THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Mrs. Emma Lose, wife of Nicodemus Lose, of Coburn, fell down the cellar stairs last Thursday and broke her left arm.

—The Bellefonte Cotillion club held their final dance at the Nittany Country club last Thursday evening, and it was pronounced the best dance of the season.

—Judge Orvis on Monday granted the application of W. H. Hindel for a liquor license for the Central hotel, in Philipsburg, after a rehearing had been held in the case.

—There are still some big trout in Spring creek, because on Tuesday evening T. Clayton Brown caught one below the falls that measured 19 1/2 inches and weighed 3 1/2 pounds.

—There is a well defined rumor that Bellefonte is to have another circus this summer and that it will be here some date between the middle of August and the first of September.

—Mrs. H. S. Ray, who has never fully recovered her health since her last child was born about eight months ago, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Wednesday morning for treatment.

—Mrs. Daniel Snyder, who has been in ill health all winter and whose condition now is considered serious by her physicians, was taken to the Jefferson hospital in Philadelphia last week by Dr. Huff.

—Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Jane Tate and Dr. E. S. Dorworth, all of whom have been seriously ill within the past two weeks, have become so much better that no further alarm is felt by their friends concerning their recovery.

—Twenty-four covers were laid for Mrs. Hugh N. Crider's luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Anna Cass, of Tyrone, who will be married on June 28th to Bernon Tisdale Woodlee, of Narbeth. At the same time announcement was made of the engagement of Walter Powell and Miss Helen G. Brooks, of Tyrone.

—William Rote, of Coleville, was visiting at Orviston the past week and on Monday he loaded a revolver preparatory to going out groundhog hunting. In some way the weapon was accidentally discharged and the bullet pierced the index finger of his left hand. The attending physician has hopes of saving the finger.

—Two hundred and seventy-two tickets were sold at the Bellefonte station for the low-rate excursion to Washington on Sunday. About six hundred went from all stations on the Lewisburg and Tyrone. The train left Bellefonte at four o'clock in the morning, reached Washington about noon, left there at six in the evening and arrived in Bellefonte at 2.30 Monday morning.

—Next Monday, June 16th, will mark the opening of the bass fishing season and also the opening of the club house of the Beech Creek fishing and hunting club, composed mostly of Tyrone people. Bald Eagle creek from Howard down is the only bass stream in this part of the State and during the season for that gamey fish its banks are frequented almost every day by one or more parties of enthusiastic anglers.

—Benton D. Tate will make sale of his household furniture on Saturday of next week and will vacate the apartments he occupied with his mother in the Reynolds block on Bishop street. He has secured a room with Mrs. S. A. Bell and Miss Alice Tate in the Curtin house on the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Love will move into the apartments over Casbeer's jewelry store recently occupied by Dr. A. W. Hafer.

—The Highway committee of Lock Haven city council made a trip over the Nittany valley state road yesterday to see the effect of the oil now being put thereon as a top dressing and preservative. Lock Haven people have been free users of oil upon the streets during the past few years as a dust preventive but they have not yet found an oil that has the durable qualities desired. The committee who made the trip yesterday were very favorably impressed with the state road on which this new kind of oil has been used.

—The Junior Chautauqua, which will occupy a great part of the time of Chautauqua week in Bellefonte, will include The Story Hour, Songs, Folk Dances, Games, Athletic Contests, The Information Hour, Nature Study and so much that is of interest to children, that the parents of all the young people in Bellefonte should endeavor to make it possible for their daughters and sons to take advantage of this great opportunity during that week. A child's season ticket, which will be one dollar, will admit them to every event of the regular Chautauqua program, so that if parents be unable to supply all with these season tickets, suggest to your girls and boys ways by which the price of a ticket may be gotten, in order that not one child may miss the pleasure and opportunity of the Junior Chautauqua.

BIG COMMENCEMENT AT THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE.—Two hundred and ninety-five young men and four young women were graduated at The Pennsylvania State College this week and turned out well equipped to fight their way through this world of rush and bustle.

While the commencement week's exercises dated from last Friday the first event of great importance was the review of the regiment of cadets on Saturday morning by Comte de Chambrun, of the French embassy, Washington. Major General Leonard Wood, of the U. S. Army, was also present and after the drill made an address to the cadets in which he advocated training our soldiers for universal peace instead of along the line of preparation for war. That the peace sentiment was prevailing more and more the world over and the United States should be leaders in the movement.

In addition to the hundreds of visitors who were at the College for the week many people went there Sunday for the baccalaureate sermon which was preached by Rev. Dr. Charles M. Daubigne, of the Reformed church of Neully parish, France. He took as his theme "Depart Ye Not from Jerusalem," and besought the Seniors not to lose sight of their debt to one who has gone before, but to enroll themselves in the great army of service. In the afternoon the cadet band gave a sacred concert on the campus in front of "Old Main," and in the evening Dr. Daubigne addressed the various christian associations on the front campus.

Class day exercises were held on Monday morning when Dexter Very, president, spoke of the success of the class of 1913, and R. C. Helm presented the peace pipe to the Junior class, which was received by Miles Horst, as custodian. The memorial of the class, an architectural terrace as an entrance to "Old Main," was presented by E. J. Reeves and accepted by H. Walton Mitchell on behalf of the board of trustees. The Junior oratorical contest was held on Monday evening, after which practically all the fraternities held commencement dances.

Tuesday was one of the busiest days of the week, every hour of it being occupied with a meeting or sports of some kind. The business meeting of the alumni association was held the first thing in the morning and later came the annual meeting of the Phi Kappa Phi honor fraternity and a public welcome to the class of 1863. Immediately after luncheon an alumni parade was held from "Old Main" to Beaver field. The alumni association re-elected the following trustees: Judge Ellis L. Orvis, Bellefonte; J. E. Quigley, Pittsburgh; William H. Walker, Boston, Mass. The delegates re-elected H. V. White, of Bloomsburg; Andrew Carnegie, of New York; J. P. Wallace, of Altoona, while R. M. Montz, of Washington county, was a new one chosen. The State-Chinese University ball game was the interesting event of the afternoon and in the evening The Thespians gave "The Yankee Brigands" which was followed by the alumni reception.

The commencement exercises were held in the auditorium on Wednesday morning and were attended by a large audience. The commencement orator was M. de la Rocca, counsellor of the French embassy, Washington, D. C. He talked on the subject "Moderation," and made a very interesting address. Following the address Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, president of the College, made his annual statement which was followed by the presentation of diplomas, conferring of degrees and awarding of prizes. The prizes awarded were as follows:

Special military award.—Judd Walter Lewis, George T. Rodgers, Albert Leo Solleder.

The John W. White fellowship, $400.—Henry Reist Kraybill.

The John W. White Medal, $50.—Benjamin Reed Henderson.

The Miller's Association prizes—$50, Willis Germerd Goodenow; $25, William Alexander Noel; $25, William Bruce Mather.

The Oliver Evans prize, $25.—Hylton Roller Brown.

The McAllister prize, $25.—Robert Adams Love.

Among the second honor men was Elias Ward Markle, of Hubersburg, a graduate of the Bellefonte High school. Of the 299 graduates the following are from Centre county: "Annis" Mary Glenn, Julia A. C. Krumrine, David Benjamin Eppers, Jr., Edward McClellan Armsby, Leslie Confer Krebs, William Herbert Armstrong and C. Landis Rice, of State College; Harold Baker Gardner and Ogden Bailey Malin, Bellefonte; John Thomas Budinger, Snow Shoe; Rufus Roy Finkle, Spring Mills, Philip Steiner Fryberger, Philipsburg, and Bruce Musser Stover, Woodward.

WOMAN'S ALUMNI ASSOCIATION BANQUET.—The first annual banquet of the Woman's Alumni association of The Pennsylvania State College was held at Nittany Inn, Monday evening, June 9th. Covers were laid for twenty-seven members. Judged from any stand-point the banquet was a decided success. The enthusiasm and interest exhibited by all present augurs well for the future development and usefulness of the association.

Mrs. A. Lawrence Miller, class of '85, acted as toast mistress. The following toasts were responded to: "Opportunities for Women at State College—past and present," Miss Margaret McDonald. "The class of work done by women now taking the courses at P. S. C.," Miss Bessie Bower. "The Girls of 1913," Miss Laura Harrison.

"The Alumnae Club," Mrs. H. P. Dale; "The Girls Song," Miss McNamee; "Womans Suffrage," Miss Ancona. The attention of the club was called to the pressing need of a hospital for the College, which resulted in a committee being appointed to secure funds for furnishing a room to be known as "The Alumni Girls Club Room."

The following are the committee: Mrs. H. P. Dale, Mrs. John I. Olewine, Miss Cooper, Miss Bessie Bower. $65 dollars were pledged at the meeting. New officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. A. Lawrence Miller; vice president, Miss Ollie Miller; secretary, Miss Bess Fye; treasurer Mrs. H. P. Dale.

—If Waddle station gets a canning plant and a new brick works this summer the people of that section will have busier times than they ever had before, even counting the big lumbering operations of the Huyett—McNitt Lumber company. And the best of it is that both the canner and brick works seem certainties at this writing.

—John Cronister, of Huston township, this county, has opened up a sand plant near the Mines railroad station in Blair county and expects to operate it quite extensively if the necessary force of laborers can be secured. The first car load of sand was shipped last week and was consigned to Bellefonte. Mr. Cronister expects to have his plant in full operation by July first.

—Hereafter all those contributing magazines or paper to the car load to be sent by the Woman's club for the hospital benefit, will please have them sent to the room in Garman's house, on High street, between Noll's shoemaker shop and Thall's store. The general collection having now been completed, it is asked that any who have been passed by and who have magazines or papers for the dryman, will please notify Mrs. Gettig at once.

—The Nittany valley road between Bellefonte and Mill Hill, which is being built into a state highway, is now being finished with a top dressing of oil, which it is claimed will not only make the road dust proof but will act as a preservative, keeping the limestone from grinding up only to be blown away by the wind. It is the first piece of road in Centre county to be finished with this kind of oil, and if it proves a success it will probably be used on all the state roads built.

—Announcements have been received in Bellefonte of the marriage of Miss Jessie Florence Glover and Walter R. Bush, of Philadelphia, the wedding having taken place Wednesday, June fourth. Miss Glover is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Glover, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Bush, a jeweler in the same city, is well known in Bellefonte, where he spent much of his early life; all knowledge of his trade as a jeweler having been learned while working with F. P. Blair & Co.

—You can always find "the newest thing under the sun" in the moving picture line shown in Bellefonte at the Scenic. Thrilling war scenes and startling dramas, beautiful travel pictures and side-splitting comedies, splendidly staged and acted two and three reel films constitute the week's program with a change every evening. The only way of being sure of seeing the best is to see them all. When you stay away one evening that is the evening the best may be shown. The price never changes.

—After seven years of professional nursing, a great part of which time was spent among the people of Bellefonte, the announcement made by Miss Jane F. Crowley, that it is necessary for her to give up her work, has been received by the people of this community with a feeling of great regret. It is to be hoped that Miss Crowley, after a period of rest, will be able to resume the work, where her many natural characteristics and great ability, has placed her to the front in her profession. For the present she will continue the work of her sister, Mrs. Markle, a chiropodist, of Lock Haven.

—A rumor has been current in Bellefonte and at State College the past week that Harry P. Armstrong, of Butler, had been killed in an automobile accident recently in one of the western States where he has been for some time singing with an evangelist. Mr. Armstrong was an old State boy and was very well known in Bellefonte on account of his singing. He has been assisting in evangelistic work the past year or eighteen months and was only recently married. The fact that it has been impossible to get any particulars of the reported accident and Mr. Armstrong's death leads to the hope that it may yet prove to be a false report.

—In addition to being a most careful and conscientious county commissioner, Mr. D. A. Grove must be one of the best and most up-to-date farmers in the county, if the basket of cherries left at this office on Monday, is a sample of what his farm produces. They were great, fat, red-checked or heart cherries that would make your mouth water to look at, and proved just as good to eat as they were beautiful to see. Mr. Grove tells us that the tree from which they were picked usually yields from eight to ten bushels but the present year will not produce over one. A like scarcity of this delicious fruit is reported from all parts of the county.

EPISCOPAL RECTORY FOR STATE COLLEGE.—Last summer an Episcopal chapel was built at State College and while the edifice has not been entirely completed it is far enough along that it was used during the entire college year and how badly it was needed is shown in the fact that one hundred and twenty-six students, members of the Episcopal church, were regular attendants. Rev. John Hewitt was chairman of the building committee that had charge of the erection of the chapel, and in fact is yet, as the committee has not yet been dissolved.

Having secured the chapel the next question that arose was a place of residence for the minister and through the persistent and untiring efforts of Rev. Hewitt and Dr. William Frear a fund of five thousand dollars has been raised for the building of a rectory adjoining the chapel. Plans for the same have already been prepared and while the contract has not been officially awarded it is almost certain that the building will be erected by Rhoads and Knisely, of this place, builders of the chapel. The rectory will be built this summer and while it will hardly be completed by the opening of college in September it likely will be before next winter sets in.

Ensign Butler's visit at this time was made solely to see Dr. Dobbins, who has for several years lived at the Bellefonte hospital.

—It is not often that four of the most active and prominent citizens of any one township happen to be in town at one time, unless court, show or some other entertainment is going on. On Tuesday, however, "Squire" Carlin, Postmaster Miller, of Rebersburg; Mr. Geo. H. Small, and Mr. W. I. Walker, all of Miles township, happened to be here on business and while here thought enough of the WATCHMAN to make it a friendly call. It was the first time that Mr. Walker, who by the way is a Republican, had ever been in, but before he went away considered it would be the proper thing to have Mrs. Walker, who is a rattling good Democrat, receive a copy of the WATCHMAN weekly and took with him a receipt in her name for a year's subscription. At the end of that time we know he will think more of it than he does now, and will be troubled to know just what party principles he believes in, if reading it weekly has the same effect it has on other good citizens.
