Democratic Matchman. Bellefonte, Pa., May 9, 1913. P. GRAY MEEK. . . .

EDITOR

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.-Until further notice paper will be furnished to subscribers at the llowin rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.00 Paid before expiration of year -1.50 Paid after expiration of year -2.00

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

BERTSCHY-SAYLOR.-Almost a sensation was created in Bellefonte the past week when it became known that Miss Helen Saylor, youngest daughter of Mr. ones and Mrs. Peter Saylor, had eloped with Elmer E. Bertschy, a student of the Bellefonte Academy. The facts are as follows: Last Friday morning Miss Saylor made arrangements to go on the special train to State College to attend the interof doing so, however, the two young peo- store of J. F. Frain. Twenty years or of the universe. then mailed it, so that Mrs. Saylor did mercantile business but failing health Pleasant Hill cemetery at Glasgow. not get it until Saturday. It proved to compelled his retirement and he sold his be a note from her daughter in which she business to his nephew, Harry T. Gillistated that she and Bertschy were going land. Possessed of strong traits of charaway to get married and she was not to acter, broad minded and charitable, he worry.

On Tuesday word was received in most useful citizen. Bellefonte that the young people had been married in Akron on Monday and first wife being Adeline Yothers, who that they would remain there as Bertschy died about thirty-five years ago, and his had decided to quit school and go to work second wife, Lucetta Lucas, who died and had already secured a job. The twelve years ago. Surviving him, howbride is well known here and her elope. ever, are two daughters by his first wife, ment caused no little interest. The Lydia, at home, and Mrs. James Haney, bridegroom is a son of a prominent furni. of Vintondale, Pa., also two brothers and ture dealer and undertaker of Wheeling, two sisters, namely: Dr. William S. Gil-West Va., and was one of the brightest students at the Bellefonte Academy, being Shoe; Misses Mary and Hannah, who rea member of the X-cellentidea staff.

STIVER-WHITE. - A pretty wedding for many years. was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. White, at Beech Creek, eran church at Oak Hill on Sunday mornon Sunday, when their daughter, Miss ing, where a large concourse of people Edna White, became the bride of Albert gathered to pay a last tribute of respect. Stiver, of Stormstown. The ceremony His pastor, Rev. Cobb, officiated and six took place at high noon and was per- of his nephews acted as pall bearers. Inthe Church of Christ, of Blanchard, the Oak Hill, beautiful and impressive ring service being used. The bride was given away POTTER.-Miss Asenath V. Potter died by her father and the only attendant was at the old Potter homestead near Linden the bride's brother, Raymond White, as Hall on Friday of last week of general best man. The house decorations were debility. She was a daughter of Robert bride's roses and carnations with festoons F. and Nancy S. Potter and was born in of ribbon held in place by cunning little Somerset county on March 31st, 1833, cupids. Following the ceremony a deli- hence at her death was 80 years, 1 month cious wedding breakfast was served. and 2 days old. When she was a girl

The bride, who is a charming and her parents moved to Centre county and popular young woman, was the recipient located near Linden Hall and that had

GILLILAND.-Joseph Gilliland, a well CLARK .- William Clark, at one time a known resident of Karthaus died at three well known resident of Bellefonte, died o'clock last Thursday morning, May first. at his home in Blandsburg on Monday, He had for many years been a sufferer April 28th, of a general breaking down of with stomach trouble and had been con- the system. He was born in County Kilfined to his bed several weeks prior to dare, Ireland, on December 22nd, 1832, his death with a complication of diseases. hence at his death was 81 years, 4 Deceased was a son of John and Lydia months and 6 days old. He came to this Smith Gilliland and was born at Potters country in 1852 and after a few years bank on January 6th, 1841. His father spent in Philadelphia came to Bellefonte was also a native and for many years a and lived here until 1894. During his resident of Centre county and with his residence in this place he devoted most brothers-James, David, Samuel and of his time to the work of a prospector Spear constituted one of the most promi- for iron ore and coal and was quite sucnent and influential families of the coun- cessful. In 1894 he moved to Blandsty, as well as a body of active Demo- burg, Cambria county, and lived there crats than whom no county in the State until his death. could point to better or more honest While a resident of Bellefonte he was united in marriage to Mrs. Mary Gilligan

In 1846 Joseph Gilliland moved with who survives with four children, namehis parents to Karthaus township, Clear- ly: Mrs. Margaret Riley, of Janesville, field county, and soon afterwards enter- Clearfield county; Patrick, of Davis, W. ed the employment of the late Dr. J. W. Va., and John and Bridget, of Blands-Potter as a clerk. Later he engaged in burg. He was a veteran of the Civil war lumbering and the mercantile business and a steadfast member of the Catholic scholastic track and field meet, and at Pottersdale where he lived a few years church. He was a great reader of the Bertschy also arranged to go. Instead then went to Salona and bought out the bible and a sincere believer in the ruler ple boarded the 9.17 train west on the more ago he sold his Salona store and Requiem mass was celebrated over his Bald Eagle with Ohio as their desti- moved to Lock Haven where he engaged remains in the Catholic church at Blandsnation. Before going, however, Bertschy in the laundry business and later associ- burg on Thursday morning of last week gave another Academy student a letter ated with W. C. Bowser in the manufac- by Rev. Father Howard, of Beliwood, to deliver to Mrs. Saylor. The latter ture of cigars. Four years ago he mov- who paid a glowing tribute to the life of forgot the letter until almost evening and ed to Karthaus where he engaged in the the deceased. Burial was made in the "Dead, my friends; just as bright, Falls the sunshine on the lea, Morning dawns with equal light, Dawns for others-not for thee, Past all earthly cares or fear, Past all earthly strain or strife.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dickson, died at the home of his parents in Gypsy Hollow, in upper Bald Eagle valley, last Friday, following a brief illness with pneumonia. He was twenty-two years old and in addition to his parents he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Wil- house. It is a land of orchards, all unliland, of Karthaus; Robert C., of Snow liam, of Tyrone: Nelson, at home: Mrs. der irrigation, and values run about one sided with the deceased. Mr. Gilliland Della Cronister, of Tyrone; Mrs. Marwas a member of the Methodist church garet Morrisey, of Bald Eagle, and Mrs.

The funeral took place from the Luthwas held on Sunday, burial being made in Baughman's cemetery.

domestic and imported cabinet woods, cutting and using of veneers, etc., will be formed by Rev. Samuel J. McCracken, of terment was made in the cemetery at given in the High school building at May 14th. The subject is a most inter- at times. esting one and a cordial invitation is ex-> the heat while attending the performance of "The Garden of Allah," in Altoona hills, if the editor thinks it will be of inlast Saturday afternoon. She was taken terest to his readers. to her sister's home in Tyrone where she I send well-wishes to all my old friends was quite sick for several days, but is and hope they remember me as kindly

----We have been unreliably informed

Maids club meeting in Petrikin hall tonight is the report of a special committee, and means for attaching Al Dale, Francis

Speer, and a few others of the unattached

Our Correspondents' Opinions.

This column is at the service of those of our people who desire to express their views on any subject of general or local interest. The "Watchman" will in no way be responsible for their ideas or state-ments. The real name of the author must accom-pany all communications, but will be withheld from publication when the request is made.

From the Far West.

find the following in the WATCHMAN. It is from the pen of a long ago valued and May 11th, at the Methodist Episcopal who has seen and experienced much of recognize "Mothers' years, and promises to give us short sketches of some of these in the near future.-EDITOR.]

OPPORTUNITY, WASHINGTON. Editor Watchman:-I have been requested to write a letter to the WATCHsince leaving old Nittany twenty-five years ago. But what shall I tell about? The sod shacks, Indians, storms and mosquitoes of the old days in Dakota; the pear orchards of southern Oregon; the great grass and grain lands of Alberta: or my home at present among the apple Twenty-five years! How long it seems pitiably short to the elderly looking services. back; and what changes twenty-five years make. If I were to sit on the old Until further notice morning services hotel porch at Hublersburg of a summer will be held in St. John's Reformed years make. If I were to sit on the old day and watch the passers-by, how many familiar faces would I see? Very few in- Sunday, Mother's-Day services deed; where once I knew them all.

"Some are married, some are dead, All are scattered now, and fled." Ah! well, this is the way of all the earth;

so here is prosperity to the living, and peace to the dead.

Let me tell a little about my present home here in the Spokane valley, seven miles west of the grand young city of Spokane; seven railroads traverse the valley; we have the telephone, electric lights and water under pressure in every thousand dollars an acre and up.

The roads are the finest and automo biles flourish. The valley reminds me of old Nittany, with its green fields of clover, its orchards, and the dark green mountains that circle it; guarding it

If this letter seems a little jerky places the reader will kindly remember that there is a baseball game in progress eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, across the street and the uproar is great

At some future time I may tell of some of my hunting trips; my land exploring cruises; my life far up in the north-west ----Mrs. H. S. Ray, who was visiting Canada; my trips across the Rocky her sister in Tyrone, was overcome by mountains; adventures with Indians, or a gold hunting trip to the Sweet Grass

With the Churches of the County.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. [Our readers, we know, will be glad to day 8 p. m., 9½ E. High street.

popular correspondent at Hublersburg, church of Bellefonte, will appropriately Day. Severa the great west during the last twenty-five young persons will have part of the hour, special Mother's Day music will be rendered, the Heiping Hand society will give loving recognition to every mother who is present, and the pastor will give a brief address appropriate to the time. At the evening preaching hour the Rev. B. C. Conner, D. D., president of Wilquested to write a letter to the WATCH-MAN and tell of some of my experiences preach the educational sermon for the Seminary, conference year. A general and cordial invitation is given for both these services.

CHURCH REDEDICATION. - Services of rededication will be held in the Zion Lutheran church, Boalsburg,on Sunday, May 11th, at 10 o'clock a.m. The ser mon will be preached by Rev. C. T. Aikens, D. D., president of Susquehanna and peach orchards of the Spokane val-University, Selinsgrove, Pa. Evening service at 7.45, when the sermon will be preached by Rev. L. Stoy Spangler, the newly elected pastor at Pine Grove Mills. to the young looking forward, and how The public is cordially invited to all these > church at 10.30 o'clock and Sunday school at 9 30. Next Sunday morning, Whit will be held. In the evening at 7.30, Dr Schmidt will take as his subject, "Paul's Estimate and Knowledge of Athletics."

In the United Brethren church on Sunday morning Rev. C. W. Winey will preach a sermon to the Bellefonte Lodge, Knights of the Golden Eagle. The members of the lodge will meet at their lodge room at 9.30 o'clock and march to the church in a body.

The men's bible class of the United Brethren church will hold a meeting this (Friday) evening at 7.30 o'clock. Rev. loover will deliver an address.

ESCAPED PRISONER TO BE TRIED HERE -On Wednesday, April 9th, William Ho- N. J., their former home. gan, a "trusty" at the new penitentiary in Benner township, very unconcernedly walked off the premises, came to Bellefonte, got a few drinks, then walked to Milesburg where he bought a ticket and around the town until Thursday afternoon when he was arrested by a Tyrone officer and the next day taken out to Pittsburgh to serve out the balance of his sentence, having been convicted in and battery. Hogan's sentence expired on Tuesday and he was immediately rearrested upon a warrant and commitment issued by

PINE GROVE MENTION.

John Shugert is housed up with an attack of sciatica. W. D. Port was an over Sunday visitor in the Mountain city. Clifford Reed's new home at State College is well on the way

Wm. Ghaner, of Pine Hall, transacted busine in town Saturday evening

Comrade Israel Young is having his house re oofed with galvanized iron Grandmother Hubler and Mrs. Joseph Albright are both convalescing very nicely.

Edmund Meyers and his father Henry enjoyed an auto spin to Altoona Wednesday.

Mrs. Sadie Heberling, while moving a sofa, fell and broke her breast bone last Friday.

John B. Goheen and grand-son John returned from a two weeks visit at Coalport, Pa.

Hiram Thompson is very much improved and able to drive out to the old home farm.

J. Mc. Goheen, of Tyrone, was inspecting his old home farm at Rock Springs last week.

Mr. J. C. Rockey of Fillmore, spent Sunday at grandpa Bowersox's home on Main street.

After a two weeks visit down Pennsvalley Miss Esther Osman returned home on Moneay.

George Ishier was here on Monday and bought bunch of fat cattle for his market at Boals Mrs. C. C. Johnstonbaugh spent several days in the early part of the week among friends in Will Swabb, one of Harris township's road supervisors, spent the Sabbath with his brother Frank here

Comrade Will Tate, one of Pennsvalley's up-todate farmers, transacted business at State College Thursday.

I. J. Dreese was here Monday in his splendid new car, showing a party of pleasure seekers a royal good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnstonbaugh, of Alto, made an auto trip to our town Friday, greeting old time friends.

John, William and Emanuel Smith, of Spring Mills, autoing home from Tyrone, tarried awhile in town on Sunday

Col. Wm. Foster, of Lewisburg, spent several days last week at State College looking after his large business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Collins with Mr. Collins mother, of Centreville, will spend their summer vacation at the home of John Brubick.

In a fall from his bicycle a few days ago Alex Miller sustained injuries to his head and shoulders which will keep him housed up for a few days.

Prof. Paul and daughter have taken rooms a the I. C. Struble home west of town. Mrs. Paul and several small children have gone to Camden, Prof. M. E. Heberling, J. B. Heberling and their wives came over from State College in Benton's new buzz wagon and spent the Sabbath at their old family home on Main street.

Dr. Kidder, wife and daughter Mary and E.E. Houtz and wife enjoyed a spin over the Alleghe took the train for Vail station. From nies to Kylertown, in the doctor's new Buick there he walked to Tyrone and staved car, in the early part of the week.

> The citizens of Boalsburg will hold an entertainment on Friday evening of next week to raise funds for buying additional fire hose. Twentyfive cents admission will be charged.

The stretch of state road between Struble and State College has all been graded and most of it Venango county for aggravated assault stoned. The route from Pine Grove Mills to White Hall has been changed to the Branch road. and a new route has been made from Potters Mills through Tusseyville and Boalsburg to State College.

Between one and two o'clock on Monday Fred justice of the peace W. H. Musser last Gearhart's stable just east of town burned down. Saturday to John Eagan, parole officer of Mr. Gearhart is the mail carrier and was at State the western penitentiary, charging him College at the time. The family was at home but failed to notice the fire until too late to save anything. A buggy, sleigh, harness, feed, tools, and 1500 feet of lumber were burned, with no in Dead! 'Tis we are dead. Thou hast entered into life." DICKSON .- Arthur Dickson, a son of

Alice Neff, of Eagleville. The funeral

-An illustrated lecture emphasizing tended the public to attend.

from winds and storms.

and Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Boston Campbell, died several years ago. Warriorsmark.

Northrup, an instructor in the metrolog- ices and was assisted by Rev. W. H. ical department at The Pennsylvania State College, was married to Miss Eva Pearl Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Hughes, of Drane, Clearfield county, at five o'clock on Monday evening. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents and was performed by Rev. Elias Barker, of Philadelphia. Immediately after the ceremony they were driven to Philipsburg where they took the train for State College. The bride is a graduate of the Lock Haven Normal and taught school at Drane the past year. The bridegroom is a native of Hart, Mich., and a graduate of the Ohio State University. For the present they will have rooms at the Nittany Inn but will go to housekeeping in the fall LUDWIG-JOHNSON. - Walter D. Ludtownship. For the present the young made in the Gray's church cemetery. couple will live at the Boal home south of Boalsburg.

MEISER - HOLLOBAUGH. - On the 30th ult., at the United Evangelical parsonage, by Rev. A. F. Weaver, Mr. William Meiser and Catharine Hollobaugh, both of Oriental, Juniata county, were united in marriage.

themselves. One of the men paid his where burial was made on Friday. fine and costs and the other is under bail has been carried on without stint in has been carried on without stint in Bellefonte for years, and men who can-not buy a drop themselves are half the Fifteen years ago he located in East Libtime under the influence of liquor purthe practice can be stopped.

of many useful and beautiful wedding been the family home ever since. presents. The bridegroom is a carpenter For many years deceased had been a by occupation and a steady and industri- member of the Presbyterian church, an females, were received at the new game ous young man. For the present the upright christian woman and one who preserve in Centre county, about two young couple will make their home with had the love and esteem of all who knew miles and a-half below Coburn, on Tuesthe bride's parents. Among the guests her. Surviving her are one brother, day and were placed in an enclosure at the wedding were the bridegroom's Fergus Potter, of Linden Hall, and two where they will be kept a week or two father, Joseph Stiver; Charles Lytle and sisters, Mary and Phœbe, who live in the then turned loose to roam the moun-Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Eves, of Stormstown, old home. One sister, the late Mrs. tains at their own free will.

was a highly esteemed gentleman and a

Mr. Gilliland was twice married, his

The funeral was held at her late home at ten o'clock on Monday morning. Rev. that part of the business before the Old > bachelors of the town to members of the STINE .- George A. Stine, a well known club. and highly esteemed resident of Scotia, died on Saturday morning, May 3rd, of -Thomas Fanning, Vernon Cowher, heart failure, after a brief illness. He Samuel Gordon and Bliss Aikey were was born in Clarion county on June 6th. given a hearing before 'Squire W. H. 1856, his age at death being 56 years, 10 Musser on Monday evening on the charge months and 27 days. When a young of stealing milk from Luther Lansberry's man he learned the blacksmith trade and spring house, on Spring creek. The four thirty years ago located at Scotia young men were up Spring creek on a where he lived ever since and had estabfishing expedition on Saturday and did lished a reputation as one of the most not start home until late at night. It expert and trustworthy blacksmiths in was about ten o'clock when they reached the country. He was a member of the Mr. Lansberry's place and Fanning and Methodist church and had many friends Cowher proposed that they go to the throughout Patton and Halfmoon townspring house and get some milk to drink.

NORTHRUP-HUGHES.-Harry Benedict W. K. Harnish had charge of the servappointed two weeks ago, to devise ways Schuyler, of Centre Hall. Burial was made in the Branch cemetery.

Surviving him are his wife and the folwig and Miss Harriet P. Johnson were lowing children: Mrs. A. Z. Mattern, of mained behind and took four quart botquietly married at the Episcopal rectory at Patton township; Thomas, John and State College, at noon last Saturday, by Isaac, all of Scotia. He also leaves four the pastor, Rev. E. R. Frear. The bride brothers, Irvin, John, Thomas and Linis a professional nurse in the home of coln, all of Altoona. Funeral services Monday and at the hearing Fanning and not himself. Constable Port, of Hunt-Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Davis Boal, at were held at the M. E. church on Tues-Boalsburg, and the bridegroom is a for- day morning by Rev. Johnson, assisted Gordon and Aikey held as witnesses. ester in charge of state lands in Harris by Rev. Runyan, after which burial was Macker took Horace Sherman, of Wil-CURTIN .- George W. Curtin, a native liamsport, to Snow Shoe and Clarence of Philipsburg, died in the Williamsport and Alf Baum went along for company. hospital on Tuesday of last week of When they reached the top of the moun-Bright's disease with which he had tain on the return trip Macker decided to suffered for some months. He was for- drift down the mountain and in changing ty-seven years of age. For a number of gears stripped his differential. He parsylvania railroad company and lived at from going over the side of the moun-----Two young men of this place were Tyrone but during the past four years tain turned to the right and ran into the arrested during the week for furnishing resided in Mifflinburg. He is survived embankment, but this did not result in > erty and for some time had been in the made in that place yesterday afternoon. home.

as I think of them

Yours. -Ten elk, two males and eight WILL TRUCKENMILLER. April 26th, 1913.

"The Home Over There."

tian poet, and, with hopeful prospect, to also said that he did not run away but "think of the Home over There."

be severed forever. R. CRITTENDEN,

May 7th, 1913 Missioner.

MURDERED MAN'S WIFE ARRESTED. -Mrs. Sadie Galloup, widow of Benjamin K. Galloup, who on December 16th, 1911, was murdered at his home in Huntingdon by Frank Calhoun, was arrested at a moving picture theatre in Philipsburg last and reporting for duty. Friday night while in the company of William Stuller, it is alleged.

Gordon and Aikey objected and contin-While the charge on which the woman ued on their way. The two former rewas arrested is adultery, it is only a pretense on which to hold her until an intles of milk. They overtook their comvestigation can be made into an alleged panions and gave them some of the milk confession of Calhoun's in which he to drink. The boys were arrested on charges that she fired the fatal shot and Cowher were held for trial at court and ingdon, made the arrest but only after he had traced the woman to Bedford, thence to Johnstown, Claysburg, McKees, Al--On Wednesday afternoon W. H. toona and Philipsburg; she evidently trying to keep her tracks hidden as much as possible.

JAILED ON CHARGE OF ROBBERY .- Perry Frieze, of Snow Shoe township, was brought to Bellefonte and lodged in jail on Tuesday night on the charge of robyears he was in the employ of the Penn- tially lost control of the car and to keep bing the New York Central railroad station at Clarence last Saturday night. When the agent went to the station on Sunday morning he discovered that it liquor to men whose known intemperate by one son, two daughters and one broth- stopping the car for after plunging along had been broken into during the night. habits prevent them from procuring it er. The remains were taken to Tyrone twenty feet or more it went over the There was no money in the station but a embankment and lodged on its side suit was missing from the express office against a tree about fifteen feet below. and a quantity of tobacco from the ware for trial at court, as he claims he is not the guilty party. This is a practice that has been carried on without stint in saved it from going down one hundred tives were on the scene on Monday mornfeet. Macker escaped with only a good ing and they had little difficulty in tracshaking up while Alf Baum got a sprain- ing the robbery to Frieze, who had part ed ankle and a few cuts and bruises, but of the tobacco taken hidden in the coal no serious injury. The car is pretty mine in which he worked. The young chased for them by somebody else. It is only by an enforcement of the law that grocery business. He is survived by his sisters, all of East Liberty. Burial was townshin with breaking out and escaping from the western penitentiary, and the latter gentleman brought him to Bellefonte on surance. Tuesday evening and lodged him in the Centre county jail.

Wednesday morning Hogan was given Where? First, but not most of all, a hearing before 'Squire Musser and he leaving our home here in Bellefonte, after acted lawyer in his own defense. After Hatcham, in the southeast of London, a happy residence of forty-two years, it it was shown that he had escaped from was destroyed by fire, and the outrage is with some profound regret, our the penitentiary and been captured in is placed by the police to the account thoughts will often revert to the beauti- Tyrone Hogan asked to have the com- of the militant suffragettes. ful spring city amid the mountains of mitment read to him. In it he was central Pennsylvania. Departing on charged with "breaking out and escap- the fire was discovered, and the roof Thursday morning of this present week ing" from the penitentiary, and Hogan | crashed in soon after the arrival of to reside nearer our kindred friends in claimed that the commitment was not the firemen. An attempt to blow up Bethlehem, Pa., where, for "yet a little legal because incorrect, stating that he while" we do the bidding of the Chris- had not "broken out" of any place. He > little more freedom and went to Tyrone. But two days of the gay life was enough was hunting for the highway back to Bellefonte when arrested by chief of po-

Notwithstanding his explanation Hogan was remanded to the Centre county jail for trial at the next term of court, and his conviction will mean another term in the penitentiary.

LEMONT.

The fruit was not all killed by the cold weath

Sunday the thermometer stood at 85 degrees in Heavy thunder showers passed arou us on Monday. The whippoor-will has come to furn to brighten the evenings.

Grover Yon and family spent Sunday at their old home in Union county. Bruce Houtz, of Niagara Falls, came hon

Saturday to visit his parents. Alfred Johnstonbaugh, of Avis, visited at the me of B. F. Hoy, a few days last week. The College township supervisors are busy re airing the road between Lemont and Oak Hall. John Charles moved his saw mill from Boalsburg to S. C. Bathgate's and will do some sawing for

The stork made a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Beamis and left a little daughter to brighten their home.

Mrs. Jennie Norris' horse ran away on Saturday evening, throwing her and her daughters out of the buggy breaking one of her arms. The rig was smashed to pieces and the horse ran own to Pleasant Gap before he stopped

One of the prettiest tricks is to outline the girdle of an evening gown with chiffon roses, front and back, and repeat the roses elsewhere on bodice and drapery.

-Have your Job Work done here.

-----Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

London Militants Burn Church. St. Catherine's, the parish church of

The edifice was well alight before the Grand hotel with a bomb was frustrated by a policeman.

The pastor of the church saw three women in the building shortly before simply walked off, and his main object the fire broke out. He assumed they The severance of the ties that bind us was to get his pension check cashed. were worshippers, as the church was friendly residents in Bellefonte will not When he came to Bellefonte and got a kept open for private prayer throughfew drinks he naturally thirsted for, a out the day. A number of hassocks were found saturated with oil.

Following an investigation the police were convinced that uffragettes for him and Hogan maintained that he set fire to the church by using an explosive bomb. The rapidity with which the blaze spread indicated that oillice Harry Wands. He said he had only soaked rags, cotton or paper had been taken a little trip and intended returning spread throughout the interior of the church.

A militant suffragette caught by the police in the act of placing a bomb at the entrance to the Grand hotel, which is crowded with American tourists. was brought up in the Bow street police court later in the day and remanded by the magistrate for further inquiries. She gave the name of Ada Ward.

King's Assassin a Suicide.

Aleko Schinas, who assassinated King George of Greece on March 18 at Salonika, Turkey, committed suicide by hurling himself out of a window of the police station in that city.

Schinas was a native of Volo, Thessaly. He killed the king by shooting him in the back while the king was valking in Salonika accompanied by an aide-de-camp. He said in explanation that in 1911 he had applied for assistance at the king's palace and had been driven away.

A few days ago physicians examined Schinas and announced that he had tuberculosis of an advanced type.

$14,300 In Bills Disappears.

The theft of $14,300 in $100 bills from an express package sent from Washington to the Central National bank, of Oakland, Cal., has been made known.

When the package reached the bank in Oakland it was found to contain clipped magazine pages of size and weight of the missing bank notes. The notes were sent to the Oakland bank from the national bank redemption office.