

Novie

194191

Belletonte, Pa., January 17, 1913. CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications unless accompanied by the real nam

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

of the writer.

-Dr. M. A. Kirk has been appointed the railroad. In crossing the bridge he county physician in place of Dr. J. L Seibert, resigned.

day, Jan. 22nd and 23rd, Bellefonte special trade days.

FOR RENT .- Brick livery stable for rent, centrally located. Inquire of LYON & CO. 48-3-3t

-A number of Bellefonte motorists are planning to take in the automobile show in Philadelphia next week.

-Fire doors are being put up in the hall on the second floor of the Bush Arcade, as an extra precaution only.

-W. R. Gainfort, 108 east Curtin St., will start his next Shorthand Class on Tuesday evening, Feb. 4th. 3-2t* ----There were thirteen accessions to rendered unconscious, so that when he the Presbyterian church on Sunday, twelve on confession of faith and one by letter.

-The illness with the grip of Danie Hall, of Unionville, is thought to be the result of overwork on the new home into which he and his family have recently moved.

-The condition of Mrs. William Harper, who was taken sick a week ago and later developed pneumonia, is so serious that much alarm is felt by her family concerning her recovery.

The patronage of the public is solicited.

Cameron and Jefferson counties.

----In a list of prospective movings in Bellefonte, published in last week's WATCHMAN, R. Russel Blair was credited 2.30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. with having leased the Orbison house on A. J. Hill, of the Free Methodist church, Curtin street to be vacated by the Casestance, as they have not done so.

-Mr. and Mrs. William E. Seel, of Paxtang, who left on January 4th on a trip to Panama, have been summoned home on account of the death of Mr. Seel's mother, which occurred on Monday. Mrs. William E. Seel was formerly Miss Jennie Fauble, of this place.

-A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casebeer, at their home on pany and was repairing a bridge where

ELLSWORTH MILLER MEETS SUDDEN -The tea given by Mrs. E. Norris DEATH .- Ellsworth Miller, a well known Bogle, at the "Forge House" Saturday, AS SMALLPOX .- Bellefonte has had a resident near Nittany furnace, fell was in honor of Mrs. Norris Bogle, of smallpox scare this week, but the scare through the railroad bridge over Logan's New York city. At the dinner given by is probably worse than the disease. At branch, a short distance above the swing Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson, last evening eight that three houses are under quarantine factory, last Saturday evening, and covers were laid. Five hundred was in and each one harbors an alleged smalldrowned before he was rescued from the play at all the tables at Mrs. Gamble's pox patient. The first case was Gilbert stream. The accident happened about card party Tuesday evening. 8:30 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Miller was on his way home from Bellefonte either slipped or made a misstep and fell Academy five, winning a victory by the through. Mrs. Hannah Flack was a short score of 35 to 28. The second game will ----Don't forget Wednesday and Thurs- distance ahead of him and at once be played tomorrow (Saturday) evening. gave the alarm. A crowd soon collected in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, with the rived upon the scene that Miller was sport are urged to attend and witness the taken from the creek. He was found contest.

-Miss Mary E. Glass, of Jersey Shore, will give recitals in the Methodist churches at Filmore on Thursday evening, January 23rd; at Waddle on Friday evening, January 24th; at Stormstown on Saturday evening, January 25th, and at broken, which was the cause of his death, Scotia on Monday evening, January 27th, but the doctors also found his lungs filled at 7:30 o'clock. Admission price 10 cents, and the proceeds to be devoted for falling through the trestle he struck his the benefit of the several churches. The public is invited to attend.

landed in the creek he was unable to help -At the Scenic you will always be able to see the newest and best in the He had a bruise on the forehead and a moving picture line. The drama, fiction deep gash on the chin, which would and real life is portrayed as faithfully as make it appear that he was unconscious leading actors and actresses and the before he reached the water and that camera can depict them. Travel pictures was the probably reason for the drown- are not given the prominence they should ing, for the water was only waist deep have on the film makers program, but where he fell in and the body had not the best of what there are can be seen at the Scenic. Feature films are also be-Elmer Ellsworth Miller was a son of ing made a specialty at this popular place David and Mary Miller and was born in of amusement.

Bellefonte on December 10th, 1864, thus being 49 years, 1 month and 1 day old. -The ladies of the Presbyterian All his life was spent in this vicinity, come "The Neapolitans" celebrated sing- in the town it is claimed was -Harry Williams has resigned his children: Mrs. Frank Mackey, of Niagara number in the Y. M. C. A. Star course. can learn there is nothing definite. liam, all residing near Bellefonte.

Methodist church at Nittany furnace at officiated and was assisted by Rev. beers. We were misinformed in this in. Samuel Stimer. Burial was made in the Sunnyside cemetery.

lying on his back and as the creek is deep at that place his head was under water.

Physicians were hastily summoned who worked over the man for an hour without being able to resuscitate him. It was claimed by some that the man's neck was with water. The probability is that in head on a tie or girder and was at least himself.

moved.

KILLED NEAR CLEARFIELD .- Afbertus B. Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arrista Lucas, of Bush Hollow, fell from a railroad bridge near Clearfield on Wednesday morning and was so badly injured that ployed by the Pennsylvania railroad com- able manner.

SEVERAL CASES OF ILLNESS DIAGNOSED Smith, a son of Jacob Smith, of Bishop street. He was taken ill on January 2nd

-The Bellefonte Academy basket- and the latter part of last week his atand as was his usual custom walked up ball team opened the season on Tuesday tending physician pronounced his ailment evening with a game with the Juniata chickenpox. On Sunday evening, however, the case was diagnosed as smallpox and the house was quarantined Monday morning, all the family leaving with the exception of Mrs. Smith. The sick man but it was not until Abe Brandon ar- strong Renovo team. Lovers of this is thirty-two years old and unmarried.

On Monday morning the home of Harry Irvin, on south Water street, was quarantined on the report of a physician, Harris. who gave Mrs. Irvin as a victim of the he found the alleged patient in the yard finishing the family wash. Monday Morris Smith, of Logan street, ill with trip to Altoona. the disease and the home was quarantined on Tuesday morning.

In the meantime the State Board of Health had been communicated with and Dr. C. J. Hunt, chief medical inspector, came to Bellefonte Monday afternoon. He made a thorough investigation of existing conditions and stated that in his opinion the disease was not the genuine smallpox but abortive smallpox. It is manifest in a breaking out on the face and body then might disappear for a day or two only to break out again. How the smallpox germs were carried to Bellefonte, if smallpox it is, is a mystery. None of the victims of the alleged disease have been away from the town -From the sunny shores of Italy for some time, but one man who visited church will hold an Exchange in the most of the time as an employee of the ers and instrumentalists of the romantic from an infected district. Various theo-Index stationery store, beginning at two furnace company. He was married on and serenader type, who will appear in ries are being advanced and much specuo'clock tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon. October 10th, 1884, to Miss Sarah Bath- Petrikin hall on Wednesday evening, lation indulged in by doctors and the urst who survives with the following January 22nd, at 8.30 o'clock, as the next public at large but so far as the writer position as solicitor for the Bell Tele- Falls; Mrs. Preston Garbrick, of Belle- It is a complete orchestra and chorus In the meantime there is hardly any phone company of Pennsylvania to ac- fonte; Alice, Agnes, David, Ellen, Alfred under the direction of Signor Arturo cause for a serious scare. The situation cept a job as special representative for and Zebulun at home. He also leaves Lamberti. Five fine soloists, flute and is well in hand and if any new cases dethe Oliver Typewriter company for Elk, three brothers, George, James and Wil- piccolo, violin, 'cello, tenor and soprano velop they will be promptly quarantined add to the orchestral and choral parts of and every precaution used to prevent The funeral services were held in the the program. Don't miss this rare treat, any spread of the disease.

> OLD WASHINGTON FURNACE PROPERTY -A fair house witnessed the performance of Charles Klein's play, "The TO CHANGE HANDS .- A deal has prac-Lion and the Mouse," at Garman's on tically been closed for the sale of the old Wednesday evening, and the play gave Washington furnace property to Charles Centre Hall, expecting to be with Mrs. Hoy for general satisfaction. The principals in Steele, of New York, a member of the the cast were Richardson Cotton, as John lumbering firm of William Witmer & Co. Burkett Ryder the money-gambler and The property embraces about fifteen political dictator, and Miss Jane Hampton, thousand acres, most of which is moun- the National Cement Association convention in who took the part of Shirley Rossmore, tain and woodland, and was at one time session in the colosseum in that city. daughter of the persecuted judge. John owned by James McHenry. He died Coylor as Jefferson Ryder was also a many years ago and through marriage he died the same night in the Clearfield pleasing character, while each member of the heirs to the property became so hospital. Lucas was a stone-mason em- the company took their part in a credit- numerous that in order to keep their in, Bellefonte to accompany them home. terests identical an organization was -George M. Harter, of Nittany, transacted to leave him practically no opportunity

-Mrs. Vickery, a Scranton woman, poration and each heirs interest was

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-James Furst went to Williamsport Saturday or the week-end.

-Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte. -W. E. Tyson, of Tyrone, was a WATCHMAN office caller on Monday. -Mrs. Sarah Kelly left on Tuesday for nonth's visit with friends in New York. -Joseph Lose, of Philadelphia, was a visitor ver Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lose.

-Mr. and Mrs. William Martz, of Tusseyville were Bellefonte visitors last Friday, and callers at the WATCHMAN office.

-Mrs. Edward L. Irwin left on Saturday for Cherrytree to spend some time with Mr. Irwin, who is again employed in that place.

-Mrs. J. M. Curtin, of Pittsburgh, came to Beliefonte Friday, spending the week-end and until Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. George

-Harry F. Goss, of Williamsport, was a Belledisease. When a policeman went to the fonte visitor over Tuesday night, delivering a Irvin home to put up the quarantine card new car purchased by J. A. Williams, of Port Garman in celebration of his birthday anniver-

-Mr. F. D. Ray, of New York city, spent Sunyard finishing the family wash. Monday evening another physician reported Brockerhoff house while on his way on a business

-Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boozer and son Shannon, of Centre Hall, spent Saturday afternoon in Bellefonte; Mr. Boozer making a call at this office during his stay in town.

-Elmer Heverley and son Malin, of Duncans ville, were in Bellefonte over Sunday on account of the serious illness of Mr. Heverley's mother. Mrs. Charles Heverley.

-Harry Keller Esq., returned on Tuesday from a ten day's visit with his uncle, Judge Frank Kel. ler, at Charleston. W. Va. Mrs. Keller and little son William will remain a week longer.

-Mrs. E. P. Moore and her daughter Katherine, of Tyrone, are in Bellefonte, expecting to spend the remainder of the winter with Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, at the toll

-Miss Emily Valentine, who has been in Bellefonte since Christmas with her aunt, Miss Emily Natt, and with Mrs. G. Murray Andrews, returned to her home with Mrs. Bond, at Baltimore, on Wednesday.

-Mrs. E. S. Mobley, of Beech Creek, with her daughter, left Bellefonte Wednesday morning after visiting for the greater part of a week with her sister, Mrs. James McClure, at her home on Logan street

-Mr. and Mrs. Walter Armstrong, of Salona, have been in Bellefonte the past two weeks on account of the illness with pneumonia of Mrs. Armstrong's mother, Mrs. James S. Carson, of

-Miss Hannah Newman and her sister, Mrs. Loeb, of Altoona, came to Bellefonte Wednesday. and for the few days of their visit here will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grauer, at their me on Linn street.

-Mrs. William B. Mingle, who will go to Philadelphia with her daughter, Mrs. J. Emory Hoy upon her return home, will close her house in the remainder of the winter.

-John Knisely with his daughter. Miss Pearl Knisely, and Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoades, of Coleville, left for Chicago, Wednesday, to attend -Mrs. J. R. Underwood and three children, of Renovo, arrived in Bellefonte last Saturday for a son that their business has grown to few days' visit at the Isaac Underwood home on Spring street. Mr. Underwood will come to made called the Associated Estates cor- business in Bellefonte on Tuesday. He is one of to look after his other interests, or spend

-William P. Humes left on Tuesday to spend a few days at Bedford

-Mrs. Biddle, of Detroit, Michigan, is visitin with her sister, Mrs. Hugh N. Crider

-Fred Chambers, of Philadelphia, was in Belle fonte on Wednesday on a business trip.

-Miss Margaret Harbison, of Pittsburgh, has been the guest of Miss Nellie Conley since com ing to Bellefonte two weeks ago.

-Col. and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds are spending a short time in Philadelphia and New York, having gone east the beginning of the week.

-Mrs. Ralph Mallory went down to Philadel phia last Saturday to visit for a week or so w her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy.

-Miss Parrish, of Ebensburg, a sister of C. M. Parrish, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Parrish, of Curtin street, for the past three weeks

-Suffering from a severe cold. Judge Orvis went to Philadelphia on Wednesday night to con sult with his physician in regard to his health. -James R. Hughes left Bellefonte Wednesda night on an important business trip to New York. Mr. Hughes will return to Bellefonte Monday. -Edwin F. Garman was in Tyrone on Tuesday

-Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Twitmire, of Sunbury, were in Bellefonte on Wednesday visiting the former's father, Mr. W. T. Twitmire, and sister, Mrs. Waddle.

-Mrs. Emil Joseph and son Edmund, of New York city, and Manuel, of Peekskill, N. Y., were in Bellefonte vesterday for the funeral of the late Herman Holz.

-The Misses Anne and Caroline Valentine went to Harrisburg Tuesday, and will be during the week they spend there, guests of Mrs. J. Wilson Norris and Mrs. McCormick.

-Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider went to Philadelphia Monday, expecting to go from there to the shore for a short stay, and later to visit with their daughter, Mrs. Rath, at Elizabeth N. I.

-J. Wallace Gephart and Mrs. Gephart returned Wednesday night from a visit with Dr. an Mrs. Hiller, at Chester, and a business trip to New York city. Mr. and Mrs. Gephart left Bellefonte Saturday.

-Mrs. Haywood Boone, of Lambert, Miss., who with her three children, Ruth, James and Robert, have been with Mrs. Boone's mother, Mrs. Wash ngton Irvin, of Reynolds avenue, since in the fall. eft Bellefonte Saturday of Iast week, to return to their home in the south.

-Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick has this week been entertaining his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kilpatrick, of Pittsburgh. Mr. Kilpatrick Sr., is a well known portrait artist and he and his wife were on their way home from a trip to Paris and other art centres abroad

-Mr. and Mrs. Wells L. Daggett left Bellefonte Thursday for Wellsboro, where Mr. Daggett will remain for an indefinite time with his brother Seth Daggett, while convalescing from his recent illness. Mrs. Daggett accompanied him on the journey, expecting to return immediately

T. A. SHOEMAKER HAS GIVEN UP AC-TIVE MANAGEMENT OF EYRE-SHOE-MAKER INC .-- Announcement has been made of the withdrawal of T. A. Shoemaker from the active management of the business of the firm of Evre-Shoemaker Inc., railroad contractors. While Mr. Shoemaker retains his interest in the corporation be has withdrawn from the position of general manager for the reasuch proportions that its demands upon his time were growing so constantly as the representative men of Walker township where the time at his home that he ve he has lived for twenty years and it is always a desires. pleasure to have such men come around. -Mrs. W. H. Earon, of Unionville, was a Belle

3

Curtin street. Monday morning. The baafter Mr. Casebeer. Since its birth the it was quite sick.

-Five or six young ladies of Bellefonte have organized a mandolin and guitar club and are planning many deent time they have not been booked for a professional tour but there is no telling what the future may bring forth.

ing, January 25th, in the Grange hall. Forest, Ruth, Margaret and Donald. He Price of admission will be ten cents for also leaves his parents and the following invited.

studio was broken into and all the pic- home. tures therein stolen. Who committed them dear.

----The home at State College owned making some changes, will with his familv take it for their home, Mrs. Buttz having made arrangements to move into the house she owns in the western end of the town.

-Mr. and Mrs. William Bottorf. upon leaving Petrikin hall, will move into the house on Spring street at present occupied by Mr. and Mrs. David Kelley. Mrs. S. Cameron Burnside, who will leave the Sand's house and store her furniture in the spring, has made arrangements to make her home at the Bush house for a time.

-The labor saving Daynglo cloths for polishing gold, silver, brass and all kinds of metals are most popular with the up-to-date housekeeper and are being sold in great numbers by the home mistreasurer, S. Gray Mattern. sionary society of the Methodist church of Bellefonte. These cloths which sell for twenty-five cents can be gotten either LICENSES.-On Tuesday Judge Ellis L. from Mrs. John A. Woodcock or from Orvis heard the arguments on the remon-Miss Ida Green.

fore announcing his decision. after.

one road crossed overhead the other. In by has been christened Charles Dickens, attempting to pry a post loose he slipped to Rev. Charles Vickery, assistant pastor and fell eighteen feet to the lower rail- of the Elm Park Methodist church, went child has not been strong, and yesterday road track, alighting on his head and to the mission field of northern India, crushing his skull.

Deceased was born at Bush Hollow and church, Tuesday evening, January 21st. was going on thirty years old. He was Mrs. Vickery will appear in the dress of an industrious young man and his un- a high caste Hindu woman and a part of lightful evenings together. At the pres- timely death is deeply deplored by all the program will be devoted to impersonwho knew him. For some years he and ating the child widow of India. Reprehis little family have resided in Union- senting the foreign missionary society of ville, while he went wherever sent by the the Central Pennsylvania conference, a the land himself for an experiment in -The Ladies Aid society of the railroad company. His wife before her silver offering will be taken. In anticipa-Buffalo Run Presbyterian church will marriage was Miss Brower, of Unionville, tion of a most interesting evening every hold an entertainment on Saturday even- and she survives with four small children, one is asked to hear Mrs. Vickery.

----Miss Jane Addams, the prominent adults and five cents for children. Re- brothers and sisters. Mrs. Hinton and Chicago Social and Settlement worker, freshments will be served. Everybody is Harry A., of Pitcairn; Mrs. Ellery Spotts, will be at State College over the coming

Mrs. Edna Spotts and Mrs. Roy Alexan- Sunday, January 19th. She will lecture -Sometime during last Saturday der, of Bush Hollow; Mrs. Elizabeth on Saturday evening in the auditorium, weeks ago the WATCHMAN published the salmon canning plants on the Pacific coast and is night the glass display case belonging to Shirry, of Williamsport; Martha, Wil- under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. fact that bids were being solicited for the Miss Mary McGarvey's photographic liam, Gertrude, Lawrence and Ernest at The lecture will be at eight o'clock. Ad-The remains were brought from Clear- will speak at morning chapel and at sider it a good opportunity to clear up sey Shore, visited over night with Mrs. D. G. the deed is not known but if the guilty field yesterday noon and taken to his the evening Y. M. C. A service. The party or parties are located it will cost late home in Unionville to await the fun- Bellefonte Central railroad will run a of individuals and firms are figuring on noon at one o'clock. Funeral services for the lecture tomorrow (Saturday) and occupied by Mrs. George Buttz has will be at the house and later at the Ad- evening if enough of tickets are guaranbeen sold to William L. Foster, who after vent church, burial to be made in the teed, so that if you desire to go you thousand dollars. This bid was consid. the late Col. James F. Weaver, well known all should arrange the matter at once. Advent cemetery.

> CENTRE COUNTY ASSOCIATION OF PHIL- FIRST AID TO THE INJURED LECTURE. ADELPHIA.-The officers and board of -Dr. Matthew J. Shields, a field repredirectors of the above association held a sentative of the Red Cross society, was meeting in the office of Dr. Roland G. in Bellefonte last Saturday morning and Curtin, 22 south Eighteenth street, Phila- lectured on first aid to the injured to the delphia, on Friday evening, January 10th. plant department of the Bell Telephone and decided to hold the next annual mid- company of Pennsylvania and all others winter banquet at the Continental hotel who cared to hear him. The lecture was on Saturday evening, February 1st, 1913. given in the hall of the Bush Arcade and All Centre countians residing in and a good crowd was present.

about Philadelphia are cordially invited The purpose of Dr. Shields' lecture is to attend and earnestly requested to send to teach men how to handle any emertheir names to the secretary at once. The gency case while working far from a of this old and well known furnace plant. present officers of the accociation are: place where a doctor can be secured, and The work of dismantling will not take President, Dr. Roland G. Curtin; vice to reduce the mortality rate of accidents place until after April first. president, Ira D. Garman; secretary, John as much as possible. The doctor gave C. C. Beale, 41 south Fifteenth street: demonstrations of how accidents should broken arm or leg, electric burns, drown- Uffington Valentine, and Miss Eleanor ARGUMENT FOR AND AGAINST LIQUOR ing, axphixiation, etc., accompanying his Elkins, of Philadelphia, which occurred practicums with minute explanations of in London, England, some time during how each case should be handled.

Many accident cases result fatally bestrance against the granting of liquor li--The first of 'a series of five dances censes in the borough of Philipsburg. The cause the injured man is not given was given at the Logan hose house last remonstrants were represented by Richard prompt and proper attention. To minnight under the management of the com- H. Gilbert, of Tyrone, who is working in imize this danger as largely as possible mittee arranging for the dances of the the interest of the Anti-Saloon League, the Bell Telephone company is equipping Bellefonte for a time. Mr. Valentine is a Cotillion club. The club as organized is while four applicants for license were each one of its gangs with a first-aid kit, native of Bellefoute and will be recalled bers will have the privilege of taking in H. S. Taylor and one by N. B. Spangler. and ammonia capsules to be used in case county. addition to their wives, one guest. Their The argument took up the entire day of an electric shock or overcome by gas.

dances according to present'arrangements and at its conclusion Judge Orvis took To explain the proper use of these things was the purpose of Dr. Shields' lecture. special trade days.

who eight years ago upon her marriage allotted by stock in the concern. It was from this corporation that Mr. Steele made the purchase.

the deals means. There is considerable that beautiful little town of Unionville, which is a will tell of her work, in the Methodist second growth timber on the land and credence is given the story that lumbering for the land Mr. Steele himself made the statement that he was purchasing that Teddy was defeated. ands of trees planted each year until the entire tract was replanted and in good growing order. In the meantime the public can await the outcome.

BIDS FOR NITTANY FURNACE.-Several dismantling of the Nittany furnace plant some money is the fact that over a score eral which will be held on Sunday after- special train to the College and return it. When the nail works plant was dis-deal.

thousand, but the Philadelphia people be ow Milesburg. were practical junk men and they clean-

Nothing definite is yet known about the bids being submitted for Nittany furnace but it is alleged they range anywhere from eight thousand dollars upward. Several Bellefonte people will submit bids, if they have not already done so. The successful bidder will be required to entirely dismantle the plant and remove all the fall. The two met while traveling sult. They will spend the winter in Egypt and return to America in the composed of about thirty of the younger represented by George W. Zeigler, three which contains antiseptic bandages, as the author of "Hecla Sandwith," a nov- day from Kennebunk Port, Maine, where she had married men of the town, who as mem- by Gettig, Bower & Zerby, three by Col. splints, acids to be used in case of burns el based on persons and scenes in Centre been with her mother since leaving here in the

-----Don't forget Wednesday and Thurswill be given two before Lent and three the testimony for due consideration be- and demonstrate the method of produce day, Jan. 22nd and 23rd, Bellefonte fonte visitor on Monday. She has decided to sell There is some speculation as to what their farm in Benner township and the home in good opportunity for some one to secure a nice comfortable location.

-Isaac Fuld, a traveling man who gave up the ing operations will be started there by road last fall to go on the stump for President William Witmer & Co. But while deal- Taft, is back at his old job and made his first trip

-Mrs. Michael Sennet, who with her husband reforestation. That expert foresters and brother, lives on Purdue mountain, was in would be put to work there and thous- Bellefente Wednesday attending to business and shopping, Mr. and Mrs. Sennet moved to the Burnside farm a year ago after having lived the greater part of their lives at Runville

-William Stewart, of Seattle, Washington, a rived in Bellefonte last Saturday for his annual visit with his mother. Mrs. Miller Stewart, of Linn street. Mr. Stewart has one of the largest one of Seattle's representative citizens. -Mrs. M. P. Hepburn, of Jersey Shore, came to Bellefonte Friday with Mrs. George P. Steele, mission 35 and 50 ce its. On Sunday she and as evidence that junk dealers con- of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Steele, who had been at Jer Bush, returning to Pittsburgh Saturday, while Mrs. Hepburn will remain with Mrs. Bush for an indefinite time.

-J. H. Weaver Jr., of Boggs township, transmantled a few years ago it was secured acted business in Bellefonte on Monday and was by a Philadelphia concern for about six a pleasant visitor at this office. He is a son of over Centre county because of his work in the ered high by local people who bid five Grange, and occupies the old Weaver homestead

-Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fenlon arrived in Belleed up over ten thousand dollars on the fonte Monday night from a two week's stay in Philadelphia. Spending the night at the Bush house, Mr. and Mrs. Fenlon opened their home on Allegheny street Tuesday. where they were joined by Mr. Fenlon's sister, who has come to spend some time in Bellefonte. -Mrs. Upton H. Reamer was in Bellefonte for a short time Wednescay, adding to her prepara" tions for going south, she and Mr. Reamer expecting to spend the remainder of the winter with relatives in North Carolina. Upon their return to Williamsport, Mr. and Mrs. Reamer anticipate coming to Bellefonte to board for a time.

-Rev. George M. Glenn, of Philipsburg, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte attending court, hearing the arguments for and against the repeal of some of the licenses in the borough of Philipsburg. Mr. Glenn had been one of the originators of a demonstrations of how accidents should _____Word was received in Bellefonte petition to the court from the temperance people of his town, asking that the liquor places be lesened in number.

> -Charles Lucas Jr., of Runville, was a pleasant and interesting caller at the WATCHMAN office on Tuesday morning. When the fact is taken into consideration that Mr. Lucas is eighty years of abroad and their marriage was the re- age he is a remarkable man. He has been conducting his own farm right along and last fall he threshed rye with a flail in order to get the long straw. Bald Eagle valley is certainly productive spring, when they expect to come to of longevity in its residents at any rate.

> > -Mrs Robert Morris and her small son Alex ander G. Morris 3rd, arrived in Bellefonte Tues early summer. Mrs. Morris has come to join Mr. Morris expecting to make her home in Bel and will be with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris until the repairs on the Harper house, which they will occupy, have been completed and the furn

The announcement will prove a great source of pleasure to Mr. Shoemaker's friends and acquaintances about here. for it means that he is to become more of a resident of Bellefonte, spending more of his time here, than he has for years.

----Ground has been broken on the lot to Bellefonte since the election, this week. His adjoining A. J. Cook's residence on West one cause for gratification over the election is Linn street for the new house to be built by James C. Furst.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce Potatoes per bushel, new..... Eggs, per doz

Bellefonte Grain Markets

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, owing are the quotations up to six o'clock evening, when our paper goes to press. The following Thursday even Red Wheat. White Whe kye, per bushel..... Corn, shelled, per bu Corn, ears, per bushel..... Oats, old and new, per bus

Philadelphia Markets

The following are the closing prices of the Wheat-Red Corn -Yellow..... -Mixed new. Oats Flour --Winter, per barre Rye Flour per barrel Baled Hay-Choice Straw

The Best Advertising Medium in Centra Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with indepedence enough to have, and with ability and con age to express, its own views, printed in eigh page form—six columns to page—and is recevery week by more than ten thousand response ble people. It is issued every Friday morning, the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year....

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-cept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES

A limited amount of advertising space will be sold at the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT.

All legal and transient advertising our weeks or less,

First insertion, per line..... Each additional insertion, p Local Notices, per line..... Business Notices, per line... ion, per line... 5 cts

ESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS Per inch, each insertion. 25 cts.

The following discounts will be allowed on ad-

3

ers to in