Democratic Watchman.

Belletonte, Pa., April 4, 1913.

TO CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications published unless accompanied by the real nam of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

--- The farmers are now at work on their spring plowing.

----The opening of the trout fishing season is now only eleven days off.

-Don't fail to visit the bargain counters at China Hall, beginning today. -Barnum and Bailey's circus is booked for Altoona for Monday, May hospital.

-A baby girl arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Solt, on Beaver St., last Friday.

-A kitchen shower was tendered in honor of her approaching marriage to Edward Waite.

-A young son arrived in the home of Lieut, Richard Taylor and one in the home of Lieut. J. Linn Blackford, on Friday of last week.

----The annual spring inspection of Friday evening. .Major Rutherford was the train. While his injuries are inspecting officer. serious they are not likely to prove fatal.

----Hon. L. S. Walter, of Mt. Carme has accepted the invitation of Gregg Post to deliver their annual Memorial day address on May 30th.

-George A. Beezer delivered a new loads he recently received.

-J. A. McClellan moved in the beginning of the week from Stormstown to near the old glass works site.

-A joint meeting of the Parent-Teachers association and the study class in history, will be held in the auditorium of the High school, Tuesday evening, April 8th.

----Mr. and Mrs. John H. Beck, of Nittany, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Beatrice, to G. Nevin consigned to the National Red Cross So-Hoy, of Philadelphia, the wedding to take ciety relief committee. place in June. In addition to the above manager T.

-----The friends of W. Gross Mingle in this place will be pleased to learn that he last night's receipts for the benefit of the likes his new home in Wilkes-Barre very flood sufferers, and Miss Mary Bradley much and is getting into his new busiand others will give a concert in the ness there even more satisfactorily than opera house next Monday night for the he had hoped. same good cause.

-The Ladies Aid society of the U. The citizens of State College contribu-B. church will give a chicken and waffle ted $375 for the benefit of the sufferers, supper on the evening of April 10th in which amount was sent to Governor the rooms of the society connected with Tener on Monday and by him forwarded The old license expired on Monday and day of last week Miss Mary Pricklemeyer; the country, finds it necessary to make semi-anthe church, to which the public is most to the Red Cross Society. cordially invited.

THE THIRD DEGREE.-The United Play

INJURED ON RAILROAD .-- John Morgan is in the Bellefonte hospital with a broken leg, broken nose and a number of cuts Knights of the Golden Eagle, will cele- College made their sixteenth annual apand bruises as the result of being struck brate the 23rd anniversary of its institu- pearance at Garman's Saturday night and, by the passenger train on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania. The accident hap- members are requested to bring their Their production this year is a melange in Bellefonte over Sunday, a guest of his fiance, pened near the junction of the viaduct wives, sweethearts and friends. A pleas- of music and dancing under the title of Miss Nelle Conley. and the Central railroad almost opposite ant evening is in store for everyone. Re- "The Yankee Brigands." There is the lime kilns, about 9.40 o'clock last freshments will be served at 25 cents per enough of plot to follow without being a Saturday morning, as the passenger train plate.

was on the return trip to Bellefonte.

-Announcement has been made of Just as the train rounded the curve at the engagement of Miss Marie B. Reese, the lime kilns the engineer saw a man a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reese, standing in the middle of the track intently of Snow Shoe, and Theodore B. Shank, looking at something he held in his hands. of Jeannette. Miss Resse is a graduate He blew the whistle and the fireman of the Bellefonte High school and the jerked the bellrope, but the man paid no Indiana Normal and is now teacher of attention. The air was thrown on and one of the schools at Jeannette. Mr. every effort made to stop the train but Shank is a native of Norfolk, Va., and at the distance was too short and the man present is superintendent of the Jeanwas struck and thrown to the side of the nette schools. The wedding will probatrack. When the train stopped he was bly take place during the summer. picked up and put aboard and brought to the station, where it was discovered that he was John Morgan. The ambulance day evening, April 8th, at 8 o'clock sharp. entirely too heavy for the soloists and Miss Edith Corman, last Friday evening, was summoned and he was taken to the The subject matter, "The Civil War," often times leaving it only to conjecture gan claimed that he had walked down give "The Causes," "The Events Leading particularly Frank Ashbrook's "Violetta," the track and neither heard nor saw the to the War," "The Emancipation Proctrain coming. Morgan's pocketbook was lamation," "The Close of the War," Leicester Raynor's "Tom Brooks," and found on the pilot of the engine and it is "The Results of the War," "The Present Herman G. Miller's "Dorothy." The porthe belief that it was that article he had Feeling Between the North and South," trayal of "Mrs. Livingston - Coles" by Company L was held in the armory last in his hands and so intently examining Please note day and date and go pre- Lloyd H. Schultz, was something in a that he was oblivious to the approach of pared to take part in the discussion.

> -O. H. Osman, a former Centre countian, who for some time past has not exaggeration, but only the compli-BELLEFONTE SENDS AID TO FLOOD SUF. been in the undertaking business in Co-FERERS .- Twenty barrels and six large lumbus, Ohio, was one of the sufferers in two thirds of the audience would surely sent from Bellefonte to Ohio this week brother he stated that his undertaking at that. Studebaker car to a Tyrone party on for the benefit of the flood sufferers. One establishment was washed away but he

> -The Wallace-Hagenback circus, together the contributions. It was all drowned and the entire equipment swept away. The show was booked to open the season in St. Louis next week, and the performers were all at rehearsal when owned by Ben Wallace, whose loss is very heavy.

> > -For the first time in many years Millheim has been a dry town this week there upon their return from their wedowing to the fact that so far the court ding trip. has taken no action on the application for a license for the hotel in that place. at the close of that day's business landlord Isaac Shawver locked the barroom meyer, of Mill Hall, left home ostensibly

----On Tuesday evening, April 8th, the THE PENN STATE THESPIANS .- The members of Bellefonte Castle No. 357, Thespians of The Pennsylvania State short time at Atlantic City and Philad tion by a reception in their hall. All as usual, a splendid house greeted them. Sherlock Holmes, which, of itself, is rather unusual in musical shows. Beside this redeeming feature the boys are becoming ry Yeager, of Spring street. better girls each year and we fancy that if Mr. Lloyd H. Schultz and Mr. Her. man G. Miller continue transforming themselves with the skill they have been displaying since last year they will be over in the Co-Ed department at State

them

The show was very pleasing indeed. The music was tuneful, the costuming ----The Study Class will meet on Tues- effective and the orchestra superb, though When he recovered consciousness Mor- an authority on the question. He will all. All of the parts were well sustained, William Brush's rendition of "The King," class of its own. In truth had the program announced that the character was being taken by some Miss So and So it is morrow ments he certainly merits, to say that boxes of clothing, bedding, etc., were last week's flood. In a card to his have thought her a very clever actress turning to her home at Spring Mills.

> DONOVAN---BERTRAM-Franklin Donowas performed by Rev. Father McArdle in the presence of a number of guests. The young couple were attended by Miss Nellie Armor, as bridesmaid, and Joseph taken in charge by some of their friends in Wilkes-Barre. and given an exhibition ride around the town, after which they left on the 9.32 train for a wedding trip to Renovo and charming young woman. The bride- eral years ago. groom is a son of Mr. Jerry Donovan

KLINGER-PRICKLEMEYER.-On Thursdoor for an indefinite close-up. The to visit friends in Bellefonte but when

-Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Daggett are spending a -Mrs. Elmer Campbell, of Linden Hall, was in Bellefonte on a business and shopping expedition on Monday.

-William Ballingtine Wallis, of Pittsburgh, was

-Mrs. Samuel Rine will leave next week for Coatesville, to visit for a month with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Norris.

-Mrs. Kerstetter, of Harrisburg, was in Bellefonte for the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Har--Miss Nancy Burrows, of Tyrone, who to Bellefonte the fore part of the week, has been the guest of Mrs. Hugh North Crider. -Rev. William Potter VanTries came down from Altoona on Monday morning and spent the day with his father, Dr. Thomas C. VanTries. -Miss Sophia Rockey, one of the most promitaking domestic science or eugenics be- nent citizens of Hublersburg, spent last Saturday fore they know what has happened to in Bellefonte, transacting business and in the

> -Miss Mary S. Thomas returned to Bellefonte on Saturday and opened her home on Allegheny street, after having spent the after part of the winter in Philadelphia.

-Miss Adele Harrar, of Williamsport, who wedding to James C. Furst has been arranged for will be presented by Mr. Mallick who is as to whether the chorus was singing at the latter part of April, was the guest of Mrs. A. O. Furst, while visiting over Sunday in Belle-

> -Frank K. Lukenbach and his daughter Katherine, who was spending her spring vacation in Tyrone with her parents. were in Bellefonte for the week-end, with Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Lukenbach.

-Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell went to Pittsburgh Wednesday afternoon in the interest of the Children's Aid, of which she has charge in this locality. Mrs. Mitchell will return to Bellefonte to-

-Miss Mabel Allison, who has been spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. Frank McCov, on Linn treet, will visit for another week in Bellefonte, with Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Allison, before re-

-Andrew Engle, of Altoona, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with Mrs. Engle and their little son, Andrew Engle, Jr. Mrs. Engle has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Caldwell, and anticipates spending the spring in Bellefonte.

-Miss Miriam Davis will return to her home at Milton Monday, after having visited in Bellefor son and Miss Mary Hunter Linn. Miss Davis is with Miss Linn for the latter part of her stay.

-Mrs. W. Gross Mingle, of Centre Hall, spent Monday in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. D. A. Boozer, who is in the Bellefonte hospital recover-Bertram, a brother of the bride, as best ing from an operation. On Wednesday she with man. Following the ceremony they were her son Philip left Centre Hall for their new home

-Talmage Hafer, the only son of Dr. Hafer, left Thursday of last week to continue his studies at the Perkiomen Seminary, where he will prepare for college. Talmage has gone to Perkioother points. The bride is a graduate of men to be with Mr. Shultz, who was a member the Bellefonte High school and quite a of the faculty of the Bellefonte High school sev-

-Miss Dorothy Jenkins, who is at the Indiana State Normal, specializing in music, was in Belleand is an industrious young man. He fonte with her mother, Mrs. William Jenkins, for recently purchased a farm near Axe the spring vacation. Miss Jenkins, who is Mann and they will go to housekeeping thought to have a promising voice, did the solo work in the choir of the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

-George W. Ward, of Pittsburgh, was in Belle fonte Saturday on his way to Pine Grove Mills. Mr. Ward, who has many business interests up daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Prickle- nual visits, giving him a legitimate reason for spending about a month each year with his boyhood friends in Centre county.

-Miss Annie

-Samuel Wigton, of Philipsburg, was a Bellefonte visitor over Tuesday night.

-Harry Garber was in Pittsburgh on busine tor several days the beginning of the week -Miss Laura Runkle, of Centre Hall, was the guest of Miss Helen Schaeffer, last Sunday -Merchant A. G. Archey, of Pine Grove Mills, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Wedne day.

-Mervin Betz, of Jacksonville, was greeting old friends in Bellefonte on Wednesday and transacting a little business on the side.

-Mrs. Walter Brandt, of Altoona, came to Bellefonte on Wednesday as a visitor at the home of Register J. Frank Smith, on east Linn street.

-Mrs. Emma Geary, of State College, was the guest of Mrs. M. A. Kirk, while in Bellefonte on Tuesday looking after some business interests.

-Miss Louise Brachbill went over to Centre Hall on Monday to visit for several days with the family of James Runkle, at the Centre Hall hotel. -Miss Ethel Sechrist, of York, and Miss Ethel Given, of Bellwood, were over Sunday guests of Miss Nellie Smith, at her father's home on east Linn street.

-Mr and Mrs. Amos Cole came over from Lewistown on Friday and were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tuten, at their home or east Linn street.

-John S. Walker and his son Robert went to Pittsburgh Saturday on business. Mr. Walker re turned Tuesday, Robert remaining with friends until Wednesday.

-Miss Anne Lyon is with her uncle and aunt. Judge and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, convalescing from the effects of an operation. Miss Lyon spent the winter in Philadelphia.

-Albert S. Allen, of Centre Hill, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday on matters pertaining to the settlement of the estate of the late Mrs. Han nah Woomer, of Boalsburg.

-Frank Derstine, manager of the clothing department of one of Altoona's largest stores, spent last Sunday in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Derstine.

-John M. Shugert, Henry C. Quigley and Geo-R. Meek went to Harrisburg Wednesday evening, to appear before the committee on appropri ations in behalf of the Bellefonte hospital.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morrris and their daughter, Miss Morris, have been at Irvington on th Hudson, this week, where they went to attend the wedding of Mrs. Morris' niece, Miss King.

-Frederick and Philip Reynolds, the former at school at St. Georges, Newport, and the latter at Dobbs Ferry, have been spending their spring vacation with their parents, Col. and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds

-Dr, David Dale returned from Philadelphia Thursday morning, where he had been attending a reunion and banquet of the foot-ball team of which he was a member, while a student at the University of Pennsylvania.

-Dr. R. G. H. Haves went to Philadelphia or Tuesday, expecting to spend the month of April in the work of his profession, at clinics and lectures, with short periods of rest with Mrs. Hayes and the boys at Atlantic City.

-Mrs. Frank Montgomery with her sister, Miss Hassel, returned Saturday from Philadelphia where they have been for the after part of the winter. Mrs. Montgomery has opened her Linn street home, expecting to spend the summer in Bellefonte.

-The Misses Katharine and Anne McCaffrey returned to Bellefonte Wednesday afternoor from Lock Haven, where they had been for the funeral of their brother, Patrick McCaffrey, whose reputation for his success as a poor overseer, has for many years been State wide.

-Mrs. Joseph Fox, who with her daughter went to Newton, Kansas, early in the winter, started upon her return east over a week ago, but has been detained in Youngstown, by the flood waters throughout the State of Ohio. It is thought that Mrs. Fox will reach Bellefonte this week to open her house, which has been closed during her absence. -Among those who attended the funeral of the late Howard Grove, at Houserville yesterday were Mrs Herbert Grove and daughter Mabel and Mrs. Charles Weber and daughter Hazel, of Williamsport. The former went through to Houserville on Wednesday while the latter came as far as Bellefonte, spent the night here and went up yesterday morning.

Wednesday. This is the last of two car barrel of clothing and almost a barrel of and his wife saved their lives by clinging groceries were sent to Dayton and the to the house roof for sixteen hours. He van, of Axe Mann, and Miss Mary Bertbalance to Zanesville. All the clothing further stated that as soon as the waters ram, of Spring Creek, were married in was new and was either contributed by receded he opened up a temporary place St. John's Catholic church at 7.30 o'clock Bellefonte and is now occupying a house Bellefonte merchants or purchased by of business and was helping take care of on Wednesday morning. The ceremony for a week as the guest of Mrs. William P. Wilthe dead.

money contributed by others. The work of soliciting and collecting the above generous contribution was in which has exhibited in Bellefonte on sevcharge of the W. C. T. U., Miss Rebecca eral occasions, was almost entirely wiped Rhoads being chairman of the relief com- out by the flood in Indiana last week. mittee. The stuff was carried to Ohio The circus was in its winter quarters free by the Adams Express company, and along the river at Peru, Indiana, and in the same company assisted in gathering the flood nearly all the animals were Clayton Brown, of the Scenic, divided his the flood struck them. The show was

A meeting of the trustees of the Bellefonte Academy was held on Tuesday evening to arrange the details for the contemplated foreclosure proceedings and taking over the property by headmaster James R. Hughes.

-Mr. Roberts lately having come to United Play company. While "The Lion Bellefonte with the Bellefonte Engineerand the Mouse" dealt with characters ing Co. will with his family occupy the high in politics and speculative comhouse on Curtin street, to be vacated by merce, in "The Third Degree" the story Mr. and Mrs. Donald Potter when movis laid in New York and deals with men ing to their new home on Spring street. and women in the smart set and the

-David Chambers, of Clarence, has methods of the police in wringing conbeen appointed an inspector on state fessions of guilt through the sweating road work and will look after road buildprocess ing in Snow Shoe township. George H. STORE ROBBED .- When Joseph Thal Yarnell, of Zion, will be in charge in the neighborhood of the Old Fort, in Penns went to his cigar and green grocery store valley.

-Harry Alters, for some time in kept burning was out. An examination charge of the cigar store in the McClain showed that the globe had been loosened block, is now one of the traveling salesin the socket. A further examination men representing the R. J. Reynoids showed that burglars had been in the Tobacco Co., of Winston Salem, N. C., store and had rifled the cash drawand selling the Prince Albert tobacco er of several dollars, carried away a over a district covering eight counties in fairly good collection of old coins, and Pennsylvania. helped themselves to a quantity of cigars

-Mr. and Mrs. Roland Miller and and cigarettes. Entrance to the buildtheir family with Mrs. Eckley, who lives ing was made by cutting out a large winwith her daughter Mrs. Miller, are selling dow glass on the east side. their stock and farm implements preparatory to moving to Ford City. The Eckleys and later the Millers, have lived for many years on a farm along the test was held in the High school room at mountain above Coleville.

-On Monday T. Clayton Brown in stalled a new motion picture machine at the Scenic which is two models later and a great improvement over his old one, This improved service will doutless be appreciated by the patrons of that up-todate motion picture show. Remember three feature films are shown every week in addition to the regular program.

-On Monday justice John P. Elkin, to Lillian Miles. of the Supreme court of Pennsylvania, handed down the decision in the case of the Boalsburg Water company vs. the State College Water company, affirming the judgment of the court below and dismissing the case at the cost of the appellants. This case has excited considerable interest in Centre county and the decision of the Supreme court will likely end the contention.

---- On Wednesday of last week an Beer and Decker, all good ones. The X-ray photograph was taken of Charles Academy has only a few games at home Chandler's crushed arm, sustained in that ago, and it showed the bone badly crushed its opening day. and out of place. He was taken to the hospital on Thursday and an operation ture that it was found necessary to insert play hard to win to-day's game. chance to knit.

company will present Charles Klein's court has it's own reasons for holding up play, "The Third Degree" at Garman's Mr. Shawver's license, and should it opera house on Monday evening, April finally be refused that gentleman avers 14th. Mr. Klein is the author of the well that he will be compelled to raise his known play, "The Lion and the Mouse," rates or close the hotel, otherwise he is a bricklayer by occupation and a which was also produced here by the will lose money.

traffic.

steady, industrious gentleman, while the bride is a most estimable young woman -During the past week or ten days They returned home the fore part of the many trains have been run over the Bald week and received the parental blessing. Eagle Valley railroad to relieve the con-HIBSHMAN-BOWES.-H. K. Hibshman, gested traffic in the western part of the State on account of the damage to the an instructor in the agricultural departrailroads by the recent floods. These in- ment at The Pennsylvania State College, cluded passengers as well as freight, and Miss Carrie Bowes, also of State College, were married at the bride's though the latter predominated. Sunday was the busiest day and the freight home in that place on Monday of last week. The ceremony was performed by movement at that time was the greatest made in any one day over that road. All Rev. M. C. Frick, of Mill Hall, in the on High street on Monday morning he told 1,208 cars were moved east and 630 presence of a few invited guests. Mr. discovered that the electric light usually cars west, not counting the passenger and Mrs. Hibshman took a wedding trip to Washington, Baltimore and other easttrains. And there was not a single delay or tie-up on account of the immense ern cities.

FORE-MCCLELLAN. - Brady Fore, of -The annual commencement at The Duquense, and Miss Helen Irene McClel-Pennsylvania State College will be held lan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. this year June 7th to 11th inclusive. On McClellan, of Spring street, were married Saturday, June 7th, the regiment of college at the parsonage of the Methodist church, and Sunday at his home in Milesburg. He is lo cadets will be reviewed by Comte de at nine o'clock last Saturday evening, by Chambrun, military attache of the French the pastor, Rev. Ezra H. Yocum. Mr. embassy in Washington. The baccalau- Fore was formerly employed in this place reate sermon will be preached by Dr. but now has charge of a furnace at formed church of Neuilly-Paris, and the future home, after a week's honeymoon trip. STERE-SHERDON.-Harry M. Stere and Miss Beulah Sherdon, both of Fleming, were married at the parsonage of the United Brethren church in this place, on Thursday morning of last week, by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Winey. Both young people are well and favorably known in their home community and they have the best wishes of many friends for a long and happy married life. LINN-PROBST.-Donald I. Linn. son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Linn, of Beech Creek, and Miss Ida Probst, of Lock Haven, were married at the United Evangelical parsonage in the latter place, on Thursday evening of last week by the pastor, Rev. Edward Crumbling.

---- "A Daughter of the Desert," is the title of a play which will be given in Garman's opera house tomorrow (Saturday) evening by the Pleasant Gap dramatic ing good for frail humanity both at home club. Hile's orchestra will furnish the NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Amanda Houser is spending a week at that he is well past the four-score mark the home of her daughter. Mrs. Luther Dale, at Oak Hall.

> -Mrs. George Kline came down from State Col. ege last Saturday to help Mrs. Sarah Fulto., in her work of moving. -Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hazel, of Logan street. had as a guest for the week-end, Miss Sallie she reached this place she was met by View school, of Benner township, spent Saturday Morris Klinger, of Lemont, and the two in Bellefonte, preparing for the closing of her eloped to Cumberland, Md., where they school next week. Miss Gummo, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gummo, will go were married on Friday. The bridegroom to her home at Pennsylvania Furnace, immediate ly upon the ending of the term.

Guisewhite, of Aaronsburg.

-Miss Annie Barnard, of Bryn Mawr, a nieco of John S. Walker, came to Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon to visit for a month or more with Mr. and Mrs. Walker. Miss Barnard, who has been n ill health for some time, will spend a portion o he spring here, in hopes of being benefitted by the higher altitude of this section of the country -Miss Mary Louise Galway, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Galway, of Radford, Va. oft Bellefonte Sunday morning, after spending part of her Easter vacation with her grand-moth er, Mrs. Henry P. Harris. Mary Louise, who i t school at Washington, D. C., came here from Harrisburg, where she had been visiting with a school mate.

-Ralph Musser, a special in the agricultural ourse at State College, and one of the fortunate hirty-five who are touring the west as members of the Glee Club, has been sending many interest ng post cards and descriptions of the interesting points along their way, to his friends in Centre county. Mr. Musser is the son of Mr. and Mrs George Musser, of Milesburg.

-Toner Hugg, an inspecter of waterways un der the State Board of Health, spent Saturday cated in Washington county and likes the work very much. Owing to the floods through the western part of the State he anticipated being ent into some of the flooded districts this week and for some time to come will likely be kept very busy.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cook, who left Bellefont Wednesday afternoon, for Rutherford, N. J., for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Hinman Gibson, will spend a short time while east with Mrs. Gib son and her daughter Margaret, at Atlantic City. James Cook, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Cook, spent a part of last week with his parents in Bel having very lately returned from a trip through the Canal Zone

-Mrs. Cyrus Strickland left Bellefonte Thurs day morning to return to Milroy, where sh spends the summers with her daughter. Mrs. Les ter Sheffer. Mrs. Strickland has been in Belle fonte during the winter with her daughter, Mrs M. I. Gardner, and will return in June for the State College commencement, at which time her grand-son, Harold Gardner, will graduate. In the meantime, Miss Nancy Sheffer, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sheffer, will graduate from the High School at Milroy. -Mortimer O'Donohue, who was one of the big men at the Nittany furnace at the time it was run by the Centre Iron company, was a Bel visitor over Sunday and the fore part of the week, renewing old acquaintances of a score of years ago, although he does not look a day older than he did when hustling around Bellefonte. He now located in Philadelphia and is getting along about as well as the average man can expect in these times of high prices. etc.

-Eminent Sir and Rev. John Hewitt, Grand Prelate of the Knights Templar of Pennsylvania and Miss Helen Schaeffer attended the installation of the officers of Hospitaller Commandery at Lock Haven last Thursday evening. Schaeffer had quite an experience getting there She left Bellefonte on the 6.45 p.m. train over the Central Railroad of Pensylvania notwithstanding the advices that there was high water at Mill When she got to the latter place the water was so high that the trolley could not run, but fortunately there was a message awaiting her to go to Castena where she would be met by a cab, and in that way she got there finally, though a little late.

Sale Register.

FRIDAY, APRIL 18.—On the premises in Boals burg, the lot and residence of the late Hannal Woomer, as well as a lot of household goods Sale to take place at 1 p. m, Albert S. Allen Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce. tatoes per bushel, new.

Eggs, per dozen	1
Lard, per pound	1
Butter per pound	3
Contraction and Statistical in call with the Statistical Statistical State

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. Red Wheat. White Whe $1.00 White Wheat. Rye, per bushel. Corn, shelled, per bushel. Corn, ears, per bushel. Oats, old and new, per bushel Barley per bushel larley, per bu

Philadelphia Markets

The following are the closing prices of the Wheat-Red Corn -Yellow. -Mixed new. Oats Flour —Winter, per barrel —Favorite Brands... Rye Flour per barrel Baled Hay-Choice Stray

The Best Advertising Medium in Centra Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with indepen dence enough to have, and with ability and cour-age to express, its own views, printed in eight-page form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsi-ble people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance.... Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year....

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-ess paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be iscontinued until all arrearges are settled, ex-ept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be ld at the following rates:

LEGAL AND TRANSIENT.

All legal and transient advertising running fo

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS Per inch, each insertion25 cts.

The following discounts will be allowed on ad-

Four weeks, and under three mos...10 per ct. Three mos. and under six mos......15 per ct. Six mos. and under 12 mos.......25 per ct.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents, are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless

Charles M. d'Aubigne, pastor of the Re- Duquense, where they will make their INTERESTING ORATORICALS .- On Friday evening of last week an oratorical concommencement orator will be M. de la Rocca, counsellor of the French embassy at Washington, who will represent Ambassador Jusserand in the latter's absence from the United States. The graduating class this year will number almost three hundred.

-Missioner R. Crittenden, who has burg. The first prize, a silver loving cuplived in Bellefonte the past forty-two was awarded to Margaret Clark; the secyears, is planning to go to Bethlehem, ond prize, a silver medal, to George Aus-Pa., some time in June to spend the tin, and the third prize, a bronze medal, balance of his life. On June 10th he will celebrate the eighty-second anniversary of his birth and all his children are plan-BASEBALL TOMORROW .- The Bellefonte ning to make the occasion one for a gen-Academy baseball team will open the eral family reunion, when they all exseason with a try-out game on Hughes pect to meet in Bellefonte. After that field tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, affair Rev. and Mrs. Crittenden have with the State College High school nine planned to go to Bethlehem. During the as their opponents. The Academy has two-score years Missioner Crittenden lots of good material this year and they has resided in Bellefonte he has been one have all been out at practice when the of the most familiar figures and best weather permitted. The squad includes known men in the town, going about dofive pitchers, Symes, Kennedy, Smith, and abroad. He has been a true mis- music. Prices, 25 to 50 cents. sioner in God's vinevard, always zealousthis season and Bellefonte fans should fatal automobile wreck over two weeks see them all. Give the team a boost on ly striving for the improvement, morally and spiritualy of his fellow men, and now

-The first base ball game at State in years he deserves to have his remainperformed but so complex was the frac- College this year will be played to-day ing days, ones of peace and comfort: and with Colgate. State's team did not show to this end the best wishes and prayers a steel plate in order to hold the frag- up very well on its southern trip but of the people of Bellefonte will follow ments of bone in place until they have a they are in better shape now and will him to his new home when he leaves Bellefonte.

Beech Creek between representatives of the Beech Creek, Blanchard and Milesburg High schools, those contesting being as follows: Bernard Forcey and Margaret Clark, of Beech Creek; Luther Gardner and George Austin, of Blanchard; Lillian A. Miles and Frederick Doyle, of Miles-