21 Dead, 40 Hurt In Railroad Wreck

Accident Occurred During a Fog Near New Haven, Conn .--- Several Victims

From Philadelphia.

White Mountain express, bound for New York, crashed into the rear end of the second section of the Bar Harbor limited, bearing sojourners from Maine summer resorts. The wreck occurred on the New Haven railroad just outside New Haven, Conn.

Failure to see a block signal veiled in a thick fog is given as the cause of the accident by Engineer A. B. Miller, who says that as soon as he very conveniently fitted up for Sunday realized the danger he did all re could to stop the train. The brakes would school and social purposes will be for-mally opened. The public is invited to not hold on the wet track and the train, running down grade, ploughed its way through two wooden Pullman cars, splintered them to kindling and killed or wounded most of the sleeping passengers in their berths. The bodies of most of the victims were mangled. A party of boy campers, sixty-five in number, returning from "Camp Cobbossee," at Monmouth, Me., were in a Pullman 'car which was overturned. Two of these boys, William Altschul, of Norfolk, Va., and Albert Green, of New York, were killed.

The list of dead is as follows: Miss Maria Stockton Bullitt, Miss Harriet Biddle, S. Crozer Fox, Robert Emily K. Davis, all of Philadelphia. William Altschul, Norfolk, Va. Harold Avery, New York. Frank Butler, Scranton, Pa.

Albert Green, New York. R. A. Hotchkiss, New Haven, Conn. Philo Hotchkiss, brother of R. A. Hotchkiss.

Harry Imar, a Japanese, New York. H. F. Martin, Bryn Mawr, Pa. Miss Agnes White, Boston.

Both trains were heavily laden with and rising young men of Shenandoah. returning excursionists. They were running behind time through the heavy fog.

The Bar Harbor limited Lad stopped in the block, but the last car of the railroad a few months ago, Mrs. Edlong train was just on the edge of the ward Setzer, forty-five years old, comblock limits. The White Mountain express was scarcely scratched by the collision. It proceeded on its way after a few hours delay.

All the passengers were in their berths and in their night clothes, making identification of the dead difficult.

The engineer of the White Mountain express stuck to his post until the last moment and was only slightly hurt. The two sleepers which were crushed were a mass of splinters a few minutes after the accident. The locomotive ran on top of the wreckage and remained almost upright for a considerable time.

The collision occurred on a straight stretch of track, but the fog was very dense at the time.

Sexton Commits Suicide In Church. John Boyd, fifty-eight years old, sexton of the Presbyterian church in Flemington, N. J., committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas in the kitchen connected with the church. Boyd went to the church, and without arranging the auditorium for the Sunday services, went to the kitchen, where he made preparations to end his life.

He placed towels in the cracks of the doors leading into the lecture room of the church. Placing a tube into his mouth, he attached it to a gas jet and lay upon the floor to await death.

When he failed to return home his daughter began a search, which resulted in finding his body in the gas filled room by Professor Norman Landis. organist of the church.
