To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications ed unless accompanied by the real name

-A nice baby boy arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Lambert on Saturday.

anniversary on Sunday.

-The corner stone of the new Luth--The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will open a sale of rugs on Saturday afternoon at the Y.

M. C. A.

-A large canning factory is to be erected at waddle this summer by J. W. Clark & Co., which it is expected will Mr. Clark will have general charge of the

---On Wednesday of next week Belle. fonters will have a chance to see Chinamen play ball, as the team from the Chinese University of Hawaii will play the Academy on Hughes field. This will be a game no one can afford to miss.

Lock Haven Normal, will be June 24th. Class meetings will be held during the afternoon. Alumni parade at 7.45 p. m. Banquet at 8.00, and dances later, to enjoy both of which will cost but $1.00.

given a hearing in the police court at ond prize to Rebecca B. Fleming with Harrisburg last Saturday on the charge honorable mention for Sarah E. Wetzel. of feloniously shooting with intent to maim or kill Ross A. Hickok and was remanded to jail for trial, which will come was held in the armory on Tuesday evenup on next Monday.

son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Auman, was tors was perhaps not as large as in former badly bitten in the upper lip by a dog years there were just as many dancers. last Saturday morning, while at play on Christy Smith's orchestra furnished the the street. It took several stitches to music, as it did for all the exercises of close the wound. The dog is now being the week, and substantial refreshments watched for any sign of rabies.

-Two big White auto busses arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening High school building at 2:30 o'clock on for the Bellefonte-State College auto transit line, which has been put in service by the Emerick brothers, of Wilkes- Salutatory and Essay..... Toward the Wilderness Martha Rebecca Barnhart, Barre. They will run from Milesburg to State College via. Bellefonte, Axe Mann, Pleasant Gap and the new penitentiary.

--- The Supreme court last week handed down a decision reversing the decision of the lower court in the case of Lillie Dale vs. George Dale's executors, and di- Oration. rected judgment to be entered in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $1832. The case is from College township and attracted considerable interest during its procedure through the Centre county courts.

-While away from Bellefonte last when the various bids will be considered, diplomas and awarded the prizes as fol-

-At a brief session of Juvenile court lows: on Wednesday morning the case of Col. W. Fred Reynolds general excel-Samuel F. Hall, the fifteen year old boy lence prize, $10, Mary C. Kline. of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hall, was heard. The boy was caught smoking cigarettes Ferguson G. Parker. and with being an incorrigible. He was given into the custody of the district at- prize, $10 Verna H. A. Ardery. torney for a period of ten days in order he don't do so, he will be sent to a Fleming.

--- Why is it that strangers in Bellefonte almost invariably patronize the Keller. Scenic? It must be because they always find a good program of moving pictures there and a comfortable, well ventilated room. Both these essentials are closely looked after by manager T. Clayton Brown and his liberal patronage is the result. Mr. Brown believes that there is nothing too good for people who visit the Scenic and that is the reason he gives them the best he can get.

-Dr. J. M. Brockerhoff, of Bellefonte; Charles J. Cummings, of Williamsport, and William P. McGarvey, of Pittsburgh, have been selected as the committee to have charge of the erection of the new Catholic chapel at State College, for which the Knights of Columbus have donated $10,000. Ground has been broken for the new edifice which it is hoped to complete within the year. The above committee held a meeting here early in the week and also visited the College. team by the score of 2 to 0. CLASS OF THIRTY-NINE.—Fourteen young John Frank Woods. school this week and if honors and prize ond honers. winning counts for anything the young street, celebrated her eightieth birthday preached the baccalaureate sermon. He artistic as well as the useful. to profit by.

jects were as follows:

"The Swan Song"..... Eleanor Schofield Parker. "The Quakeress Patriot"...... Catherine H. Alliso

"The Gladiator"...... Sara E. Rishell. —Alumni day this year, down at "The Arena Scene From Quo Vadis" Sienkiewicz Nancy C. Hunter.

The judges were Dr. Perley O. Ray and Prof. Melvin J. Curl, of State College, and they were unanimous in awarding ----Major William H. Hastings was first prize to Eleanor S. Parker and sec-

The social event of the week was the alumni reception to the graduates, which ing. The armory was quite elaborately -Herbert Auman Jr., five year old decorated and while the crowd of spectawere served from 11:30 to 12 o'clock.

The class exercises were held in the Wednesday afternoon, when the following program was rendered:

Margaret Altenderfer. Verna Hanna Amelia Ardery.

.....The Chautauqua Mover Sarah Catharine Love. Mary Frederica Schad. Ferguson Graham Parker.

Valedictory and Essay......Our Motto

Harry Keller mathematical prize, $10.

Mrs. R. S. Brouse biographical essay

Col. W. Fred Reynolds junior declamto allow him to get a job of work and atory contest, first prize, $10, Eleanor show a disposition to do better; and if S. Parker; second prize, $5, Rebecca B.

D. A. R. historical essay, first prize, $5. Margaret Bullock; second prize, $5, Ellis

W. C. T. U. essay prize, first, $5, Elizabeth Eckenroth; second prizes, $2.50 each, Rachael Lambert and Teresine Kimport.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Hayes' first honor prize, $5, Mary Kline; second honor prize, $2.50, Martha Barnhart; special prize to all who had a grade average above 90 per cent., $2.50, Lewis Markle, Mary Schad, Catharine Love, Verna Ardery, Margaret Bullock.

George R. Meek book-keeping prize, $5, Alice Walizer; spelling prize, $5, Reba Krebs.

The George R. Meek news story prizes have not yet been announced.

Following is a complete list of the nembers of the graduating class: Margaret Altenderfer, Verna Hanna Amelia Ardery, Martha Rebecca Barnhart, Anna Margaret Bullock, Elinor Marshall Cook, Charles Marshall Cook, Ruth Lydia Coxey, Luther Hendrick Crissman, Joanna Decker, Marion Marie -This afternoon you will have your Dukeman, Doyle Stanley Eberhart, Helen last opportunity of seeing the strong Alma Eckenroth, Margaret Luella Bellefonte Academy baseball team play, Eckenroth, Charles Edmund Garbrick, Smith, of State College, autoed to Altooand the fact that the fast University of John Wetzel Harper, Lawrence Ward Pittsburgh team, which tomorrow will Hile, Ellis Orvis Keller, Harold Michael nue and Fourth street had the misforplay State College, will be their opponents Kerstetter, Mary Catharine Kline, Charles tune to run down Philo Gunsallus, a biiustifies the prediction that the game Sidenham Krumrine, Sarah Catharine cycle rider. The latter sustained a fracwill be a good one. This will be busi- Love, Vivian Violet Lutz, Lewis Edwin tured leg and numerous body bruises. ness men's day and in order to allow all Markle, Margaret Elizabeth McDonnell, C. W. Smith was at the wheel and he imwho desire to do so to attend the game Hester Edith McGinley, Mary Barbara mediately stopped the machine and sumbusiness men would pay a compliment to Mott, George Dale Musser, Berenice moned an ambulance to take the injured the Academy by closing their places of Etta Noll, Ruth Cleveland Parsons, Hugh young man to the hospital. A police inbusiness from 2.30 to 4.30 o'clock, the Merriman Quigley, Mary Frederica vestigation exonerated the Smiths from time of the game. The Academy on Sat- Schad, Louisa Ellen Straub, Vincent all blame for the accident, as the car was Lock Haven, and Miss Grace Slocum, of man when Col. Teller ran the Bush house and women must be vastly superior to the To fully apppreciate just how successgraduates attended the Presbyterian the mind is not the only thing cultivated York; factory superintendent, E. A. Par--Mrs Elizabeth Jacobs, of east Lamb church where Dr. George E. Hawes but the hands are taught to fashion the rish, of Bath, N. Y.

BELLEFONTE HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES Sales Walsh, Robert Thompson Willard, BELLEFONTE TO HAVE AUTOMOBILE

A FINE SCHOOL EXHIBIT.

Widens as We Climb." It was a brilliant primary school of little children, their from its infancy. J. P. Harbold is the deeran church at Gatesburg will be laid on sermon, filled with beautiful and elevat- lessons are impressed upon their mind signer of four practical and high grade Sunday, June 22nd, at 10.30 o'clock a. m. ing thoughts and every one who heard it by having them cut out of paper ani motor cars, all of which are on the marcould find an abundance of good advice mals, birds, houses, etc., all of which are ket and making good at this time. He The Junior oratorical contest was held with water colors. From the second to pany was organized to incorporate in a in the High school room on Monday the eighth grade the pencil and brush car what he knows and considers the evening. The speakers and their sub- become more manifest and some of the most approved and up-to-date methods > economics and manual training that the en years is going into the car. price from sixty cents to $1.30, and they factory construction. are all of good material. Then there is The car will be known as the "Belle-is exhibited, and it is just as remarkable finement of design and equipment. lic schools are easily apparent.

TEACHERS ELECTED .- At the regular building to a teacher in the High school. should help. Miss Daisy Barnes was promoted to the position held by Miss Taylor and will be Barnes' promotion.

week M. I. Gardner attended a meeting day evening when the commencement young men completed their course and the ceremony the young couple were of the board of directors of the Nittany address was delivered by W. I. Swoope the majority of these will enter college in driven in an automobile to Unionville Valley railroad in Philadelphia, at which Esq., of Clearfield. Mr. Swoope, who got the fall. State College will get a good where they took the train for a wedding the sale of the road was discussed. It is his initial training at the Centre county representation and among the other in- trip east, expecting to be at home at No. not the purpose to sell the road as junk bar, is a polished and brilliant orator and stitutions to which they will go will be the 135 north Spring street after June 20th. but to dispose of it as a road to the high- his address on Monday evening was University of Pittsburgh, Carnegie Tech, The bride is a daughter of Mr. and est bidder and already there are several rather above the ordinary in word paint- Lafayette, University of Pennsylvania, Mrs. J. Willard Barnhart, of east Howprospective customers. A meeting will ing and scholarly effects. Following the Dickinson, Princeton, Cornell, Lehigh, ard street, is a graduate of the Bellefonte be held about the middle of the month address Dr. M. J. Locke presented the Jefferson Medical and other colleges. High school and quite a popular young James M. Beddall, Pottsville; William ial sea.

Bemus. Jamestown, N. Y,; William Bloyd, Moundsville, W. Va.: James Collopy Jamestown, N. Y.; Ray R. Dalrym-Roy McClure, Pittsburgh; Gordon Mc- joy on their journey through life. Crindle, Scranton; George McKee, Pittsburgh; J. Harold Messerly, Warren; Jack Mullen, Shamokin; Walter Schaffner, Wheeling; R. G. Schmoll, Forty Fort; Fred Schneider, Wilkes-Barre; Charles Scott, Bellefonte; Calvin Smith, Bellefonte; Clarence Smith, Connelisville: Walter Swain, Sheffield; Perry Swanson, Brooks-

-Ogden B. Malin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Malin, who will graduate from State College next week, has accepted a position with the New Jersey Portland Cement company, of Allentown, and will leave for that place immediately after his graduation.

ton; R. E. Weisenburn, Hazelton.

--- On Sunday C. W. and A. Frank na, and at the intersection of Fifth ave-Katharine Elizabeth Walker, Helen de lus, it is said, rode right in front of it. Ambrose M. Schmidt.

MANUFACTURING COMPANY. - Negotia-

men and twenty-five young women were Mary C. Kline took first honors of the tions were completed on Wednesday for graduated from the Bellefonte High class and Martha Rebecca Barnhart sec- the building of a big automobile manufacturing plant in this place. The company, chartered under the laws of Pennsylvania, will be known as the Bellefonte young men intellectually. Young women ful the past school year has been it was Automobile Manufacturing company, took first and second honors and in the necessary to visit the High school build- with officers as follows: President E. THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. list of eighteen prize winners sixteen were ing and inspect the exhibits of the work Bleakley, of Franklin; general manager young women and only two young men. done in the grades as well as by High and treasurer, W. P. Seig, of York; secre-The commencement exercises proper school students. Under the present sys- tary, J. E. Rice, Harrisburg; chief designopened on Sunday evening when the tem in vogue in the Bellefonte schools er and factory manager. J. P. Harbold,

> The officers are men who have foltook for his theme, "The Horizon Beginning with the first grade, the lowed the manufacturing of automobiles neatly pasted in a folder, and adorned never had an opportunity until this comwork done is very tasty and artistic. of automobile designs. His car will be a But it is in the departments of home winner, as his experience of the past sev-> > visitor becomes the most deeply inter- Through the efforts of the Bellefonte ested. The work of the sewing class of Board of Trade, the automobile company young girls is remarkable Hanging was induced to locate in Bellefonte. A around the room are two or three dozen factory building will be erected on the dresses, of sizes for girls from twelve to property known as the Hughes field. sixteen years old, which were made en- located on both the Pennsylvania and tirely by the students. Not only made Central Railroad of Pennsylvania. The but a complete list of every item of cost factory building proper will be two story enumerated and the dresses range in high, 60x384 feet, of the latest approved > > a bewildering array of lingerie of diffonte Six," and as the name implies will ferent designs and descriptions that looks be a six cylinder car with all up-to-theenticing enough for any fair maiden, minute equipment. Harbold, the design-Down in the manual training depart- er, states he will bank his reputation on ment is where the skill of the young men its being a year ahead of them all in re-> > as any of the other exhibits. Though Temporary offices will be opened at this was the first year for the manual once in Temple Court and work on the training course articles of household erection of the plant will be begun in the furniture are included in the exhibit as near future. Mr. Rice stated on Wednesgood as can be bought in any furniture day that they had already awarded constore, and when the fact is taken into tracts for the material for two hundred consideration that everything there was and fifty cars which they will build this not only made by the boys and young year and must have completed by the men but designed by them as well, the date of the New York show in January, advantages of such a course in the pub- 1914. Twenty-five skilled men will be put to work at the start and the number increased as the demands require.

> > Bellefonte business men have subscribmeeting of the school board on Tuesday ed for $5,000 worth of bonds in the new evening Prof. H. F. Whiting was elected company and will also furnish the site, principal of the High school to take the for which money is now being raised. place of Earl C. Musser. Miss Gertrude This is a good opportunity to secure Taylor was promoted from the brick something big and everybody who can

MORRIS-BARNHART.-The wedding of in charge at the brick building and Miss Alexander G. Morris Jr., and Miss Ida home on Tuesday, while Mrs. McCumpsey re-Rebecca Jacobs was elected as teacher in Violet Barnhart, on Wednesday morning, the grade which will be vacated by Miss was a very quiet but impressive affair. The ceremony took place in St. John's BELLEFONTE ACADEMY CLOSES.—The morning and was witnessed only by the gone for an indefinite time. While away Miss Bellefonte Academy closed yesterday immediate members of the two families. ul year in its his- Rev. John Hewitt officiated, and the tory. This included not only the educa- bridegroom was attended by his nephew, The list of young men, which includes woman. The bridegroom is a son of some top-notch athletes, is as follows: Hon. and Mrs. A. G. Morris, of this place, Alvin Andorn, Bridgeport, Ohio; H. P. and is now in the coal and grain business Ash, Milesburg; Ellis Balsinger, Pittshurgh: Purcell Beattie. Wheeling. W. Va.: have a happy voyage over the matrimonthan one hundred students, only about one-third

GATES-HARPSTER .- At the M. E. parsonage in Stormstown, on Thursday of ple, Warren; Forrest Decker, Scranton; last week, William B. Gates, of Gates-Dixon Diehl, Lehmaster; H. Eisenbeis, burg, and Miss Dora Harpster, of Storms-Pittsburgh; George Ellis, Philadelphia; town, were united in marriage by the Paul A Epright, Altoona; Daniel Francis, pastor, Rev. M. J. Runyan. They were Scranton; Ralph Gay, Warren; Earle attended by Charles Lytle, an uncle of Gentzel, Zion; Carl Geyer, Allegheny; the bride, and Miss Gates, a sister of the Arthur Goldsmith, Scranton; John Had. bridegroom. Immediately after the cereesty, Pottsville; Frank Hunter, Oakmont; mony a reception was given the young Boyd Irwin, Unionville; Webb Irwin, Ben couple at the home of the bride's par-Avon; A. J. Kennedy, Freeport; Chester ents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Harpster. Latshaw, Pittsburgh; Clay Lindermuth, Both young people come of old and well York; Emerson Lines, Luthersburg; W. known families in Halfmoon township B. Loucks, York; Alvan Luden, Scranton; and have many friends who wish them

> PARSONS-KEPHART.-More or less interest centers around a wedding which took place at the well known Kephart nome on Buffalo Run,at noon Wednesday, when Miss Harriet Eva Kephart became the bride of James Parsons, Toledo. Ohio. Rev. M. J. Runyan, of Stormstorm, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few invited friends. In the afternoon the couple were driven to Bellefonte and left on the 4.44 train for Toledo, Ohio, where the bridegroom has a well established business.

place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Keller, at Pine Grove Mills, when their son, John Keller, took as his bride Rudy, of McAlevy's Fort. Only a few intimate friends were present to witness Rev. L. S. Spangler, of the Lutheran

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Arthur Taylor, of Milton, has been at Axe Mann the past week visiting her mother,

-Mrs. Guy Linn, of Beaver Falls, arrived in Bellefonte last Thursday and will spend two weeks with friends here.

-Miss Mollie Musser went down to Millmont the latter part of last week to see her sister. Mrs. Ream, who is seriously ill.

-Prof. G. H. Whiteford, of Albright College, a ormer teacher at the Bellefonte Academy, was an over Sunday visitor in Bellefonte.

-Prof. James R. Shook, principal of the Pottstown schools, was in Bellefonte over Sunday visiting his mother, Mrs. James Shook. -Joe Katz, the leading clothing merchant of events of commencement week at Dickinson Col-

Lewistown, was in Bellefonte from Sunday until Tuesday with his father, Aaron Katz. -Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Singhiser, of Renovo, were here over Memorial day with Mrs. Singhiser's father, ex-sheriff D. W. Woodring.

-Miss Florence Evey went to Williamsport on Monday morning where she has accepted a po- his various friends, just the same. sition as operator in the Commercial telephone exchange.

-Miss Celia Haupt, of Philadelphia, came to

-Charles Anderson was an arrival in Bellefonte last Thursday night, coming up from Florida where he has been the past six months helping to grow oranges. -Thomas King Morris came to Bellefont

Tuesday evening, to attend the Morris-Barnhart wedding Wednesday, returning to Pittsburgh that afternoon. -Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hazel, of Altoona, were n Bellefonte for Memorial day, guests of Mrs.

Hazel's uncle and aunt, William Chambers and Mrs. William Larimer. -Frank Crissman, who holds down a good poition with the Pennsylvania railroad company at

Sunbury, was home on Sunday visiting his par ents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Homer Crissman. -Miss Elizabeth Platts, of Wilkinsburg, has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hughes, at the Bellefonte Academy, the past week, where her sister. Miss Dorothy Platts, is a student. -On Monday Frank P. Bartley took Hon. James Schofield, D. Paul Fortney and J. Homer Decker over to Philipsburg to attend a big anniversary meeting of the Philipsburg Lodge Loyal

Order of the Moose, returning home on Tuesday -Miss Mildred Kirk, a student at Bucknell University, came to Bellefonte for the High school dance Tuesday evening, and while here Kirk returned to Lewisburg Wednesday morn-

-Louis Doll Jr., came home last week after an absence of six years, during which time he was as far west as Colorado. He will give up roving for the present and will remain in Bellefonte and assist his father at his shoemaking and repair

-Rev. Dr. Schmidt left on Wednesday for Asbury Park, N. J., to attend the General Synod of the Dutch Reformed church. He goes as a comnissioner from his own Synod to this venerable body, in the interest of a committee on church -Mr. and Mrs. McCumpsey, of Renovo, came to Bellefonte Monday. Mr. McCumpsey, after a visit of a day with his friends here, returned nained for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Curt Johnson and Mrs. W. I. Fleming. -Miss Julia Ives, who has been making her home with her sister. Mrs. William Laurie, left Episcopal church at 8:30 o'clock in the Bellefonte Friday of last week, expecting to be

Ives will visit at Philadelphia and from Philadelphia will go to Wallingford, Conn. -Mr. and Mrs. Homer Crissman will leave tional phase of the institution but in Elliott Lyon Morris, while the bride was with their daughter, Mrs. A. B. Cromer. From united in marriage to John F. Gordon, of next week for Baldwinsville, N. Y., for a visit The final exercises were on Wednes- attendance, athletics, etc. Forty-three given away by her father. Following Baldwinsville they will go to Sunbury to spend a short time with Mrs. Crissman's relatives, expecting to be away from Bellefonte two weeks. -Capt. Roland I. Curtin, who has been stationed at Newport as commandant of the navy yard. has been ordered to sea duty and with Mrs. Curtin and their children will come to Bellefonte next week for a brief visit with his mother. Mrs. John I. Curtin, before sailing. Mrs. Curtin and the children will spend several months in Belle

-Landlord H. H. Kline, of the Kline hotel, Midsion to State College to come along and see wha improvement that institution has made since he as many as there are professors now.

-James Watt Esq., of Tyrone, spent Tuesday night in town, having come down from State Col lege, where he had a business engagemen James is a great stranger in Bellefonte. Years ago he was a very familiar figure on our streets, but his business has taken him in other directions and Bellefonte friends have lost the frequent hip of a most genial fellow.

-Mrs. William Kurtz, of Berlin, with her two aughters, Mrs. Clifton Walker and Miss Emily Kurtz, came to Bellefonte last Thursday and were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Kurtz. This week they were at State College where Mrs. Kurtz's son Wilfred is a student and next week they will go to Gettysburg where another son, Jack Kurtz, will be one of the gradu-

-Gilbert Meyers, of Pittsburgh, who in his tin was one of the most popular students at the Bellefonte Academy, was here for the Academy reception and dance last Thursday evening. 'Stuffy" now holds a good position in the First National bank of Pittsburgh and as president of the Academy alumni association is very much interested in the present improvements being made

-A J. Musser, Howard Thompson and William Wrigley autoed over from Clearfield on Monday to look after the interests of the Moshannon Electric company, which is seeking a franchise in who own and operate the light plant at State College and if they get a franchise in Bellefonte will have franchises covering a dozen townships and

-Ralph Kirk was a visitor Monday at the ho of his uncle, Dr. M. A. Kirk. He is a member of KELLER-RUDY.—At seven o'clock on the graduating class at The Pennsylvania State Wednesday evening a quiet wedding took College and was just returning from his home at Kylertown, Clearfield county, where he had been confined the past six weeks with an attack of ty-phoid fever. Immediately after commencement he will leave for the western part of the Stat Miss Maud Rudy, a daughter of John where he has already secured a position with a large construction company.

-Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Strawn and daughter El the ceremony which was performed by len, E. T. Conner, E. J. Bartlick and Daniel Burns, of New Kensington, autoed to church. The bridegroom is a miller by and fishing, stopping at the Brockerhoff house trade and is located in Pine Grove Mills. while here. They came in in Mr. Strawn's big LANGE-SLOCUM. - Wednesday after- o'clock in the morning and arriving here before Winton Six, leaving New Kensigton about six noon, May 28th, at the Reformed parson- six o'clock in the evening. Mr. Burns is no age, Bellefonte, Mr. Charles W. Lange, of stranger in Bellefonte as he was here as a young urday defeated the Altoona High school Nicholas Taylor, Ruth Amanda Waite, going within the time limit and Gunsal- the same city, were married by the Rev. was employed at that place. He is now in the world was employed at that place. He is now in the

-Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casebeer spent Me -Edmund Joseph, son of the late Emil Joseph, who is a law student at Columbia University, N. Y., is visiting relatives in Bellefonte.

-Thomas Hamilton, of New York, and Mrs Broderick, of State College, were home over Sun day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad R. -Mrs. John Kottcamp, of Brooklyn, with her two children, were in Bellefonte yesterday on their way to State College, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Kottcamp's father, Dr. W. -W. Harrison Walker Esq., will go to Carlisle next week where for the sixth consecutive year he will be toastmaster at the annual banquet of the Delta Chi fraternity, which is one of the

-J. F. Stover, one of the enterprising and progressive farmers living on rural route No. 2. Bellefonte, was a pleasant WATCHMAN office caller on Wednesday. He was in town attending to a little personal business but found time to greet

-Dr. M. B. Youngman, of Atlantic City, one of the most famous physicians of the East, was in Bellefonte between trains yesterday. It was his Bellefonte on Thursday night of last week for an first visit to Bellefonte and he had no hesitation indefinite stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. in declaring that what he had frequently heard of the beauty of the town was not one bit exagger-

-Clement Dale Esq., returned Sunday from atattending the General Synod of the Lutheran church held at Atchinson, Kan. He also visited triends at various places through the west, being away one month. Mrs. Dale was with him on the trip but returning stopped to visit relatives in altoona.

-Joseph Shaughensey was an arrival home on Tuesday. During the past year he has been railroad policeman with the Dalaware, Lackawanna & Hudson railroad, stationed at Carbondale, but of late his health has not been very good and he expects to take a month or six weeks vacation to recuperate.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray Andrews came to Bellefonte from Philadelphia on Sunday night and opened their house on Allegheny street for the week. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are making preparation to spend the summer in England with Mr. Andrews' uncle, and will leave here on Sunday, expecting to sail for Europe Tuesday of DEITZEL.-Miss Clara Deitzel, who the past four years had been a resident of DuBois, died in the hospital at that place at noon on Monday of fatty degeneration was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk. Miss of the heart and asthma. She was taken ill on Sunday, dying twenty-four hours later. Deceased was forty-three years old and was born near Tusseyville, this county. Prior to going to DuBois she lived for some years in Bellefonte. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. John Deitzel, and the following sisters and brother: Mr. Sarah Neff, at the old home near Tusseyville; Mrs. George Eberhart and Josephine, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Mary Markle, of Latrobe, and Rev. Samuel Deitzel, also living in Westmoreland county. The remains were taken to Tusseyville on Wednesday where funeral services were held at 10.30 o'clock on Thursday morning, Rev. Jones officiating, after which burial was made in the Tusseyville cemetery.

> GORDEN-MILLER-A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Miller, near Nittany furnace, at eight o'clock on Monday evening, when her daughter, Miss Agnes Miller, was Bellefonte. Rev. A. F. Weaver, pastor of the United Evangelical church, perform. ed the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends. The young couple have the best wishes of their various friends for their happiness and success through life.

-Summer has finally jumped out of the lap of spring.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produ Potatoes per bushel, new. Eggs, per dozen Lard, per pound Bellefonte Grain Markets

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press.

The following are the closing prices of the

Philadelphia Markets

The Best Advertising Medium in Centra Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with indepen dence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-ess paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be iscontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be sold at the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising run

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless accompanied by the cash.