Belletonte, Pa., December 5, 1913.

To Correspondents.-No communications of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-A good show for popular prices at Garman's tonight and tomorrow, matinee and evening.

-The Woman's Exchange will be open ther notice.

--- Until Christmas Lyon & Co. open every evening until 8 o'clock, Saturday evening until 10.

-A nice little baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McClure, at the Bellefonte hospital, on Tuesday of last week.

-If the weather of the last Friday in the mouth rules the succeeding month December will surely be a drizzly, dismal month. -The supper which was to have been held by the ladies of the Methodist dead. church on December 11th, has been postponed to some future date.

the Ward home on Curtin street.

east High street.

---Harry D. Gehret has resigned his position as driver of R. S. Brouse's de- well as his family. livery wagon, to take effect Saturday, and has accepted a position as clerk in Robert Morris' store.

---Howard Leaper was arrested at Alto on Monday afternoon by policeman Harry Dukeman, and Tuesday was taken to Williamsburg, Blair county, to answer the charge of wife desertion.

street, was eighty years old on Saturday, old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Dunkleand he is one of the most vigorous men berger, of Pleasant Gap, had the biggest day at the Pennsylvania match factory.

----W. Blaine Port is erecting a tailor shop on a lot adjoining his father's resithe same is completed will move there and dirt, and it is claimed loaded it with from his present quarters in the Lyric almost two ounces of powder and a tight theatre building.

--- Among the eighty-one prisoners released on parole from the western penitentiary last Friday were thirteen from the Centre county institution. Each prisoner was given a new suit of clothes, hat, shoes and underwear, and ten dol. lars in cash.

vices of the Bellefonte Lodge fonte hospital where There will also be appropriate music. ago while taking part in some Thanks-The public is invited.

---On Thanksgiving day Richard Gunsallus butchered two hogs that dressed 850 lbs, and they rendered five cans of lard from them. With pork selling at 101 cents dressed it will be seen that Richard has laid up nearly $90.00 worth of meat for the winter.

Hill, at Liverpool, N. Y., and the little only about two months. Just how he and Mrs. Hamilton Otto.

- George Young, son of Andrew B. Young, foreman in the WATCHMAN office, developed a severe case of pneumonia the latter part of last week and on Monday was removed to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment. At noon yesterday his condition was reported as being decidedly improved.

----At Garman's tonight, the Norwood Stock company in "Dora Thorne." Tomorrow night that wonderful play, "At the Cavalry Post." Ladies and children should attend the matinee at 2.30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents. The company is well recommended wherever it has appeared.

--- The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church, will hold a food sale, consisting of everything in the baked line, and also have on hand aprons, quilts and fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents, December 13th, in Mrs. Aikens' vacant store room, Bellefonte, at which the patronage of the public is earnestly so-terrible manner. The young man is sur-

ing to one of the cars being a big six and burial was made at Aaronsburg. cylinder, seven passenger machine, the car would hold only two. The six cylinder car is for Larry Nugent, of Clarence, while there are several prospective buyers for the other two.

-Coming out of the Methodist church last Wednesday evening after attending the union Thanksgiving services, Mrs. James Harris dropped her money purse. A young girl was seen to pick it up who afterwards stated she had given it to the janitor. The janitor states that no purse was given him and if the girl who picked it up wants to avoid trouble she had better return the purse and BOY SLAIN WHILE HANDLING GUN .home on Thanksgiving day, in which the heart, dying instantly.

Mr. Blackford and his son Gilbert were other hunters. out hunting that day and LeRoy wanted to go along but was not allowed to do so because of the hard tramp. When the father and son returned in the evening the latter cleaned and oiled the guns and every afternoon and evening until fur- after plugging both ends of the barrels put them away in a closet in one of the bed rooms.

Tired out after a rather strenuous Thanksgiving holiday LeRoy went upstairs to bed shortly after eight o'clock. The other members of the family were downstairs when they heard a muffled re-

-Mrs. Augusta King, who came end of the barrel and inserted a cartridge dous his task will be. from Williamsport last week to visit her he had been carrying around for several brother, Dr. J. E. Ward, is seriously ill at days, then got on the bed and while en--Ten members of the Bellefonte muzzle of the barrel the gun evidently Social Elite Club (colored) celebrated slipped, the hammer struck the side of Thanksgiving with a coon and possum the bed exploding the cartridge. The of the shops in Bellefonte. The WATCH- exemplary young man. They will reside supper at the home of A. V. Jackson, on boy was a member of the Bethany Lutheran Sunday school and his tragic death was a shock to all his schoolmates as

In addition to his parents he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mary, Florence, Elizabeth, Blanche, Sidney, Grace and Gilbert. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon and was attended by Clyde Blackford and Mrs. Sidney Keefer, of Bellefonte.

YOUNG MAN HAD HAND BLOWN OFF.--Mr. Daniel Eberhart, of east High Curtin Dunklegerger, the nineteen-yearfor his age in Bellefonte, working every part of his left hand blown off by the bursting of an old musket on Thanksgiving morning. The young man took the gus, which had not been used for dence on east Howard street and when some years and was clogged with rust wad. He then went across the street from Noll's store to fire it off just to hear

It made noise enough but the gun exploded and tore off three fingers and the index finger down to the first joint, and the lower part of the hand almost back —Sunday afternoon the annual me- and he was then brought to the Belle- a full hour of entertainment and amuse-B P. O. of E. will be held in Petrikin was given proper surgical attention. hall. The address will be delivered by While he is now getting along all right Benjamin M. Nead Esq., of Harrisburg. he will be a cripple for life. Three years giving sports the same young man had his leg broken.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD .- Clyde Brower, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brower, of Dix Run, was the victim of a railroad accident in the neighborhood of Greensburg on Sunday night which resulted in his death in the Greensburg hospital on ---- A little baby girl recently arrived Tuesday evening. He was brakeman on in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Parks a freight train and had been on the road daughter has been christened Martha met his injury could not be learned out-Arrilla Hill. Mrs. Hill's maiden name side the fact that it was in a collision. It was Miss Mable Otto, a daughter of Mr. was at first reported that a broken leg was his worst injury, but it later developed that the leg was crushed and had to be amputated and his death was the result.

Deceased was about twenty-one years old and in addition to his parents is survived by eleven brothers and sisters, his remains were brought home Wednesday ver cemetery on Dix Run.

KILLED ON LUMBER JOB .- Claire C. Stricker the seventeen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Stricker, of Aaronsburg, met a horrible death last Friday while at work on the Whitmer-Steele lumbering operations near Morrisdale. He fell off of a twenty-ton steam log loader that was being operated by his father, who was switching some log cars at the Schoonover crossing. Before the machine could be stopped the young man had been dragged almost two hundred feet, mangling his body in a vived by his parents, three brothers and -George A. Beezer this week re- three sisters. The remains were taken ceived a car load of new 1914 Studebak- to Aaaonsburg on Saturday where the er automobiles. There were to have funeral was held in the United Evangelbeen three machines in the car but ow- ical church. Rev. W. J. Dice officiated

Samuel Shannon, the six year old son of bration of their forty-ninth wedding an-Barney Shannon, died at the Cottage hos- niversary. Tuesday night Mrs. W. Harpital, Philipsburg, last Thursday night, rison Walker gave a dinner at her home as the result of being shot in the leg. Only a few days previous he had been discharged from the Rush township home after a siege of typhoid fever. On Wed. dance in honor of her friends who were nesday he and the twelve year old son of home from school, and the same evening were out in the yard playing. Young Cartwright had a shot gun, and in carelessly handling it the weapon was dis- street. Monday evening Mrs. Bogle was charged. The contents hit the Shannon hostess at perhaps the most beautifully boy on the legs and in an effort to save his life one of the legs was amputated. thirty members of the Bellefonte Chap-

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Percy the Rebersburg hunting club, in camp week a wedding of interest to many Cen-Blackford, of New Castle, formerly of four miles east of Livonia, in the Brush tre countians was celebrated at the Bellefonte, will sympathize with them in valley Narrows, were totally destroyed Methodist parsonage in Hollidaysburg, the tragedy which was enacted in their by fire on Tuesday of last week. Every- the contracting parties being E. Paul their eleven year old son, Brooke LeRoy taining the belongings of Isaac Shawver, Noll, of Pleasant Gap. The ceremony Blackford was accidentally shot throught of Milheim, was also burned. The hunt- was performed by the pastor, Rev. G. F.

-The winter course in agriculture at State College began on Wednesday and will continue for ten weeks, or until February 29th, 1914. "Farmer's week" at the College will be December 29th to January 3rd inclusive. There is a large class in the winter course in agriculture and from the number of inquiries received daily the indications are for a large attendance at the "Farmers' week" exercises.

port. Realizing that something was enue collector, last week received orders wrong Mrs. Blackford went upstairs and from collector Hershey, of Scranton, to found her son lying backwards on the drop all other work and proceed at once bed, gasping. Her screams brought the to make up a list of all persons in his rest of the family and an examination district who will be liable for the new indisclosed the fact that the boy had been come tax. This information is to be obshot through the heart and was then tained in the best way possible and must be substantially accurate. Mr. Rees has He had evidently gotten the gun from six counties in his sub-district, and it is the closet, pulled the plug out of the butt not hard to figure out just how stupen-

> MAN has always advised its readers to in Altoona. buy at home, where you know the dealer, and, in this case, it advises the same course, because everything a child could want in the toy line is to be had here and at prices considerably under those quoted in the catalogues of city toy ceived a supply of Red Cross Christmas performed by Rev. George M. Glenn, asseals and announces to the public that sisted by Rev. W. H. Spangler. Mr. stores in Bellefonte. Inasmuch as the drug store in Philadelphia, and after a money derived from the sale of these short wedding trip the young couple will seals goes toward helping to stamp out take up their residence in Germantown. tuberculosis, the public is asked for a iberal patronage. In using the Red makes the package unmailable.

the Manger to the Cross" was a drawing at Beech Creek. card at the Scenic last night and hundreds were there to see it. But lots of other was bound up to stop the flow of blood For the small sum of five cents you get Lyric theatre building. ment, pictures put out by the recognized standard film companies at home and abroad. When you miss an evening you are liable to miss something good.

----Mrs. J. F. Mattern and Miss Grace Chisholm, of Altoona, spent the latter part of last week visiting friends in Penravalley. They started on their re-

'rip home Saturday afternoon but the Lewisburg and Tyrone train was late and when it reached Bellefonte the train west had gone. The ladies were short of money for their night's lodging but going to the Brockerhoff house Mrs. Matloaned them money enough to assure them proper accommodations. In the meantime Mr. Mattern had come down from Altoona to Tyrone to meet his wife ladies on Sunday morning.

being the first death in the family. The District court at Harrisburg yesterday and so good attention did he receive that was the bankruptcy case against W. H. it is not believed he will be in anyway day night and the funeral held yesterday Macker, of Bellefonte. Mr. Macker went disfigured. For the present heis with his afternoon, burial being made in the Sto- into voluntary bankruptcy in the fall of aunt, Mrs. M. R. Sample, in Philadel-1912, and at a hearing before the referee phia. he failed to declare certain moneys he had collected for apples shipped out of the county. At the time he was notified by the referee that if he failed to declare the same at an adjourned hearing he would be adjudged in contempt of court and would have to stand a hearing in the U. S. District court. The hearing yesterday was the result. N. B. Spangler Esq., represented the creditors and S. Kline Woodring Esq., represented Mr. Macker. Up to the hour of going to press last evening no word was received of the finding or decision of the court.

-At the party given by the Misses Weaver at their home on Howard street, there was the guest of Miss Ruth Farber. Saturday afternoon, from three until six o'clock, twelve guests were entertained and five hundred was in play. The same evening Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris en-DEATH ENSUES FROM SHOT IN LEG .- tertained a few of their friends, in celeing Miss Elizabeth Morris gave a house dance in honor of her friends who were William Cartwright, of Sandy Ridge, Miss Fitzgerald entertained a number of ever, he could not withstand the shock and his death ensued Thursday night.

ter of the D. A. R. were her guests at and his death ensued Thursday night.

their annual monthly meeting.

Derstine returned Friday to his work at the P. R. R. freight station, while Mrs. Derstine returned Friday to his work at the P. R. and his death ensued Thursday night.

--- The sleeping tent and cook tent of KELLER-NOLL.-On Wednesday of last thing they contained except a box con- Keller, of Altoona, and Miss Madeline K. ers believe the tent was set on fire by Boggs. The bride is a daughter of county commissioner and Mrs. Wm. H. Noll, of Pleasant Gap. She is a graduate of the Lock Haven Normal school and during the past eighteen months had been one of the clerks to the county commissioners. The bridegroom was formerly of Pleasant Gap but has been located in Altoona the past two years as bookkeeper in one of the offices of the Pennsylvania railroad company. Following Misses Nan and Mary Hoy and Mrs. Reynolds. their marriage the happy young couple came to Centre county and visited friends until this week when they went -G. Wash Rees, deputy internal rev- to Altoona where they will reside. The WATCHMAN extends congratulations.

SNOW-HAINES.-A quiet wedding was celebrated at the parsonage of the first Thanksgiving and a week-end visit at the home day afternoon of last week when Allen Bayard Snow, of that city, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Elizabeth Haines, of Bellefonte. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Marion J. -While none of the stores in ques- liam E. Haines, of this place, but for deavoring to get the plug out of the tion are advertising the fact we have some time past has been living in Albeen told that there is an unusually fine toona. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. assortment of Christmas toys at several and Mrs E. B. Snow, of that city and an Centre Hall.

HANCOCK-SHERIFF.-A wedding of some interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sheriff, at Chester Hill, on Wednesday evening of last week, when their daughter, Miss Edna Mae became the bride of Clyde Raymond Hancock, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Han---- Miss Helen E. C. Overton has re- cock, of Philipsburg The ceremony was

SEARLE-FARLEY .- A quiet wedding Cross seals always put them on the re. was celebrated at the Presbyterian verse side of a letter or package from the Manse on Tuesday morning, the conone bearing the address and stamp, tracting parties being Richard B. Searle, Placed on the same side as the stamp of Beech Creek, and Miss Maggie Farley. of Lock Haven. The ceremony was performed by Dr. G. E. Hawes. Mr. and -The big biblical picture, "From Mrs. Searle will make their future home

GORDON-PACKER-Benjamin T. Gorgood pictures are presented there eve. don and Miss Dorothy Packer, both of ning after evening every week, so that it Bellefonte, were quietly married on Satis not necessary to wait for a special urday of last week by justice of the peace to the wrist joint. The injured member feature to see something interesting. Henry D. Brown, at his office in the > foreign settlement up Buffalo Run, were tice of the peace Henry D. Brown.

> Mong-Breon.-On December 2nd. at Rev. S. C. Stover, Charles S. Mong, of Pine Grove Mills, and Miss Carrie C Breon, of State College,

BASKET SALE.—The special sale of Christmas baskets at China Hall, Belle- ing from Canada, where she had been for three fonte Pa, commences December 13th, All weeks with her brother, Charles Allison, at baskets will be sold at attractive prices. tern called up a friend in Bellefonte who This is an opportunity to purchase your Christmas presents. M. I. GARDNER. 58-48-2t

-Since the first of September Thomand when she failed to return on the as Crosthwaite, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bald Eagle train he took the night train Frank Crosthwaite, has been employed and came to Bellefonte and joined his by the Adams Express company in Philwife, returning to Altoona with both adelphia. Recently he was the victim of a collision in which his nose was broken and his face badly cut and lacerated. He -A hearing in the United States is just now able to get out of the hospital

-Col. H. S. Taylor is installing two new boilers at his steam heating plant, so as to be equipped to keep the town warm no difference how cold the weather may get this winter; a fact his many patrons will appreciate.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Robert Irwin returned to Bellefonte Wednesday, after visiting for a week with friends at Altoona. -Miss Hanna Newman, of Altoona, spent the week-end in Bellefonte, a guest of Ar. and Mrs.

Louis Grauer, of Linn street. -Miss Verna Dougherty, of Tyrone, visited at Benore the early part of last week, and while

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Richard have returned from a month's stay at Atlantic City and Philadelphia, and will spend the Christmas Bellefonte. -Mrs. Charles Pennington, of State Col with her children, were guests last week of Mrs. Pennington's mother, Mrs, Peter Smith, at her home on Bishop street. -Mrs. Harry Cox. of Franklin, and her small son Robert are expected in Bellefonte this week. and during their visit here will be guests of Mrs. Cox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sechler. -Mrs. Catherine Gault, of Bellefonte, and Mrs.

at Howard since Saturday, The main reason for this visit was butchering day at the home of both Mrs. Gaults sons, James and Henry Gault. -Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Derstine with their daughters Dorothy and Betty, went to Ambridge Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Derstine's mother, Mrs. E. B. Poorman. Mr. Derstine returned Friday to his work at the P. R. nbridge for a visit of two weeks.

-C. U. Hoffer, of Philipsburg, was in Bellefonte Tuesday, attending to some business -Miss Georgie Schnarrs, of New York city, visiting her father, D. W. Schnarrs, in this place. -James Fox, of Philadelphia, was home to spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Joseph Fox.

-Mrs. Jane Foster came down from Juniata last Saturday to visit her son, Samuel Foster and family. -Miss Freda Baum returned on Wednesday evening from a two weeks visit among friends in New York city. -F. S. Ammerman, of Fleming, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Saturday and a pleasant caller at this office. -After visiting for three months among relatives in Centre county Miss Clara Boalich left on Saturday for her home in Port Allegheny. -Albert Hoy came from New York last week, to spend the Thanksgiving with his sisters, the -Ogden Malin, who is employed in the P. R. R.

shops at Altoona, was in Bellefonte on visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Malin. -Mrs. Reuben Lucas, of Philipsburg, who visited friends in Bellefonte the latter part of last week, was a pleasant caller at this office on Fri-

-Frank Crissman came up from Sunbury for Lutheran church in Altoona, on Wednes- of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Homer Criss-

-Charles Gillen, of Pittsburgh. and Augustus Gillen, of Linden, were in Bellefonte for Thanksgiving and several days visit among their rela-

-Miss Catharine Snyder, of Altoona, arrived Kline, the ring service being used. The in Bellefonte last Friday and visited for several bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wil- days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael

-Mr. snd Mrs. William Magee, of Philadelphia. will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. at the apartments which they have taken for the Magee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, at

-Edgar Smith, who has been at Rock View with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Smith, since early in October, returned to his work at Pittsburgh Sunday. -Mrs. LeRoy Plomb, who has been in Belleonte the past three weeks visiting her mother, her home in Newton, Kan, today. spent Tranksgiving and until Saturday in Bellefonte with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cassidy. Mrs.

Paxson is a sister of Mr. Cassidy. came in from Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving day past year. and will visit for several weeks with her parents, the same will be on sale at most of the Hancock has a good situation in a large Mr. and Mrs. William Daley, of east Lamb street. -Zeph Underwood, of Wilmington, Ohio. came to Bellefonte on Saturday and spent Sunday and a part of the week at the home of his uncle, Mr. having come in owing to the illness of their Isaac Underwood and family, on Spring street. -Miss Alice Barnhart went out to Pittsburgh slowly recovering from a recent sickness. Wednesday evening of last week to spend Thanksgiving with her three brothsrs, and also

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilmore of Philadelphia, take in the State-Pitt game. She returned home Sunday evening.

Saturday where she remained over Sunday with her life, leaving with her parents when they her sister, Mrs. LeRoy Fox and family, and on went to make their home in Philadelph Monday proceded to Philadelphia to resume her position as a dressmaker.

-Miss Helen Stull, of Wyncote, is the guest of Mrs, Lewis Daggett. Miss Stull came to Bellefonte last week with Mrs. Daggett, upon her return from Wyncote, where she had been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Canfield.

-Lieut. William Marsh, in charge of the western division of the state constabulary with headquarters at Greensburg, was in Bellefonte last Friday night inspecting troop A., and found the members in fit shape for any emergency,

Ferris Toff, two young residents of the day, having come from Altoona where she had been attending the funeral of a relative. After the front ranks of everying that is going on and united in marriage on Thursday by jus- Mrs. Kurtzleft for her home at Overbrook at

-John G. Love Jr., was in Bellefonte with his mother, Mrs. John G. Love, for Thanksgiving, the Reformed parsonage, Boalsburg, by John, who is a student at Haverford, has been convelescing so rapidly from his serious illness of the fall, that he has resumed all of his college

-Miss Mabel Allison stopped in Bellefonte Wednesday for a short visit on her way to her home in Spring Mills. Miss Allison was return-

-Miss Mildred Grimm was the guest of Miss Lilly Smith, during her stay in Bellefonte the forepart of the week. Miss Grimm was returning to her home at Punxsutawnev for the winter fter having finished the season's work as a trim mer, in one of the leading millinery houses a

-Miss Catharine Cooney, a nurse in the state hospital at Hazelton, who underwent an operation for appendicitis, early in November, has come to Bellefonte and while recuperating her strength will be for the month of December at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin

-John Mechtley, one of the progressive and well-to-do farmers of Benner township, was in Bellefonte on Monday and dropped one of the long Williams in our till to help us tide over the Holidays. Mr. Mechtley has our sincere thanks for his prompt response to the little item in last week's paper and there are a number of others who we would like to thank in the same way if they only give us the opportunity.

-Calvin Smith, a student at Bucknell University, came home Thanksgiving morning to eat his Thanksgiving dinner with his father, Register J. Frank Smith and family, and remaine til Monday morning. He was accompanied by four classmates, who also had their Thanksgiving dinner at the Smith home, witnessed the Belle-fonte High school-Bucknell Freshmen football game and returned home Friday afternoon.

-Ceorge T. Brew and his daughter Janet rame to Bellefonte Thanksgiving day, remaining with Mr. Brew's sister, Mrs. Harry E. Fenlon until Wednesday of this week. Mr. Brew and Janet left Ronceverte two weeks ago, and after spending a short time in Washington, have visited with William T. Brew in New York, Harry Brew in Philadelphia, Mrs. Fenlon and left here for Lansford, where they will be guests of Tom Brew until Saturday.

-After spending Thanksgiving in Huntingdor with Mrs. McClure's parents Harvey McClure came to Bellefonte on Friday to visit his parents Mr. and Mrs. James I. McClure. Mrs. McClure came to Bellefonte on Saturday and they both ined until Sunday when they left for their home in Oil City, where Mr. McClure has been made manager of the Citizen's Traction company, which operates a trolley line between Oil City and Franklin and furnishes all the electric light and power used in the two cities.

-Two very pleasant callers at the WATCHMAN office on Monday afternoon were J. A. Eberts, of Martha, and David Behrers, of Halfmoon valley, Mr Eberts retired from farming last spring and is taking life a little easier in his declining years while his son, O. D. Eberts is managing the farm. Mr. Behrers has not yet reached the age of retirement but he is making good money on his own farm west of Stormstown and it will be only a question of a few years until he can take

-Gotlieb Haag, returned to his work at Renovo, Monday, after spending the Thanksgiving at his home in Bellefonte.

-Mrs, W. E. Seel returned to Paxtang Thurs' day, after a short visit in Bellefonte with her mother, Mrs. Martin Fauble.

-Miss Alice Robb went to State College Wednesday, where she visited for two days with her son, Nelson Robb and his family. -Miss Bella Confer is at her home in Bellefonte, after a visit of ten days with friends at

State College and Pine Grove Mills. -Miss Graham, the instructor in stenography n the Bellefonte High school, was at her hor in Harrisburg for the Thanksgiving vacation. -Mrs. Alexander G. Morris and her daughter, Miss Morris, went to Tyrone Thursday, an will spend the remainder of the week with Mr.

-Paul Parker and Kandolph Johnson, both of Jersey Shore, were week-end guests of Mrs. Parker and her daughter, Mrs. Galer Morrison, at their home on Bishop street and Mrs. Joseph Cass.

-Mrs. James Curtin, of Curtin, was in Bellefonte Tuesday, on her way to Johnstown, to spend several days attending the evangelistic services conducted by "Billy" Sunday

-Mrs William H. Page is at Williamsport, where she will visit for several weeks with her sisters. Mrs. Page left Bellefonte Wednesday and expects to return before Christmas.

-Miss Kate Sanderson of Mill Hall, has been in Bellefonte for several weeks, a guest at the home of Mrs. George L. Potter. Miss Sanderson will be Mrs. Potter's guest until after Christmas.

-After spending a month or more with her sister, Mrs. George F. Harris, and her many friends in Bellefonte, Mrs. Burnet left Monday for Philadelphia to visit with her brother, William Wilson Curtin.

-Mrs. Edward P. Irvin, who is among those to be entertained by Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Callaway, winter at Atlantic City, will leave Bellefonte Tuesday of next week, expecting to spend a week at the shore

-Mrs. A. B. Steele will go to Williamspor Sunday, where she will remain for a week in order that Dr. Haskins may continue the treatment of hereyes, which have been in a serious condition for several years. Mrs. Steele is Mrs. Henry Fox, on Bishop street, will leave for threatened with total blindness

-Milton H Willard, who will sail on the 6th -Mr. and Mrs. Park Paxson, of Canton, Ohio, of December for the Canal Zone to accept a position with the Panama R. R. Co., is spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Willard. Mr. Willard goes to join his brother, who -Mrs. Walter Fulton with her little son Joseph lhas been in the employe of this company for the

-Miss Emma Montgomery, who has been at Aspinwall with her sister, Mrs. C. J. McHugh, returned to Bellefonte Saturday. Miss Montgomery was accompanied by Mrs. McHugh, both mother, Mrs. W. W. Montgomery, who is now

-Miss Bess Gilmore the youngest daughter of came to Bellefonte Monday and will spend two weeks with her relatives and many friends. -Miss Celia Haupt went to Lock Haven on Miss Gilmore lived here all the earlier part of

-Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, who went to Atlantic City Monday, summoned there on account of the serious illness of his uncle, Dr. Thomas R. Hayes, returned to Bellefonte Wednesday night. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes are at Atlantic City for the winter, hoping the sea air may be of benefit to the Doctor's health, which had improved since his going there a month ago.

-D. R. Thomas, of Snow Shoe, was in town on some business or other Monday and when on his way to the station to catch the evening train lead off the dollar shower we are hoping for about December 20th. Mr. Thomas is usually in so far as the WATCHMAN's business with him is concerned it would like to have many more

-Joseph M. Snyder, of the class of 1912, State, is in Bellefonte, having come from Alabama where he has been employed by the government in the soil survey work during the past year. Mr. nyder joined his sister, Miss Cathorine Snyder, for a visit with their mother, sisters and brother, Mrs. Shields, Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Hazel, expecting to go to their home at Altoona for Christmas. Upon returning South, Mr. Snyder's work will be in North Carolina.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer The prices quoted are those paid for produced	75 85 40 12 35
Bellefonte Grain Markets.
Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER.  The following are the quotations up to six o'c Thursday evening, when our paper goes to pi	lock ress.
NewWheat	90
Old Wheat	90
	70
Corn, shelled, per bushel	60
Corn, ears, per bushel	60
Oats, old and new, per bushel	60
	00

The following are the closing The Best Advertising Medium in Centra

Pennsylvania. A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and cour age to express, its own views, printed in eight page form—six columns to page—and is reactively every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year.... Paid after expiration of year....

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county is paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions so not not until all arrearages are settled, pt at the option of the publisher. ADVERTISING CHARGES A limited amount of advertising spa ld at the following rates:

LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising runn First insertion, per line. Each additional insertion

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS. Per inch, each insertion......25 cts. The following discounts will be allowed on ad Four weeks, and under three mos...10 per ct. Three mos. and under six mos.....15 per ct. Six mos. and under 12 mos.......25 per ct.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents re respectfully informed that no notice will be are respectfully informed taken of orders to insert advertisements a taken of orders to insert advertisements a taken of orders to insert advertisements a taken of orders to the publisher