

Huerta to Stick to Presidency.

President Wilson is now at work on a new plan to bring about peace in Mexico.

Another presidential election will be ordered for February, according to a semi-official announcement made in Mexico City, Mex.

From the same source it was learned that General Huerta has no intention of surrendering the provisional presidency to General Blanquet, his running mate in Sunday's election, but will hold on, thinking the powers will take no action pending the second election.

Prior to this announcement it was said that in the event that the Huerta-Blanquet ticket was shown to have polled a majority in Sunday's presidential election, sufficient to be declared elected, as seems probable, congress would declare the Huerta votes void and Blanquet would take the oath as vice president and assume office as president, pending the calling of further elections. This statement was made by the Mexican foreign minister, Senor Moseno.

The clause in the constitution prohibiting the president from succeeding himself does not apply to the vice president, Moseno explained, and General Blanquet would be eligible.

The returns continue to pile up pluralities for the Huerta ticket. Even the leaders of the Catholic party, who at first were extremely optimistic, admit the probability of the election of Huerta and Blanquet.

The majority of senators and deputies reported elected thus far are said to be members of the Catholic party. Manuel Calero, who seemingly was snowed under along with David de la Fuente, expects to leave soon for New York.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires, demanded of Foreign Minister Moseno an explanation of the arrest of Leopold Blum, an American citizen, at Vera Cruz. When Blum arrived he was placed in a filthy cell, but as soon as the American official began inquiring as to the cause of his arrest he received lighter and cleaner quarters. Apparently the only charge against Blum is that he is a friend of Felix Diaz, and unless more formal charges are made his release will be demanded.

President and Secretary Bryan Formulating New Mexican Policy. Secretary of State Bryan said that a formal note had been sent to all the European governments asking them to suspend the formulation of a policy toward Mexico until the United States had defined its attitude.

While England, France and Germany, he said, already had heard from it, it is expected that the other governments will follow the three great powers in awaiting the decision of the United States as to the next step toward bringing peace in Mexico.

President Wilson had a conference with Bryan, and the secretary said they were at work on the next step in the policy that will be pursued. It is expected that the United States first will make formal demand for the elimination of Huerta and the conduct of fair and free elections, possibly with some safeguards to systematize the election machinery.

There was absolutely no comment forthcoming from executive quarters as to just what was intended by the United States, but it was generally agreed in official circles that some positive action looking toward a solution of the problem would be in line with the expectations of the powers.

Maderos' Wives Ask U. S. Aid. The wives of Evarista and Daniel Madero, relatives of the late President Madero, arrested by General Huerta's orders at Monterey on a charge of treason, appealed to the United States for assistance in behalf of the accused men.

Their plea was made to the United States consul general, D. W. Canada, and President Wilson's special envoy, John Lind in Vera Cruz. They were told that the American government already had made representations at the Mexican capital to insure a fair trial for both men.

With Felix Diaz now on board the United States battleship Louisiana, to which he was transferred from the gunboat Wheeling, he has lost all the prestige he gained by aiding in the overthrow of Madero. Even friends of Diaz declare he lost by "cowardice" his opportunity for becoming a national hero. They assert that by going to Mexico City he could have brought to his banner thousands of Mexicans who were admirers of Porfirio Diaz, his uncle.

Killed by Seventh Wife. Mrs. Sarah Sloan shot and killed her divorced husband at an isolated point on Blackberry creek, Ky., near Matewan. After the shooting Mrs. Sloan went to Williamstown, W. Va., where she was arrested. Mrs. Sloan, it is said, was the seventh wife of Jud Sloan, and the man's eighth wife witnessed the shooting.

Judge Lenient to Counterfeiter in the Schmidt Case. "Dr." Ernest Muret, the friend of "Father" Hans Schmidt, was sentenced in New York to seven and a half years imprisonment in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for counterfeiting.

Muret appealed to Judge Hunt to suspend sentence, saying that he wanted to go back to his home in Gedmany and spend the balance of his life with his mother.

Judge Hunt could have imposed a sentence of thirty years, but as the prisoner is a victim of incipient tuberculosis he was lenient.

SPRING MILLS.

J. C. Hunt, of Hollidaysburg, was here for a few days last week.

Miss Ella S. Cummings spent a few days the last week with her aunt, Mrs. M. N. Miller, in George's valley.

Miss Anna M. Cummings left on Monday last on a three week's sewing engagement at Mill Hall and vicinity.

Politics are very quiet here, hardly a dozen are aware that election is less than a week off; in fact only a few days.

Our nimrods are very busy making preparations for deer hunting. The Penn Hall club has more applicants for membership than they can well handle.

John Snavely had his face very seriously injured last week by the kick of a horse. His nose was broken, jaws fractured and otherwise suffered considerable injury.

Some folks are looking around for a Thanksgiving turkey, while a number are simply looking around for a mess of sausage or liverwurst. Turkeys are not very plentiful in this valley.

Hallowe'en is about here, when the girls will throw corn at windows and doors and the boys amuse themselves by playing their usual tricks. Then a company is collected and all will march to some one's home, eat apples and nuts, and frighten each other half to death by telling spook stories and the doings of hobgoblins.

LEMONT.

The wild geese have been flying the last week. Mrs. Frank Whitehill has been on the sick list. The rains are helping the springs and streams. The teachers are preparing to attend institute next month.

The plumbers are busy putting in a heater for Daniel Grove.

A few of the farmers are through husking corn at this writing.

Charles Cori is busy threshing in and around town this week.

D. L. Hine and wife came home from Pittsburgh last Wednesday.

Joseph Norris, of Altoona, visited a few days in town last week.

William Ferris is busy loading apples at Lemont and Oak Hall.

Rev. J. I. Stonecypher and wife spent Saturday at the home of C. D. Houtz.

John Grove, who has been on the sick list the last few weeks, is slowly improving.

Mrs. John Moke and family, of Howard, and Mrs. Elliott Mayes, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of J. B. Mayes.

"BILLY" SUNDAY IN JOHNSTOWN.—At Johnstown Sunday, November 2, "Billy" Sunday, the celebrated evangelist, will begin the greatest religious revival ever held in the Flood city. The revival will last for six weeks; and as thousands of people in and around Johnstown will be interested in the Sunday meetings the Johnstown Democrat has arranged to give complete and accurate reports of the campaign, including the Rev. Mr. Sunday's sermons in full. To those who wish to keep in touch with this big religious event the publishers of the Democrat offer to send the paper from now until New Year's day for 50 cents. Because of the fact that the Democrat is a morning newspaper it will have the news of the campaign in Johnstown ahead of all other papers. Moreover, the Democrat is the only Johnstown paper which reaches the country districts on the day of publication.

In addition to the "Billy" Sunday news, the Democrat contains many other interesting features, including the famous Mutt and Jeff cartoons. Mel James' humorous column, "On the Clothes Horse," the funny sayings of Luke McCake, Beauty Secrets, Home Wanted by a Baby, holiday features, all the current news of the world and an editorial page that has a reputation not only statewide, but nationwide.
