The Election in Centre County.

The election throughout Centre county on Tuesday was so quiet and unsensational as to cause little excitement or commerce. The one interesting feature was the contest on constitutional amendment No. 1, generally known as the road loan. During the past month considerable work had been done throughout the county in behalf of this amendment but so decided was the opposition to it that the vote for and against it was about one-third greater than on any of the other amendments and the official count will show its defeat by over eight hundred majority.

Webster Grim and J. W. Kephart carried the county for Superior Court Judge. J. Adam Hazel and John D. Decker were elected Jury commissioners and Dr. John Sebring coroner. Party lines were not closely regarded in the election of borough and township tickets, the personal worth of the candidates having had a lot to do with the result in many precincts. On page four of today's paper is given the unofficial vote as cast on Tuesday.

The Result in the Borough.

The election in Bellefonte passed off very orderly and quiet. The only real contests were on tax collector, borough treasurer and the constitutional amendment No. 1. For tax collector J. Kennedy Johnston defeated W. H. Brown by 183 majority while E. J. Gehret defeated S. Kline Roodring by 133 majority. The constitutional amendment carried in the borough by 127 of a majority. In the North ward Hard P. Harris and W. A. Lyon were elected borough councilmen over John J. Bower, Mr. Lyon being on the three tickets. The full vote is as follows:

-- The Bellefonte High school football team was defeated by the Jersey Shore High school team on Hughes field last Saturday by the score of 12 to 7, but at that they far outplayed their opponents. Jersey Shore's last tally was made on a fluke when one of the Bellefonte High backs fumbled the ball. The local team was out-weighed about fifteen pounds to the man, but they made up in pluck what they lacked in weight, and most of the game was played in the visitor's territory. In fact had it not been that Jersey Shore had an ex-State College man on its team the Bellefonte High would have beaten them easily. Yeager starred on the Bellefonte team.

-Steve Hanke, a Slavishman, was brought to the Centre county jail on Wednesday morning on the charge of her husband and six children; also two stabbing a countryman at a dance at Winburne. Two others who were implicated n the fight escaped.

ALEXANDER.-Following a two years illness as the result of an inflammation of the nerves (generally called shingles) Irvin G. Alexander, a well known retired farmer of Unionville, died on Tuesday evening. He was a son of James and Margaret Alexander and was born in Bush Hollow on March 3rd, 1844, hence was 69 years, 8 months and 1 day old. At the age of eighteen years he enlisted for service in the Civil war serving in Company H. 56th regiment. He had the reputation of being one of the bravest soldiers in his company, and was through some hard service. Returning from the war he engaged in farming, an occupation he followed very successfully until several years ago when he retired and moved to Unionville.

Their Bodies Had Been Exposed to the Elements For Several Weeks When Discovered by a Gunner.

While in quest of game in the woods near Northfield, N. J., Harry Pierce stumbled across the bodies of James F. Bly, a youthful medical student, who went to Atlantic City from Pitts burgh, Pa., a year ago, and his equally youthful bride, who was Miss Rose Herring, of Atlantic City.

The condition of the bodies indicated that they had been dead for some time, and letters found on their cloth ing disclosed a suicide pact.

On the temple of each cappeared a gaping bullet wound, and beside Bly was found a revolver, in which two cartridges had been exploded and in which three remained.

Bly was eighteen years of age and had resided since December of last year at a hotel in St. James place. His bride lived a few doors away with her mother, Mrs. Marie Herring. Both Mrs. Herring and Mrs. Bly are in a serious condition at their homes as 8 result of the discovery of the bodies.

Parental opposition to their wed ding, which is said to have occurred on Aug. 20 at Camden, is believed to have been responsible for the dua! tragedy. A letter bearing the signature of each reads:

"Death is the easiest way out. Rose will kill herself first and I will fol-

Another letter, written by Bly, indi cated that he feared he was to b€ placed in a sanitarium by relatives and this fear is believed to have beer the cause of the suicide pact.

Statements issued by the young Mexico. man's relatives show that they had op ease of the heart.

He came to Atlantic City with his mother, aunt and grandmother from Pittsburgh a year ago in the hope that his health would be benefited. In Pitts burgh he was a student at the Park institute, and was afterwards asso ciated with a physician in Atlantic

The young couple disappeared from Atlantic City on Sept. 2, declaring that they were to pay a visit to a Mrs Hughes, on South Tenth street, Phila delphia. On Sept. 8 the girl returned to Atlantic City, but left two days later, without disclosing the where abouts of her youthful husband. Since that time a search has been conducted by relatives of each, but without avail.

Girl, 14, Found In White Slave Den. Josephine McLoughlin, fourteer years of age, of New York, missing from her home a week, and for whom s general police alarm had been sounded. was rescued nude from a band of alleged traffickers in women, who had taken her clothes from her and kept her a prisoner since the night of her disappearance.

A note imploring aid was written by the girl and pushed through the shutters of a window. It fluttered down before the feet of a citizen. He notified the police, who made a spec tacul ir raid on the place and took two prisoners.

The girl told the police that she left her mother' home on the night of Oct. 23 to attend a dance with a young man she had met a few days previous ly. He took her, instead, to the flat from which she was rescued. There she met a man and a woman who con fiscated her clothes

John Hamilton, a driven, one of the girl's alleged abductors, was locked up on a charge of abduction. A girl companion was arrested and at first was charged wit disorderly conduct. She said her name was Slizabeth Clark, and the police, searching their records, found that her disappearance from home had been reported a month ago by her father and that a general alarm for her, too, had been issued. Later the charge against her was also changed to abduction.

Detectives arrested John Conklin, a driver, on a charge of having taken the McLoughlin girl away from her home and kept her a prisoner.

Paris Will Not Act on Mexico's Plea Until President Wilson Announces His Policy.

Secretary of State Bryan flatly refused to discuss the Mexican situation in any of its phases.

He was asked particularly about one published report that General Huerta had made a reply to a recent communication from the United States and he refused to confirm or deny it.

It is expected that the Mexican dictator will set forth his position as to his policy regarding vacating the presidency.

The scout cruiser Chester, now at the Philadelphia navy yard, was ordered to prepare to sail for Vera Cruz immediately. The Chester is not a heavy fighting ship, but swift and valuable for dispatch and scout duty. Of lighter draft than the big warships now at Vera Cruz, she will be able to join the smaller craft inshore.

At the army general staff offices it was said that the only preparations for troop movements being made were those for exchanges of posts previously announced. State department officials take the position that the action of the French foreign office in refraining from indicating whether it was disposed to mediate between Mexico and the United States is another evidence of the intention of France to defer to the policy of the United States in the Mexican situation. France was among the first of the European governments to accede to the request to defer action in the Mexican situation until the Washington government had formulated and announced its policy. According to information reaching the state department about 1200 to 1500 Americans remain in Mexico City. The remainder of the 5000 that weer theer are now distributed among the towns of Torreon, Monterey, Guayamas and Mazatlan. Since the warning issued by President Wilson in his last message to congress relative to the Mexican situation no new instructions have been sent to these Americans. It is stated, however, that in the interval a few, who had left the country, have return-
