Beilefonte, Pa., November 22, 1912.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communication

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. --- A fur display at the Bush house

Friday, the 29th.-AIKENS. -Try Kinto 5c. Cigar, Manufactured by L. R. Miller, Bellefonte, Pa. -A baby boy arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Houser yesterday putting in new crossings on High street near the depot.

---The indications are that a large crowd of visitors will be at State College today for the Pennsylvania day exer-

-Dr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Hayes have concluded to spend the coming winter at their home in this place, instead of going south

-Clarence, Irvin and Ernest Tate, Bellefonte plumbers, are now working in some time to come.

pox very much resembles smallpox. As a dollar. a precaution the case has been entirely Dunellen, N. J., guests of Mrs. John Pow. price of iron well into the fall of 1913.

in Unionville, has been spending the win-lecture room of the church Thanksgiving vited to attend and take your friends.

---On Wednesday Dr. Thomas C. Van Tries stated that just forty-nine years ago that day the weather was an exact counterpart of Wednesday but the next day it blew up cold and there was a snow fall of seven inches. As history sometimes repeats itself the doctor had his weather eye peeled for snow yester-

----Col. H. S. Taylor went out pheasant hunting last Friday and while he failed to bring home any birds he declares that where he was they were so plentiful that there were eight and ten flying around him at one time and that all told he saw about fifty of them. "Out of practice" is the reason he assigned for --- The many Bellefonte friends of Rev. Thomas Levan Bickel, a former pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church but now in charge of St. John's Reformed church at Lebanon, will regret to learn of his being in Good Samaritan's hospital in that place suffering with a broken hip sustained recently in a fall down the stairs in the parsonage.

---On representation that he was employed by the Bellefonte Central railroad and would pay him in the evening Clayton Wolf, of Coleville, had his teeth well plugged with gold by Dr. Hafer, last Saturday. He was arrested the same evening on the charge of false pretense and is now testing the doctor's work eating prison grub in the Centre county jail.

-Centre countians in attendance at the West Chester Normal school this year are as follows: Mary E. Bartges. Sarah L. Fisher, Gladys H. Meyer and Ruth N. car, going by way of Spruce Creek valley. Smith, Spring Mills; Clair E. Harm and Edwin J. Watson, Snow Shoe; Effie J. R. Keller, Bellefonte; Margaret A. Brady, Fleming: Russell C. Furst, Stormstown, and Margaret F. Glossner, Blanchard.

-The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hayes Run Fire Brick company was held at Orviston last week. All the old officers were elected with the exception of John B. Stevenson, as vice president, B. F. Brown, of Lock Haven succeeding him in that office and as a member of the board of directors. The Monday DeVester Lindsey, the sixteen present.

and that big light in front of Petrikin ing on his foot and accidentally touched el's Reformed Sunday school at Greenhall may draw people to the Scenic the the trigger with his finger. Two of his burr. The bridegroom is employed in first time, but it is the certainty of seeing toes were badly lacerated but the boy the United States railway postal service a good program of pictures that induces pluckily walked the half mile to his home with headquarters in Chicago. The them to go back night after night. Of where a local physician dressed the young couple took their departure for course the excellent order has also some- wound before sending him to the Lock their future home in the Windy city on to Winnipeg and his four years sentence the Olympic games last Thursday night was well worth seeing. Don't miss the features every Thursday evening.

Co. was in town on Tuesday. He was giving. here only half a day, but his visit has set all manner of rumors afloat.

While we have been unable to learn of anyone with whom Mr. Swavne talked concerning the exact nature of his business the fact that he was accompanied by one of the largest scrap dealers in the country and that they spent several hours soing over the Nittany furnace has given rise to the story that the plant is to be dismantled and sold for scrap.

Any talk of its going into blast soon -Pennsylvania railroad workmen are bility, for the stack needs relining, the minor repairs necessary would cost probably $25,000 and, if they should be made, the furnace could not be blown in much at Nittany.

Tyrone, where they will be engaged for here has made their operation unprofit. A. J. Perley will be president of the new -Just think! Next Thursday will be kets, such as we are having just now. In Lewis H. McLaughlin editor. Thanksgiving day and one month later fact the extra freight charges on ore and Christmas, with turkeys scarce and so up coke make an additional cost of $1 per in price that the ordinary man has good ton on the iron produced, so that iron can be made at Punxsutawney, for in--The Hendershot home on the hill stance, at a dollar a ton less than it can south of town is under quarantine be- here and oftentimes it has to be soid at cause a case of illness termed chicken- a margin that allows no more profit than

While we would be very sorry to see Nittany scrapped it is a certainty that no --- Miss Martha McKnight entertain- one in this community has the capital or ed at dinner at her home up along the the knowledge of the iron business to opmountain, Tuesday afternoon at four erate it and it is scarcely probable that o'clock, in honor of Miss Sadie Keenan others will put it in blast unless they foreand her niece, Mrs. G. D. Dumont, of see a continuation of the present high the slogan of "50 to 0 as yours" and after ANOTHER RAILROAD STORY.-On Tues--Miss Claire Ruhl, who for some day a New York Central railroad private good Ohio State's coach took his team off Little Sugar valley but at last accounts months past has been fore lady in the car went up over the Bellefonte Central Bellefonte shirt factory, has resigned her and the circumstance started all kinds of on account of alleged roughness, when position to accept a similar one in rumors. It was taken as a confirmation Bloomsburg at a considerable advance in of the story recently circulated that the salary. She will leave for that place next New York Central intended buying the Bellefonte Central and extending the -A stroke of apoplexy is the cause road from Pine Grove Mills through of the critical condition of Mrs. W. F. Spruce Creek valley down to Huntingdon Becker, who has been ill since Saturday to connect with the Huntingdon and at the home of her son, Dr. John Becker, Broad Top and that that road was to be in Philadelphia. Mrs. Becker, who lives made another link in the long-talked of Wabash sea-coast line. Some of the more imaginative rumorists drew mental --- The "H. H. Society," of the M. E. pictures of the day not far away when church will give an entertainment in the long freight trains would be hauling western freight through Bellefonte and night. Everybody is cordially invited to magnificent Pullman trains would be be present. A silver offering will be rushing back and forth at a mile a mintaken for church expenses. You are in- ute clip. Mammoth car shops are also the important division centre in Pennsylvania and W. Homer Crissman is pictured in his sumptuously furnished office as one of the division superintendents with Dominic Judge as division superintendent of motive power. But just when all the above had been worked out to a nicety it was learned that the trip of the New York Central observation car went a glimmering.

law against gambling prohibits raffling for turkeys, chickens, geese, ducks, etc., and the authorities in neighboring towns have already given public notice that any person indulging in this practhat any person indulging in this practice will be prosecuted to the full extent at Woodward, last Thursday. On Friday W. L. Foster and Benjamin Everhart of the law. Several years ago raffling for fowls was carried on in Bellefonte without any regard for the law, but during the past two years a ban has been placed upon it. In order to be upon safer ground various parties last year took their raffling operations outside the borough limits in Spring township, conductties will doubtless prohibit raffling this year and the constables of Spring townwithin their jurisdiction, as it is one of the most pernicious forms of gambling.

AUTOISTS IN SMASHUP.—On Wednesday afternoon N. E. Hess, of State College, and I. H. Jacobs, of Boalsburg, started for Huntingdon in a new 1913 Cadillac Between Alexandria and Huntingdon there is a sharp turn in the road and in attempting to make it the car veered and ly at five o'clock the young people, atran into a tree, badly wrecking the machine. Hess was driving the car and was ter of the bride as bridesmaid, and W. pronged buck and said to be unusually kept from being thrown out by the steer. B. Simcox, of Lock Haven, as best man. ing wheel so that his only injury was a marched into the parlor and took their shock. Jacobs, however, was thrown out places before Rev. G. A. Stauffer, of Reof the side of the car and sustained a number of bruises and a cut hand, but them man and wife. The bride wore a fortunately was not seriously injured.

report of the general manager showed a year old son of Mrs. Mary Lindsey, of prosperous business during the past year. near Beech Creek, shot himself in the lady and for several years has been teach--A flame will always attract moth right foot. He had the gun barrel rest- er of the primary department in Emanu-last Saturday by the score of 13 to 0.

WHAT OF THE NITTANY FURNACE. - Don't forget the Thanksgiving DEER HUNTING SEASON ON. - Several Noah H. Swayne II, resident manager of market on Tuesday and Wednesday of hundred hunters are now encamped on odgers, Brown & Co., Philadelphia, and next week in Petrikin hall: Just the the mountains of Centre and adjoining formerly president of the Nittany Iron place to get something good for Thanks- counties for the two weeks of the deer

--- The cabinet makers have already placed WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN in the Secretary of State's chair, but Presidentelect Wilson sticks to his former announcement that he has made no selections and that no one is authorized to make any for him.

-The repertorie stock company which has been at Garman's opera house all week will be there tonight and tomorrow matinee and evening. A musimeets the argument of physical impossi- cal comedy tonight. Prices 10, 15 and 20 rate number of the deer killed so far hestoves need repairs and several of the to all parts of the house. Ask anyone furnace plates are cracked and would who has been there what they think of have to be repaired. These with other the company, then go and see for your-

-Last Saturday, the owners of the-Since the practical exhaustion of the will be independent in politics, which will this week. Centre county ore fields the cost of as- leave Williamsport and Lycoming county sembling raw material for blast furnaces without one influential Democratic paper. able, except in extraordinary iron mar- company, George E. Graff manager and

> --- The Woman's Club will hold its regular meeting at 7.30 o'clock on Monday evening, November 25th, in the director's room at the High school building, an address by Dr. G. E. Hawes, will be the feature of the meeting. Men and women are cordially invited to be present. Every club member should bring at least one friend with them.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE WOMAN'S CLUB BELLEFONTE.

--- The State College football team went to Columbus, Ohio, last week with they had scored 44 points, had seven taken from them and a record of 37 to the the field and refused to finish the game the game was awarded to State at the usual score of 1 to 0. Those who witnessed the game declared that the only received two car loads of feeding cattle rows. pretty good beef stock. If more Centre fore ten o'clock in the morning. The hog cholera which depleted the rabbits in the same locality. herds of several farmers in Spring town- Mrs. Jeff Deters, of Warriorsmark valweeks or longer.

over the Bellefonte Central on Tuesday Millheim Journal printed a story detailing that coming through the Narrows below were out on a tie-buying expedition, and an with a widower. The woman in the four bear and a deer hanging up, while then another important railroad story case is Mrs. Emanuel Crader, of Penn at the various camps he saw six deer in Hall, and the man Elmer Smith, whose all. TURKEY RAFFLING PROHIBITED.-The wife died at Cumberland, Md., in Sephome of her sister, Mrs. Luther Musser, went to Glen Iron, where she met Smith from Indiana county two. and the two left on the train for parts that Mrs. Crader used the money received to pay her own and Smith's railroad ing them wide open. Bellefonte authori- fares. Mr. Crader is an honest, hard been highly respected. Smith is report- the camp and succeed in extinguishing Paul Sheffer will join the party in Pittsburgh for ship should arrest any and all offenders ed as a notorious character and why Mrs. Crader left her family for him is cleaned out. the puzzling question.

FINK-SHOEMAKER.-The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker, at Greenburr, Clinton county, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Sunday evening, November 17th, when their daughter, Miss Mary Shoemaker, was united in marriage to Merrill C. Fink, of Chicago. Prompttended by Miss Mabel Shoemaker, a sisbersburg, who spoke the words that made gown of white messaline and carried a bouquet. Following the ceremony a de---- While out hunting for rabbits on licious wedding dinner was served to all hunting season which began last Friday From all accounts deer are fairly plentiful but the conditions have not been favorable for good hunting. There is not only no snow on the mountains but the woods are dry and it is difficult to make a successful chase. The most deer, of course, are being found on the Allegheny and Tussey mountains, but unless a tracking snow falls before the end of the in Philadelphia. season, the killing will probably be the lightest in years. At this writing it is impossible to give anything like an accucents. Matinee prices tomorrow 10 cents | cause of the fact that many of the hunt. ing parties are away out in the mountains and no news can be heard from them. Among some of the successful: Fulton, of east Lamb, street, unters so far reported are the following:

The bride is a most estimable your Monday, intending enroute to visit friends -The Bellefonte Academy football at Lock Haven, Altoona, Pittsburgh and team won from the Bucknell Academy Youngstown, Ohio. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

The Bradford hunting party of Centre Hall, in camp on Tussey mountain abovebefore spring. By that time the present Williamsport News purchased the Wil- Colyer, a seven pronged buck shot on the attractive price of iron may be down to liamsport Sun and the two papers were opening day by John Knarr, and a fourthe point where no money can be made consolidated under the name of the Sun pronged buck on Saturday shot by George and News. The consolidated publication Bradford. They secured their thirdibuck

Fred Gearhart, of State Colleges, hunking with a party in Diamond, valley. Scranton, was the week-ena guest of its banks.

Dr. Ezra Yocum, pastor of the Methadist church. Huntingdon county, shot a four pronged buck on Saturday which dressed about one huadred pounds. It is also reported that the State College club in, camp at the Bear Meadows have three deer, a five pronged buck shot the first day and a four and two pronged buck gotten on

The Panther Run club, hanting in the of last week, guests of Mr. Fryberger's uncle, W. Alleghenies got a fine buck on the opening day and one the following day, and a Lock Haven party hunting in the Scootac region have two deer to their credit. at Unionville C. O. Dunlap, well known in Bellefonte. is a member of the latter party.

Six deer are reported to have been killed in the White Deer valley and four in Sugar valley, a party of Rebersburg hunters getting one of the latter. The Panther club of this place is hunting in her home in Howard. had not even seen a deer, but have a few pheasants to their credit.

The Deckart party hunting on Baker's run in the Alleghenies have one deer to week in Bellefonte, having come here from Hunttheir credit. The Wilson and Bush par- ingdon where he had been with a party of friends roughness noticeable was on the part of ty from Williamsport, hunting on Lick's on a hunting expedition. run, have two deer, while up to this writing five are reported to be hanging up at -Dr. J. M. Brockerhoff last week various camps in the Brush Valley nar- sister, Mrs. A. Lawrence Miller.

which he has placed on his farm east of On the opening day of the season twen- Charles Dorworth Jr., went to Elizabeth, N. J., town. The animals now weigh in the ty members of the Otzinachson club went vesterday, where they will join Mrs. F. W. Crider neighborhood of one thousand pounds, into their large preserve west of Lock He will feed them for two months or Haven but failed to see a single deer. more when he expects to turn out some The next day nine bucks were killed be- Basket Shop interests in the castern cities, pre-county farmers would raise cattle for A party from Windber spent last week beef it would add to their year's income in the mountains back of Martha Fur. Smith, spent several days last week at Centre of the committee who looked after the work. and might reduce the price of meat. nace and were successful in taking home Hall while hunting over his old stamping grounds, Hogs are also quite profitable and the with them eight wild (?) turkeys, six while Calvin Smith spent Sunday with friends in farmer up above Snow Shoe Intersection pheasants and twenty-four rabbits. who is fattening two hundred head for Another party from the same place bag-and the reporters down there are now dubbing him "Prof. J. Linn Harris, of State College:"

ship seems to have run its course, as no ley, went out gunning one day last week deaths have been reported for three and bagged one pheasant, six gray squirrels and two pineys.

A passenger on the Lewisburg and Ty-REPORTED ELOPEMENT- — Yesterday's rone train on Wednesday evening stated

From Pine Grove Mills comes the retember and who has been spending most port that ten deer have been killed by Thomas H. Brew, of Lansford, were in Bellefon hunters from that place and other sec-According to the story Mrs. Crader with tions of the State located on Tussey her three youngest children drove to the mountain and over in Stone valley. Among the lucky hunters mentioned are visit a neighbor, but instead it is alleged, McAlevy's Fort crowd one and the crew unknown. The woman's husband last Kepler had hard luck on the opening day The Excelsions captained by J. Will week sold a beef and it is further alleged of the season when their camp took fire first drive, and about half their camp property and supplies were destroyed. working man and his family have always Fortunately Blair McKelvey arrived at

The Holmes party from College township spent two days near the old Hostler ore mines and returned with a half a dozen pheasants and twenty-eight rab-

The Weaver-Confer-Pletcher aggregation from Howard and vicinity, hunting in the Alleghenies north of Orviston, had secured four deer up to Monday evening. One of them was an eight

FOUR YEARS IN PENITENTIARY. - A dispatch from Winnipeg, Manitoba, last Thursday, stated that Robert Gibson Larimer, a native of Bellefonte, had been sentenced to four years in the penitentiary for absconding with $50,000. Larimer went to Winnipeg less than a year ago and organized the Larimer Automobile company, as a branch of the Detroit Electric company, with himself as president of the concern. Two months ago he disappeared, and it is alleged took $50,000 of the concern's money with him. He was arrested in Boston while watching the last of the series of the world's chamto the penitentiary is the result.

--- There is still considerable corn in

MEWS PURELY PERSONAL

-Mes. E. S. Dorworth was the

-Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dale, of Oak Hall, werente visitors Tuesda

-Edward Swiler, of Lock Haven, was seen in Bellefente Monday, greeting his many fri

-Mrs. Frank McCoy and her daughter Anna will leave Monday to spand next week shorping -Miss Kate Shugers went to Philadelphia Wednesday, expecting to spend a month at Bryn.

Maxin College -William Chamberlain, of Mikon, came to Mrs. Austin O. Furst

-Misses Maude Daley and Lulu Yeager; of the guest this week of Mr. Larirser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William V. Larimer.

-Mr. and Mrs. Brank Shaughe burgh, are in Bellesconte spending, a short vaca-tion with Mr. Shaughensey's relatives...

-Lawrence McMullen, of Hecla, and Andy McNitt, of Waddle, went to Princeton last week, for the Yale-Princeton gama, Saturday, -George Younn, one of the leading lawyers of

-Mrs. Ellight, of Barnesboro, was, the guest of been ill, at her home on High street. Mr. Elliott's mother, Mrs. George Elliott, in Bellefonte for two days the fore past of this week.

pleasant young ladies, was the guest of Miss mother, Mrs. Mary A. Bowers, of Detroit, Mich. Stella Dalay part of last week at han home on east her sister, Mrs. Annie Crist, and Miss Viviag Lamb street -Mrs. John Fryberger, of Philipsburg, and her little daughter were in Bellefonto-the latter part -Misses Mary Schad, Dorothy Platts and Eleanar Weston spent from Wednesday of last week until Sunday with Heary Earon and family, -Mr. and Mrs. Boyd A. Musser and son Harold,

Altoona, were in Bellefonte over Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Musser, of east Lamb street. -Mrs. W. A. White who for the past four years has been overseeing the McClain home on north Allegheny street, left Saturday evening for -G. S. Dumount, of Dunellen, N. J., was in Bellefonte over Sunday visiting Mrs. Dumount, who is spending some time with Mrs. John Powers, of Spring street.

-Mrs. Irving Foster, of State College, spent a part of Tuesday in Bellefonte on her way to Lock Haven, where she is visiting for a week with her -Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth with her small son

for a visit with Mrs. Charles Rath. -The Misses Elizabeth and Mary Bla paring for their Christmas shipment. -Charles Smith, son of register J. Frank a very interesting history and the captain is one

-J. Linn Harris was in Harrisburg last Friday obably because he is so ably filling a chair on the State Forestry Commission.

-Mrs. McCue and her son Joseph, who hav been for a week visiting with Mrs. W. W. Montsomery, are spending a short time in Tyrone with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Luckenbach before re arning to their home at Pittsburgh.

-Mrs. W. I. Fleming will return this week from Harrisburg where she has been for a week with Mr. Fleming. Next week Mr. and Mrs. M. was simply to haul some officials who the alleged elopement of a married wom- Coburn he saw one hunting party with Ward Fleming, of Philipsburg, with their small Thanksgiving.

-Mr. and Mrs. James A. McClain, of Spangler; Mrs. Austin McClain, of Ridgway; Tom the latter part of last week to attend the funeral

-W. Fred Larimer is in Bellefonte visiting his mother, Mrs. Sadie Larimer, He left Cuba. where he has been the past year, about two morning she left the house ostensibly to each one; the Lightner crew one; the York hospital undergoing treatment for injuries sustained in being thrown from a horse.

-Mrs. J. L. Spangler went to Phila Saturday for a short visit with her daugher, Mrs. Blackburn, who is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis. During Mrs. Spangler's shortly after they started out on their after by her daughter, Mrs. McClain, of Spangler -Mrs. Donald Potter and her two sons, Billy and James H. Potter 2nd, went to Crafton last week with Mrs. Potter's mother, Mrs. Prince, several days visit and to see the State-University of Pittsburgh game.

-Earl C. Way, who came east last spring to be at Waddle, returned to Colorado last week. Mr. Way spent last winter in the extreme south stern part of the country, on account of ill health, and is returning west to avoid the severe winter of Pennsylvania -Miss Daise Keichline will go to Pittsburgh rrow for a two week's visit. On her return Miss Keichline will stop at Petersburg for a short stay with Dr. and Mrs. John Keichline, whose with her to spend the Christmas with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keichline.

Philipsburg, Saturday of last week, and left Wednesday for South Carolina, where she will Mrs. S. M. Wetmore. Mrs. Dale, who always goes south about Christmas time, is leaving Cen re county earlier, owing to illness in the Wet

-Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thompson, of Alto phia, where they have been for two weeks or account of the ill health of Mr. Thompson. Dur-ing their absence their two sons, John and George B. Thompson Jr., were in charge of their cou Miss Pricella Boal, of Horton, W. Va., who habeen spending the greater part of the summer a came to Bellefonte Tuesday to spend the few renaining days of their stay in the States with Mrs Pearce's aunt, Miss Mary Snyder. Mr. and Mra Pearce, whose home is in the Canal Zone, have been visiting during a six weeks vacation with their relatives at Baltimore and Latrobe. From Bellefonte they will go directly to New York to

-Mrs. Gault, co Gustim street, is spending time with her daughters, who live at Huntin

-Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Richard are in Philadel phia, having gone down Saturday for a stay of ten days or two weeks.

-Mrs. Frederick Kurtz spent last week, and the early part of this visiting her sisters. Mrs. Levi Murray, at Centre Hall.

-Mr. and Mrs. Wittiam Wolf were in Altoona on Thursday attending the funeral of Mrs. George Wolf, a former resident of Belleinste.

-Mrs. F. H. Vallimont, of Keewadin, Clearfield unty, has beemfor a week the guest of her sie ter and brother, Henry Kohlbecker, at Milesburg -Mrs. Ralph Haag and her daughter Mildred. who have been forthree weeks with Mm. Haag's parents at Lajose, returned to Bellefonto

-Mrs. S. Comeron Burnside left Wadnesday night for Philadelphia to attend the funeral of a friend, and while there will remain for a sho Ramola, were the weak-end guests of Mrs. Walter Falton, of east Lamb, street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, were guests for a day this week of Mrs. Jamy Nolan, at her homeon Thomas nary, Williamsport, spent, last Sunday in Belle fonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tressier, of Reynolds avenue -Miss Emily Kline and Miss Emily Dady, who ave been quests of Miss Rachel Shuey the past two weeks, returned to their home at Willi -Mrs. Kate Hunter, of: Pitlsburgh, arrived in Bellefonte yesterday to spend an indefinite time with ner ount, Mrs. William T. Speer, who has

-Robert Tressler, a student at Dickinson Se

-Among the guests entertained by Mrs. Walsh -Miss Rose McGowan, one of Snow Shoe's at her home on High street this week, was how Messimer, of Jerses Shore.

-Harry Keller and James, C. Furst, Esqs, at tended the session of the Superior court in Philadelphia on Monday, in the case of T. H. Hayter vs. Nathan Haugh. On Tuesday Mr. Keller recoived a telegram that the court had granted a cule to nolle prasse the case.

-Along with W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, who went to, Williamsport yesterday to attend the reunion and camp are of the 45th regiment. were George W. Loner, of Starmstown: W. Poorman and John H. Reed, of Coleville, and W.

H. Musser and John Nolan, of Bellefor -Mrs. John W. Conley and Mrs, Rebecca-Derstine passed through Bellefonte last Saturday on their way home to Centre Hall after spending four and a half wonths in Illinois, the former isiting her son lames and the latter circulating among her several brothers residing in that State.

-Miss Jean Wallace, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of Miss Nellie Conley. Miss Wallace was in Bellefonte for the Charity ball last week and remained to attend the fraternity house parties with Miss Conley at State. Returning to Bellefente Monday, Miss Wallace will, after several, days here, go on to Pittsburgh.

-Mrs. Charles Eckenroth, will leave shortly for New York city, where she will be with her son for the greater part of the winter. In addition to New York she will visit with relatives in York. Pa., and in Harrisburg. During her absence her house on Howard street will be occupied by Mrand Mrs. DeVictor and their family,

-Capt. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, pessed through Bellefonte yesterday morning on his way to Williamsport to attend the annual remain of the Forty-fifth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers. The survivors of this regiment recently published

-Miss Ellen Hayes, who was operated on for John Deaver at the German hospital in Philadelphia, came to Bellefonte last night with her mother, Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes, Miss Hayes will remain in Bellefonte while convalescing, expecting to return to her studies at Sweet Briar col-

CARPER-SHARER .- On Saturday evening, November 16th, George A. Carper, of Linden Hall, and Miss Bertha M. Sharer. of Centre Hall, were happily married at the Reformed parsonage in Boalsburg by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover.

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce otatoes per bushel, new... Eggs, per dozen Lard, per pound Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press.

Red Wheat White Wh

The following are the closing prices of the

The Best Advertising Medium in Pennsylvania.

age to express, its own views, prin

ADVERTISING CHARGES LEGAL AND TRANSI All legal and transient advertis

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS. The following discounts will be allowed on ad-taken of orders to insert advertisements at rates than above, nor will any notice be give orders of parties unknown to the publisher us accompanied by the cash.