PINE GROVE MENTION.

Vegetation is badly in need of rain. Harry Sager and wife are here for a week's visit. Miss Belle Woomer is ill with bronchial trouble. J. H. Neidigh dealt out a carload of fertilizer here Tuesday. Three of the Henry Wagner family are laid up with measles. C. M. Fry and wife are among the campers at Ocean Grove this week. Jessie B. Piper, of Alexandria, was greeting old friends here Saturday. You don't want to miss the festival in the I. O. O. F., hall Saturday evening. George Roan is packing his grip for a week's outing at Ocean Grove camp meeting. S. E. Goss came up from Reading for a brief outing among the friends of his youth. Our popular thresher, Harry Sunday, is off duty and Harry Sager is at the throttle. Charley Dale and wife and J. F. Kimpfort and wife Sundayed with friends at Fairbrook. Mrs. Annie Sauserman, of Altoona, was among the Baileyville picnicers Saturday. Elmer Louder and wife autored over to Barree and spent Sunday at uncle James Louder's home. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mallory went to Atlantic City for their annual outing at the briny blue sea. W. R. Dale, who spent a month in New Hampshire, is here again much improved in health and vigor. J. F. Sauserman is now snugly located at Erbtown and will be Aaron C. Kepler's right-bower on the farm. Farmer Ed. Neff is shy a good horse which had to be shot on account of having a leg kicked off by another horse. A baby boy arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Fowley on Monday night, making the third child in the family. After a very pleasant visit of a month Mrs. Ella Gramley left her home in the Hoosier State on Tuesday morning. All the state road machinery was shipped to Indiana county Tuesday, where another stretch of state road is to be commenced. Mrs. R. M. Illingsworth and daughter Ruth came down from Tyrone and spent the hot weather at grandpa Snyder's home. L. D. Fye and wife and C. E. Fishburn and wife autored to Patton Sunday in the former's new Ford car, returning home Monday. Frank McCormick and family, who have been visiting in this section the past month, left for their home in Lock Haven Monday afternoon. Mr. D. C. Mattern, of the Windy city, where he is engaged in the drug business, is visiting in this section, the first time in a quarter of a century. Warren Ward and family left yesterday morning on a week's automobile trip to Lewistown and through the Juniata valley as far as Harrisburg. Mrs. H. O. Bathgate, with her three interesting youngsters, are down from Altoona for their summer outing at the old family home at Lemont. Harry Behrens, C. M. McCormick and several others enjoyed an auto ride over old Tussey and spent the Sabbath at the John Bowersox home near Milroy. Elmer Everhart is a very sick boy with Promaine poisoning from shipped ice cream. His condition was serious all last week but he is some better now. George Woods and wife, of Pittsboro, are enjoying an outing at the foot hills of old Tussey mountain, with headquarters at Dr. G. H. Woods' home on Main street. Mrs. Mary Jane Stewart and Mrs. Henry Meek, of Altoona, are at the G. W. McWilliams home helping to look after the comfort of Mr. McWilliams whose health shows no improvement. The picnic at Baileyville Saturday was a big affair and was attended by close to three thousand people. Everybody took baskets well laden with good things to eat, so that in addition to dinner many remained to have supper on the grounds. Just $377 were taken in at the big eating stand. The Pine Grove Mills baseball team defeated State College by the score of 15 to 0. Quite a good representation from Bellefonte was among the crowd.

$200,000 Shortage Closes Bank.

The New Jersey bank examiners have closed the Roseville Trust company, a state institution in the suburbs of Newark, and in so doing confirmed a report that Raymond E. Smith, secretary-treasurer of the institution, is missing. Smith left behind him a shortage estimated at $200,000. Smith received the examiners cordially when they came, and assisted them for a time in their work. Then he excused himself, saying he would return shortly. He has not been seen since, although it was said that he was in communication with some of the bank's officers through a third party. The trust company was opened for business in 1908. William Fairlee, vice president, confirmed the shortage, but said he could not say whether it would total $200,000 or more. Smith is about forty-two years old. In its last report, filed June 4, the bank reported assets of $1,000,694 and deposits of $702,975. It had a surplus of $50,000, undivided profits of $48,000 and a paid up capital of $100,000, all of which will be wiped out by the shortage, the department says.

Kills Ex-Husband and Wife.

Mrs. Edna Godbee, the divorced wife of Judge W. S. Godbee, of Millen, Ga., shot and killed the judge and inflicted wounds on his bride of three months, from which she died several hours later. The Mrs. Godbee who did the shooting was the judge's second wife and had divorced him several years ago. When she met Judge Godbee and his third wife at the postoffice she drew a revolver from her handbag and fired three shots into each of them. She was arrested, charged with murder. The slain woman was formerly Miss Florence Beyer, of Youngstown, Pa. She married Judge Godbee about three months ago at her home.

LEMONT.

Mrs. Sim Baum visited at the home of William Rishel last Wednesday.

On Sunday the mercury stood at 91 degrees in the shade for a few hours.

Mrs. Samuel Weand, of Philipsburg, came to town last week for a few days visit among friends.

Edward Lingle and family spent a few weeks among friends here, enjoying their summer vacation.

Clarence A. Houtz and wife are taking their vacation at Niagara Falls, at the home of their son Bruce.

Tuesday John R. Williams and wife went on their annual trip to Totenville, N. Y., to visit their two sons.

Griffith Lytle, who was born in Centre county but who has been making his home in the west, returned home on Monday, after spending a few weeks with his brother and sisters.

The directors of College township met with their teachers on Saturday evening, to enter into articles of agreement and prepare for the term of school that will open Monday, September 8th, 1913.
