Belletonte, Pa., October 31, 1913.

of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. to the armory.

-A. G. Morris Jr., bought a team of mated grays from F. B. Way, of Storms- place was practically filled. town, on Tuesday, for $600.

the narrow margin of four points.

----Jeremiah Zettle, of Georges valley, Centre county's expert trapper, will minutes duration are being held each spend the winter at Middletown, N. Y.

-The Central Pennsylvania Alumni association of The Pennsylvania State College was organized in Harrisburg on Saturday evening. -James H. Rine, of Bellefonte, who is working in a planing mill in Altoona. had his left hand badly lacerated by getting caught in a saw on Saturday. The injury was dressed at the Mercy hospital in that city.

-Col. H. S. Taylor and John S. Walker were the speakers at a good Tuesday evening. The sentiment in favor of good roads is increasing every day in Centre county.

deputy under sheriff John P. Condo.

-A very important short meeting of half-past seven o'clock, Monday evening, November 6th. All members are urgently requested to be present.

---The Bellefonte Academy had an easy proposition defeating the Dickinson Seminary eleven on Saturday, the score being 33 to 0. The Bellefonte High school team won its third successive game on Saturday by defeating Bellwood 6 to 0.

--- During Miss Helen E. C. Overton's absence at Scranton, this week, attending the State Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Miss Sallie Fitzgerald has had charge of her primary department of the Bellefonte Acade-

Wednesday, when it will be open until 8

Governor Tener on Saturday to represent games, picnics and as tributes of respect Pennsylvania at the annual convention to certain of those who have preceded and exposition of the United States Good through the dark vale that is not lighted Roads association to be held in St. Louis, by good intentions but by good works. November 10th and 11th, is J. Linn Harris, of Bellefonte.

fonte but now of Centre Hall, was taken violently ill on Monday and was taken to the Bellefonte hospital the same evening where she was kept under close watch until Tuesday morning, when she was taken to the Lock Haven hospital for treatment.

ed an organization known as the State College club. It is their intention to give a ball at the Hotel Tivoli, Panama, on Thanksgiving evening, and are arranging a very pleasant affair.

-On account of the hard rain the good roads meeting scheduled to be held at Millheim last Friday night was postponed until Monday night. At that time J. Linn Harris, Robert F. Hunter, Edmund Blanchard and register J. Frank Smith were the principal speakers. The meeting was well attended and quite enthusiastic.

Bellefonte from her home in Franklin, last week, and stopped at the Brockerhoff house, was seized with a chill on Monday evening and became so bad that she was removed to the Bellefonte hospital. By Tuesday morning pneumonia had developed and her condition since has been quite serious.

---Next Tuesday will be election day and before another issue of the WATCH-MAN goes to press the various candidates will know their fate. Good men should be elected to all local offices, and as Superior court judge is the only office on the State ticket all Democrats as well as Republicans should vote for Webster Grim, as he is a clean man and an able issued invitations for the marriage of gregation. He is an able bible scholar their daughter, Miss Nelle Meese Conley, and an earnest and fluent pulpit orator. the Misses Fox, Miss Lilly Williams and to William B. Wallis, of Pittsburgh, on the evening of Wednesday, the twelfth of November, at six o'clock, at St. John's Lutheran Sunday school will hold an and a costume party will be given by home of the bride's parents at No. 26 vember 4th, (election day), for the benefit will give a Hallowe'en dance in the U. held in Bellefonte recently, it was deer an church. Until the new parsonage on Linn west Logan street. Mr. and Mrs. Wallis of the electric light fund. Price, 25 Arcade and Tuesday night of next week cided to publish the names of all the street is completed they will be located at Mrs.

BOB JONES-EVANGELIST.-Bob Jones, he southern evangelist, has been conparent that the auditorium there would fit of the church. The public is invited. the more timid inhabitants that they ran be too small to hold the crowds and, on Monday night, the meetings were moved

There they have been gradually increasing in size, until last evening the Rev. Jones is assisted by chorister -- The Sophomores won the cider McKenzie and Dr. Guille, a clergyman of scrap at State College last Saturday by the Presbyterian church, who conducts Bible class studies each afternoon at 3:30. Morning meetings of forty-five day at 10:30, but the crowds are found at the evening service.

Up to this time it is rather hard to forcast the good the campaign may do the community, but it is an absolute certainty that it won't do it any harm. Rev. Jones is a forceful, dramatic speaker with a personality at once commanding and magnetic. Like all evangelists he strikes right from the shoulder with homely truths that cannot fail to carry conviction of their reality because most of his hearers who are honest enough to roads meeting held at Port Matilda on just as they are painted in his word admit it know that conditions really are pictures.

While the WATCHMAN does not believe that Bellefonte is the worst place in the ----On Monday of this week H. Laird world it does believe that it could be far Curtin sold his farm in Spring township better and it is just such "clean-up" seato E. Frank Frain, of Tyrone, the pur- sons as this evangelistic service inaugu-The fact that Rev. Jones has actually last Friday appointed deputy to sheriff does count, however, is to have the spirit Arthur B. Lee, vice W. C. Rowe resigned. of contentment and indifference dis-Mr. Weaver is no stranger in the sheriff's tributed to the point where the public office, as about fifteen years ago he was conscience is aroused by being confronted with its own supineness.

While many may not be converted at the Y. M. C. A. Women's Auxiliary will these meetings there is no estimating the be held in the Y. M. C. A. building at seeds of righteousness that are sown to develop and flower in their beauty in ways and at times that cannot be known

To our minds the unfortunate part of the whole program is the fact that just about the time Rev. Jones will get the community aroused he will have to depart and this misfortune suggests the propriety of at least trying the continuance of them in the armory as union revival services for a short period. The time to strike is when the iron is hot and an hour of worship we all know that they as kidney trouble. ----Among the delegates appointed by have been closed to attend base-ball If you haven't been there, go to the Bob Jones meetings that yet remain to be held. Take our word for it, they can't hurt you, unless the wound comes in having driven home to you something that you know you ought to have done that you have not done.

-The number of former State Col. in the armory, has announced two special canal is quite large and they have form. of attention. He is to speak to women floor. only Saturday afternoon at three o'clock when he is to speak on the subject, "The Modern Woman." He will probably have a large audience of women. There will be a committee of women to usher and to take up the offering at that service.

Sunday at three p. m. he is to speak to men only on the "Question of Men." Mr. Jones has given this address in more than one hundred cities in America. He gave this address in Scranton last January to eight thousand men. Such an audience never assembled in that city to hear any man in a revival meeting. There will be no boys under twelve years old -Mrs. J. M. Bolton, who came to admitted to the men's meeting Sunday. It is judged by this that the message must be very plain. PASTOR INSTALLED-Rev. W. H. Thaub was duly installed as pastor of Grace Lutheran church, State College, last Sunday, the services being especially impressive. The sermon in the morning Lewistown, who also delivered the charge to the congregation. Rev. F. P. Manlast, D. D., dean of the theological department of Susquehanna University, at Selinsgrove, preached in the evening and delivered the charge to the pastor. Immepastor was officially installed. Rev. Thaub has been in charge of Grace Lutheran church for three months and

-The Epworth League of the Stormsducting meetings in this place, under the tainment in the town hall at that place Stormstown was very much disturbed auspices of the Methodist church since on the evening of November 7th, en- last Saturday evening when a flock of last Saturday night. They were started titled, "The Little Girl in Red," by "The wild geese swooped down upon the town in the church but it soon became ap- Sniggle Family." Proceeds for the bene- and, it is alleged, so frightened some of > -Rabbits are said to be exceedingly plentiful in the neighborhood of Peru but as that section is now included in the penitentiary site hunters will have to give it a wide berth. Of course if the little animals become to plentiful they might be killed by the prison guards and worked into potpie for the prisoners.

--- The state constabulary were sumthat liquor was being sold there illegally. However, nothing out of the way occurred, the foreigners evidently recognizing the state officers and conducting themselves in a very respectable manner.

--- The precipitation during the month of October has been the greatest of any October for many years, the rainfall being over eight inches. It rained during all of last Friday and a good part of Saturday and Saturday night. The weather this week has been quite varied, with some rain, and more rain is promised for today and tomorrow. Notwithstanding the big rainfall the streams and springs have been only slightly affected.

was defeated by Harvard at Cambridge, up to the weather prophets to predict an which Bellefonte is a part, was in Bellefonte last chase price being $16,000. Mr. Frain rates that are needed to clarify the Mass., last Saturday, by the score of 29 expects to go into the stock raising busi- moral atmosphere of our community. to 0. But the score must not be taken as a criterion of the strength of the State -Calvin A. Weaver, of Coburn, was told us nothing new don't count. What team, as the game was played in rain and mud and State being by far the lighter team played at a great disadvantage. State's game with the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelpnia tomorrow will probably be a better test of her strength.

in Spring creek, opposite the WATCHMAN ter-back without draining it. persons stop on High street bridge dur- her new treasure she went out into her Tuesday, the entire week will be consumed beabout but never seen a live trout in the there was a terrific explosion that shatstream can hardly credit the fact that tered the glass in her windows, tore the City, where he will spend most of the winter. they are trout.

-A. H. Hartswick a former student the making of Christians-not Metho- at The Pennsylvania State College dists, Presbyterians, Evangelicals or any and who is now a traveling salesman, other particular denominationalists, was taken seriously ill Saturday morning should be the objective. Why not a day at the Hotel Essex. Harrisburg, and in a or a right especially for each one of the few minutes was so violent that it took -On account of the provisions of the little army of employees that are found four men to restrain him. He labored new woman's employment act the store in our various industrial enterprises, a under the impression that he was to have of Mrs. J. A. Aiken will close at 5 30 day or a night especially for our business gone to Cambridge, Mass., to play with long drawn out case of the Penn Chem-While there would probably be little Hartswick was taken to the Harrisburg was finally settled on Tuesday when the

--- Thomas A. Edison's Kinetaphone. or talking pictures, in a new and important series of his latest productions, will be the offering at Garman's today and tomorrow, October 31st and November 1st. The new program to be given here by Mr. Edison's own traveling organization comprises several pretentious musical numbers and operettas, comedies, dramas, farces, vaudeville bits and cabarets, a truly varied bill which will doubtless please every one. Performance Two Special Services by Evangelist each evening and matinee Saturday af-"BoB" Jones -Bob Jones, the evangelist, ternoon. Special introductory prices, 10 who is preaching morning and evening cents to everybody in the gallery; 10 cents to children up and down stairs, and lege students employed on the Panama services which are attracting a great deal 20 and 30 cents to adults on the main

---The Hallowe'en season, a time most conducive to entertaining, includes among its hosts and hostesses Miss Emily Natt, who entertained with cards Saturday of last week, and the Misses Rankin, who also entertained with cards the same evening, in honor of their house guest, Miss Helen Coghnigan. Witmer Smith's Hallowe'en stag party given Monday evening at his country home a short distance east of town. Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes' bridge dinner Tuesday at the Country club, for which twelve covers were laid. Tuesday evening the Symphony Orchestra club were guests of Miss Winifred Gates at her home on east Lamb street and at the same time Mrs. Edward Harper gave the first of a series of entertainments she has planned for the early winter. Wednesday Mrs. J. L. Montgomery entertained in the evening with bridge, the honor guests being Mrs. Montgomery, of Lancaster, and Mrs. was by Rev. M. S. Cressman, D. D., of Hickok, of Harrisburg. Thursday evening the younger girls gave a costume Earl C. Tuten entertained thirty of their in the Garman building, at their very friends with a Hallowe'en party at their home on east Linn street. A progres- to make final arrangements for shipment. sive party, which carried with it much diately following the sermon the young merriment, started from the home of the Potter-Hoy Hardware store. the Misses Harriet and Mary Ray, from there went to Miss Helen Smith on Bishop street, then to Miss Nellie Smith -Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Conley have has proven very acceptable to the con- on Linn street and from there back to Bishop street where they were guests of ended at Miss Mary Hicklen's. Tonight -The ladies bible class of the Mrs. Howard Best will give a masquerade, Reformed church. Immediately after the oyster supper in the supper room of the Eleanor Weston at her home on west ceremony a reception will be held at the Y. M. C. A., on Tuesday evening, No- Linn street. Saturday night Mrs. Garber

KILL WILD GEESE WITH BROOMSTICKS. town M. E. church will give an enter- - The usual quietude of the village of

into their homes and locked the doors. Wild geese are now making their flight from their hatching nests in the north to their winter homes in the southern States and early Friday evening the people of Stormstown heard the honk! honk! of the birds as they flew high in the air. Shortly after dark, or along about eight o'clock in the evening, when the falling rain made the darkness almost impenmoned to Oviston last Saturday on the etrable, a flock of geese numbering one presumption that the foreigners there hundred or more, were attracted by a would go on a rampage after receiving lighted lantern in the doorway of a barn their pay. There was also a suspicion on the outskirts of Stormstown and after circling a few times swooped down upon the town. Some managed to alight in Halfmoon run, a narrow stream that the Shore flows through the edge of the town, but the most of the flock settled on land, in fields, gardens and the roadway. Naturally a number of young men tried to capture one or more of the birds, but the only successful ones were D. W. Way and William Harris, who, armed with broomsticks, managed to get close enough for each one to clout a bird over the head and kill it. They finally got together and soaring aloft continued their flight toward the south. During Saturday night and Sunday thousands of wild geese passed over Halfmoom valley from -The State College football team the North to the South. And now it is

TILLIE DORSEY'S HOME WRECKED .-The home of Tillie Dorsey, just off Lamb street at the rear of the Hastings property, got such a blowing-up the other day as to leave it practically a wreck on the inside. She had been presented with a cooking stove by a former employer Y. M. C. A. the day before and when the plumber -The trout are now spawning and disconnected the stove from the water every day a number of the speckled supply preparatory to moving it to Tilbeauties can be seen on the gravel beds lie's house he foolishly plugged the waoffice. The trout range in size from After it was set up and the good old seven to eighteen inches and scores of colored lady had made a roaring fire in ing the day to watch them. Many back yard to burn some rubbish. It was strangers are among those to stop and providential that she did for she had look and some of them who have read been gone only a few moments when plastering from the walls and almost completely demolished the interior of her little place. The steam that was generated in that plugged water back had caused it. As the stove was blown to with friends atoms there would probably have been a fatality to record had Tillie been in the house at the time.

State in their game against Harvard. ical company vs Mary C. Ammerman o'clock, and Saturday evening until 9 disposition to close business places for hospital where his illness was diagnosed defendant gave to the attorney for the plaintiff a check for $700 in full payment of the verdict, costs, etc. The case had been appealed to the Superior court and it was before that tribunal, sitting in Philadelphia on Monday, that an agreement of settlement was reached.

Another case argued on Monday was that of J. L. Seibert vs. John Sebring Jr., being a contention over the sign post erected by Mr. Sebring on Allegheny street in front of Dr. Seibert's property. No decision has yet been given by the court in this case.

-A special train bearing the Sophomore class of The Pennsylvania State College left Lemont yesterday morning for Philadelphia, where they will hold their annual banquet and remain for the Penn State-U. of P. game tomorrow-The team went down last night and this morning another special train will be run to accommodate the students and others desiring to attend the game. All told State College will have a delegation of from one thousand to twelve hundred students and others on Franklin field to-

-Return postal cards were distributed among the farmers and employers of labor along the rural routes in Centre county from the Bureau of Immigration, Department of Labor, which has undertaken the work of an employment agency, without charge. It is designed that persons wanting work on farms shall send their names and qualifications to the department and those seeking help shall make that fact known. The department proposes to become the connecting link between the employer and the employee.

- Mrs. L. H. Gettig, chairman of the committee for shipping papers, has asked that all those having magazines or padance in the Town hall. Mr. and Mrs. pers will please send them to the room earliest convenience, as she would like The key for the room can be gotten at Mrs. Brown's sister-in-law, Mrs. French, who

-Edward Rine, son of the late Charles Rine, and who has been with the Adams Express company for a number of years, has purchased the Gessner property at Coleville. He contemplates giving up his position with the express although rapidly recovering, does not know company and going into business in when she will return to Ohio.

-At a meeting of the executive Harriet Ray, one of the November brides. with their bondsmen and petitioners.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. N. B. Spangler is spending a week or phia on a shopping expedition -Mrs. Luther Dale, of Oak Hall, spent Satur, tay in Bellefonte shopping and visiting friends. -J. C. Dunlap, of Colver, Pa., was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday and a pleasant caller at this office.

-William T. McCormick, of Tyrone, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday to attend the funeral of James Gregg.

-Mr. W. H. Woomer, of Tyrone, was a Belle fonte visitor on Tuesday and a visitor at the WATCHMAN office -Edward Shields went to Detroit, Mich., on Monday, where he has the promise of a good po. sition in a large automobile factory.

-Mrs. F. H. Thomas and Mrs. Wallace H. Gephart spent the latter half of last week on a hopping expedition to Philadelphia. -Mrs. Montgomery, of Lancaster, a sister of Col. W. F. Reynolds, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs.

Keynolds at their home on Linn street. -Miss Anna McCoy and Miss Kate Shugert returned from Atlantic City Saturday, after spending the greater part of the month of October at

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward Latham and two children, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday in Bellefonte, guests of Mrs. Latham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Haupt. -Mrs. Clement Dale went to Philadelphia the early part of the week, for an indefinite stay with relatives and friends. Philadelphia was Mrs. Dale's girlhood home. -James Rine, who has been living in Altoona for a year, has been spending this week in Bellefonte with his family, and attending the evangelistic meetings in the armory. -Mrs. Elizabeth B. Callaway went to Scranto Monday morning, as a representative from the State Congress in session there this week. -Lieutenant William Marsh, of Greensburg, in

Thursday night inspecting Troop A, in this place. -Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown and Miss Noll spent Tuesday in Williamsport as guests o Mr. and Mrs. King, whom Mr. and Mrs. Brown have entertained a number of times in Bellefonte. -Miss Mira Humes, Mrs. James Harris and Mrs. Sara C. Brown, spent Tuesday at State College, in specting that institution and had luncheon with Mr. Bookman, general secretary of the college

-Mrs. William H. Brouse, who has been in Bellefonte the past month, left on Tuesday for Paw Paw, W. Va., where her husband is now employed and where they will be located the next two years.

-Dr. Lee B. Woodcock and his cousin, Byron Woodcock, were in Bellefonte Monday on a motor trip across the State. Having left Mercer on fore reaching their destination at Scranton.

-William Woodson has resigned his position at the Brockerhoff house and left yesterday for Altoona where he will spend a day then go to Detroit, Mich, for a week before proceeding to Bay -Miss Mabel Allison, of Spring Mills, with her aunt, Mrs. J. F. Alexander, Miss Grace Smith and Miss Sara McClenahan, of Centre Hall, drove to Bellefonte Wednesday in Miss Allison's motor car, spending the day in the shops and -T. C. Heims, of Overbrook, but who for years was a well known resident of Osceola Mills, was in Bellefonte the fore part of the week on business pertaining to the settlement of the estate of the Hess family, at Linden Hall, his wife being one of the heirs. City with her son, John G. Love Jr., who was at the Shore recuperating after an operation for appendicitis, Mrs. John G. Love returned home this week while John Jr. returned to his studies at Haverford College. -Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Fox and two children, of Lock Haven, were over Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Fox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haupt. Mr. Fox is recovering from injuries sustained in a fall from a locomotive at the round ouse in Lock Haven. -Mr. G. Ralph Spigelmyer was summoned to Philadelphia on Monday evening on account of the very serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. J. E. D. Huffman, of Williamsport, who underwent an operation last Friday for the removal of gall stones, at the German hospital -Among those who witnessed the Harvard and

Penn State game at Cambridge, Mass., last Saturday, was Miss Belle Fleming, of Bellefonte, acompanied by her nieces, Mrs. Jack McArdle and the Misses Margaret and Tessie Bartley, of Boston, but formerly of this place.

-Among a number of persons from State College who came to Bellefonte Tuesday night to attend the evangelistic services conducted by "Bob" Jones, in the Bellefonte Armory, were Mr. and Mrs. J. Irving Foster, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Meek and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Meek.

-Edward Rine, an employee of the Adams Express company, at Tyrone, has resigned his position and will shortly come to Bellefonte to join his family. Having bought the Gessner property at Coleville during the summer, Mrs. Rine and the children have been living there for several months.

-Rev. Zeb. W. Bathurst, who the past year has een located at Shade Gap as pastor of the United Brethren church, was at the recent conference transferred to Freestone, Franklin county. He was in Bellefonte the fore part of the week visit-ing old friends before settling down to work in his new pastorate.

-After spending several weeks with Mrs. William T. Speer in her last illness, Mrs. Frank Campbell left yesterday for Nevada, Ohio, expecting to spend the winter with her brother, John Woomer, Mrs. Campbell came to Bellefonte from Philadelphia, where she has been much of the time since leaving Centre county.

-Harold Gardner, who since his graduation a The Pennsylvania State College last June has been with the Jones-Laughlin Iron and Steel company at Woodlawn, was compelled to come ne on Tuesday evening on account of illness. He will remain in Bellefonte for an indefinite time in order to recuperate his shattered health.

-Mrs. Sara Brown, who has been spending the fall and a part of the summer with Mrs. James Harris, went to East Brady, on Thursday, for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Wray. Visiting Mrs. Wray just now, is has just returned from spending the summer in

-"Billy" Tucker, of Akron, Ohio, is visiting with his great aunt, Mrs. Thomas Donachy, and will probably be in Bellefonte for an indefinite ime. "Billy's" mother, Mrs. Tucker, is at Dr Howard Kelly's private sapitarium at Baltimore, where she was operated three weeks ago and

-Mrs. W. M. Glanding with her daughter Miss Mary, arrived in Bellefonte on Monday afternoon from Syracuse, N. Y., to join her. west Logan street. Mr. and Mrs. Walls of the electric light fund. Frice, 20 Arcade and lower light of heat week will be at home after the first of January cents; ice cream, cake and home-made Miss Fitzgerald will entertain for Miss applicants for liquor license this year, reception will be tendered the paster and family reception at the I otheran church next Monday evening,

-Frank Crissman, of Sunbury, spent Sunda with his parents in this place

-Miss May Sellers has been spending the week with friends in Altoona and Johnstow -Mrs. James C. Furst is visiting for a week with her mother, Mrs. Harrar, in Williams having gone down Wednesday. -Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Hayes, who have been for a month or more at the Orthopedic Institute at Philadelphia, have gone to Atlantic City to spend the winter months. -After visiting for the summer at State College with her niece and family, Mrs. John Harter has gone to Baltimore, where she will spend the fore part of the winter with her daughter.

-Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brooks, of Waterville, Lycoming county, having with them their little child, visited this week with Mrs. Brooks' sister, Mrs. C. D. Tanner, at her home on High street. -Harry Williams, who has been road man for

Keichline's automobile agency the past few months, left for Detroit, Mich., on Monday where he has secured a good position with the Ford company. -'Squire Michael Shaffer, of Smullton, spent a day or two in Bellefonte the latter part of las week. He has just recovered from a recent illness and was still a little shaky on his feet but all right otherwise -Mrs. Edward H. Richard went to Philadel phia Tuesday and will be joined there next week by Mr. Richard, at which time they will go to Atlantic City, expecting to spend the month of -A. P. Zerby returned home last Friday from an extended trip through Illinois, and visiting his son, E.P. Zerby, at Union. For the present he will remain in Bellefonte with his son, W. D. Zerby Esq., and family. -Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lucas, of Atlantic City, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Miller, of east Curtin street. Mr. Lucas was at one time employed in Samuel Lew-Bellefonte Chapter of the D. A. R. to attend the in's clothing store in this place. -Mrs. Oscar Peters has been visiting with rela-their family lived in Bellefonte until several years ago, moved from here to Lancaster, where they have made their home since that time.

-Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mallory, of Altoona were in Bellefonte from Thursday until Monday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Coxey. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mallory having many relatives and friends in the town, they spent much of the time visiting among them. Mrs. Mallory is a daughter of Joel Johnson.

-Mrs. James B. Lane went to McKeesport yesterday, intending to spend a week with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lane. Upon her return Mrs Lane, who has been making her home at the Bush house, will take Miss Mary Thomas' home, during Miss Thomas' visit of two months with her sister, Mrs. Shafner, in

---The J. L. Tempest Dramatic company will be the attraction at Garman's all of next week presenting Jennie Tempest, as leading lady, and a good supporting company with splendid scenic equipment. A repertoire of all royalty plays with special vaudeville features. Popular prices of 10, 20 and 30 cents will prevail and seats will be on sale at the usual place. The opening number on Monday night will be "For Mother's

-Last evening was celebrated as "gate night" but so few homes in Bellefonte have either fences or gat the depredatiously inclined found very little to do. To night will be Hallowe'en, and while Young America will doubtless celebrate to their heart's content they should do so in a decent, manly way. Don't do anything to anyone that you would not want someone to do to you. This will be a pretty safe rule to follow.

----Mrs. Jane Tate, Mrs. John Noll. and Mrs. Noll's daughter Mrs. VanDyke, all of whom have been ill for the past several weeks are slowly recovering their normal health

Bellefonte Produce Markets.
Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer The prices quoted are those paid for productatoes per bushel, new	70 75
rd, per dozen rd, per pound itter per pound	30 12 30
Bellefoute Grain Markets.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock hursday evening, when our paper goes to press. NewWheat... Old Wheat... Rye, per bushel... Corn, shelled, per bushel... Corn, ears, per bushel... Oats, old and new, per bushel. Barley, per bushel...

The following are the closing prices of the Flour —Winter, per barrel —Favorite Brands... The Best Advertising Medium in Centra page form—six columns to page—and every week by more than ten thousand ble people. It is issued every Friday mor the following rate: Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year...

Pennsylvania.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county uses paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions is continued until all arrearages are settled, eapt at the option of the publisher. ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be d at the following rates:

LEGAL AND TRANSIENT SINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Per inch, each insertion. Four weeks, and under three mos. 10 per ct. Three mos. and under six mos...... 15 per ct. Six mos. and under 12 mos....... 25 per ct.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless