlorn, that they might prevent Wilson from swinging his home state.

Latest returns from the congressional fight indicate that the Democrats carried eleven out of twelve districts, the sole remaining district saved to the Republicans being the First, in which William J. Browning, of Camden, has been re-elected, defeating John T. Wright, Democrat.

In the other ten districts the successful Democratic nominees are as follows: Second district, J. Thompson Baker; Third, Thomas F. Scully; Fourth, Allan B. Walsh; Fifth, William E. Tuttle; Sixth, Lewis B. Martin; Seventh, Robert G. Breunner; Eighth, Eugene F. Kinkaid; Ninth, Walter J. McCoy; Tenth, E. W. Townsend; Eleventh, John J. Eagan; Twelfth, James A. Hamill.

In the fight for control of the state legislature returns are not as yet complete. They show, however, that the assembly will probably stand 52 Democrats to 8 Republicans and the senate 12 Democrats to 9 Republicans.

This gives a Democratic majority on joint ballot of 47, insuring the election of Hughes, the preferential primary favorite, to the United States senate in place of Briggs, the present Republican senator, and the election of a Democrat to succeed Wilson as governor for the unexpired term.

WILSON CARRIES BAY STATE

Democrats Also Re-elected Governor Foss.

Boston, Nov. 7.—As was predicted before the polls opened, Wilson and Marshall carried Massachusetts by a plurality of 18,000, and for the first time in the history of the Bay State its electoral votes will be cast for Democratic candidates for president and vice president.

Foss and Walsh, the Democratic candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, were also successful at the polls, the third successive time that the former has been elected and the first time for a great many years that a Democrat has been chosen for the second highest office in the state.

The Republicans saved half of the congressional delegation of sixteen and maintained their ascendancy in both branches of the legislature, which means a Republican United States senator as a successor to W. Murray Crane.

The presence of Colonel Roosevelt's name on the ticket practically split the Republican vote in two. The candidacy of Charles S. Bird, Progressive nominee for governor, pulled many thousands of votes from Joseph Walker, the Republican nominee. Taft ran second to Wilson in the state, but Colonel Roosevelt was a close third.

MARYLAND WITH WILSON

Party Elects Five Congressmen and May Get Another.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—Governor Wilson has carried Baltimore city by 20,000 plurality, and the entire state by not less than 54,000.

Five Democratic congressmen have been elected, with the sixth in doubt and the chances favoring the Democrat. Lewis, Democrat, Sixth district, was re-elected by an increased majority.

A few scattered returns from the state outside of Baltimore indicate a Wilson plurality there.

Returns from several precincts in Baltimore show majorities for Taft, but the Bull Moose congressman's vote is nearly nothing. In one precinct he did not have a single vote. Roosevelt suffered the same way, while Taft got 71 and Wilson 94. Covington, Democrat, in the First district, was re-elected.

CONGRESS IS DEMOCRATIC

Wilson's Followers Will Control Both Branches.

MANY LEADERS DEFEATED

Ex-Speaker Joseph Cannon Loses His Seat in Lower House, and Norris, Dixon, Bourne and Kenyon, Progressives, Are Retired From Senate.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The new congress will be Democratic in both its branches. The senate will probably stand 52 Democrats and 44 Republicans and the house 292 Democrats, 129 Republicans and 14 Progressives. "Uncle Joe" Cannon has been defeated, and Colonel Roosevelt's son-in-law, Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, slipped by a narrow margin, as did also Sereno E. Payne, of New York, at present chairman of the minority in the house, and John Weeks, of Massachusetts.

The Democratic gain in Massachusetts was not anywhere nearly as great as the enthusiastic Bay State leaders imagined. In Ohio the indications are that the Republicans will have only two or three congressmen, while in the present house they have five. There will be eighteen Republican congressmen from New York as against fourteen in the present house.

In the senate the Progressive leaders were smitten hip and thigh. George W. Norris and Joseph M. Dixon, the national Progressive chairman, are surely defeated, as are probably Jonathan Bourne, of Oregon, and William S. Kenyon, of Ohio. Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, will probably fail on the election.

In the senate the Democratic gains are as follows:

One in Colorado, where Senator Guggenheim retires; one in Iowa, where Senator Kenyon retires; one in Montana, where Senator Dixon goes out; one in Nebraska to take the place of Senator Norris Brown; one in New Jersey to take the place of Senator Briggs, and probably one in Nevada, taking the place of Senator Massey.

In Massachusetts it is expected that on joint ballot for United States senator the legislature will be very close.

Of sixty candidates for the house of representatives so far known to be elected, 32 are Republicans, 27 are Democrats, 3 are Progressives and 1 is a Socialist. This is a gain for the Democrats and there is a possibility that the Progressives may hold the balance of power.

The terms of thirty-one United States senators will expire on March 4, 1913. In addition to most of these four seats now vacant will be filled in the elections.

CONNECTICUT FOR WILSON

Democrats Also Elected Entire State Ticket.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 7.—Connecticut swung back to the Democratic ranks. The vote of the state shows the choice of electors who will cast the seven votes of the state for Woodrow Wilson, that decision being made by a plurality of 10,000.

Baldwin, the Democratic governor of the state, is re-elected by a plurality that threatens to exceed 15,000. The election of five Democratic congressmen is indicated.

The large plurality of Governor Baldwin carried the entire Democratic state ticket with it, something that has not happened in Connecticut in this generation of voters. Governor Baldwin ran well ahead of Governor Wilson.

The Democrats will control the state senate, thus making certain the ability of the governor to secure confirmation of his appointments.

The house is close and the Progressives may have the balance of power. The state does not choose a United States senator, however, this year.

VERMONT STANDS BY TAFT

Apparently Only New England State in Republican Column.

White River Junction, Vt., Nov. 7.—President Taft was the winner in Vermont by a plurality of 924 over Colonel Roosevelt. Mr. Taft received a total of 23,247 votes; Colonel Roosevelt, 22,222, and Governor Wilson, 15,397.

An analysis of the returns shows that Colonel Roosevelt received the largest support in the farming districts, where President Taft's Canadian reciprocity policy was said to be unpopular. The cities and towns contributed heavily to Mr. Taft's vote.

West Virginia For Wilson.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 7.—Republican leaders in the state concede that Wilson has carried the state, but the claim that the Republicans have elected Howard Sutherland as congressman-at-large. Democrats concede the election of Dr. Hatfield as governor of West Virginia over W. E. Thompson, Democrat. Socialists polled a large vote in the coal fields. Liquor men admit that the state has gone dry by a large majority.

Idaho Goes For Taft.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 7.—The returns show that Taft has carried the state by 8000, and that the legislature will be safely Republican on joint ballot, thus assuring the election of two Republican United States senators.

Electric Light.

Appreciation

We have wired a good many houses for Electric Light during the past two months and possibly the most noticeable feature in connection with the installation, is the appreciation by the ladies of the comfort and convenience of the new mode of lighting. After all, the ladies know the needs of the home.

"My! I don't see how we got along without it!" is quite a common expression. Electric light is bright and cheerful.
