Attack Tampico

Huerta Officials Advise Him to Arbitrate With Rebels and Ask Carranza to Be Candidate For President.

The attack on Tampico, Mex., began on Tuesday. The rebels were advancing on the city from various points. The United States battleship Louisiana has been ordered to Tampico.

A messenger from General Villareal, the rebel commander, reached the American consulate in Tampico, with the information that 4000 rebels, commanded by Generals Villareal and Castro, were approaching the city. The rebel advance guard, it was said, was at Laguna Puerite, nine miles from Tampico.

General Villareal declared his intention of assaulting the city with the least possible delay. He said he had given his followers strict orders to refrain as far as possible from the destruction of porperty and to protect the lives of foreigners, but he feared they would be gravely imperilled in the attack on the city and the consequent fighting in the streets. For this reason he earnestly requested the American authorities to take immediate steps to remove all foreign residents from the place.

Up to the time of the dispatch of Consul Miller's advices no definite action had been taken on this request, but Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher, commander of the United States fleet, had made preparations to take all the foreigners on board his vessels at a moment's notice and to land marines if it appeared advisable.

It is understood that the captain of the German cruiser Bremen conferred with Rear Admiral Fletcher on the question of landing marines and courteously assured the American admiral that he would act in harmony with his desires.

Huerta May Sue For Peace. For the first time since the present revolution in Mexico began a definite move is now under way by the Huerta officials in Mexico City seeking to arbitrate with the rebels. Authentic reports to this effect, taken in connection with the imminent chance of a bloody attack on Tampico, and the overwhelming strength of the rebels throughout the north, indicate clearly a panic on the part of the government. Huerta and his aides, up to this time, have steadfastly maintained that they would under no circumstances treat with the rebels in any other way than they would with outlaws to be summarily executed when caught. Tentative efforts were made by the conservative element in the Mexican government to induce Provisional President Huerta to ascertain if General Venustiano Carranza would be willing to cease fighting for the purpose of holding an election, at which the Constitutional leader would be a candidate for the presidency of the republic, or would name his choice for BILLY SUNDAY IN PITTSBURGH.—The Rev. "Bil ly" Sunday will stir up Pittsburgh with a revival beginning December 28 and lasting seven weeks, possibly longer. Practically all of the Evangelical churches have united for the event and the work of preparation is under way. Already "Billy Sunday" is in the air. The revival spirit is manifest everywhere. Nothing else has so aroused the people, whether they approve the evange ist's methods or not. They want to know all about him and what he does. For miles around there is the same demand. The Pittsburgh Gazette Times, which is devoting more space than any other paper to Sunday and his work, is feeling results in increased circulation. So much so that it realizes the "Billy" Sunday revival is to had charge of the shipping of caskets. be the big news event of the winter.
