--- Thanksgiving is over and next in line comes Christmas.

----All eyes are now turned toward will battle for gridiron honors tomorrow.

to cost at AIKENS. 58-2w.

--- The new Lutheran parsonage on east Linn street is fast nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy early in the new year.

---The Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will meet in the Y. M. C. A. building Monday evening, December 1st, at half-past seven o'clock.

the Y. M. C. A. The public is invited.

-At Hollidaysburg on Tuesday a E. Eisenhauer, of Aaronsburg, and Miss a ten day's hunt over in Huntingdon Bessie E. Sleeman, of South Lakemont, county. They were fortunate in securmoving the door forward. This will give seconds to recover from his surprise and Foster and family.

day afternoon and evening, in the room adjoining the church.

-Baled hay is being hauled to Bellefonte and shipped away by the car load, almost daily; evidence that the hay crop in Centre county last summer was not such a poor one, after all.

-Mr. A. A. Witter, of Tyrone, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis on around a day or two later

Milesburg Presbyterian church will hold ty was probably the most successful of disturbance that came from the northa fair in the manse, December 5th and any out. 6th, 1913, to which a cordial invitation is

---The Pennsylvania railroad has established a rule which provides that the mountains were the Bellwood crew two, however, is predicted. return portion of an excursion ticket the Lightners two, the Modocks one, the may be redeemed at the ticket office at State College crowd one deer and a wild which it was bought, if presented by the cat, the Fleet Foots two, the Indiana old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mc. on individual hunts just for a day. Cullough, of Coleville, fell on a stone last Saturday and injured his right arm will be sold during the evening.

--- The school board has had erected a concrete wall along the entire north side of the school grounds at the High school building. This will be surmountwhich will be a decided improvement.

---William Shultz, of Port Matilda, is receiving congratulations as the author of a song entitled, "We'll Meet Again Some Summer Day," which was set to music by Harry Verona and published by the Globe Music company, of New York

-Saturday evening the deal was 1st. 1914.

went out to see the game. College will reopen on Monday.

--- The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold their anning at 10 o'clock a. m. All kinds of fancy work, also baked goods, will be on hand. This is the place to buy your X-mas presents.

will close tomorrow and then the only the granting of any licenses in Bellefonte kind of game in this section of the State and Philipsburg as well as general rethat it will be legal to kill will be rabbits, monstrances against the granting of any to the big expense in securing this five raccoon and bear, all of which run to licenses in Centre county. The specific reel picture the price of admission will January first. Quail runs to December remonstrances against the Bellefonte be ten cents for the evening and ten amendment, so there is almost a certain-

Hayes Run Fire Brick company, at Orvis- the signers are either women or nonton last Friday, all the old officers and voters. The papers contain a very small board of directors were re-elected for percentage of the business or profesthe ensuing year. The general manager's sional men of Bellefonte. The faculty report showed the company to be in a and residents of State College, and 288 very prosperous condition, the business out of the total of over two thousand of the past year being the largest since students at State College have filed genthe plant was built.

--- Thanksgiving day was generally observed in Bellefonte yesterday. All the stores and banks were closed, the postoffice observed regular holiday hours and the hotel bars were closed. The Bellefonte High school-Bucknell Freshmen football game attracted quite a crowd to Hughes field in the afternoon and the DEER SEASON CLOSED.—The fifteen —Late as the season is there are still COL. EMANUEL NOLL SURPRISED.—Our —Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Gephart were over the hunters. While it is difficult to get some years and the weather continue a half dozen of his friends thought it a of Centre Hall, were Bellefonte visitors on Monthe exact number of bucks killed in Cen- cold throughout the winter? Of course good opportunity to show what they day. former years. Centre county hunters der all housed. THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. had the best luck in the Seven mountains, probably because there were more hunters there than in the Alleghenies. A number of does were killed by eager or careless hunters who shot at anything New York, where the Army and Navy in the shape of a deer. Even two elk were killed by mistake. The present law ---Aikens' Ladies' Furnishings, Belle- protecting does is having the effect of fonte, Pa. All coats and suits reduced making them much more plentiful but the killing of bucks only is decimating the ranks of the male deer very percep-

-The ladies of the Methodist Epis- but failed to bring any of them to earth. course. copal church will hold a roast chicken They saw a number of does, one of which dinner on Thursday. December 11th, at almost ran over James Clark, but of course no one took a shot at them.

The Pine Grove Mills Rod and Gun marriage license was granted to Clarence club returned last Thursday evening from have been moved forward four feet by —Class No. 10, of the U. B. Sunday buck, which was killed by L. D. Musser, The room is also being wired for elecschool, will hold a sale of bread, rolls, the first day of the season. They report tric light. pies, cakes, candy and ice cream. Satur. ed deer not as plentiful in that section as in former years, and especially so with Krebs, Richard Markle, Fred Randolph, Hamill Glenn, L. D. Musser and J. Will Kepler, all of Pine Grove Mills, and C. V. Smith and John Bressler, of Pennsylvania Furnace.

The Bradford hunting party, of Centre Thursday of last week, but he was so Hall, with whom Register J. Frank Smith ——The weather last week was so was hunting, came out last Thursday warm that men went around coatless and brought with them six bucks, one of and women and girls without wraps. The Ladies Aid society of the which was shot by Mr. Smith. This par- Sunday night there was a change and the

Mann party three deer. crowd two, the Riley's two, the Rutz -David McCullough, the five year gang three and four killed by men out

HUNTING STORIES.

—The ladies of the United Brethren crossing and watched for a buck to come rest of the family had at home. church, will hold a sauerkraut supper on along. He had not been there long until Thursday evening, December 4th, begin- he espied a huge buck creeping through ning at 4.30 o'clock. Tickets 25 cents, the brush some distance away. He had over Friday night was Oliver F. Cutts, Ice cream, cake and home-made candy ample time and taking deliberate aim the famous Harvard football player, now fired. He was using a high powered gun alumni secretary for the international and the ball not only killed the buck but Y. M. C. A. committee. He was on his passed through it and killed a doe that way to State College to make a talk bewas a few feet away and right in line with fore the college Y. M. C. A. on Sunday. the buck. When Mr. Yocum discovered Another prominent visitor on Saturday ed, with a double iron pipe guard rail what had happened he almost fainted, was Eddie Butler, the once famous quarbut he did the right thing by going be. terback on the Cornell team, who umpired fore a justice of the peace at Mapleton, making information against himself and paying a fifty dollar fine. The doe's carhospital at Huntingdon.

closed whereby E. O. Struble became the about the $100 fine he had to pay. He ones. Another of the old kilns was par-Thomas street, now occupied by Charles the former he is having mounted. He ted on it, so that the plant is practically McCoy and family. Mr. Struble and fam- has already been offered $80 for the hide all new, with a larger output of lime than but will have it made into a rug. He got ever before. a handful of teeth out of the head which ----State College closed yesterday for he will have mounted into Elk charms, the Thanksgiving recess and a large del- and which sell for $25 and $30 each. An ent and separate remonstrances have with the High school team of that place. been filed. These include specific remonstrances against some of the hotels in —The squirrel and pheasant season as well as general remonstrances against will show the wonderful biblical picture, that the third amendment to the consti-14th and snipe, shore birds and web- hotels contain ten signatures, five min- cents for adults and five cents for chil- ty that it alone of the five amendments -At the annual meeting of the general remonstrances at least two-thirds picture is a sermon in itself, and should eral remonstrances against the granting of licenses in Bellefonte and also against the granting of any licenses in Centre county. License court will be held on Saturday, December 13th, and at that time both sides will be given a just and unbiased hearing.

and 4th, in the Presbyterian church.

-Several new kilns have been pracerations will ere long be trippled over the latter was so excited over the Acade- Mrs. A. C. Mingle and family. be pushed at that point just as soon as be called upon to get him home. When the connecting railroad is completed.

will meet in Grange Arcadia, Centre Hall, urally curious but was told by his daugh- ham on Saturday and remained over Sunday as a country home at Axe Mann on Tuesday and left Bellefonte hunters fared very poorly as Tuesday, December 2nd, at 10 a. m. It ter that she expected a few friends. A guest of his brother, Joseph D. Mitchell and not a deer was brought to town. The is urged that there be a full attendance. few minutes later the door bell rang and Panthers returned home on Saturday Fourth degree members are invited. The the colonel hastened to answer it. Upon in Belliefonte on his way to Pittsburgh for the will enter St. Agree however the latter night empty handed, but it was not be- election of officers for the next two years opening the door he was surprised to see annual State—Pitt game; an event he never cause they didn't see any deer. In the will take place at this meeting. At noon Rev. John Hewitt, W. Henry Taylor, misses. last week of their hunt they saw three lunch will be served and after that a Amos Garbrick, Monroe Armor, Robert large bucks, with wide-spreading antlers, short time will be given to social inter- Sechler and Henry Walkey, standing as Mrs. John H. Beck, of Snydertown, spent from considerable more space in the rear.

—The re-opening of the Y. M. C. A. presented Mr. Noll with a substantial tothe bucks, having seen only two during gymnasium last Friday evening proved ken of his friends esteem. All in all it their entire time out. In the party were quite a successful event. Between four was one of those delightful and heartfelt meetings at The Point. Col. D. W. Miller, Dr. R. M. Krebs, N. T. and five hundred people attended the occasions that impresses upon a man the -Miss Jane Crowley came to Bellefonte Sunreception, heard the concert by the Ty- value of true friendship. rone band and saw the basket ball game between the Tyrone Y. M. C. A. five and AN ACT OF INTEREST TO EVERYONE IN Bellefonte. The Bellefonte team had CENTRE COUNTY .- The Woman's Club west forced the temperature down to al-The Howard hunters secured three most freezing point with snow squalls extended to all to attend and enjoy them- deer and three bear and the Robert on Monday. It has since become warmer and the temperature is above normal for Others who got deer on the Seven this time of the year. Cooler weather,

---In the neighborhood of one thousand State College students did not go home for Thanksgiving but remained at the institution, and many of them had a Thanksgiving dinner from home. On Wednesday morning almost one-half of a baggage car on the Lewisburg and Ty-R. C. Yocum, of Mapleton, went out rone railroad was piled to the roof with so badly that it has been virtually par- alone for a deer hunt on the last day of boxes for college students, which conthe season. He stationed himself on a tained, no doubt, all the good things the

-A prominent visitor in Bellefonte the Academy-Wyoming Seminary football game.

-Since taking charge of the pike cass was sent to the J. C. Blair Memorial plant of the American Lime and Stone company Charles Morris has practically Dayton Aikens, of Siglerville, who kill- rebuilt it. Three of the old kilns were ed the big elk that wandered over the torn down and in their place two new Seven mountains from the Centre counsteel kilns have been erected which have ty game preserve, is not worrying much a greater capacity than the three old was given the elk's head and hide and tially torn down and a steel top construc-

No-LICENSE PEOPLE ACTIVE.—The no- places the Academy at the head of all Sayre, of New Bethlehem. Miss Wilcounty. Up to date twenty-nine differ- Binghamton, N. Y., yesterday, in a game the gifts is a rather noteworthy fact.

-On Thursday of next week, De-Bellefonte, Philipsburg and Milesburg, cember 4th, manager T. Clayton Brown ty in the State except Allegheny indicate "From the Manger to the Cross" at the Scenic, afternoon and evening. Owing is 184,951 for to 178,184 against. The isters and five citizens. On some of the dren at the afternoon matinee. The carried. The third amendment is the be seen by everybody. Other good pic-terms expire in odd numbered years one

-The regular session of December term of court will begin next Monday and continue for two weeks, or as much time thereof as is necessary to transact the business and dispose of the cases to be brought before the court. From general indications it will be a short session. The criminal list is neither a long nor important one, and while quite a number of civil cases are down for trial the probability is that most of them will -The Christian Endeavor convenieither be settled or continued. The tion which was postponed in the Spring greatest interest is centered in license balance of the da, was very quiet and will be held at Lemont, December 3rd court which will be held on Saturday, December 13th.

days deer season came to an end on some farmers who have not all their corn good friend Col. Emanuel Noll, baggage Sunday visitors in Philadelphia. Tuesday and it might be summed up as husked and housed. Where would they agent at the Pennsylvania railroad depot, having been a fairly successful one for be at had snow fallen as early as it does was sixty-six years old last Saturday, and tre county a careful estimate places the the scarcity of farm labor is given as the thought of him. His daughter, Miss Renumber equal, if not in excess of that in reason for not having the crop and fod- bie Noll, was a partner in the scheme for a visit and to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. and she prepared an elaborate dinner as Bell Hirlinger. one of the features of the occasion. To tically completed at the Whiterock quarkeeping Mr. Noll down town 'till a cerries plant at Pleasant Gap and their optian hour but he had nothing to do, as spent Thanksgiving in Bellefonte with Capt. and er, Mrs. John G. Love. what they were the past year. Their

The latter was so excited over the Acade my defeating the Wyoming Seminary

—L. H. Musser made a business trip to Wash.

Bellefonte on Tuesday to look after some business demanding his personal attantion. new quarries east of Pleasant Gap are football team that he forgot to go home ---The Centre County Pomona Grange tions for a sumptuous dinner he was natif on parade. In fact the above gentle--Gehret & Lambert are now at men aver that Mr. Noll was so surprised work fixing up the interior of the Belle- that he forgot to ask them in until Rev. in Bellefonte on Wednesday to spend Thanksfonte postoffice so as to afford more Hewitt reminded him of the fact, but the giving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Danie working space. The partition and boxes colonel declares that isn't so. He admits, Heckman. however, that he may have been a little cutting out the raised window floor and slow in doing so, as it took him a few realize that it was a birthday greeting.

> had very little practice and were there- with a view of maintaining the beauty months in Williamsport on account of the sickble way, desires to call the attention of man. the citizens of Bellefonte to the Act of the General Assembly No. 358, approved June 25th, 1913, said Act being an amendment to section two of Act No. 24 ap- yesterday. proved March 10th, 1903. Will not every citizen help to make his town as attrac- Bellefonte Saturday and after spending Sunday tive as possible? The Act reads as fol. with Mrs. Wallis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Will

Rev. Hewitt, as spokesman of the crowd,

"That no person shall paste, paint, brand, stamp, or in any manner whatsoever place upon, or attach to, any building, fence, bridge, gate, outbuilding, or property of another, whether within or without the limits of a highway, any written, printed, painted, or other advertisement, bill, notice, sign, card, or poster, without first having obtained the written consent of the owner, or tenant lawfully in possession or occupancy thereof: Provided, That nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the posting of any notice required by law or order of court to be

The section stating the penalty for violation of this law reads:

"Every person violating the provisions of this act shall be liable penalty of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered before any magistrate or justice of the peace, as fines and penalties are by law recoverable; and such written, printed, painted, or other advertisement, bill, notice, sign, card, or poster is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and may be removed and abated as such.'

BELLEFONTE CONTRIBUTED ONE OF MISS WILSON'S WEDDING PRESENTS-During the past week there has been on exhibition in M. I. Gardner's china store on High street a basket, the product of The Basket Shop of this place, which took old, and Will Jeffries, of Scranton, a stude first prize at the National Conservation Exposition at Knoxville, Tenn., held during October and November of this year. A description of the basket would not do it justice; it must be seen to be appre- in this office he commented upon the fact that ciated. And evidently it was seen at the Exposition by some one who had an eye -The Bellefonte Academy foot ball for the beautiful for The Basket Shop team met the Wyoming Seminary eleven some days ago received an order from a cago, having accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry egation of students went out to Pittsegation of students went out to Pittselk head properly mounted is worth from feated them by the score of 13 to 7. It on Hughes field on Saturday and defeated them by the score of 13 to 7. It for a similar basket as a wedding present

william and which sell for $25 and $30 each. An on Hughes field on Saturday and defeated them by the score of 13 to 7. It was the hardest fought game seen in for Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, who on Bellefonte this season, and the victory Tuesday was married to Francis Bowes license agitators in Centre county have Prep. schools in the State. The visitors son's presents included many gifts that been quite busy this week filing remon- felt their defeat very keenly, as it is the cost hundreds and thousands of dollars strances against the granting of liquor only game they have so far lost this sea- and that a basket made in The Basket nual X-mas sale Thursday, December licenses to the various hotels in Centre son. The Academy closed the season at Shop, Bellefonte, was selected as one of

THIRD AMENDMENT PROBABLY CARtution probably carried. The vote on it complete but unofficial vote of Allegheny county was given as in favor of the one extending the terms of judges whose tures at the Scenic every evening. Don't year, and will affect Centre county to the extent that Judge Orvis' term would be extended from the first Monday of January, 1915, to the first Monday of Jan-

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. S. A. Bell spent Thanksgiving day at State College with her nephew and niece, Mr.

-Frederick and Philip Reynolds came to Belle fonte Wednesday, to spend their Thanksgiving vacation with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. F.

-Mrs. Harry Otto and her two children, of ing and have been guests of Mr. Otto's mother, -Miss Carrie Anderson went to Tyrone on Saturday to remain over Thanksgiving. -John Q.A. Kennedy and daughter, Miss Mary, B. Williams left for her home in Bayonne, N. J.

-J. E. D. Huffman, of Williamsport, was an over Sunday guest at the Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Spigelmyer home.

week, returning home on Sunday.

yesterday to assist her sister, Mrs. Luther Dale, of the week with her cousin, Mrs. J. A. Wood he arrived and discovered the prepara-in a big butchering they are having there today. cock. -J. Thomas Mitchell Esq., went over to Burn- -Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffith closed their

-Miss Grace Irene Beck, daughter of Mr. and Saturday until Tuesday visiting Bellefonte friends.

-Mrs. Calvin Spicher, of Wilkinsburg, arrived

-Mrs. William Johnson and little daughter, of Juniata, spent from Friday of last week until Tuesday in Bellefonte with her brother, Samuel

-Mrs. Sarah Etters, of Lemont, went down to After that all went smooth as a marriage Williamsport on Monday to consult Dr. Haskins, ceremony. The dinner was delicious and the occulist, and spend several days with friends in the Lumber city.

-Mr. and Mrs, W. A. Krise. of Centre Hall, are out in Johnstown this week visiting their son, Warren S. Krise, and attending the Billy Sunday day afternoon, and after visiting for the remainder of the day with friends, returned to Lock Haven on the night train. -Mrs. G. Willard Hall returned to Bellefonte fore easily beaten, the score being 20 to 7. and neatness of the town in every possiness and death of her sister, Mrs. J. E. D. Huff--Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beaver went out to Crafton on Tuesday for a brief visit with Mrs.

Beaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Prince, and to attend the State-Pitt game at Pittsburgh -Mr. and Mrs. William B. Wallis returned to Conley, left Monday afternoon for their new home at Pittsburgh. -Col. W. F. Reynolds with Mrs. Reynolds and Miss Linn drove to Harrisburg Monday, in the ed to Bellefonte Tuesday. -Mrs. Susan Peters, of Pine Grove Mills, was in Bellefonte Friday and Saturday of last week with his sister, Mrs. John Shadle, whose condition has become so serious that no hope is being entertained for her recovery. -Mrs. M. Ward Fleming, of Philipsburg, with her little son John, and a maid have been in Bellefonte for the week with Mr. Fleming's mother, Mrs. W. I. Fleming. Both John's father and grandfather joined the party here for Thanks-

-Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson, of Howard street, has been at Kane since last week, having gone there to spend the Thanksgiving season with Mrs. University, accompanied by her school friend, Tom Hutchinson and her family, expecting to Miss Dorathea Jones, of Pottsville, came up to make a visit of several weeks before returning to -Stanley B. Valentine, who came from Pittsburgh more than two weeks ago, ill with jaundice, is much improved in health and will re nain in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Valentine, until entirely recovered from -At the family Thanksgiving dinner given by

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lukenbach, their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lukenbach and their children and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jenkins and their son Raymond, all of Tyrone, and Mr. and Mrs. Mart Garman, of Bellefonte. -Mrs. Jacob Bottorf, of Lemont; Mrs. Robert

Reed, of State College, with her small son, and Mrs. Linn Bottorf's two children, Helen and Har-State, were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. John I. Olewine and Miss Adaline Olewine. -G.E. Snyder, of Oak Hall, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday and during the few minutes we had the pleasure of his presence there are still some farmers in Pennsvalley who are not through with their fall work.

-Mrs. Jerome Bell, of New York city, was in Williamsport, after which she will go directly to New York.

-Norman Kirk, who spent the summer at Thief River Falls, Minn., doing soil survey work for the United States government, arrived home on Tuesday and will spend two weeks with his on Tuesday and will be a spend to the two two weeks with his on the two weeks with his one we were well as the weeks with his one we were well as the weeks with his one we were well as the weaks with his one we were well as the weak Georgia where he has been detailed on the same

-Mrs. Weirback was in Bellefonte Friday after having spent a week at State College with her niece, Mrs. Nelson Robb. Her short stay in Centre county followed a visit with her brother. nsignor Fisher, in Philadelphia, to which place she had gone after spending the summe with her daughter at Nantucket. Mrs. Weirback was on her way to St. Louis for the winter.

-The Misses Elizabeth and Mary Blanchard left Bellefonte Thursday morning for Harris-burg, where they had their Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Norris. In the afternoon Miss Elizabeth Blanchard went on to Washington to attend club convention in session there, and Miss Mary Blanchard to Philadelphia, where she will conduct the Christmas sale of baskets at the Aldine hotel.

-Mrs. A. B. Cromer, who has been se ill within the past month at her home at Baldwinsville, N. Y., will come to Bellefonte Wednesday of next week to spend the Christmas season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs, W. Homer Criss man. Mrs. Cromer was Miss Eva Crissman and left here immediately after her marriage a year ago, this being her first visit to Bellefonte since that time. Luther Crissman has been visiting with his sister in New York State since last week.

-Among the welcome callers at the WATCH-MAN office on Tuesday afternoon was Mrs. Nathan Baughman, who lives on the old Armor farm northeast of town. About two years ago the house they occupied burned down with all its contents, the family losing most of their clothing, but Mrs. Baughman is a woman who cannot be daunted by misfortune and today they are getinstown, came to Bellefonte Wednesday even- ting along as good if not better than before, and have one field already plowed for their spring

-Mr. and Mrs. Cheney K. Hicklen went down to Philadelphia on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving. -After spending a week in Bellefonte Mrs. C.

-Mrs. Charles Brachbill went over to Reedsville on Monday to spend Thanksgiving week with relatives.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Larimer spent Thanksgiving in Jersey Shore with their son, Lee Larimer and family.

-John G. Love Jr., a student at Haverford, -Mrs. William B. Mingle, of Centre Hall, spent Thanksgiving in Bellefonte with his moth

-Edward C. Cooke, of Baltimore, arrived in ness demanding his personal attention. -Mrs. A.R. Miller, of Lewisburg, will come -Mrs. John Lambert went over to Oak Hall to Bellefonte Monday to visit for the greater part for Philadelphia where they usually spend the will enter St. Agnes hospital for a three years course in nursing

-Charles McClellan, the tallor, went out to Pittsburgh on Wednesday to visit his son Walter and daughter, Mrs. Brady Fore, expecting to be away until Sunday. -Harry N. Meyer, clerk to the county com-ioners, with Mrs. Meyer and their three children, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Meyer's parents at Spring Mills. -Mrs. Helen Arthur, a very close friend of Miss Ohnmacht, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte as her guest, returning to her home at Williams port the same atternoon. -Frank Crosthwaite station agent and general factotum for the Bellefonte Central railroad at

State College, was in Bellefonte between trains on Wednesday afternoon. -Harry Keller Esq. went down to Lancaster on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Keller and their son William at the home of his brother, William H. Keller Esq. -Mrs. Sue Donachy Bolton went to Pittsburgh on Wednesday to see the State-Pitt game yesterday, after which she will enter the Bellevue nospital training school for nurses. -Mr. and Mrs. Norris Bogle, of New York and Miss Sara Bogle, of Pittsburgh, were in Bellefonte to spend Thanksgiving with their mother, Mrs. Bogle, at the Forge House, -Mr. and Mrs, Howard F. Gearhart, of Coatsville, arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday evening to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Gearhart's mother, Mrs. Joseph Fox, on east Bishop street.

-Dr. Lee B. Woodcock with his cousin Byron Woodcock, of Scranton, drove to Bellefonte Thursday to spend Thanksgiving day with Dr Woodcock's mother, Mrs. J. A. Woodcock. -Edward P. Irwin, of Cherry Tree, who has recovered from his recent illness, is with Mrs. Irwin at their home on Spring street, having come to Bellefonte Wednesday for an indefinite Reynolds touring car. Spending the night as -Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Gamble and Mr. and Mrs. guests of Mrs. R. J. Haldeman, the party return- Charles F. Mensch were in Altoona Wednesday night attending the reception given the members of Jaffa Temple by the potentate, Dr. A. S. -Edmund Blanchard Esq., went down to Harrisburg on Wednesday afternoon where he met

Mrs. Blanchard and they both ate their Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. A. Wilson Norris. They expect to return home today. -Mrs. David Haines went to Lock Haven Wednesday, where she was the guest of her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry laines, for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Haines will continue her visit in Lock Haven for a week. -Miss Mildred Kirk, a Senior at Bucknell State College on Wednesday where they spent Thanksgiving and will come to Bellefonte to remain over Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk. -Mrs. Hugh Taylor with her little granddaughter, betty Zerby, went to Pittsburgh on Wednesday to visit her daughters, Mrs. Warren Else and Mrs. Robert Burns. Her son, Gladstone Taylor, who has been working for the Eyre-Shoemaker Construction company at Bippus, Ind., will join her in the Smoky city for Thanks giving and accompany her home to Bellefonte in the beginning of the week.

Bellefonte Produce Markets Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer.

The prices quoted are those paid for produce. Potatoes per bushel, new.... Bellefonte Grain Markets Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press.

Old wheat.
Rye, per bushel.
Corn, shelled, per bushel.
Corn, ears, per bushel.
Oats, old and new, per bushel.
Barley, per bushel. The following are the closing prices of the Wheat-Red

Oats
Flour —Winter, per barrel
Favorite Brands. The Best Advertising Medium in Centra

Pennsylvania. A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eight-page form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

ring rate: Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year..... Paid after expiration of year..... Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-cept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be sold at the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT.

All legal and transient advertising running for First insertion, per line... Each additional insertion, per line Local Notices, per line...

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS.

The following discounts will be allowed on ad ertisements continued for Four weeks, and under three m Three mos. and under six mos. Six mos. and under 12 mos.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agent are respectfully informed that no notice vertaken of orders to insert advertisements a rates than above, nor will any notice be give orders of parties unknown to the publisher veccompanied by the cash.