> ---On Friday of last week a quintette of State College students came from Sunbury to Bellefonte in an automobile. About nine o'clock the same evening they started up High street in the car, with one of the crowd standing on the running board. In going over the crossing at Dr. Dale's residence his hold slipped and he was thrown, alighting principally on one hand and his face. His nose was cut and his face badly scraped and bruised, and in addition he sustained several contusions on the right hand. The five young men were arrested for fast and reckless driving within the borough limits and at a hearing before burgess Bower the same night they were fined ten dollars and costs, or $17.50 in ail. They settled promptly but did not continue their trip to State College until Saturday morning.

-Included in the great list of Bellefonte's young people, who will spend this year away at school is Ellen Hayes, who enters her fourth year at Sweetbriar college, Virginia; Ethel Dale, a senior at Goucher college, Baltimore; Martha Shoemaker, at Mount St. Vincent, New York; Martha Barnhart, taking her first year at Lake Erie college, Painsville, Ohio, expecting to enter her second year at Holyoke in 1914; Mary Schad and Helen Hawes, both students at the Westis required, even to the minutest detail which was purchased by Edwin F.
