—Company L, Twelfth regiment, of this place, went to Williamsport yesterday to participate in the military parade incident to the Old Home week celebration.

—Frank P. Blair is confined to his home with an illness that is hoped by his many friends will not prove serious enough to keep him housed up any great length of time.

—The Ladies Aid society of the United Brethren church will hold a sale of cakes, pies, bread, rolls and ice cream, on Saturday evening, September 13th, in the Ladies Aid room of the church.

—Miss Claire Reynolds has resigned her position in Garman's store to accept one as a stenographer with the law firm of Fortney & Fortney. Miss Reynolds has had her training with Mr. Gainfort.

—After farming one of the Decker farms in Nittany valley for a period of sixteen years Edward Reish purchased the Harry Miller farm at Spring Bank in Bush valley and will go on his own farm next spring.

—Anne Dodd Dale is the name of the little daughter born to Dr. and Mrs. David Dale, at the Bellefonte hospital, last Friday night. Inasmuch as both mother and babe are getting along splendidly congratulations are in order.

—The Bellefonte and State College transportation company received a new motor bus on Wednesday and put the same into service yesterday morning. It is equal in size to the largest car they have had in service here during the summer.

—A sale of rag rugs and aprons will be held by the women of the Methodist church on Saturday, September thirteenth, all day, in the vacant room in the building adjoining the Y. M. C. A., lately occupied by W. Harrison Walker.

—Mrs. Ezra Yocum is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rice, at Northumberland. Mrs. Yocum has developed a condition that is very alarming to her family and is at Northumberland that she may be under the constant care of her son-in-law, Dr. Rice.

—Sim Batchelor, of Phillipsburg, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday on business and announced that he is about to retire from the dairy business over there. As a consequence he is advertising a fine lot of dairy cattle at private sale. Buyers and others interested in good cows might find some bargains in Mr. Batchelor's herd.

—The Dango cloths for polishing gold, silver and all other metals, can be gotten from Mrs. John A. Woodcock for twenty-five cents each. These cloths which Mrs. Woodcock is selling for the benefit of the home missionary society, are labor saving, inasmuch as it requires but a few rubs to make like new any blakened metal.

—The Bellefonte drum corps, a new musical organization, will make its first public appearance at Grange Park, Centre Hall, next Tuesday to furnish music for the Centre county veterans at their annual reunion. The members of the corps have been practising regularly and next Tuesday will be a good opportunity to hear how they are progressing.

—Joseph W. Runkle took out the first hunters license granted in Centre county and up to noon yesterday just 158 licenses had been granted; which shows that there are a goodly number of hunters in Centre county willing to pay one dollar for the privilege of hunting. Every hunter will have to wear a leather tag on his arm like drivers in a horse race.

—Miss Jane Crowley, who has been in Philadelphia much of the summer, devoting her time to the study of chiropody, facial massage and scalp treatment, has returned to Lock Haven, to continue the work of her sister, Mrs. Markie. The same characteristics which gained for Miss Crowley the confidence of all who knew her while nursing, will no doubt stamp with success the new undertaking.

CENTRE COUNTY FAIR CLOSURE.—The Centre county fair, which was in full swing when the WATCHMAN went to press last week closed on Friday. The extreme hot weather that day doubtless kept many people at home as the attendance was somewhat below the usual Friday crowd. As it was, however, the total attendance of the week exceeded that of 1912 by from one to two thousand, while in every other way the fair was a pronounced success.

The only accident or incident of any kind occurred on Thursday afternoon when Fetterolf, of Centre Hall, collided with Frank P. Bartley's car, in an effort to pass the latter and several buggies at the same time on the state road below the lime kilns. Several persons were thrown out of Bartley's car and all injured, though not seriously, while both cars were wrecked and put out of commission.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.—A pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beezer, last Friday evening, in honor of Mrs. Beezer's birthday anniversary. It was gotten up by her daughter, Miss Mary Helen Beezer, who arranged a very pleasant evening's entertainment. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, candy and fruit were served. Those present were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. William Saxton, Mrs. Thomas Betram and son Edward; Mrs. William Tibbens, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shively and daughter, Mary Jane; Mrs. Richard Deitling and daughter Martha; Mr. and Mrs. John Benner, Mr. and Mrs. John Speerley and son Joe; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Heckman; Mr. and Mrs. John White and four children; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shively and son Jay; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hartle and daughter Louise; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rosenhoover and son Frank; Mr. and Mrs. George Beezer and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuszner and son Edgar; Mr. Michael Grove and family; Mr. and Mrs. Harter and family; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Tibbens and son Brennie; Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall and family; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Grove and daughter Bessie; Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Sunday and family; Mr. Krape, Miss Emma Warner, Cal. DECISION HANDED DOWN IN WITMER CASE.—Judge Harry Alvan Hall, of Ridgway, last week filed an opinion and decree in the Centre county court in the case of Fannie Felding, et al., heirs of the late William Witmer vs. J. C. Witmer, being a petition for an injunction restraining the defendant from exercising the power of attorney in charge of the estate of the deceased William Witmer.

Judge Hall presided over the case when it was heard here some months ago and in his opinion said William Witmer was of sound mind and unimpaired faculties when he granted to J. C. Witmer the power of attorney, and as the petitioner had failed to show any collusion or that undue influence had been used the judge in his decree dismissed the bill at the cost of the petitioners.

OPENING OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The Bellefonte public schools opened on Monday and up to yesterday the enrollment of students numbered 750. Of this number 225 are in the High school. The faculty includes five new teachers this year. They are Eugene Weik, of Albright College, in charge of the department of Science; J. R. Gilligan, of State College, an instructor in history and athletics; C. A. Bolland, of Allegheny College, in charge of manual training; Miss Marjorie McGinley a teacher in the fifth grade, and Miss Catharine Willard a teacher in the fourth grade.

HARRISBURG MOTORISTS PLANNING A RUN TO BELLEFONTE.—W. T. Kelly, secretary of Bellefonte borough council, yesterday received a letter from the secretary of the Harrisburg motor club stating that they were arranging for an economy contest run to Bellefonte on Saturday, October 4th, remaining overnight and returning home on Sunday. Two classes of cars will be represented and it has been suggested that Bellefonters offer two not very costly trophies for the winners. If the run is made it will mean a large crowd to entertain over night.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jonae E. Wagner on Sunday morning.

—Between six and seven o'clock on Wednesday evening fire was discovered in the carriage shop of Forest L. Bullock on south Water street. Fortunately it was discovered before it had gained much headway and extinguished without doing any great amount of damage.

—During Sunday afternoon's storm the barn of Henry Eisenhuth, in High valley, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. All the stock was saved with the exception of one hog, but all the summer's crops and farming implements were burned. The estimated loss is $1,500 with $600 insurance in the Annullville company.

—There are a number of cases of typhoid fever in DuBois and one of the victims is Raymond Lingle, formerly of Bellefonte, who is ill in the DuBois hospital, though his condition now is enough improved that he is considered as getting along quite nicely. Very few of the young man's friends in this place knew of his illness until this week.

—Raccoons and shore birds are now in season and the hunter who is longing for sport can go on the trail of either of them. But as there are no shore birds in Pennsylvania worth speaking of the coon is the only game of any consequence that it is now legal to kill. The open season for it is September first to January first. The open season for any other kind of game will not begin before October 15th.

—The semi-annual rummage sale under the auspices of the Womens auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital for the laundry machinery fund, will be held for a day and two evenings—during the week of the fifteenth of October. From Bellefonte and all over the county liberal donations are solicited, so that by making this sale a great financial success, the machinery may be quickly installed in order to save both labor and expense.

—The indications are that the Granger's picnic next week will be a great gathering but there are no "indications" about the popularity of the scenic. Its reputation is now solidly established and everybody who wants to see a good program of motion pictures goes to the scenic. The pictures are clean and wholesome and the room is clean and sanitary. One hour of entertainment for five cents. Can you beat that anywhere?

—The annual meeting of the Fairbrook Country club was held at the club house at Pennsylvania Furnace last week and the following officers elected for the ensuing year: President, Hon. A. G. Morris, Bellefonte; vice president, George C. Wilson, Tyrone; secretary, John D. Meyer, Altoona; treasurer, Howard Himmelright, Tyrone; board of governors, John B. Kunz and James S. Woods, Huntingdon; S. W. Griffith, Altoona; Dr. John B. Nason and Robert T. Garman, of Tyrone.

—The prolonged drought in this section was broken by a good shower on Sunday afternoon. While there was not sufficient rain to wet the ground to any great depth there was enough to freshen up all kinds of crops and vegetation. Whether it was the result of the rain or not there was quite a drop in the temperature on Tuesday and Wednesday morning there was quite a frost, but owing to a heavy dew very little damage was done. Cooler weather has prevailed since.

—F. C. McDivitt, a trooper in the state constabulary, who came to Bellefonte several weeks ago with Sergt. Stout and trooper Conrad, resigned his job last week and departed for home on Friday. He gave up his job to return to college and will enter Washington and Jefferson college when it opens next week. Mr. McDivitt is an all around athlete, being both a football and baseball player and a member of colleges were after him. "Billy" Burke, another state trooper, will succeed McDivitt on troop A.

—Centre county friends of William Calvert, the well known Civil war veteran of Altoona, will sympathize with him in the loss of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Eberly, who was struck and almost instantly killed with an automobile driven by John B. Weir, of the Swank Hardware company, of Johnstown, between four and five o'clock on Monday evening. Stepping out between two trolley cars almost in front of the machine Mrs. Eberly became confused, it is claimed, which caused her to be struck. At a coroner's inquest Wednesday afternoon Weir was held in $1,000 bail for trial at court on the charge of involuntary manslaughter.

—Robert S. Walker undoubtedly holds the record of any Bellefonter for a long distance automobile trip in one day. On Labor day he and Henry Keller and Samuel Gray left Bellefonte at six o'clock in the morning in Robert's Ford runabout to take a trip wherever fancy led them. They went over the Seven mountains down through the Juniata valley, through Harrisburg and on to Reading, where they had dinner. Spending some time in that city they returned to Harrisburg for supper then started home by way of the Susquehanna valley. They arrived at Lewisburg shortly after nine o'clock and after telephoning home as to their whereabouts struck the trail for Bellefonte. A puncture delayed them a half hour or more but they finally reached home at two o'clock in the morning. All told they were on the road twenty hours and traveled over three hundred miles.

REAL ESTATE BOOMING AT STATE COLLEGE.—The large amount of building being done at State College during the past few years has created an unprecedented boom in prices of real estate at that place. One property that sold last spring for eleven thousand dollars is now held at more than twenty-five thousand. In fact that price was recently refused by the present owner. A few years ago a farmer close to State College sold his farm for less than ten thousand dollars. This summer five acres brought five thousand dollars and the present owner has fixed his price for the entire farm at one thousand dollars an acre. These unusually high prices have so far prevented the selection of a site for the new postoffice building for which Congress appropriated seventy-five thousand dollars. Several sites have been offered but the price asked is in the neighborhood of twenty-five thousand dollars and sites do not include near the amount of ground required. The high price of real estate is occasioned by the large rentals paid for properties. During the summer between fifty and sixty new houses have either been erected or are being erected, and every room has been taken or engaged. Of course the entire thing is due to the anticipated big increase in the attendance of students at the college during the coming year, as they must be housed and fed and the college proper has not nearly enough dormitory accommodations.

KEICHLINE—RALSTON.—A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Otway, in Lock Haven, at one o'clock on Monday afternoon when William W. Keichline and Mrs. R. E. Ralston, both of Bellefonte, were united in marriage by Rev. A. L. Miller, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Mr. Keichline and Mrs. Ralston went to Lock Haven by auto Monday morning and after the ceremony left on the Buffalo flyer on a wedding trip to eastern cities.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Keichline, of this place, and is manager of the Big Spring garage on Water street. He is an industrious and enterprising young man and is well known in Bellefonte and Centre county. The bride is also quite well known here and is a cousin of Mrs. Otway, of Lock Haven, where the wedding ceremony took place.

MOOREHEAD—GARMAN.—A wedding that will be of interest to many people in Bellefonte was that on Wednesday last week of Fremont W. Moorehead, of Williamsport, and Miss Margaret Elizabeth Garman, of Hoboken, N. J. The ceremony taking place in the Little Church Around the Corner, in New York city. The bride is a daughter of Cornelius Garman and is well known here. The bridegroom is employed in the Pennsylvania railroad freight office in Williamsport and it is in that city the young couple will make their home.

THOMAS—HARTSOCK.—The Brockerhoff house parlor was the scene of a quiet wedding on Friday last week when Irvin Lester Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Thomas, of Stormstown, and Miss Elsie N. Hartsock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Hartsock, of Buffalo Run, were united in marriage by justice of the peace W. H. Musser. Both young people are quite well known in their respective communities and have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous life.

MILLER—MACE—Wilson Miller, of Howard, and Miss Hazel Mace, of Lock Haven, were married at six o'clock on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. A. Lawrence Miller. The young couple will make their home in Lock Haven.
