

Beilefonte, Pa., November 15, 1912.

To CORRESPONDENTS .- No communication ed unless accompanied by the real na of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Mrs. John Carson, one of the older residents of Buffalo Run valley, died suddenly yesterday morning, at her home at for pheasants. The Daugherty brothers Paradise

-Capt. and Mrs. Bowie, officers in was off a little distance and a few steps charge of the local work of the Salvation in advance. They had not gone a third Army, have moved their living guarters of a mile until a pheasant flew up in to No. 1146 east High street.

-Prof. Lattimer last week resigned his position as a member of the High school faculty and left for Harrisburg. Up to this time no one has been secured to take his place.

-----While D. Paul Fortney was out in-Philipsburg on Wednesday a big boy arrived at his home on Bishop street, and as he came to stay Paul had to hurry home to do the honors of host.

-The next event will be Thanks giving, but owing to the scarcity and probable high price of turkeys the average man would rather be "looking backward" than looking forward to that holiday.

---- The Lyric, corner of Allegheny and and a doctor speedily summoned, but the Bishop streets, is open every evening, wound was a mortal one and he died State. But whether the teachers are Moving pictures change every night about three o'clock, without regaining here or not the Scenic always presents a liberal program of good pictures with Moving pictures change every night times four. The whole show for five Jerusha and Ellen Daugherty, are school special feature films once a week. No cents.

----- The first fall meeting of the Parent-morning to attend teachers' institute. As Teacher association will be held in the quickly as possible they were notified of High school building, Tuesday evening, the unfortunate accident and were has just cribbed the bumper corn crop of November 19th, at 7.30 o'clock. Every- hurried home in an automobile by Will this section. He had 3550 bushels on 28 body invited to attend and participate in the meeting.

---- The borough took the strip off the dam and Mr. Gamble put it on again, just a little higher than it was beforeto tear off again.

----Saturday was the last day for filing applications for liquor licenses. The total number filed is thirty-four, all old ones. Inasmuch as there are no new applications there will likely be little or no opposition to any of them.

----The Bellefonte Academy football team suffered its first defeat last Saturday when the Indiana Normal were the H., Evert H., Jerusha, Lloyd C., George victors by a 14 to 0 score. The game F., Susan and Ellen. The funeral will be cess that at the first attempt the motor has also traveled abroad and in recountwas played at Indiana and was a hard held tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, to

-Orchard demonstrations in Centre Cook will officiate and burial will be county next week will be as follows: made in the Askey cemetery. Monday, November 18th, on the Newton C. Neidigh farm at State College; Wednesday, November 20th, on the A. E. Bartges farm at Millheim. -----The ladies of the Reformed church

FATAL HUNTING ACCIDENT .- The first -- The Panther hunting slub, started THE LINGLE FOUNDRY TO BE PUT IN fatal hunting accident in Centre county out on the trail yesterday morning but OPERATION AT ONCE .- On Wednesday occurred in Burnside township, on Mon- instead of going out on the Atleghenies Richard T. White, representing a party day afternoon, when Joshua Daugherty, as they had intended doing they went of Philadelphia engineers and mechanics, the seventeen year old son of Mr. and over into the mountains of Sugar valley signed a lease with the McCoy and Shu-Mrs. Anson V. Daugherty, was shot in where they will spend two weeks hunt- gert interests in this place whereby they M. Faulie. the head by the accidental discarge of a ing for small game and picking up what are to have control of the Lingle machine gun in the hands of Ernest Mulholland, stray deer and bear happen along on the shops and foundry until January 1st, day with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jones and family, It was just about two o'clock in the

-Probably the largest football score afternoon when Joshua and George made by any football team last Saturday Daugherty and Ernest Mulholland left was that of 71 to 0 by State College the Daugherty home for an hour's hunt against Villa Nova. At that the visitors played a plucky game, but they were were walking side by side and Mulholland entirely outclassed. State's next to the last game will be played tomorrow at Columbus, Ohio, with the Ohio State front of the latter. He threw up his gun team. to cover the bird and as he did so he stepped in a hole, slipped and fell and of this week, November 15th and 16th, some departments busy all of the time. the gun was discharged. The entire con- the great kinemacolor feature films will it is their intention to remodel, the plant tents struck Joshua Daugherty in the be shown at Garman's opera house. Five with a view to its most enonomic opera-right temple and eye, tearing quite a hole reels, over five thousand feet, taking two tion and that work will necessitate a re. in his head. His brother saw him stag- hours to show. This will be the first arrangement of the power units, the ger and grabbed him around the waist to showing of kinemacolor work in Belle- machines and an additional equipment of keep him from falling, asking the ques- fonte. It is photographs in colors, not travelling: cranes for handling heavy cal convention, to which Dr. Hayes is a delegate. tion "what is the matter?" as he did not painted after taken. The famous Oliver castings, etc. then realize that Joshua was shot. The Twist subjects. Admission to all parts of latter replied "something hit me," and the house five cents.

sank senseless in his brother's arms.

-----The school teachers in Bellefonte Both young men were horror-stricken this week have found the Scenic quite a when they discovered what had occurred popular place of moving picture enter- the lease. but they summoned help as quickly as tainment, and their liberal patronage did possible and the wounded young man was carried the short distance to his home justice to Mr. Brown's reputation of conducting a place second to none in the teachers and had come to Bellefonte that extra charge above five cents for the latter.

-D. M. Kline, of Spring township, there their brother had passed away. good corn crops have been reported none Deceased was born in Burnside town- come up to this in the yield for acres ship, where his parents have been well planted. There are parts of Centre known and esteemed residents for many county where scarcely a half-crop has at least it looks that way. But the extra years. He was a bright and intelligent been harvested. In fact the corn was height isn't going to make it any harder young man, honest and industrious, and peculiar during the last season. In some his untimely end is a severe blow, not spots unusually good, in others almost a failure and all without any apparent reabeen carrying his arm in a sling ever the insane and he was asked to act as since. writings.

tain stories of Central Pennsylvania, has purchased the Altoona Tribune outright and took possession on Wednesday. Mr. Shoemaker is a native of Lock Haven and a graduate of Columbia University. He served as secretary of the American legation at Lisbon and later in the same capacity at the American embassy at Berlin. While he has become sole owner of the Tribune he has associated with himself a number of Altoona gentlemen as officers of the corporation, among them John D. Meyer as treasurer. For the present, at least, the paper will be conducted along the same lines as in the past and no changes will be made in the working force. Mr. Shoemaker, however, intends devoting his entire time to the work and the Tribune readers will be favored with his brilliant and trenchant

1914. Their object is to put the plant in in Tyrone operation at once and unless there is some unexpected hitch in their plans Mr. White and some of his operatives will be so that the wheels will begin to turn again by December 1st.

While they intend doing a general foundry and machine business we understand that they have in prospect several -----On Friday and Saturday evenings large specialty contracts that will keep

That the gentlemen mean, business evidenced by their intention to get to work at once and also by a clause in their lease which gives them the option of buying the plant at the expiration of

Mr. White is a graduate engineer who has had years of experience in Cramp's ship yard and other large engineering enterprises. He will probably have the management of the business. His associates are all practical men, conversant with modern methods of economic operation of machine shops and foundries and we know that we are expressing the sincere thought of the entire community when we bid them welcome to Bellefonte and wish them unbounded success in every department of their endeavor.

ONE ON ROBINSON .-- John B. Bobinson. of Philadelphia, spent a few days in Bellefonte the past week, a guest at the Brockerhoff house. Few men, indeed, have had riage. the career Mr. Robinson has had in the three score years of his life. He graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, served three years in the navy and after his retirement was elected a Member of the Pennsylvanja Legislature. Keller Esq., drove to the Country club Later he was chosen a State Senator and last Saturday afternoon in the former's after serving one or two terms he was machine, and when ready to start home elected to Congress, serving three terms. the motor refused to respond to the doc- Upon his retirement from that body he tor's cranking. He invited Mr. Keller to was appointed a United States Marshall take a try at it and he did with such suc- for eastern Pennsylvania. Mr. Robinson kicked and the crank struck him a sting- ing incidents of his life to a party of ing blow on the right arm. While no friends, last Saturday evening, he said bones were broken the ligaments were that some years ago a party of Congressbadly torn and flesh bruised and he has men visited the Norristown hospital for their escort, inasmuch as the superintend-city, the writer of the captivating moun- there the superintendent asked him to man's make an address to the inmates, who were all assembled in the chapel. Mr. Robinson complied and told them about life as he saw it in India during his travels, and elaborated somewhat on the sa- farm. credness with which the Ganges river is held by the natives; how they make annual pilgrimages there and bathe in its waters to be cleansed of all their sins as well as bodily disease, and that oftimes mothers will throw their babes to the crocodiles as a willing sacrifice. All the inmates paid close attention and seemed very much interested and one nice looking man sitting in the front row appeared particularly attentive. At the conclusion of his talk Mr. Robinson approached the gentleman and after shaking hands remarked that he had been at tracted by his apparently absorbing interest and asked what about his talk par. ticularly impressed him. "Well," replied the man, "I was just wondering why in the Central State Normal school, Lock h-l they didn't throw you in the Ganges when they had you there." Mr. Robinson remarked that that was the first and the last time he ever addressed an

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Francis Lincoln, of State College, spent Sa urday taking in the sights of Bella -Mrs. W. E. Seel, of Harrisburg, has be te this week visiting her mother, Mrs.

-William Snaith, the furnituradealer, of Spring Mills, was a musiness visitor in Bellefonte on-Wednesday,

-Mrs. Louias. Harris returned last Saturday from spending six weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Robert De Golyer, at Evanstona III.

-Miss Helen E. C. Overton, vice State regont has been spending this week, in Harrisburg at tending the State conference of D. A. R.

-Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Hugg have disposed of all their property in Philipsburg and moved back to Milesburg to spend their remaining days. -After a visit at the home of his father in this.

place Arthur Undercoffer left last Saturday, for Cherry Tree, where he has good employments

-Dr. and Mits. R. G. H. Hayes left Sunday for

-Mrs. AllMann and her daughter Marguerite of Lock Haven, came to Bellefonte Saturday, and John S. Walker.

-Percy Blackford; who is now located at New Castle, Pa., is visiting his old home here and friends akState College; his first trip to Belleonte in several years.

-MisskRachael Shuey is entertaining; for the week hencousin, Miss Rebecca Stover, of Cur-week hencousin, Miss Rebecca Stover, of Cur-in Bellefonte, consequently her time will be divid-ed between her friends and her sister. Kline, of Williamsport.

-Fred Hollanaugh, of Atloona; Harry of Wilk insburg, and Elliott have been home the past week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hollabaugh, at Coleville.

-Grant Hoover, of Williamsport, was a Belleonte visitor the fore part of the week, attending to a few business matters before going into the woods for his annual deer hunt.

-Miss Louise Moffer, of Philipsburg, has been visiting friends in Bellefonte this week and atending the teachers' institute, Before going home she will visit at State Collage.

-Mrs. Sidney Keefer returned last Friday from spending a few days with her husband at White Haven; the visit being made at that time because it was the first anniversary of their mar-

-Miles E. Osmer and his daughter Myra, of Oberlin, Ohio, are in Centre county for a visit of several weeks with Mr. Osmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs Edward G. Osmer, of Willowbank streetand with other relatives

-Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Gray and two child ren of Pittsburgh, are visiting Mr. Gray's parents at Milesburg. Mr. Gray is a fireman on the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania railroad and s now taking his autumn vacation.

-Mr. and Mrs. Upton H. Remer, of Williamsport, spent several days in Bellefonte the early part of the week; and they make no secret of the fact that they would like to move back to Belle" fonte if they can get a suitable house.

-Mrs. William Cadwallader, of Pittsburgh, is a guest of Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside, having come to Bellefonte with Mrs. Burnside upon her return from Ohio last week. Mr. Cadwallader will join his wife in Bellefonte to spend Sunday.

-Clay Reesman, of Thorofare, N. J., was a WATCHMAN office caller on Tuesday, he and his Robin Hood, one of the most popular wife driving over from Centre Hall where they operas ever staged, along with Mise

-Miss Jane Aiken and Miss Roy Brandon in Williamsport Tuesday, for the day

-Miss Virginia Dale has returned from New York, where she had been for several weeks visiting with her cousing Mrs. McGargle.

-Mrs. Frank Weiland and daughter Mildred of Linden Hall, spent yesterday in Bellefor shopping and calling on their various acquaint ances

-Mir. John Puff, of Centre Halk was in Belle fonte Wednesday and a WATCHMAN office caller; and it is hardly necessary to say we were glad to white and some of his operatives will be here the fore part of next week to begin the work of modernizing the equipment of Miss Harrier Foster. —Misses Mame Gross and Agnes Scanlon, of Axe Mann, spont Sunday in Bollefonte as guests of Miss Harrier Foster. —Prof. Houtz, of the Susquehanna University, was in Bellefonte last Sunday to fill the pulpit in the Lutheran church. Both morning and even the Lutheran church. Both moming and even ing service was in charge of Prof. Houtz.

-Miss Lulu Mc Mulitin, of Hecla, left Belle fonte Wednesday for Philadelphia, expecting to spend a week with her cousin. Mrs. Johnson, at Narbeth, on the main line a short distance the city.

-Mrs. W. C. Cassidy went down to Philadel phia on Wednesday to visit Mra. Thomas Moore-while the latter's hasbandi is spending his vacation in the Sugar valley mountain Panthers.

-Mrs. George Frost, of Bracklyn, N. Y., has been with her fatherr Rev. Plichard Crittenden, for a week. Mrs. Frost, who will remain Bellefonte until sometime neat week, will be remembered as Miss Charlotte Crittend

-Mrs. Gibbs, of Buffalo, who is on her way to visit with her sister, Mrs. Foresman, in Philadel-phia, and her grandmother. Mrs. Tome, of (Jer-sey Shore, will be in Bellefonte tomorrow, to spend a short time with Mrs. D. G. Bush.

-Miss Isabello Merriman, of Yonkers, N.Y., is in Bellefonte, having come the fore part of the week for a visio with hensister, Mrs. John Blanchard. Miss Merriman has spent much of her life

WAITE-COBLE .- Malcolm Waite, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Waite, of Bellefonte, and Miss Margaret Coble, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Coble, of Lemont, were married before the altar of the First Methodist church in Altoona, on Friday afternoon of last weak, by the pastor, Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs. The young people were attended by William Vipond and Miss Margaret Williams, both of Altoona, as best man and bridesmaid, while quite a number of young people were in attendance at the ceremony. The young couple returned to Bellefonte in the beginning of the week and expect to go to housekeeping at once-

SWARTZ-HASTINGS .- Harry C. Swartz, of Snow Shoe, and Miss Minnie M. Hastings, of Bellefonte, were married at Mt. Union on Thursday of last week by Rev. A. C. Lathrop, of the Baptist church. The bridegroom is an enterprising young business man of Snow Shoe and it is there the young couple will make their home.

-----The women of the auxiliary and all friends of the Bellefonte hospital, are very deeply indebted to Mr. Harper, of the Lyric for his generosity in contributing all proceeds from his theatre Thursday night of last week, for the benefit of the rummage sale fund. Three reels of voices and a double quartette of men's voices, constituted a program, which attracted a large audience composed of the representative people of Bellefonte. Miss Fauble and Miss Brandman had charge of the piano, while other members of the auxiliary sold tickets from the box and took them at the door. Mr. Harper's tional friends.

heartbroken over the affair, though no direct blame is attached to him. In addition to the sorrowing parents the following brothers and sisters survive: Anna Blanche, Robert B., John meet at the house at one o'clock. Rev.

BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT AND KILLED. -On Saturday afternoon of last week, Carl Malone, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred was fatally shot by his cousin, J. Winegardner, at the Winegardner home in Millheim. Young Malone, accompanied by his brother Blaine had gone to Millheim to make a deposit on his savings account in the Farmer's National bank. Later the boys went to the home of their uncle, Lewis Winegardner and with their two cousins and another boy were out in the yard shooting at mark with a 22-calibre target rifle. Curious to know the power of the rifle the boys concluded to try it on shooting through the door of an out house. Young Malone went inside only to his family but everybody who knew him. Young Mulholland, who was son. the indirect cause of his death, was one of his closest chums and he is almost Keichline but by the time they reached acres of ground. While some unusually

-Dr. J. M. Brockerhoff and Harry will hold one of their popular Thanks. giving markets in Petrikin hall, on Tuesday and Wednesday of Thanksgiving week. Home-made bread, pies, cakes, etc., for sale. Also hundreds of aprons.

-Members of the Bellefonte Lodge of Rebekahs gave a shower to Miss Marjorie Richards, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan, on Spring street, on Tuesday evening, in honor of her approaching marriage to Abner Musser, of Pitcairn.

urday borough engineer J. Henry Wetzel to hold the door shut and Jay Winegardhad a severe attack of vertigo and for a ner fired the shot. The cartridge went time it was feared that more serious con- through the door and penetrated Masequences would follow. He was brought lone's head about two inches above the home and for a few days was quite shaky, left ear. He sank unconscious on the but has now recovered his usual health. floor and as soon as the boys realized

- Miss Ellen Hayes, who is finishing what had happened help was summoned her college course at Sweet Briar, Va., and a doctor sent for, but nothing could came north to Philadelphia Monday, be done and the lad died in less than where she entered the German hospital three hours. The funeral was held on and was operated on Wednesday for appen- Wednesday, burial being made in the dicitis by Dr. John Deaver. Miss Hayes Millheim cemetery. was joined in Philadelphia Monday by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes.

-Miss Alice Wilson entertained a number of Beilefonte people, at her home Lemont, and her many friends gave her in the Harris house on Allegheny street, a delightful surprise party at her home Friday night of last week. Mrs. S. near town. Mrs. Weaver received many Cameron Burnside's card party Monday night, at which two tables of "Rum" were in play, was given in honor of her guest, Mrs. Cadwallader, of Pittsburgh.

-----J. A. Whitmore, of New York city, guests present were as follows:

the leading American evangelist of the Mr. and Mrs. Dennis White, of Lock Haven: Y. M. C. A., will be in Bellefonte next Mrs. Melvin J. Snyder and daughter Helen, of Wednesday for one day of special serv-Lewisburg; Mrs. Sarah Etters, Mrs. Julia Shuey, Mrs. Julia Williams, Mr. and Mrs. James Schreck, Mr. and Mrs. John Schreck and daughter Madaices. This is a rare opportunity for Bellefonte and everyone should make plans to line; Mr. and Mrs. William Schreck, Mr. and attend one of his meetings. All the busi-Mrs. John Shuey and daughters Helen and Roxness men of the town will be invited to ie, and their son Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Willia meet him at supper at 6:30 that evening, Houtz and son Earl; Mrs. Ellen Fishel, Mr. and Mrs. William Rishel and daughters Mary and Ha--Quite a number of rumors are zel, and son Irwin; Mrs. James Osman and daugh being circulated regarding the building ter Helen; Mrs. Samuel Hazel, Mrs. Allen and daughter Myra; Mr. and Mrs. James Longwell of the Lewisburg and Tyrone from Leand son Edwin; Mrs. Philip Bradford and daughmont through State College to Fairbrook, ter Grace; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Klinger, Mrs. Alas well as the purchase of the Bellefonte ice Williams and grand-daughter Margaret Central by the New York Central company. We would advise the public not FOR SALE .- Just now when good farm to lose any sleep over the matter just at present, as there are lots of things more certain than the above.

-Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Helen M. Fox, a WATCHMAN, which offer three of the best how they came to run into one another signment of trout for shipment and in daughter of Mrs. Joseph Fox, of Belle- farms in Centre county for sale. We re- has not yet been satisfactorily explained, fonte and LeRoy Plumb, of Yoakum, fer to what are known as the "Irvin" unless both drivers were somewhat blind- platform too close to the railroad track. 'Texas. Mr. Plumb's former home was and "Huston" farms near Jacksonville, ed from the lights on the other machine. The shifter went out the road on the way Newton, Kansas, from where Miss Fox and the "Duck" farm in Gregg township. The left front wheel on the Walker car to the Whiterock quarries, struck the returned a short time ago, after spending All are going to be sold to settle the was completely wrecked, the axle bent platform, spilled the trout and derailed a a year with her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Stein-kirchner. It is expected that the wed-ding will take place sometime_during the winter. during the purchase of a farm home should investigate them. and render smashed. On the Harris car the axle was bent, fender broken and a wheel more or less damaged. Both cars had to be pulled in for repairs. and render smashed. On the Harris car the axle was bent, fender broken and a wheel more or less damaged. Both cars had to be pulled in for repairs.

-Dr. George P. Singer, principal of Haven, addressed a good sized audience in Petrikin hall, on Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. His talk was a practical one audience of insane people. BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY .-- Last Friand as an illustration of the wonderful day, November 8th, was the anniversary and infinite power of the Creator he gave a description of the geological formation of Nittany valley as it is believed to have been several million years ago. In the original formation, he said, there were beautiful as well as useful presents and thirteen separate and distinct strata of very appetizing refreshments were servstone, and counting from the lower ed during the evening. The occasion strata the Nittany valley limestone was proved a most enjoyable one for all. The second, hence it is evident that eleven of the original strata of stone, with the subsoil, have been washed away through some volcanic upheaval or tremendous floods. The doctor is a great reader and student hence his talk was extremely interesting and was enjoyed by all who heard it. -Hard P. Harris and Robert S.

Walker figured in a head-on automobile collision, about a mile below Beaver's farm, shortly after seven o'clock Saturday evening, in which both machines were pretty badly used up but fortunately nobody hurt. Walker was driving his SEVERAL FINE CENTRE COUNTY FARMS father's red Franklin car and with him had Misses Margaret and DeSales Walsh land is in such demand and so many per- and Miss Mann, of Lock Haven. They sons are in quest of desirable farm homes were going down the valley and Mr. Harwe call special attention to two adver- ris was coming up from the Country tisements appearing in this issue of the club. They both had their lights lit and hatchery employees were loading a conestates of deceased owners and as they and fender smashed. On the Harris car car. Most of the fish were captured and

THE TEMPEST DRAMATIC COMPANY .--Beginning Monday evening, November 18th, the J. L. Tempest Dramatic company will play a one week stand at Garman's. This will be their first appearance in Bellefonte and as they play at the popular prices of 10, 20 and 30 cents east for two weeks. they will likely prove a drawing attraction. Miss Jennie Tempest is the leading lady and she is said to be an actress of considerable charm and ability. The company has a good repertoire of popular plays that appeal to the general public everywhere. Will be here every night next week.

BIG BARN BURNED .-- Last Saturday evening about eight o'clock the large barn on the farm of Edward Johnson, near Pine Croft, Huntingdon county, was burned to the ground together with all its contents of this year's crops. Three horses, three colts and several head of young cattle were burned. The Johnsons were formerly Ferguson township residents and their friends sympathize with them in this calamity, as having no insurance their loss is quite heavy.

-----On Tuesday morning the fish

-Rev. George M. Glenn, pastor of the Metho dist church at Philipsburg, was in Bellefonte Wednesday on his return home from a visit to State College and up Buffalo Run, where he had been looking after some business pertaining to his

-Miss Martha Haines, who is in Bellefonte for the winter with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and.Mrs. George Ingram, in order to attend the High school, is spending this week's vacation with her kindness has won for him many addiparents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Haines, of Rossiter, Pa.

-Mrs. T. M. Barnhart and son Dean, and the the 1.25 train Tuesday afternoon for Clearwater, Florida, where they will spend the winter owing to the delicate health of Robert Bruce. As now planned they will not return until next June

-Mrs. J. M Curtin came to Bellefonte Thurs day of last week, visiting with her mother, Mrs George F. Harris until Saturday, returning then to her home in Pittsburgh. During Mrs. Curtin's absence in Bellefonte her c ildren were in charge of Mr. Curtin's mother, Mrs. Harry Curtin, who is visiting in Pittsburgh.

--Charles B. Griffin, of Williamsport, who has een in Bellefonte most of the time during the past three months making up abstracts of title to the land acquired by the Pennsylvania railroad company in changing the route of the Bald Eagle Red Wheat Valley railroad, will complete his work today and this evening leave for Philadelphia for further orders.

-Mrs. Roebly, of Riverside. Cal., and Miss Dora Geary, of Lock Haven, have been among the guests Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker have been entertaining this week. Mrs. Roebly came east with Dr. Roebly, who is in New York attending the National Medical convention, she having come here after a short visit to Philipsburg and Birmingham. Dr. and Mrs. Roebly will remain

-Mrs. F. D. Ray, of New York city, arrived in Bellefonte yesterday morning and will spend an indefinite time at the Brockerhoff house looking after her grand-children while her daughter-inlaw, Mrs. Horton S. Ray is in the Bellefonte hor pital recovering from the effects of a severe attack of the grip. Mrs. Ray expected to reach llefonte on Wednesday evening but her train ssed connections and she was compelled to pend the night at a hotel in Tyrone.

-W. H. Ott dropped in Monday evening to pu us in his debt for another year, and while here he dropped a bit of information that will be ineresting to some of our reade s at least. He is working on a building for the McSuleys, painters in which they expect to install a kiln for baking painted articles, such as metal signs, pottery, etc. This is an entirely new venture in this community and many will await the outcome with interest. Because if it is successful it will mean that mameling of most any kind will be done right

-Edward P. Butts, of Springfield, Mass., spen a good part of the past week visiting his relative and old friends in Bellefonte. He is a son of the late David Butts, during his life one of the best known residents of Bellefonte, and graduated a State College in the course of civil engineering in the class of 1893. Shortly after that he accepted a position with the American Writing Paper com pany, of Holyoke, Mass., and he is now chief engineer for the company, which has in operation about a dozen large mills in and around Holyoke, so that Mr. Butts' position is one o considerable importance. This is his first visit back home in seven years and naturally he no tices a few changes here as well as at State College, where he spent Saturday renewing the associations of his college days in so far as it was pos sible to do so.

----Centre Co. Pomona Grange will latter's son, Robert Bruce Barnhart Jr., left on hold its 4th quarterly meeting in Grange Arcadia at Centre Hall at 9 a. m., November 21.

Bellefonte Produce Markets

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce Potatoes per bushel, new	-
Eggs, per dozen	78
Lard, per pound	ñ
	2

Sellefonte Grain Markets.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, e following are the quotations up to six o'clock reday evening, when our paper goes to press. Kye, per bushel. Corn, shelled, per bushel. Corn, ears, per bushel. Oats, old and new, per bus Barley, per bushel.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the wheat-Red		97@97%

Corn -Yellow	*	95@954
		72@ 72%
Oats		71%@72
Flour -Winter, per	harrel	38@ 38½ 4.00@4.2
Favorite Br	ande	4.00@4.26 5.25@5.50
Kve Figur per barre		3.85@4.00
Baled Hay-Choice	Timothy No. 1	10.00@20.50
- And the second second second	Mixed No. 1	15.00@ 18.00
straw		9.00@19.00
	Company of the second second

The Best Advertising Medium in Centra Pennsylvania.

Democratic publication gh to have, and with a A strictly De age to express, its own vie page form—six columns t every week by more than to ble people. It is issued even the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year... Paid after explanation of Centre co Papers will not be sent out of Centre co ess paid for in advance, nor will subscrip accontinued until all arrearges are set iscontinued until all arrearges are set

ADVERTISING CHARGES

A limited amount of advertising LEGAL AND TRANSIENT.

All legal nd transient adve

First insertion, per line Each additional insertio lices, per line. Local No BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS. Per inch, each insertion ..25 cts.

The following discounts will be allowed on ad-weeks, and under three mos. and under six m

Advertisers, and especially Advertisive respectfully informed that no no are respectfully informed that no notice w taken of orders to insert advertisements a rates than above, nor will any notice be giv orders of parties unknown to the publisher t