

paper will be furnished to subscribers at the Paid strictly in advance - . $1.00 Paid before expiration of year -Paid after expiration of year - 2.00

-If WILSON had got as many four years ago BILL FLINN would be the principal mourner now.

ing for a call from the people.

-One trouble is that it will be hazardous to breathe the air in the neighborhood of Oyster Bay for some time. Too much sulphur is inimical to health.

reminder of the very great "earnestness regret his death. exerted in the campaign just closed.

the occasion, but we can't help thinking that if brother BERRY had retained a little closer "affiliations" with the Democrats of the State, he might have gotten considerably nearer to that coveted salary of the State Treasurer.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

CENTRE COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. -Over three hundred teachers, or about ninety-eight per cent. of the total in Centre county, have been in Bellefonte this week in attendance at the sixty-sixth annual teachers' institute. And it must be of November 4th, 1912, from derangement admitted that they are not only a good of the stomach, Charles Alexander Mclooking crowd of teachers but they at- Laughlin, aged 72 years, 1 month and 21 tended closely on every session of the institute as well as evening lectures and at about one mile from where he resided at

On account of a large amount of other news matter it is impossible to give even as foreman in the mining industry, ala detailed account of the institute proceedings, but these grow in interest every year as the educational scope of the public school broadens in its curriculum. Every instructor present handled his subject with a skill and knowledge that suddenly iil on the 20th ult., he suffered deeply impressed all those who heard him, and the teachers are admittedly the better off for being in attendance. The SCHOOL DIRECTOR'S ASSOCIATION. The School Director's association was in session on Wednesday and yester-a good neighbor and a kind husband and terment made. day in the new High school building. M. father, providing well for his household. S. McDowell, of State College, presided He married Ellen S. Taylor June 4th school directors and looking to the betterment of school conditions were discussed by practical speakers. The officers elected for the ensuing year were as Ethelda Murray and Mrs. Sarah Bessie follows: President, Oscar Miles, Milesburg; vice presidents, H. E. Meyer, of Mrs. Susan A. Fisher, of Clinton, Iowa, Rebersburg, and Thomas I. Mairs, of with their families, and Ralph Maxwell, State College; secretary, Charles F. Cook, at home. Deceased had enlisted in the and treasurer, A. C. Mingle, both of Bellefonte; auditor, W. W. Kerstetter, of Spring township. M. S. McDowell was Regiment Pennsylvania reserve corps. the State convention.

MAY GET OFF WITH LIGHT SENTENCE, artillery, for three years, which time he -The WATCHMAN last week published served in full, being discharged at Fortress an item relative to the arrest of Edward A. Raymond, son of John Raymond, of this place, for desertion from the regular army. Last Thursday's Lock Haven Democrat published the additional facts, which will be good news to the man's Raymond, who deserted from the U. S. army, and was apprehended here by Constable Pettingill and detective Ellis Myers, to the officers in charge of Fort Poring his illness, showing all the attachter, at Buffalo, which was the nearest arter, at Bunalo, which was the nearest army post to Lock Haven. Raymond was taken there on telegraphic orders from the adjutant general's office at Washington, D. C. It is likely that a charge of absence without leave will be preferred against Raymond in place of desertion, as he was attired in his army uniform when averaged and was at his home at when arrested, and was at his home at the time. Furthermore he has served about twelve years in the army, covering three enlistments, which will be a factor in minimizing the penalty to be imposed, was in her seventy-eighth year. She was which will probably consist of extra picket duty for several months. Constable enjoyed a wide circle of friends. Her Pettingill carried home from Buffalo a check for $50, the same being the reward offered by the War Department for the capture of a deserter improvements are completed on the Bald bur Wagner, of Martha; Mrs. N. Weaver Eagle Valley railroad it is estimated by and Mrs. Jennie Isenberg, of Altoona. railroad men that it will be capable of Twenty-four grand-children and five handling more eastern freight tonnage than great grand-children also survive. any road of its mileage in the United States. The estimate is placed at not less than seven million tons annually, of ex-register Earl C. Tuten, died at her which is about thirty-three per cent. advance over the old system. The improve- 3rd, of paralysis. During her life Mrs. ment is designed particularly for the Bruce made several visits to Bellefonte handling of east-bound freight, a large and was well known by a number of peopercentage of which will be the shipment | ple. She is survived by a son, one brothof coal to tide-water markets. This will er and three sisters. Burial was made at mean the entire double tracking of the Mt. Vernon on November 6th. system within the next year or so.

---While walking through the room on Saturday morning Miss Anastasia Walker township, died on Friday of last Armor lost the use of one of her limbs week after a protracted illness with valvand sank to the floor. While the bone is ular trouble of the heart. She was 73 not broken the exact cause has not been years, 4 months and 17 days old. The located, but it is enough to keep the lady funeral was held on Tuesday, burial be-time above stated.

votes in Pennsylvania as BRYAN polled hence was 72 years and 15 days old. was born in Bellefonte on February 20th, 19th, 1819, hence was 93 years, 1 month -The Colonel hasn't announced him- half a century he was among the sub- but two years ago he quit school and spent. In 1844 she married Bernard self as a candidate in 1916 as yet, but he stantial citizens of the town. He was a went to Pittsburgh, securing a position McClain and most of their married life will. Meantime he is impatiently wait- Republican in politics and was rewarded in the electrical engineering department was spent at State College, (then the times living a life in accordance with the family and friends. -But still those 800 stay-at-homes in the bible. His entire life was such that Elizabeth Robb, of this place, and the consistent member of the Catholic church

-We don't like to mar the hilarity of had two daughters, both of whom died Mich., and Adaline and Joseph. at home. She is survived by two sons, Col. James taken in charge by the Old Fort Lodge of cemetery. Masons, No. 537, of which he was a mem-Hall cemetery for burial.

> McLaughlin.-Died, in Boggs township, Centre county, Pa., on the morning

all times deported themselves as ladies the day of his death. In his early life he was employed by the firm of James L. Sommerville & Co. as a tanner and later farm. He was a member of the Patriotic one of the most hospitable in Penns. together for a period of forty-five years, dist church. retiring from active service about three years ago, since which time he resided with his daughter and family at his home at Snow Shoe Intersection. Becoming intensely until the day he died. His funeral took place on the 6th inst., conducted by Revs. Zeigler and Winey, the latter o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. ing, burial to be made in the Sprucetown evening lectures were also of unusual inof whom also acted as chaplain of the David Brouse, of Warriorsmark, after cemetery. I. O. O. F., of which order deceased was which the funeral cortege proceeded to a member since the year 1870. He was the Methodist church at Bald Eagle Stover.—Following a lingering illness an honest, upright man in all his dealings, where final services were held and in- with a complication of diseases John C. 1867, who died December 24th, 1903. Four daughters and one son are his immediate survivors, viz: Mrs. Mary E. McKee, of Swissvale, Pa.; Mrs. Martha Smith, of Snow Shoe Intersection, Pa.;

Monroe November 20th, 1865. The Bellefonte lodge of Odd Fellows to which deceased belonged contributed largely to the last sad rites in the press as a freight conductor. Seven years ago here he resigned his position and accepted a burial to be made in the Aaronsburg handsome floral token, acting as pallbearers, leaders in the music and in the Commitment of the remains, in presence of a large and sympathizing gathering Buffalo, he having delivered Edward A. children and children-in-law did all in ment and respect that could be asked of any. He professed faith in Christ. May he rest in peace.

army during our late Civil war and serv-

20th, 1862, in Battery C, 5th Regt. U. S.

WAGNER.-Mrs. Phoebe Wagner, widow of the late J. D. Wagner, died at the home of her son Wilbur, at Martha, on was stricken with paralysis and the Tuesday, of general infirmities. She was death of her son so preyed upon the was in her seventy-eighth year. She was enjoyed a wide circle of friends. Her she was born in Pennsvalley, being 66 John C. Gingery, of Woodland: Mrs. M. Adams, of Bigler; Mrs. Morris Overly, of Clearfield; Mrs. William Smith, of Spring -When the various changes and Mills; Mrs. William Richards and J. Wil-

> BRUCE.-Mrs. Maria N. Bruce, an aunt home at Milford, N. H., on Novemb

CRAWFORD. -- Mrs. Mary Crawford, of ing made in the Hublersburg cemetery.

REESMAN .- J. A. Reesman, for years a ROBB.—The death of William Fearon McClain.—The death of Mrs. Nora prominent resident of Centre Hall, died Robb in the hospital at Braddock, on McClain, at her home on north Allegheny at the home of his grandson, Clay Rees- Tuesday afternoon, was quite a shock to street at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday man, at Thorofare, N. J., last Friday, of his relatives and friends in this place morning, removes Bellefonte's oldest pulmonary tuberculosis. He had been who did not know of his serious illness. resident and one of the best known and in poor health for months and on Oc- He was taken sick early last week and most highly esteemed women of the tober 24th his grandson came to Centre the disease developed into spinal menin- town. She was in fairly good health up TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION,-Until further notice Hall and took him down to his home in gitis. He was apparently getting along until about three weeks ago when she New Jersey in the hope that the change as well as could be expected until Tues- contracted a cold which resulted in a would prove beneficial but his age was day afternoon when he was seized with general decline that caused her death. against recuperation and he died at the a sneezing spell, rupturing a blood vessel Her maiden name was Miss Nora and dying from hemorrhages.

Deceased was born at Mackeyville, Deceased was a son of Erastus (de- Curtin Brew, and she was born in Kilnish, Clinton county, on October 24th, 1840, ceased) and Mrs. Elizabeth Robb and County Clare, Ireland, on September When twenty years of age he located in 1894, so that he was less than nineteen and 25 days old. She came to this coun-Centre Hall and two years later embark- years of age. His education was receiv- try with her parents in 1831 and located ed in business there for himself and for ed in the public schools of Bellefonte, in Bellefonte where her girlhood was for his fidelity by being appointed post- of the Westinghouse plant at East Pitts- Farmer's High school). Mr. McClain master, serving two terms very success- burgh, making his home in Braddock. died in 1858 and two years later Mrs. fully. From early manhood he was a He was getting along splendidly and his McClain with her children moved to member of the Methodist church, at all untimely death is a severe blow to his Bellefonte and took possession of the doctrines of the church and teachings of Surviving him are his mother, Mrs. her home for fifty-two years. She was a Centre county are likely to be a constant he made many friends and all sincerely following brothers and sisters: Mrs. all her life and was a great reader, not Harry Miller, of Juniata; Mrs. Carrie only of her faith but of the daily press. and infloonce" our re-organized friends In February, 1862, he was united in Graham, of Wilmerding; Arthur, of Brad- She enjoyed a wide circle of acquaintmarriage to Miss Sarah Ziegler, of Mill- dock; Harry, of Pitcairn; Mrs. Harry ances and was tenderly cared for during heim, who survives the deceased. They Murtoff, of Bellefonte; Fred, of Detroit the later years of her life.

> eral services were held at the latter's to the home of his mother on east High in St. John's Catholic church at ten home in Thorofare, N. J., on Sunday even- street, from where the funeral will be o'clock this (Friday) morning by Rev. ing and on Monday the remains were held this (Friday) afternoon at two Father McArdle, after which burial will taken to Centre Hall where they were o'clock, burial to be made in the Union be made in the Catholic cemetery.

ed eighteen months in Company E, 5th lowed and afterwards re-enlisted November job as motorman for the Logan Valley cemetery. railroad company. His wife died ten years ago but surviving him is one son: also three brothers and one sister. Burial Wednesday afternoon.

> MILLER.-Two weeks ago the WATCH-MAN published an account of the death of Richard Miller, of Mill Hall, which occurred at the home of his uncle, John week before the young man's death his he will locate. woman's mind that her death followed on Tuesday of last week. years and 6 months old. Surviving her fearing the hog dise are four children, three brothers and Cyrus Solt, of Bellefonte, was three sisters. Funeral services were held at her late home on Thursday morning after which the remains were taken to Spring Mills for burial.

Koch.-Amos Koch died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Adam Wagner, on November 9th, of diseases incident to his advanced age. He was 87 years, 10 months and 15 days old and had been a resident of Centre county most all his life. The funeral was held on Monday, burial being made in the Meyers ceme-

CLARK.-Moses Clark, of Potter township, died at his home near Old Fort, on Monday, after an illness of many weeks with dropsy. He was past seventy years of age and was the father of Mrs. George Chambers, of this place. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning, burial being made in the Sprucetown cemetery.

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

Brew, a daughter of Thaddeus and Mary house on Allegheny street which has been some years ago. He is also survived by The remains were brought to Belle. A. McClain, of Spangler, and Frank, of his grandson, Clay Reesman. Brief fun- fonte on Wednesday evening and taken Bellefonte. Funeral services will be held Congress Assembly:

KIMPORT.—Following an illness of sevber, and conveyed direct to the Centre MEYERS.-William R. Meyers, who oc- eral weeks as the result of a stroke of cupied the Miller farm in Halfmoon town. paralysis the venerable James Kimport for the various candidates for Congress. J. C. Lee, our popular railroad agent, is putting ship, went out in the field to husk corn died at his home below Boalsburg at Mitchell I. Gardner represented Centre the finishing touches in the new dwelling he reon Monday morning and about eight eight o'clock on Wednesday morning. It o'clock was stricken with neuralgia of was just seventy-nine years ago last April Patton's majority over Gleason was the heart and died almost instantly. He that he was born on the old homestead 3,744. The complete vote by counties is was sixty years of age and was born in on which he spent all his life and where Halfmoon valley. During the early part he died, being a son of John and Elizabeth of his life he engaged in farming but Kimport, early settlers of Harris towndays. He was born in Union township about twenty years ago moved to Ty. ship. He was the oldest of the family rone where he lived until last spring and the last to pass away. His entire when he moved back to Halfmoon val. life was spent in bachelorhood and his ley and went to farming on the Miller home was always open to his friends and Order Sons of America and of the Metho. valley. He was a life-long Democrat and years ago was nominated for county About forty years age he was united in treasurer but unfortunately went down marriage to Miss Catharine Sassaman in defeat. He was a good citizen in every who survives with one brother, Joseph way, one of the kind of men that any Meyers, of Marengo. The remains were community can ill afford to lose, so that taken to Tyrone, to the home of Mr. and his death is cause for universal regret. Mrs. Edwin Igou, on Tuesday, where Funeral services will be held at his late brief funeral services were held at one home at nine o'clock this (Friday) morn-

> Stover, a well known retired farmer of Haines township, died at his home in WERT.-William C. Wert, a native of Aaronsburg on Tuesday afternoon. He Centre county, died at the Altoona hos- was born on the old Stover farm in pital Monday morning, of tetanus, caused Haines township and was 77 years, 3 by injuries received one week previous in months and 25 days old. He was a mema head-on collision on the Logan Valley ber of the Reformed church and a subtrolley road, on which he was a motor- stantial citizen in every way. His wife, man. In the accident his right ankle was who prior to her marriage was a Miss crushed and several bones in the left leg Hosterman, died seven years ago but fractured. He appeared to be getting surviving him are the following children: along all right last week but Sunday Mrs. John Grenoble, of Yeagertown: tetanus developed and his death fol- Mrs. E. E. Ardery, of Bellefonte; Mrs Frank Guisewhite, of Feidler; Mrs. Geo. Deceased was born at Houserville, on Weaver, of Aaronsburg; Mrs. Thomas October 25th, 1868, and was a son of Meyer, of Coburn; and Clymer Stover, of Peter and Elizabeth Wert. He worked Lewistown. He also leaves one brother. on the farm until nineteen years old when Benjamin, and four sisters, Mrs. Charles he went to Altoona and entered the em- Smith, Mrs. Moses Eby, Mrs. William ploy of the Pennsylvania railroad com- Musser and Mrs. Jacob Detwiler, all of pany, being employed for twenty years Haines township. The funeral will be as a freight conductor. Seven years ago held tomorrow (Saturday) morning,

> The children of Miss Ida Green's class in the Methodist Sunday school, was made in Fairview cemetery, Altoona, will have on sale Saturday at C. C. Shuey's store, a variety of homemade candies. The proceeds of the candy sales will be given to the fund for buying a small organ for the beginners room.

> --- John N. Fatkin, who did a large contracting business at State College, has Smeltzer, at Centre Hall, after a linger-sold out to Forest Struble and will leave ing illness with tuberculosis. Just a in a few days for New Orleans, La., where

LEMONT.

Gilbert Boyer returned home from Wil port Tuesday Mrs. David Wagner spent Tuesday in Bel

Business is booming in and around days, and every one is busy. Herman Baird circulated among old friends town last week, and he looks old fashi Wild turkeys seem scarce on Nittany mounted this year, there being but two bagged up to the The farmers along the Branch have pu a corn husker and can crib from 800 to 1000 bush els per day. The state road between Lemont and State College has been completed as far as the Center

Corn husking has been moving along far and the corn is the best that has been har

The election being over every one has [gotten down to hard work again, trying to reduce the Orin L. Grove and family, of Redding Hill, N.

J., who visited among friends in these parts All the teachers of College township are at the county seat attending the sessions of the teach-ers' institute, and it is hoped that they will come home better prepared for their work. -Subscribe for the WATCHMAN. Centre County's Official Vote.

The election return judges for Centre county began their work of making an official count of the vote cast at the general election on Thursday, November 7th. and an idea of the magnitude of the job can be gathered from the fact that they did not complete the task until about the middle of Saturday afternoon. The official count shows a number of changes in the tables but not enough to change any of the results. Congressman Patton car-ried the county by 464 and Gramley was anniversary of his pastorate in Bellefonte. elected over Foster by 154 of a majority. The total official vote for each candidate

For President:
Taft, R	150	7
Wilson, D
Chafin, P	13	2
Debs, S	22	7 BN	4 R	P. W.	Total
Roosevelt		183	29	1 2138	2612
State Treasurer;	R.	BM	RP	W
Young	1513	142	289	1857	3801
Berry, D	3343
Auditor General:	R	BM	RP	W
Powell	1546	119	290	1867-	3822
Cresswell	3314
Congressmen-at-La	rge:
	R	BM	RP	W
Morin	1527	178	188	1891-	-3784
Lewis	1465	199	200	1901	3765
Walters	1472	199	200	1899	3772
Rupley	1471	200	202	1894	3767
Shaw, D
Howley, D
McLean, D
Greenawalt.D.	.3280

Gramley. The return judges for the Twenty-first Congressional district met in Clearfield on Tuesday and computed the vote cast and moved into it on Tuesday last. county, and the official count shows that

R K W Total Mai

W Total

1852----3559--

1697 118 1889---3704-

as follows:
Centre County: Patton, Rep. 1697 Patton, Key. 118 Patton, Wash. 1889-3704 Gleason, Dem. 3240 Watt, Pro. 159
Fox. Soc
Gleason, Dem
Patton, Key 10 Patton, Wash 345—758 Gleason, Dem 304 Watt. Pro 21 Fox, Soc 27
McKean County: 1570 Patton, Rep. 1570 Patton, Key. 130 Patton, Wash. 2164—3864 Gleason, Dem. 2396
Watt, Pro
Fox's total vote

PINE GROVE MENTION.

The new home of J. J. Tressler is now ready for Mrs. W. C. Patterson is visiting relatives in Al-

Sheriff A. B. Lee made a business trip on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fishburn spent Sunday

Mrs. Maggie Gates, of Latrobe, is visiting old Mrs. Mary Dale and daughter Virginia were Frank Weiland, of Linden Hall, made a busiess trip to Altoona Tuesday. Our mutual friend, J. C. Gilliland, is under the doctor's care with kidney trouble. John B. Campbell, of Tyrone, was among the bidders at the Koch sale on Tuesday. The school marms are all at the teachers' insti tute and young America is running loose Jasper Rishel, wife and family were entertained

Mrs. Sallie Musser, of Bellefonte, Sundayed the home of Dr. G. H. Woods, on Main street. David Porter Henderson, of Spruce Creek, spent last week at the home of his son Charles, near

Ed Bowersox, one of Pennsy's clerical force Altoona, visited friends here in the early part of Mrs. Harry Miller with her two bright children were welcome visitors at grandpa Barto's home on Wednesday. The Harry Koch sale on Tuesday was well attended and bidding was quite spirited. The sale amounted to $1,710. Mrs. Emma Bohn, of Phoenixville, Chester Co.,

with her two bright little boys, are visiting grandpa J. B. Whitmer, at White Hall. Dr. Frank Bailey. of Milton, and Dr. J. B.

joined the Modock hunting gang. Mrs. Emma McCalmont had many callers la Sunday at her home at State College, receiving congratulations on her birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas, of Ohio, are visit ing relatives in Central Pennsylvania. Mrs. Thomas before her marriage was Miss Maria

Last week H. L. Flanders sold his farm to Dr Coons, of Stormstown, who intends making it a banner farm. Mr. Flanders is moving to Illinois where he has relatives.

An infuriated bull attacked George Searson Friday of last week but by rare good luck he ged to get hold of the ring in its nose and eld it in check until help arrived. He was pretty oadly shaken up but otherwise uninjured.

The ladies of the Lutheran church of Pine Grove Mills will hold an autumn bazar in the I.O.O.F. hall, Friday and Saturday evenings, November 15th and 16th. An oyster supper will be served Friday evening and a chicken and oyster supper Saturday evening. Everybody who attends is urged not to overlook the fancy goods

The various nimrods are on their way to the different camps. The Roosevelt club went into camp at the Hunter Springs on old Tussey. The Riley crew near the Sand Springs. The Fleet foot gang near Sand Knob. The State College club near the Bear Meadows, and the Raymo gang on the headwaters at Laurel run. Excelsiors are at their old place in Sholl's gap and Modocks at the old Ross place.

-Don't read an out-of-date paper. Get all the news in the WATCHMAN.

With the Churches of the County.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 9½ E. High street.

Next Sunday the Rev. Dr. Ambrose He is anxious that all the members of his congregation shall attend the morning service.

Evangelistic services will begin in the United Brethren church on Sunday evenina, November 17th.

--- There is one man in Centre county who has evidently had a change of heart and purposes leading a more honest life in the future, according to information from Harrisburg, which says: "A crisp new $10 bill pinned to a sheet of note paper reached the State Treasury Saturday from a Centre county postoffice in which a man signing himself "Owner" stated that he wanted the money put in the "conscience fund." The writer set forth that he owned $2,500 of bonds on which no tax was paid in this State."

SPRING MILLS.

What broke loose with Centre county in the

Wm. Neese and Wm. H. Myers had the usual election trip to Bellefonte on Wednesday last. Wm. H. Smith is erecting quite a large building for general storage. Bruce McCormick, recently married, rented in his yard, to be used as a summer kitchen and cently erected. It is quite an imposing building. C. A. Boyer, of New Berlin, made a business trip here last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boon, of Reading, were also here, visiting relatives and friends in the valley. The Penn Hall club started on their hunting expedition on Thursday. Several noted nimrods of our town were in the company, so let the deer, ears and turkeys beware.

A concrete walk from the foot bridge over Penns Creek, leading to the entrance of the Reformed church building, was put down last week.

B. A. Donachy, who is employed in Lewisburg, was here for a few days last week on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Maggie Donachy, and also to throw away his vote on the Bull Moose ticket. Commercial agents stopping off here report business on the road quite lively. As yet they have heard nothing of the "auful panic" to imnediately follow the election of Wilson. The small foot bridge over a deep gutter on the road leading to the M. E. church, and a short cut to the railroad station, torn up by some senseless boys on Hallowe'en, should be repaired or removed. The bridge is simply tossed over the gutter, regardless of how it is done, of course making walking on it a very uncertain movement

Ban on Christmas Trees. The department of agriculture has placed an embargo upon the interstate shipments of Christmas trees from Maine, New Hampshire, Massachu setts, Rhode Island and Conecticut because of the gypsy and brown-tai The quarantine becomes effective Nov. 25 and also affects the shipment of decorative plants, such as holly and laurel, known as "Christmas green of greenery." Only in cases where the plants and plant products have been inspected and pronounced to be free from these two insects by the department's in spectors will they be permitted to en ter interstate commerce.

Burns Roosevelt Picture. An exclusive social and Republicaz organization in Meriden, Conn., the Home club, is in a chaotic state as the resutl of the action of some of the dyed-in-the-wool Republican members who destroyed the photograph of ex President Roosevelt, which was presented by him to the club with his au tograph, when he was president. When the election of Wilson was in dicated late Tuesday night the picture was taken from a prominent place on the wall of the clubroom by one member and thrown to the floor. An otther member thrust his foot through the canvas, and then it was taken to the lawn in front of the club building

Clement A. Griscom Dead. Clement A. Griscom, chairman of the board of directors of the International Mercantile Marine company, director of the Pennsylvania Railros company and widely identified with big financial interests, died at his home in Haverford, near Philadelphia He was seventy-one years old.

The death came as a great surprise to every one outsode the immediate family. Mr. Griscom had been ill for only two weeks. Congestion of the brain caused death.

Steel Trust Makes Record. The unfilled tonnage of the United States Steel Corporation for the month ending Oct. 31 was 7,594,381 tons.

This breaks all monthly or quarterly records. The unfilled tonnage for the same month last year was 3,694,328 tons, and for September of the present yea rit was 6,551,507 tons.

Dies With Five Dogs From Gas. Falling to sleep on the floor, after knocking over a gas stove and thus permitting the gas to escape, Joseph Hearn was asphyxiated in the kennels of Joseph Cullen, 1415 Germantown avenue, Philadelphia. Five bulldogs. valued in all at $1000, were killed with 2,500,000 Apples on Show. Amid the blowing of steam whistles and the ringing of bells the fifth national apple show was opened in Spokane, Wasa. It is estimated that upwards of 2,590,000 apples are in place at the exhibition.