DUCK. - At 10.40 o'clock on Sunday evening, Michael B. Duck, a well known resident of Spring Mills, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wilbur E. Burkholder, on north Thomas street, Bellefonte. About ten years ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he never fully recovered although he was able to be around. During the past year hardening of the arteries developed and of late he had become very feeble. Last week Mrs. Burkholder went to Spring Mills, where he was making his home with his daughter, and brought him to Bellefonte, but the change did no good and he died on Sunday evening.

Deceased was a native of Centre county and was born on September 29th, 1836, hence was 78 years, 3 months and 12 days old. When a young man he en-Tyrone, appeared in last Friday's Tyrone gaged in farming in Potter township and followed that occupation all his life until ten years ago when he retired and moved to Spring Mills. IT COULDN'T BE DONE.

BY AN UNIDENTIFIED AUTHOR

Somebody said that it couldn't be done, But he, with a chuckle, replied That "maybe it couldn't" but he would be one Who wouldn't say so till he tried. So he buckled right in, with a trace of a grin On his face. If he worried, he hid it, He started to sing as he tackled the thing That couldn't be done, and he did it !

Somebody scoffed : "Oh, you'll never do that, At least no one ever has done it ;" But he took off his coat and he took off his hat, And the first thing we knew he'd begun it; With the lift of his chin, and a bit of a grin Without any doubting or quibbling ; He started to sing as he tackled the thing That couldn't be done, and he did it !

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done, There are thousands to prophesy failure; There are thousands to point out to you, one by one, The dangers that wait to assail you; But just buckle in with a bit of a grin, Then take off your coat and go to it; Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing That "cannot be done" and you'll do it !
