"Because our church," said the sexton, "has the name of turning out the youngest and handsomest brides in town. Our reputation for good looks, especially among brides. To say that a woman is married in this church is equivalent to saying that she is good looking. We are not supposed to deal in brides of any other description."

"No wonder," groaned the pastor, "that that plain looking woman went away in a huff. I earnestly advised her to be married in her own parish."
Boiling Eggs.
Often when boiling eggs the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

Very Sharp.
Teacher—Now, Johnny, if the earth were empty on the inside what could we compare it to? Johnny—A razor, ma'am. Teacher—A razor? Johnny—Yes, ma'am, because it would be hollow ground.

Child Management.
I don't like punishments. You will never torture a child into duty, but a sensible child will dread the frown of a judicious mother more than all the rods, dark rooms and scolding school-mistresses in the universe.—White.
The conditions under which we live and work have made the American people a nation of pill users. Naturally many pills are put on the market that are simply made to meet the requirements of those to whom any pill is a pill, and one pill as good as another. But there is progress even in pills, and at the front of this pill progress stand Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, a scientific medicine which cures constipation, and cures it permanently.
