

THAT SAFE AND SANE FOURTH.—Three weeks from today will be the Fourth of July and it is time the people of Bellefonte are beginning to plan for a proper observance and celebration of that day. The Woman's club has mapped out a program for the day, which was published in full in last week's paper, and as it provides for not only a safe and sane Fourth but one in which there will not be an idle minute, it should appeal to all patriotic citizens. The very first part on the program, that of a free automobile ride for the children of the town who are unaccustomed to any such pleasure, is one of the most praiseworthy events of the day, and all automobile owners should not only willingly but cheerfully respond to this part. If they only think back to last year, or two years ago when the custom was inaugurated and recall the pleasure afforded the children, without regard to age or condition, when taken on a half hour's automobile ride they will surely feel like acting the good Samaritan again this year.

The other parts of the program are equally interesting and every loyal and patriotic citizen in the town should do their part in properly celebrating the day. The main idea, of course, is to do away with the deadly firecracker and torpedo, which have caused many deaths in the past from the deadly tetanus germ, and yet celebrate the day in a real up-to-date twentieth century manner. Now that the Woman's club has taken the lead let everybody follow.

FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT.—In a fatal auto accident at Union City, Pa., last Saturday morning Frank McLean, editor of the Union City Times and chairman of the Erie county Democratic committee, was killed outright; Miss Berenice Barr, a teacher in the public schools of that place, had both legs broken, hip fractured, toes crushed, collar bone broken, back and head cut; Charles W. Hayes, one of the officers of the Union City Chair company and a brother of Mrs. D. I. Willard, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Hayes both were cut about the head and face, while their daughter, Miss Imogene Hayes, who was in Bellefonte last week for the High school alumni dance, had her right leg broken and Mrs. A. E. Evans was slightly hurt.

The party was returning from a fraternal society meeting at Watsburg about 2:30 o'clock in the morning in Mr. Hayes' car. When they reached the Main street crossing in Union City two locomotives were standing there letting off steam. The steam cloud and noise prevented Mr. Hayes from seeing or hearing an approaching freight train on the west bound track. The auto was right on the track when it was struck by the train and thrown to one side a mass of wreckage. McLean and Miss Barr were buried under the wrecked machine, the former being dead when taken out. Miss Vera Willard went to Union City on Saturday, to help nurse her cousin, Miss Hayes, during her confinement to bed.

EPWORTH LEAGUE OFFICERS.—The twenty-second annual convention of the Altoona district Epworth League was held in Philipsburg last week and the sessions were very interesting. The Centre Hall League was awarded one of the two banners offered for the highest percentage in certain lines of work. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

Rev. G. A. Williams, Altoona, as president; W. T. Bair, Philipsburg, first vice president; C. C. Shuey, Bellefonte, second vice president; Miss Maud Emerick, Altoona, third vice president; Miss Alice Reiley, State College, fourth vice president; Miss Nellie Givin, Bellwood, recording secretary; Miss Stella Wasson, Juniata, corresponding secretary; H. M. Spangler, Altoona, treasurer; Miss Nancy Dorey, Clearfield, Junior League superintendent; executive committee, the district superintendent, the pastor of the convention church, J. E. Dunning, H. P. Klick, Linn Daugherty Bellefonters who were out of bed early enough Monday morning were greeted with a frost heavy enough to look like a light snow fall. The cold weather followed a hard thunder storm at noon on Saturday and by Sunday evening overcoats were much in demand, notwithstanding the fact that it was the eighth day of June. A high wind prevailed during the fore-part of the night but it went down about midnight and the result was a very heavy frost Monday morning and the thermometer down to freezing point. And the strange, though fortunate thing, about it is that very little if any damage was done to crops, vegetables and fruit. It has been a good many years since there was a frost as late in the summer as June 8th, so that this is really a remarkable season.

ARGUMENT. The plot of this operetta is founded on the beautiful story of Cinderella. Our little heroine Madge the ward of Madame Arrogant is abused, and ill treated by Frieda and Julia, her daughters, two frivolous ladies. Little Madge the kitchen drudge, is left at home, whilst Madame Arrogant and her daughters are attending a reception at the palace. She is visited by Old Mother Cronin, who takes pity on her unfortunate condition and after testing Madge's sincerity presents her with a handsome gown and golden slippers, and bids her hasten to the palace, and present herself to the Queen, admonishing her, however, to leave the palace at the first stroke of the midnight hour.

Two musical selections.
"The Sisters Quarrel" and "Madge's Dove Song" are very effective numbers in this scene. The second scene represents the reception at the palace a grand opening chorus "Hall, Princess Hall," greeting the arrival of the Princess, Madame Arrogant and her daughters, Frieda and Julia are presented to the Princess in the midst of the festivities, Madge suddenly appears a perfect picture of loveliness. In the third scene, which opens with the "Dairy-Maids Song" a bevy of pretty village maidens, about on the way to the fields, are intercepted by the page, Earl, who, having the golden slipper, proceeds to match the same to the feet of the maidens. But being unsuccessful in matching the same is instructed by the maids to try as Madame Arrogant's.

Falling to get the desired financial help asked in Bellefonte the Pittsburgh promoters of the glass plant which was to have been built here have taken their project elsewhere and it is now reported that it will be located in Greensburg. Bellefonte's former experience with a glass plant was the big thing against going into another such a venture, although at that substantial encouragement was offered the promoters to locate here, but not to the extent of furnishing the site and building the plant.

—About two hundred people attended the annual opening of the Fairbrook Country club at Pennsylvania Furnace last Wednesday; which included more invited guests than there are members, the latter numbering about ninety.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Prof. Clarence Weaver is now snugly located at Rock Springs.

Ira L. Burwell is walking on air since a bouncing grandson arrived.

W. H. Goss and wife are visiting friends at Spruce Creek and Tyrone.

Heavy frosts did much damage to vegetation Monday and Tuesday mornings.

Mrs. Ida Gardner last Friday entertained a number of her lady friends at supper.

Mrs. Olie Bowersox, of Altoona, and son George are visiting G. W. McWilliams at Fairbrook.

Henry Snyder of Ellingsworth, of Bedford, is spending his vacation at grandpa Snyder's home at White Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowersox are making a two weeks visit at the home of their childhood near Middleburg.

D. G. Meek and wife and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Hess attended the Geo. Y. Meek funeral at Tyrone last Saturday.

Miss Eliza Moore, of Centre Hall, is making her mid-summer visit to her cousin, Mrs. Nancy Shaw, at State College.

Alvin S. Meyer and family, of Jacksonville, Florida, are making their annual visit among their Centre county friends.

Mrs. Millie Fenstermacher, of New York, with her two interesting little girls, is making her mid-summer visit among Centre county friends.

John W. Miller, A. F. Fry, G. E. Harper, Miss Grace Dale, Miss Esther Dunlap and Maude Smith were among the sight-seers at the National capital Sunday.

Wm. R. Dale is spending a few days with friends at Fairbrook before going to the White Mountains in New Hampshire to recuperate his shattered health.

During a thunder storm last Saturday morning Frank Swab's team ran away with a double cultivator colliding with a telephone pole in front of Squire Archey's store, breaking up things generally.

Burglars attempted to rob the St. Elmo hotel last Thursday night but before they got their hands on anything of value they were chased away by Fred Randolph. The latter fired two shots at them but they made their escape.

Badly fooled was Charley Homan Saturday evening at 8:20 o'clock. A small army of friends and neighbors took his home by storm as a reminder of his 30th birthday. He was the recipient of many presents. Refreshments were served full and plenty and the evening spent in fun and music and all present had a jolly good time.

Shoots Rival's Fingers Off. Finding William Miller, a prominent business and church man, of Williamson, W. Va., and Mrs. Whitten together in the Whitten home, J. R. Whitten, a wealthy coal operator, fired a bullet through Miller's hat, and when the latter attempted to draw a revolver with his right hand Whitten shot his fingers away.

Miller then tried to draw with his left hand, but again Mr. Whitten's accurate shooting was effective, disabling his foot's remaining hand.

Although every effort was made to keep the matter quiet, the tale became public when a warrant charging misdemeanor was sworn out against Miller and Mrs. Whitten. Both were taken into custody and will be given a hearing next Monday.

Accused of Large Theft. Accused by Richard K. Fox, for many years publisher of the Police Gazette in New York, of having stolen $50,000 to $75,000 from him in the last ten years, George A. Oxx, general real estate, financial and business manager, and Adolph Chudoba, his cashier, were locked up in the Tombs.

Fox had been puzzled for a month or more by the unusual prosperity of Oxx. Though in his employ as manager for twenty-three years at a very moderate salary, Oxx had been making considerable investments in expensive real estate deals.

Editor Gets Jail Term. Alexander Scott, the editor of the Weekly Issue, in Newark, N. J., a paper which has been supporting the silk mill strikers, was sentenced to serve an indeterminate prison term of not less than a year nor more than fifteen years, and to pay a fine of $250, for "inciting hostility against the government."

Editor Scott announced that he would appeal from the sentence. Sentencing of the thirty-eight men and women convicted of unlawful assembly was deferred.

Ford For Public Printer. Cornelius J. Ford, a New Jersey labor leader, was nominated by President Wilson to be public printer.

The president has also nominated Charles M. Galloway, of South Carolina, and Harmon W. Craven, of Washington, to be civil service commissioners.

Excursions. Niagara Falls Personally-Conducted Excursions June 27, July 11, 25, August 8, 22, September 5, 19, October 3, 1913.

Life.

The poet's exclamation: "O life! I feel thee bounding in my veins," is a joyous one. Persons that can rarely or never make it, in honesty to themselves, are among the most unfortunate. They do not live, but exist; for to live implies more than to be. To live is to be well and strong—to arise feeling equal to the ordinary duties of the day, and to retire not overcome by them—to feel life bounding in the veins. A medicine that has made thousands of people, men and women, well and strong, has accomplished a great work, bestowing the richest blessings, and that medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. The weak, run-down, or debilitated, from any cause, should not fail to take it. It builds up the whole system, changes existence into life, and makes life more abundant. We are glad to say these words in its favor to the readers of our columns.

Pills vs. Bills. A little pill may often save a big bill for medical service. When the bowels are clogged, a condition is created which invites disease. One of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets as a regulator of the bowels will prevent this condition, and if there is constipated habit the use of the "Pellets" will effect a complete cure.
