Still Waiting an Explanation.

Although our up town contemporary, whose owner and reputed editor, now kept busy drawing a $5,000 Democratic salary, finds ample space to further insult the Democrats of the county by a reiteration of its foul and truthless insinuation as to their willingness to be the creatures of a boss and the purchased tools of corporations and whiskey distillers, as charged by it, in the issue of May 22, it has not room for a single line explanatory of its owner's appointment of two Republican assistants, (at $2,500 each), to the only places he had at his disposal in the office given him by the Democracy.

It will take more than the different excuses he is said to have made to several disgusted friends, while home on Monday last, who demanded to know the reason for this treachery not only to those who had supported him but to the party as well, to satisfy any Democrat that he is either fit for, or deserving, the place, he holds.

To some he alleged that the men who backed him for the position—Messrs. VANCE MCCORMICK, A. MITCHELL PALMER and GEORGE W. GUTHRIE—required a pledge from him before the appointment was given, to allow them to dictate the appointments under him; to others he tried to crawl out of the untenable hole he had placed himself in by asserting that these appointments had not been made; and that Capt. CARSON, (one of the Republicans appointed) by him and sworn in on the 9th of June, at the same time, the same place, and by the same official who administered the oath of office to himself, assumed the authority to make the facts public.

These two stories were the only explanation made. Our readers can imagine how much manliness or truth there is in a creature who thus skulks his own doings and has not the courage to acknowledge his "first official" act.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Charles Pennington, of State College, was brought to Bellefonte Saturday and operated for appendicitis. Mrs. Pennington is a daughter of Mrs. Peter Smith.

The Quigley camp on Fishing creek has been open all week and Messrs. Henry C. and J. Edward Quigley have had as guests Dr. J. M. Brocknerhoff and his friend, Dr. Marshall R. Ward, of Philadelphia; Charles M. McCurdy, Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick and Hugh Quigley. Mrs. Quigley and daughters Henrietta and Mary and Miss Janet Scott also spent some time in camp.

Keichline's garage received another car load of Fords this week and among the purchasers were Robert Roan and Conrad Miller, of Bellefonte. All the others went out in the country, several to farmers. The machine is gradually working its way into popularity on the farm and it will only be a few years, it is predicted, until every up-to-date farmer will have one as his sole means of travel.

When considering what to do with your small change, put it towards the fund you have started for the purchase of a Chautauqua ticket. Tickets for grown people, which will admit you to every event during the week and which are transferable, can be had for two dollars. Those for children and which are transferable for children, admitting them to every event of the Chautauqua, can be had for one dollar. Be ready with the money, for tickets for both.

Rev. J. A. Woodcock has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Birmingham to accept the pastorate of a large church in Rochester, N. Y., expecting to make the change the first of September. Rev. Woodcock has been at Birmingham for five years and has endeared himself very much to the members of his church and the people of that community, all of whom regret very much to have him make the change, though of course it takes him to a greater field of usefulness.

There has just been issued from the Shakespeare press, New York, two books in which Bellefonters will feel a keen interest. One is "The Little Lady Bertha," by Fannie Alricks Shugert, a 12 mo. 125 page volume bound in cloth and stamped in gold. Price 50c. It is a story of the dark ages, with the opening scene in Paris, later shifting to Brittany. It is a story that will be read with pleasure by those fortunate enough to get hold of it. The other book is "Happy Childhood Days" by Hannah Lanthe Johnson. A 12 mo. 51 page book, paper cover, price 25c. This is a collection of nine children's stories and one poem. All the stories are bright and clever, dealing with modern things and places. Both Mrs. Shugert and Miss Johnson are residents of Bellefonte and this fact will give increased interest in their literary productions.

HON. WILLIAM C. HEINLE.

SUDDEN DEATH OF WILLIAM C. HEINLE.

Residents of Bellefonte and Centre county were very much shocked on Sunday evening when news was received of the sudden death in New York of Hon. William C. Heinle, which occurred at noon that day in the Bellevue hospital. Mr. Heinle went to New York over three weeks ago to conclude a real estate deal that had been hanging fire for some time. He stopped at the Victoria hotel and had the deal about in shape to close up when he was taken sick on Wednesday of last week. He grew worse on Thursday and was removed to the Bellevue hospital. On Saturday his daughter, Miss Bettie Heinle, was at the hospital to see him and the physicians then assured her that he would be out in a few days and she made arrangements to come home with him on Wednesday of this week. Saturday night his condition grew alarmingly worse and from that time he sank rapidly until the end, which came just at noon on Sunday, his death being caused by pleuro-pneumonia. His daughter accompanied the remains home on Monday, reaching Bellefonte at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, and they were conveyed to his late home on east Bishop street. On Tuesday morning the Centre county bar association held a meeting and appointed a committee to prepare a memorial minute. The funeral was held from his late home on Bishop street at eleven o'clock on Wednesday morning. Rev. George E. Hawes, of the Presbyterian church, officiated and burial was made in the Union cemetery.

Mr. Heinle was born in Miles township, on November 30th, 1849, so that at his death he was 63 years, 6 months and 16 days old. He was of direct German descent, his father, Jacob Heinle, having been a graduate of a German University while his mother who before her marriage was Miss Catharine Fedrie, was also a native of the Fatherland. When a boy only eight years of age deceased was practically thrown upon his own resources and went to live in the family of William Walker, at Lamar, Clinton county. During the ensuing nine years he worked around among the farmers during the summer and attended school in the winter time. His thirst for knowledge grew with his maturity and when seventeen years old he began a course in the Rebersburg Normal school, working during the summer months to pay his expenses during the school sessions, and when he finally graduated it was with high honors. He taught school one or two terms and in 1872 was chosen principal of the Philipsburg public schools, a position he filled two terms. In 1875 he succeeded the late Governor D. H. Hastings, as principal of the Bellefonte schools and a year later was chosen principal of the preparatory department at The Pennsylvania State College.

When a resident of Bellefonte he began the reading of law with Col. J. L. Spangler and this he pursued with such close attention that in 1878 he passed a most creditable examination and was admitted to practice at the Centre county bar. His good judgment, keen intellect and fine perception of the law won him recognition from the very beginning and one year later he was nominated on the Democratic ticket for district attorney and was elected by a good majority. He was re-elected in 1882 and served all told six years in that office. Mr. Heinle was not only a Democrat at heart but a hard political worker and his years of service for the party were rewarded in 1898 when he was given the nomination for State Senator of this district and at the election in November was elected over W. A. Osborn, the Republican nominee, by 544 votes in the district, then composed of Centre, Clearfield and Clinton counties. During the four years of his term he made a most able representative and won State-wide recognition by his determined stand in favor of good legislation and against vicious measures. He was also regarded as one of the most forcible speakers in the Senate. In 1892 he was renominated but that being an overwhelmingly Republican year he was defeated by Alexander E. Patton, of Clearfield. In 1910 he was given the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district but was defeated by Charles E. Patton.

Mr. Heinle was a man of many redeeming qualities, chief among which was his uniform kindness to all mankind and his largeness of heart. He was quick to respond to any appeal for help and always ready to help his fellowmen to the best of his ability. He served as a school director of Bellefonte for a number of years and always took a deep interest in everything that pertained to the betterment of the schools.

Mr. Heinle was also a member of the Bellefonte Lodge of Masons and that he carried in his heart the emblem of faith, hope and charity was exemplified on many occasions. At the recent term of court, for instance, two cases were heard in which the defendants were quite poor and could not pay the usual lawyer's fee. Mr. Heinle took both cases out of sympathy for the people involved and five dollars was all he got for his trouble.

Mr. Heinle was married to Rosa A. Woods, who died over twelve years ago, and his only survivors are one son, J. Malcolm, employed in the electrical department of the Pennsylvania railroad at Altoona; and one daughter, Miss Bettie Heinle, a teacher in the St. Elizabeth convent, at Madison, N. J. He also leaves two sisters living in the West.

RUNKLE.—Mrs. Catharine Runkle, widow of the late James Runkle, of Tusseyville, died quite suddenly and unexpectedly at three o'clock on Wednesday morning, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Musser, of Penn Hall. She was in such good health on Sunday that her son, William Groh Runkle, of Bellefonte, went over to Tusseyville in his car and took her down to Penn Hall to spend a few days. Her death on Wednesday morning was the result of heart trouble, after only a few hours' illness.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Spangler and was born in Potter township on June 20th, 1831, hence lacked but two days of being eighty-two years old. When a young woman she was married to James Runkle and ever since had resided on a farm in the vicinity of Tusseyville. She was a member of the Reformed church all her life and a kind, neighborly woman. Her husband died on March 4th, 1910, but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Hulda Sullivan, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Mary Bortoff, Newberry; Mrs. Lydia High, Lock Haven; Mrs. Alice Osman, Glen Iron; Mrs. Frank S. Musser, Penn Hall; Hugh, of Potter township; James, of Spring township, and William Groh, of Bellefonte. She also leaves one brother and two sisters, namely: William Runkle, of Centre Hill; Mrs. Agnes Mechtley, Williamsport, and Mrs. Emma Shutt, of Centre Hill.

Funeral services will be held in the Union church at Tusseyville tomorrow (Saturday) morning at ten o'clock, by Rev. Jones, assisted by Rev. A. A. Black, after which burial will be made in the Union cemetery at that place.

FOSTER.—Albert Foster, father of Dr. J. V. Foster, of Centre Hall, died at his home in Lewistown on Thursday of last week after being confined to bed four months with an abdominal tumor. He was born in Milliford and was 79 years and 18 days old. During the Civil war he served as a member of Company D, 150th regiment (the famous Bucktail regiment) being promoted to a corporal for bravery in action. He was in the Battle of the Wilderness, was taken prisoner and served time in Libby prison. Mr. Foster was a member of the Presbyterian church all his life. Surviving him are his wife and three sons, W. O. Foster, of Pittsburgh; R. S. Foster, of Lewistown, and Dr. J. V. Foster, of Centre Hall. The funeral was held on Monday morning, burial being made in the Mt. Rock cemetery, Lewistown.

BROWER.—Following an illness of four weeks with nervous prostration and kidney trouble Mrs. Nancy Brower, wife of J. M. Brower, died at her home in Benner township at 8:50 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Her maiden name was Miss Nancy Glenn and she was born in this county on May 21st, 1840, hence at her death was 73 years and 28 days old. She was a member of the Methodist church for years and a good woman. Funeral services will be held at her late home at nine o'clock on Saturday morning by Rev. E. H. Yocum, assisted by Revs. Shuey and Johnson, after which burial will be made in the Union cemetery in this place.

On Wednesday morning Jacob Bartlett was hauling telephone poles for the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania, using a two wheeled truck to carry the pole. A number of boys followed along and now and then would jump upon the pole for a short ride. Frank Gentile, the four year old son of V. Gentile, the Greek shoemaker in the Bush Arcade, was one of the boys and up in the Diamond he fell off the pole and was run over by the heavy truck. At the time he was believed to be fatally injured and was rushed to the hospital but an examination showed that the truck had passed over his right leg instead of the body. The leg was broken and his face scraped and with ordinary luck he will be around in a month or so.

Residents of Bald Eagle valley are complaining about the bad condition of the public road from Mt. Eagle to Howard. When the route of the Bald Eagle railroad was changed last summer it became necessary in a number of places to change the public road. In doing so it made the road much more crooked than it had been and much of it is out of repair. Though the State has taken over the road down Bald Eagle very little work has been done on it so far.

Self Explanatory.

[The following communication from "A Director" more fully explains the object and work of the Needlework Guild.—Ed.]

Editor Watchman: From past experience I am very much afraid your article in the WATCHMAN of June 6th in regard to the Needlework Guild will be misunderstood by the members, they being led to believe that some change has been made, and that Mrs. Valentine is the only director, which could mean no end of confusion and trouble at collecting time to the committee. Please make it clear to the people that although we are a branch of the National Guild it is non-sectarian, cannot be under the patronage of any one church or confined to the limits of any one interest; and a home charity unless called upon for help in some great disaster.

Since we organized in 1911 we have distributed in and around Bellefonte eight hundred and thirty new articles of wearing apparel. Our president was called upon to help the flood sufferers in Ohio some weeks ago and made a private collection of two hundred and five articles. I think it is only fair to let the contributors know how much good they have done, and hope it will induce others to join in the good work. Men, women and children can become members by giving two new garments a year. Any member securing ten members or the equivalent (twenty-two articles) and one money member, no matter how small the amount, becomes a director. The present officers of the local Guild are as follows:

President, Mrs. John M. Shugert; vice president, Miss Mary Blanchard; secretary, Mrs. W. F. Reynolds; treasurer, Mrs. John N. Lane; directors, Mrs. Denius, Miss Lida Morris, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. H. C. Valentine, Miss Mary Hoy, Mrs. R. S. Brouse, Mrs. John N. Lane, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. G. G. Pond, of State College.

A DIRECTOR.

SEARS—McCLELLAN.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wasson, at Lemont, at eleven o'clock on Monday morning, when their adopted daughter, Miss Kyrle C. McClellan became the bride of Harold M. Sears, of Corry. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. K. Harnish, of the Presbyterian church, and the happy young couple were attended by Miss Bertha Bradford and Forest Evey, while among the guests were the bride's brother and sister, Allen McClellan, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Norma McClellan Shuey, of State College.

The bride was adopted into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wasson after the death of her mother fourteen years ago and through her unselfish nature and kind thoughtfulness had endeared herself to them as a real daughter. She had also many friends in the community who will miss her cheerful greeting and sunny nature, but all join in wishing her a heaped measure of happiness. The bridegroom is a graduate of The Pennsylvania State College class of 1912, and now holds a good position in the United States Department of Forestry at Washington, D. C., where they will take up their residence after a brief wedding trip.

WOOMER—SHANK.—Quite an elaborate wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shank, at Warriors-mark, on Thursday of last week, when their daughter, Miss Anna Lyle Shank, was united in marriage to Edmund K. Woomer, of Graysville. A large number of guests were present to witness the ceremony which took place at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon and which was performed by Rev. Edwin C. Keboch, of the Methodist church. Refreshments were served following the ceremony and later the young couple left on a wedding trip east.

The bride has for several years been a successful school teacher in Warriors-mark township and is a very excellent young lady. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Woomer and is a miller by occupation. They will be at home at Graysville after July first.

LARIMER—KNEASBOURGH.—John C. Larimer, son of Mrs. Sadie Larimer, of this place, and Miss Catharine Kneasbourgh, of Philadelphia, were married in that city last Saturday. Owing to the illness of the bride's mother the wedding was a very quiet affair. Mr. and Mrs. Larimer, who are now on a wedding trip, are expected in Bellefonte this week to spend a few days with relatives of the bridegroom. Mr. Larimer is permanently located in Philadelphia where he is in the cement business.

FISHBURN—GRENNINGER.—A quiet wedding at the Reformed parsonage at Boalsburg on Tuesday was that of Thomas M. Fishburn and Miss Sarah R. Grenninger, both of State College. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover, in the presence of only the requisite number of witnesses. Both the bride and bridegroom are well known young people of College township and their numerous friends wish for them a fair share of life's joys and success.

CHAUTAUQUA IN OUR TOWN.

Chautauqua's come to our town! Whoop! whoop! hurrah! It surely is the liveliest thing that's ever come this way. A fierce an' fightin' enemy of ev'rything that's bad. Chautauqua's the staunchest friend this town has ever had. Whoop'er up! Shout Chautauqua, an' join the happy throng. That's buvin' season tickets, an' boost the thing along. Line up, or you'll be gobbled by the haunts that's round about. For the Gobble-uns 'll git you. If you don't Watch out! On't there was a grouchy man that wouldn't buy a ticket— The Gobble-uns 'em tied him up and hid him in a thicket; An' one't there was a lecture an' he wasn't there— "Haven't time to go," he growled, "to nothing anywhere." But one't there was a circus in a great big tent; He had the time to spare that day an' so you bet he went— The Gobble-uns 'em grabbed him 'fore he knewed what's he's about; An' they'll grab you, too. If you don't Watch out! My daddy says that he an' ma an' all us kids 'll buy a ticket— Aunt Lizzie says that she'll be there, with her six kids an' Joe, Looks jes' like ev'rybody is goin' to tend' the thing— The whole town's shoutin' Chautauqua until the echos ring. Whooper up! Shout Chautauqua an' join the happy throng. That's buyin' season tickets, an' boost the thing along. Wake up! or you'll be gobbled by the haunts that's round about. If you Don't Watch Out! C. E. STEWART.

THINGS TO REMEMBER FOR THE SAFE AND SANE FOURTH.—The public is earnestly requested to hang flags and bunting on their residences and places of business to aid in making the sane Fourth a gala day.

Children taking part in the drill for the Fourth of July entertainment will meet for a rehearsal at the High school building at four p. m. Monday, June 23rd. Children wishing to take part in the parade will meet at the High school building on Wednesday morning, June 25th, at 10 o'clock. Children wishing to enjoy the free automobile ride to take place immediately after the parade will form an orderly line extending from R. A. Beck's barber shop down Allegheny street to Howard street. Tickets will be issued to each child by Robert F. Hunter from the northeast corner of the Diamond. Perfect order must be preserved.

One of the attractions in Bellefonte for the Fourth will be Frank Wetzler's band of Milesburg. This is an unique band, as it is composed of nineteen boys, all in knee pants, and their playing is of such an excellent standard that they are compared very favorably with the old Milesburg band, which in its day was considered one of the best in the county. So don't fail to see and hear Wetzler's band.

SUFFRAGETTES WANTED.—An effort is being made to have a number of the organizations of the town participate in the Fourth of July parade.

A committee has been appointed for a Woman's Suffrage contingent. All those who would desire to march under the banners of "Votes for Women," will please send their names to, MISS ELIZABETH M. BLANCHARD, Chairman.

BOLD BURGLARS AT LOGANTON.—The pretty and prosperous borough of Loganton, in Sugar valley, Clinton county, was systematically burglarized last Thursday night and the bold, bad men who did the work made a clean getaway without disturbing either the mayor or Thomas R. Harter. The first place visited was the passenger station of the Loganton and White Deer railroad. The door of the building was unlocked with a skeleton key and the cash drawer in the ticket office rifled of ten dollars. The meat market of C. C. Brungard was also broken into. There they found the safe unlocked but no money in it, and the burglars evidently were too tender hearted to steal meat from the refrigerator, as they probably did not want anything so valuable. The last place visited was the postoffice. There the robbers unlocked the front door, carried out a five hundred pound safe which they put on a baggage truck secured at the railroad station, and hauled it out of town a quarter of a mile where they blew it open and secured forty dollars in cash and $360 worth of stamps. It took two charges to crack the safe, and although they were heard by residents of the town nobody paid any attention to them and it was not until the next morning that the burglars raid was discovered. By that time they had made their escape without leaving the slightest trail.

PRIZES AWARDED.—The following prizes have been awarded by the Bellefonte Academy for the year ending June, 1913: The historical prizes of $5.00 each offered by the Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R., Alvin Andorn, of Bridgeport, Ohio, and George Ellis, of Philadelphia.

The James R. Hughes mathematical prize of $10.00, Miss Eleanor Taylor, of Bellefonte. The classical prize of $5.00, equally divided between James Straub, of Bellefonte, and Oscar Weaver, of Altoona.
