SECOND WEEK OF DECEMBER COURT .-

The first case taken up was that of Thomas Fishburn vs. the Supervisors of from a week's business trip to Philadelph College township, being an action in trespass. The plaintiff contended that by changing the location of a bridge over Slab Cabin creek, on the part of the supervisors, he was cut off from watering his stock at his usual watering place and was compelled to travel much farther for ell, of Lemont, were Christmas shoppers in Belle and Lieutenants E. R. Taylor and Linn this purpose. The defendants alleged that the location of the bridge was changed with the knowledge and consent of the plaintiff. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendants.

M. Blanche Cook Gibson, assignee of William Sellers and Edward Sellers, administrators of etc., of W. L. Sellers, deceased, vs. Edward Sellers, trustee in mortgage. Verdict for the plaintiff for $2,014,50.

College township vs. Thomas M. Fishdamages which the plaintiff district was compelled to pay for the loss of a colt, injured through the defendant's negligence. Verdict for $213.30, subject to a question of law reserved.

Court adjourned on Wednesday until cense court will be held.

TAYLOR SENT TO JAIL FOR SIX MONTHS. -In quarter sessions court last week John Taylor, of Potter township, was convicted of inhuman cruelty for beating one of his horses with an iron rod until the animal died; and on another case was convicted of malicious mischief for blowing up a bridge and some fencing be all that will be necessary. They will months. The remains were taken to with dynamite. The court allowed him also be close to the Central Railroad of Baltimore, where she was born, for interthe stipulation that he be in court on Tuesday of this week to receive sentence.

> Mr. Taylor was present on Tuesday and when called before the court Judge Orvis told him that he would be as lenient with him as possible, considering the gravity of the crime. In the case of malicious mischief he suspended sentence, pending his good behavior in the future, but for beating and killing his horse he was sentenced to pay a fine of $150, costs this week. in the county jail for a period of six months. The judge told Mr. Taylor that had the horse he killed belonged to would have been one of greater gravity

THE TURKEY QUESTION.-With Chris mas coming on apace the turkey question is beginning to loom up big. Not the European Turkey, where the carnage of war is in full sway, but that toothsome Petrikin hall on Sunday to hear Miss turkey bird that is used to grace the Christmas dinner table, when the family "The Sign of the Cross," and every one can afford to have that kind of grace. present appreciated the entertainment to Prior to Thanksgiving day quite a number of turkeys were brought to Bellefonte by Centre county farmers but as the al ability and the different characters in price demanded, 18 and 20 cents a pound, was considered too high local dealers bought only what they had to have for LIGHT AND POWER PLANT CHANGES out a change of costume. Miss MacLaren regular customers and some farmers were compelled to take their turkeys back home. Since that time the tendency of the market has been downward and now dealers are offering but 17 and 18 cents for turkeys live weight, and some are not particular about paying that price, as dressed turkeys can be shipped to Beliefonte from other markets and sold at a price equal to the above. From all accounts there are quite a number of turkeys in Centre county, some farmers having flocks of from twenty to thirty, and there is no excuse for unreasonably high prices.

BELLEFONTE FOUNDRY REJUVENATED .-Considerable work has already been done toward getting the Bellefonte foundry in shape for active operations. Henry John son, a member of the firm who have leased the plant and will put it in operabusiness for Centre county. They have Bellefonte. They expect to supply twenand with a small force of men has whitewashed the buildings, painted where deemed necessary and cleaned the machinery so that it looks almost like new. The foundry has been cleaned out, the patterns gone over and the entire plant is beginning to assume a good shape for business. Messrs. White and Barry, two of the men interested in he new company, are now at their homes in Philadelphia and the probability is they will not come Army local headquarters are at 114 east here permanently until after the first of foundry will be put in the year when the active operation. In the meantime Mr. ohnson will remain in Bellefonte and look after the plant.

FREE TUBERCULOSIS EXHIBIT .- A free tuberculosis exhibit will be on display in the grand jury room of the court house all of next week. The exhibit will be under the supervision of Dr. S. M. Huff county medical inspector, and Dr. William S. Miller, of the State Board of Health. At opportune times during the day Dr. Miller will lecture on this subject at the Reformed church in Howard on the evening of the 17th, of December; at the M.
