

PINE GROVE MENTION.

The harvest is ended and barns are full to the roof. Enmanuel Roan, of Pine Hall, greeted old friends here on Monday. Miss Edna Bloom is sight seeing in Tyrone and Altoona this week. G. W. McWilliams last week had lightning rods put on his barn. Mrs. Sue Fry, of Altoona, was a visitor here between trains Friday. W. K. Goss came down from Tyrone on Saturday for a few days' outing. Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Bell, of Spruce Creek, were over Sunday visitors in town. Miss Bell Whitmer is making a two weeks visit with relatives at Hollidaysburg. Chester Johnson was kicked by a mule last week and had three ribs broken. The H. C. Houck family west of town are under quarantine for scarlet fever. Miss Ruth, Paul and Hugh Goss returned to Tyrone on Monday, after spending a month here. Mrs. J. A. Fortney, who has been under the doctor's care the past two weeks, is able to be around again. Harry Burkett and wife came over from Stormstown and enjoyed a drive through the valley on Monday. Charley Goss, a trainman, with his wife came over from Harrisburg for a week's outing among old chums here. Jim Watt, of Tyrone, spent several days last week on his farm, to see that the crops were properly gathered in. Wm. Sausserman, who handles the throttle on the mountain division on the Pennsy., spent Sunday with his mother here. Miss Claire Johnson, of Woodbridge, N. J., is spending a month with her school mate, Miss Grace Dale, on Main street. George Porter and wife, after a month's stay among friends at White Hall, returned to their home at Juniata last Saturday. The Pine Hall Lutheran Sunday school will hold their annual picnic Saturday in Johnson's Grove. Everybody is cordially invited. Chas. Smith and wife were in Bellefonte Saturday, where Charley had some business matters to see after while his good wife did some shopping. Miss Sadie Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, is suffering with a broken shoulder, received when the gasoline engine she was trying to crank, kicked. Mrs. Sara Graff left for her home in Cincinnati on Monday. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Kepler, as far as Tyrone, where she will visit relatives. Rev. K. M. Illingsworth came over from Tyrone for an over Sunday stay at the H. M. Snyder home before leaving on his vacation that he with his family will spend in Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Rev. L. S. Spangler is visiting his parental home at Yeagertown. Before leaving the young divine gave out that the dedication of the new church at Gateburg would take place on the last Sunday in September. At a recent meeting of the school board the vacancies for teachers were filled as follows: Guyer school, Fred Rossman; Tadpole, Edna Ward; Center, Clair Martz; High school, Prof. Chas. Rosenberg, of New Jersey. Alf Livingstone, better known as "Bub," after an absence of thirty-seven years is now visiting relatives here. He is in poor health and is trying to recuperate by daily strolls along old Tussey mountain, and it is doing him good. Notwithstanding the hot weather the stork was liberal on his rounds here, leaving a sweet little girl at the home of L. H. Sunday, one at Harry Strubles and a chubby little boy at the H. N. Musser home. All are doing nicely. The W. H. Goss home on Main street was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Saturday in celebration of Mrs. Goss' sixty-fifth birthday anniversary. The affair was managed by her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Cori, who also superintended the preparation of a most sumptuous dinner. A large number of acquaintances called during the day to tender congratulations. A Reish family reunion was held at the home of J. H. Cramer, on the old C. H. Struble farm at Struble last Saturday. It was the first gathering of the kind in half a century. A big dinner was served and happenings of years ago recounted by the older participants. Peter Cori was one of the guests and he told of having killed forty-nine deer during his hunting career. Among the guests were Dr. S. E. Reish, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Matilda Anderson and Mrs. Barbara Hartman, of Milton; Mrs. Newton Shaffer, of Lock Haven; Mrs. C. A. Struble, of Fairbrock; Mrs. Peter Cori and Isaac Reish, of Struble. Mother Kills Three Children and Self. A mother, driven insane by worrying over the serious illness of one of her children in Philadelphia, cut the throats of three of her children and then drew the knife across her own throat. The woman and one of the children were dead when neighbors and a policeman forced their way into the house. Another child, a seven-year-old boy, died a few hours after he was taken to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic hospital. Mary, aged nine, also died in the hospital. The dead are: Mrs. Alice Brogan, 6147 Callowhill street; her three-year-old son, Thomas, and her seven-year-old son, Victor. Joseph, aged fifteen years, and Gertrude, two years old, were all that escaped from the knife which the woman had wielded so terribly. John Brogan, Jr., another son, aged twelve years, is in the Homeopathic hospital suffering with pneumonia. It is thought that grief over his condition may have prompted the mother's rash deeds. Parcel Post Changes. Further to popularize the parcel post system with the public, Postmaster General Burleson announced that after Aug. 15 the weight limit on packages would be placed at twenty pounds, instead of eleven pounds, as at present, and that a sharp reduction in charges would be made. He announced also that on the same date the "banking by mail" feature would be introduced into the postal savings system. The reduction in charges on parcel post for local delivery is from 6 cents or the first pound and 1 cent for each additional pound, to 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional pound, and that a sharp reduction in charges would be made. For delivery in the first zone the rate will be reduced from 5 cents for the first and 3 cents for each additional pound, to 5 cents and 1 cent; for the second zone the rate will be cut from 6 cents and 4 cents to 5 cents and 1 cent for each additional pound. Nineteen Killed by Mine Explosions

First Rescuers Were Caught in Second Explosion and Several Were Killed and Injured—Two Victims Entombed.

Nineteen men are dead and as many more are injured seriously, some of them fatally, as the result of explosions in the East Brookside colliery of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company, near Tower City, Pa. The first accident was caused by two tons of dynamite used in driving a new tunnel exploding prematurely. With a tremendous roar the massive mine pillars 1500 feet below the ground were shattered. The dead are: Daniel M. Ginley, fire boss, Tower City. Henry Murphy, fire boss, Tower City. John Farrell, foreman, Tower City. Howard Hand, laborer, Muir. Superintendent John Lorenz, Tower City. Harry Hand, miner, Muir. Jacob Koppenhaver, Reinerton, shaft man. Thomas Behny, miner, Reinerton. John Endise. Carrent Camant. Victor Seane. Cevodis Gruziano. Four unidentified Italian workmen. Two have not been recovered, and there is no hope of their being taken out alive. They are: Daniel Farley, fire boss, Tower City; and John Fessler, Tower City. A rescue party started into the mine immediately, and they had hardly been lowered into the shaft when the second explosion followed. This was caused by the flames reaching a pocket of gas. In the second disaster Superintendent John Lorenz and Harry Schoefftal, the fire boss, who led the rescuing party, were overcome. For five minutes the bottom of the mine, which is reached by the deepest shaft in the anthracite coal region, was like a furnace, with all the miners within reach of the flames lying prostrate on their faces to avoid the breathing in of the fumes. The terrible heat, however, either scorched the life out of most of them or the concussion and flying rocks killed them. A second rescue force was then formed, and they got the bodies of Superintendent Lorenz and Schoefftal, besides those of three miners. Lorenz was brought to the Pottstown hospital, where he died. Schoefftal is fatally injured. The three miners revived almost as soon as they reached the surface. The explosion set fire to the mine and the rescuing force worked in helmets containing stored oxygen. Nine of the bodies of the dead were so scorched as to be unrecognizable and the only way to ascertain their names will be, from the records of those who went to work and did not return. The driving of the tunnel where the fatal accident occurred was under the direction of private contractors, Portland Bros., and most of the employees killed were working for these contractors. Comparatively few employees of the Reading company were killed.

Motor Racer Expires; Seven Dead.

Seven persons are dead, two are fatally burned and eleven others are seriously injured as the result of a motorcycle accident at the Legion motordrome, in Ludlow, Ky. Odlin Johnson, of Salt Lake City, captain of the Cincinnati team, which was contesting at the motordrome, for some reason that probably will remain unknown, drove his cycle to the extreme top of the circular track, crash ed into an electric light pole, broke it off, and the contact of the live wire with his machine exploded the gasoline tank, throwing the burning liquid over a score of spectators. The dead are: Odlin Johnson, of Salt Lake City, the motorcycle racer; William Davis, aged five years, Ludlow, Ky.; Henry Andrews, Cincinnati; Mrs. William Michaels, Ludlow, Ky.; Miss Ethel Buchtman, Covington, Ky.; James Carter, Cincinnati, and William Patterson, Cincinnati. The fatally burned are: Orville Hart, Newport, Ky.; and Herman Davis, Cincinnati. That a large number of others, who cannot be located, were burned is at least a certainty, as several of the drug stores in the vicinity of the place were kept busy for an hour after the accident dressing the burns of those who escaped without serious injury. When the spectators who were on fire began to run the audience rose as one, many women fainted, and it was with the greatest difficulty that a stampede was prevented.

Bangor, Pa., Has $650,000 Fire.

A fire entailing a loss estimated at $650,000 destroyed the entire plant of the Flory Manufacturing company, except one small brick building, the grist mill and grain elevator of the Flory Milling company, and two dwelling houses, in Bangor, Pa. Nearly 800 men are thrown out of employment by the fire and patterns of great value, some of which perhaps cannot be replaced, were destroyed in the blaze. When the fire was discovered it had gained great headway. All the fire companies in the town were on the scene in a remarkably short time, and one from Easton later, but their efforts were of no avail, and the flames burned themselves out. Several firemen and others were slightly burned. A rigid investigation was started into the cause of the fire, which is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The district attorney will assist in the investigation and has sent the county detective with instructions to aid.
