Democratic Watchman.
Bellefonte, Pa., January	30,	1914.
P. GRAY MEEK,	lane.	EDITOR
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until this paper will be furnished to sub following rates :		bers at the
Paid strictly in advance -		$1.50
Paid before expiration of year	•	1.75

Rev. Mr. Hewitt and the Congressional Nomination.

which he was a part.

had been placed in the position of being packingless spigot which he called the general. put forward for the place as the candi- manufacturing his spigots, and he was community in which he lived. date of a faction or of those working to 'meeting with fair success.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

wedding announcement is that of Wil- gret among his many friends. Mr. Funeral services were held at his late in Altoona, on Tuesday evening, after an bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. latter was visiting friends in Bellefonte tery. Elmer G. Heverly, of Duncansville, and a when notified of her father's death on grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wednesday. Mr. Lingle also leaves two bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bellefonte.

LINGLE.-The announcement of the THOMAS.-The death of William B. CARSON.-Following an illness of two State College Trustees Hold Meeting. With the Churches of the sudden death of J. Howard Lingle, at his Thomas, at his home at Milesburg last weeks with hardening of the arteries, home in DuBois on Wednesday morning, Friday morning, was quite a shock to his heart affection and bronchial trouble, was a stunning blow to his many friends many friends in Bellefonte. He was at Mrs. Margaret Armstrong Carson, died in Bellefonte. Only about a month ago his desk in the Pennsylvania railroad at her home in Bush Addition between Harrisburg on Tuesday at which Goverhe was here attending the funeral of his freight office in this place all day on five and six o'clock on Monday morning. nor Tener presided, President Sparks sister, Mrs. W. W. Montgomery, and at Thursday without a complaint of any ill- Though her condition had been regarded submitted a report showing that the tothat time he was looking unusually well. ness. Friday morning he got up about as serious it was not considered critical On Tuesday evening of this week he suf- five o'clock as usual but had been up up until near the end, so that her death dred and twenty-five of whom reside outfered a slight attack of indigestion but only a few minutes when he became ill was a great shock to her relatives and side the State. The attendance has douby Wednesday morning felt fairly well and summoning his daughter went back friends. and went to work as usual, in a foundry to bed. Miss Thomas at once sent for a Deceased was a daughter of William he was operating at that place. Between physician, but by the time he arrived her and Susanne Armstrong and was born in laboratory space. Since six buildings proten and eleven o'clock he suffered anoth- father was past all aid and he expired a Mifflin county on May 3rd, 1847, at her vided by the last session of the Legislaer attack of indigestion and died before few minutes later. medical aid could be summoned

Some one possibly thinking it would be Joseph Howard Lingle was a son of Mary A. Thomas and was born in the vi- the place of her birth and on October experimenters and extension workers is a good political movement, more prob- Joseph and Elizabeth Lingle and was cinity of Unionville on September 22nd, 20th, 1864, she was united in marriage to over one hundred. ably a some one who hoped it would cause born at Howard almost sixty-four years 1847, hence at his death was 66 years, 4 James S. Carson, a young farmer of Pothim to be looked upon as the political ago. His boyhood days were spent at months and 1 day old. A portion of his ter township. Many years of their marspokesman for the Democracy of the that place and when a young man boyhood days were spent in the neigh- ried life were spent on the farm, in Pot- Commonwealth. A sum of money has county, has taken the authority of plac- he came to Bellefonte to learn borhood of Barree, Huntingdon county, ter township and later on the Burn- been received from the State Federation ing the Rev. JOHN HEWITT of this place the foundry business with Todd & but when the Bald Eagle Valley railroad side farm east of Bellefonte. About of Woman's Clubs for maintaining three in the position of being a candidate for Duncan. He remained there when the was opened for traffic on April 1st, 1865, eight years ago they retired from farm-another sum from the Daughters of the the nomination for Congress, upon firm was changed to William P. Duncan he returned to Milesburg and went to ing and have since lived in Bush's Addi- American Revolution of Pennsylvania the Democratic ticket of this district. & Co., and when Mr. Duncan retired Mr. work on same as a track hand. On No- tion. Mrs. Carson was a member of the for supporting a scholarship for a girl in That Mr. HEWITT would make an excep- Lingle became associated with the late vember 2nd, 1870, he was transferred to Methodist church for fifty years or long- the Liberal Arts course. tionally strong candidate, and if elected, William R. Jenkins and conducted the Bellefonte and given a position in the er and was the kind of woman who lived asked to name his religious preference, a representative that not only the people foundry under the firm name of Jenkins station here. During the many years he the religion she preached to others. She and, if he wishes, may affiliate with a vilwho elected him, but those of the State & Lingle. At that time the foundry was worked for the company he filled various was an exemplary wife and mother and lage church instead of attending the reand the entire country as well, would located near the Crider planing mill. positions, such as baggage agent, ticket a kind and generous neighbor. She will quired daily chapel services of the Colhave reason to feel proud of, goes with- Later they moved to the old car shops seller, chief clerk in the freight depart- be missed not only by her family, but by lege. Church organizations with pastors are supported at the College by the folout saying among all enjoying his ac- and when Mr. Jenkins retired Mr. Lin- ment, etc., but his chief duty of late was the community at large. quaintance. His high attainments, his gle continued the business under the firm receiving the money on freight bills. He Surviving her are her husband and the odist, Presbyterian, Reformed and Ro dignity, his personal integrity and his de- name of the Lingle Foundry and Machine was the oldest employee of the Pennsyl- following children: William A., of man Catholic. Omitting the special stuvotion to everything that is Democratic company. For a number of years he did vania railroad company in this place in Spring Mills; Mrs. John Corman, of Cur-the College this year in the four-year and everything that is right, would make a big business, supplying large orders of point of service, having served almost tin; J. Clark, of Bellefonte, Mrs. Benja- courses. Of these only 88, or 4 per cent. him the model nominee in Pennsylvania castings to the Pennsylvania railroad forty-nine years, and in all that time he min Aikey, of Milesburg; Mrs. Harry stated no religious affiliation. No perand add strength to the entire ticket of company, but hard times sweeping over never missed a single pay. His fidelity Lyon, of Lyontown; Mrs. John Spearley, suasion was used and each student was the country seriously affected his busi-to his employer was fully equalled by his Mrs. Bliss Aikey, Mrs. Oscar Zimmer-he chose. The distribution of choice Immediately after ascertaining that he ness. A few years ago he invented a courteous treatment of the public in man and Mrs. Walter Armstrong, all of among the denominations is shown in a candidate for the place, Mr. HEWITT Nopack and enough of them were manu- Mr. Thomas was a life-long member member of her father's family. called up this office to assure us that it factured here to show their general of the Presbyterian church and on No- Funeral services were held at her late was a movement without his knowledge, utility. When Mr. Lingle gave up the vember 26th, 1871, he was ordained an home in Bush's Addition at two o'clock Christian Scient his desire or his consent-and that while foundry here several years ago he went elder of the church at Milesburg, serving yesterday afternoon. In the absence of he could not consider the honor, even if to Philadelphia but later located in Du- in that capacity until his death. He was her regular pastor, Rev. E. H. Yocum, it were the general wish of the Bois and became president and general active in all kinds of church work and Rev. B. A. Salter, of West Clearfield, ofparty, that he do so, under no circum- manager of the Nopack Spigot company, always took a deep interest in the spirit- ficiated and burial was made in the stances would he permit himself to be a company organized for the purpose of ual, moral and physical welfare of the Union cemetery. The pall bearers were keep alive factional divisions or seeking When a young man Mr. Lingle became marriage to Miss Sarah J. Zimmerman, Miller and John Dunlap. Six grand-sons to prevent harmony within the party a member of the Disciple church but dur- who died on May 15th, 1912. Surviving acted as honorary pall bearers. ing his residence in Bellefonte he attend- him, however, are three children, Charles ed St. John's Episcopal church. He was a W. Thomas, of Altoona; Miss Henrietta genial, wholesouled gentleman and his C., at home, and Ralph D., of Wilkins-PARKER-HEVERLY.-A rather belated death at this time is a source of deep re- burg. He leaves no brothers nor sisters. home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Pierce, liam Parker Jr., and Miss Marie E. Hev- Lingle was married to Miss Mary Brow- home at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning. illness of many weeks with heart trouble No preference indicated erly, both of Duncansville, Blair county, er, of Bloomsburg, who survives with Rev. George E. Hawes officiated and was and dropsy. their marriage having taken place in three children: Harold B., Raymond assisted by Revs. Ash and Clark. Burial Deceased was a daughter of Samuel H. Philadelphia on July 2nd, 1913. The and Miss Marion, all of DuBois. The was made in the Bellefonte Union ceme- and Catharine Stover, and was born at ROBB.-Frederick Robb, one of the old- On February 16th, 1854, she was united enterprise-new or old-but the big glass Heverly, of Bellefonte. During the past brothers and one sister, namely: Hon. est and best known residents of Howard, in marriage to Jonathan Musser at Rock plant that was have to been erected in county capital and other points eastward. year or so she has been head nurse in W. C. Lingle, of Philipsburg; Frank I., of died on Thursday evening of last week Springs, Pa., and practically all of their Bellefonte is such recent history that it the hospital of therapeutics in Erie. The Patton, and Mrs. Edwin F. Garman, of of diseases incident to his advanced age. married life was spent on a farm in Fer- is hard to accept such propositions at any fonte, when Harry was stocking up for house-Deceased was past eighty years of age guson township. Mr. Musser died twen- other than their face value; hence when William Parker, of Duncansville, is a The remains will be brought to Belle- and, though born in the eastern part of ty-two years ago but surviving the de- the news reached Bellefonte that Philgraduate of State College 1913, and is fonte on the 1.07 train this (Friday) aft- the State, he located in Bald Eagle valnow a special apprentice for the Pennsyl- ernoon and taken to the home of Mr. ley when a young man, being the last of Mrs. Alice Weaver, S. J. Musser, F. S. announcement was taken simply for what profession at Milton the past four years, has acand Mrs. Edwin F. Garman, on High the pioneer Germans who settled on land Musser, G. H. Musser, Mrs. Myra Krebs, it is worth and no more. But because cepted a government position in Pittsburgh to street where they can be viewed by any- in that section and by their thrift and Mrs. Carrie Fortney and Mrs. Cora L. of the fact that one well known Belle-GUISEWHITE-ANDROSKY.-Word has been one desiring to do so. The funeral serv- energy developed some of the most fer. Pierce, all of Altoona; L. N. Musser, of fonter is interested in the project we received in Bellefonte of the marriage in ices will be held in the Episcopal church tile farms in the valley. Mr. Robb man- Kansas City, Mo.; R. C., of Pittsburgh, give the particulars as published in Spangler, on Monday of this week, of at ten o'clock tomorrow morning. Rev. aged his farm until about five years ago and Mrs. Mary G. Detwiler, of Verona. Tuesday's daily Journal: Joseph Guisewhite and Miss Anna An- Hewitt will officiate and burial will be when he retired and moved to How- One son died a number of years ago. A representative of the Mercantile & ard. He was a member of the Reformed She also leaves three sisters, namely: Realty Co., of Pittsburgh, called on us church all his life and a man who had Mrs. George Kaup, of Boalsburg; Mrs. yesterday and informed us that this cor-poration, having taken options on the 1 1 the confidence and respect of all who Henry Gingerich, of Linden Hall, and large body of glass sand up Tom Tit run, knew him. Mrs. Robb died a number of years ago, but surviving the deceased are two sons about two months ago. Deceased was a all of them experienced in glass making, and two daughters, namely: H. P. Robb, of Lock Haven; S. M. Robb, prin- good, christian woman. cipal of the public schools at Eldred; Mrs. W. F. Hall, of Howard, and Miss Emma at home. Funeral services were held in the Howard Reformed church at one o'clock on Sunday afternoon, after Deceased was born in Wurtemberg, which the remains were taken to Romola for interment.

1

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of The Pennsylvania State College held in the Senate caucus room at tal number of students at the College this year is more than 2,800, only two hunbled in four years. Over two hundred students were refused admission last September for lack of classroom and death being 66 years, 8 months and 23 ture are under construction, it is hoped Deceased was a son of John B. and days old. Her girlhood was spent near next year. The number of instructors, The Summer session was attended by nearly six hundred teachers of the State and represents another benefit to the

eek Catholic

Brethren

theran

ravian.

Total.

lowing: Episcopalian, Lutheran, Meth-

at liberty to fill out the blank or not as Bellefonte. She was the last surviving he following table: Baptist.

> Brethien Church of God

Messrs. Frank Hazel, Henry Rider, Soloresbyteriar On April 22nd, 1880, he was united in mon Poorman, Charles Heisler, David rogressive Brethre rotestant Episcopa eformed Roman Catholic...

the last

ciety of Friends. vedenborgan..... MUSSER.-Mrs. Matilda Musser, widow nitarian nited Evangelical. Inited Presbyteriar of the late Jonathan Musser, died at the

1 montan

Aaronsburg on August 7th, 1834, hence FACTORY.-The WATCHMAN does not was 79 years, 5 months and 20 days old. like to throw cold water on any business ipsburg is to have a big glass factory the ased are the following children:

County. Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 91 E. High street.

Thursday morning the Rev. Dr. Schmidt left for Washington, D C., where he will remain until early next week. The services next Sunday in the Reformed church will be in charge of the Rev. Dr. Beach, of the Bellefonte Academy.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

A. C. Kepler is sporting a bran new sleigh. Services in the Presbyterian church Sunday at 0.30 a.m.

Oscar Smith, who has been ill the past month, s now recovering. Mrs. Sadie Heberling is recovering from a stroke of paralysis.

Miss Hattie Kaup has been nursing a very sore foot the past month.

Earl Houck enjoyed the sleighing and spent Sunday with friends at Dungarvin.

The veteran drover, Wilson Cummings, was here last week in quest of fresh cows. J. Milo Campbell killed the champion porker

Monday. It tipped the beam at 680 pound

Farmer Samuel Everhart spent last week mixing business and pleasure in and about Bellwood. Mrs. C. M. Dale and daughter Virginia were Fairbrook visitors in the early part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Shuey, of College township spent Wednesday at the Glenn home west of Harry Stewart, of Sandy Ridge, was greeting old chums at Boalsburg, the home of his youth, on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. C. Ross has been a sick woman for the past three weeks, but now is much improved and able to sit up.

Wm. Johnstonbaugh, one of Patton township's farmers, spent Wednesday at the W. C. Collins home on Main street.

Sheriff A. B. Lee was in town Wednesday between trains on official business and did not forget to talk a little politics.

Mrs. Elsie Peters Meyers was a welcome visitor at her mother's, Mrs. Samuel Peters, on east Main street, Wednesday.

The newly elected supervisors organized by electing G. E. Corl, president; F. W. Swabb, secretary, and A. G. Archey, treasurer.

Mrs. Amanda Fisher, who has been ill with oneumonia, is now much better. All of her children were at her bedside last week until the critical point had passed.

Dr. Geo. Kaup, who is not as rugged as he was one time, has been housed up with a bad cold, but is now better and hopes to be able to attend to his practice in the near future.

2033

2121

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mothersbaugh are mourning the death of their first born, a little son who died at the age of two days and was buried last Friday in the Boalsburg cemetery.

The first train to town in many weeks came in on Monday morning, when quite a number of passengers were in waiting for a trip to the

Harry Sunday and wife spent Monday in Bellekeeping while Mrs. Sunday spent most of her time at the hospital with her sister, Mrs. Maude Harpster, who is recovering from a serious operation

vania railroad company in Altoona.

drosky of Cherrytree. The bridegroom is a made in the Union cemetery. son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Guisewhite, of this place, and is quite well known in Bellefonte. He has been located in Cherrytree for several years and it is there the young couple will go to housekeeping.

KELLER-MCCOY.-A quiet wedding at daughter in that city and on Sunday Keller, of Houserville, and Miss Catha-Charles McCov, of this place. The marriage service was performed by Rev. Father McArdle.

WATKINS-DAUGHENBAUGH.- Tuesday evening at the Reformed parsonage. Mr. Claude W. Watkins, of Curtin, and Miss Mabel S. Daughenbaugh, of Howard, were married by the Rev. Ambrose M. 1861 he enlisted as a member of Compa-Schmidt. The young couple left the ny G, 148th regiment, P. V., and served same evening for a brief wedding trip.

lin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur L. Ma- idence at Boalsburg where he lived until lin, and Miss Helen Josephine Hurley, the death of his wife in 1906 since which daughter of ex-sheriff and Mrs. W. E. time he made his home among his chil-Hurley, both of this place, were married dren. He was a member of the Methoin Cumberland, Md., on Wednesday, No- dist church and an estimable citizen in vember 5th, 1913.

LEITZEL-TAYLOR. -- On Saturday of last week Daniel Leitzel, of Port Matilda, and Miss Blanche E. Taylor, of Philipsburg, went to Hollidaysburg where they were united in marriage by justice of the peace Thomas J. Hemphill.

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN

Bellefonte during the past week include held the same afternoon at three o'clock. the Misses Mary and Blanche Under- Rev. W. K. Harnish officiated and burial wood, who entertained Saturday night was made in the Boalsburg cemetery. with a supper for which twelve covers were laid; five hundred followed the supper. T. A. Shoemaker's dinner for men Tuesdag night, twenty covers being laid. Mrs. H. C. Quigley's tea Wednesday afterncon in compliment to her house guest, Mrs. Horne, of Yonkers, N.Y. Miss Anne Lyon's dinner Wednesday evening. Mrs. Wm. Zeller's anniversary party, celebrating the fortieth anniversary of her marriage. Two evening parties given by Miss Daisy Barnes Tuesday and Thursday, when her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Barnes, was the honor guest. Mrs. James C. Furst's tea Thursday afternoon, which was given for her sisters, the Misses Harrar, of Williamsport.

----Have your Job Work done here.

KNOPFF.-Anthony Knopff, an aged and well known resident of Centre county, dropped dead on the streets of Pittsburgh on Sunday. For some time past he had been making his home with his the parochial residence of the Catholic morning he started out to make a call. church, last evening, was that of Frank He had not proceeded far when he fell to the pavement and expired almost inrine McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. stantly. Death was due to heart failure.

Germany, about eighty-two years ago. When twenty years of age he came to the United States and located in Philadelphia. In 1856 he came to Centre county and took up his residence at Linden Hall. When the war broke out in throughout the war, being wounded in the foot at the battle of Petersburg. Re-MALIN-HURLEY .- Ogden Bailey Ma- turning from the war he took up his res-every way.

Surviving him are the following sons and daughters: Mrs. James Barton, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Anna McEwen, Altoona; Mrs. Kate Irvin, Snow Shoe; Samuel, Albert and William, of Lemont; Mrs. Mary Wagner, of Altoona; Mrs. John Corrigan, of California, and Anthony, of Pittsburgh. The remains were brought to Centre county and taken to -----Those who have entertained in Boalsburg on Tuesday, the funeral being

> 1 1 HAMLIN. - Mrs. Mary Ann Hamlin, at ten o'clock on Monday morning by wife of Isaac Hamlin, died at her home Revs. E. H. Yocum and C. C. Shuey, after Had she lived ten days longer she would Trcziyulny cemetery for interment. have been seventy-nine years old. Deceased was a daughter of George B. and > went west in the early sixties. Two fifty-nine years old and was a foster son deceased, namely: George W. Rum- county. In addition to the latter he is berger, of Unionville; T. C. Rumberger, survived by his wife and one daughter.

bens, of Benner township,

CHRONISTER.-On Wednesday of last week Mrs. Miriam Chronister, wife of Jacob Chronister, died at her home at the Cross Roads, Huntingdon county, after a brief illness, aged sixty-five years. Up until about a year ago the family lived following children: Mrs. Mary Root, of Wilmerding; Cyrus and Lawrence Chron- the more than fifty years of his service ister, of Huntingdon Furnace; Edgar, of Spruce Creek, and Walter, of Tyrone. and sisters. The funeral was held on tenth that has occurred among the active Saturday burial being made in the Luth- and superannuated members of confereran church cemetery at Centre Line.

KELLERMAN.-Mrs. Tillie Kellerman, wife of Raymond C. Kellerman, died last Friday evening after an illness of some weeks with heart trouble and dropsy. days and in addition to her husband leaves one son, Austin. She also leaves her mother and step-father. Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Barner, and the following brothers and sisters: Mabel, Harry, Ida, Charles and George, all at home. Fun-which he was pastor for three years. eral services were held at her late home in Kansas City, Mo., on January 14th. which the remains were taken to the company, died at the Williamsport hos-

KILLED ON RAILROAD. - William H. Catharine Rumberger and was born at Richards, of Wilkinsburg, was struck by Gatesburg. In 1852 she was married to a fast train near East Liberty last Sat-Isaac Hamlin, who survives at the age of urday evening, and instantly killed. He ninety-two years. She also leaves three was employed by Casey & Co., putting in sons and three daughters. The family grade crossings. Deceased was about revenue collector under the late Grant brothers and one sister also survive the of Mrs. Barbara Rider, of Gatesburg, this Legislature from Lycoming county but being installed in the Bellefonte postof-of Chester Hill, and Mrs. Sarah C. Tib- Burial was made at Neff's Mills, Huntingdon county, on Wednesday morning. house.

member of the Lutheran church and a have already been secured.

MILLER-On Sunday, January 4th, Rev. now engaged in clearing the same Capt. Philip F. Garbrick, of Bellefonte, A. R. Miller, pastor of the Beaver Me- and W. A. Morris, of Waynesburg, are morial church at Lewisburg, fell down a in charge of the work. day evening of last week.

Deceased was born at Three Springs, clay and large bodies of coal. public schools of that locality. In 1858 he entered Allegheny College at Mead- that the above corporation already Methodist ministry at York, and during abundance. for the Lord he filled numerous ap-Stewards and Committee on necessitous ler was in the jewelry business.

MONTGOMERY. - William S. Montgomery, president of the Muncy Banking pital last Thursday morning after a long fonte in charge of Mrs. E. C. Tuten and illness. He was sixty-six years of age Mrs. Charles Noll, will move the beginand was born at Boalsburg, Centre coun- ning of next week from the room on ty. In politics he was a Democrat and High street belonging to the Y. M. C. A. always took a deep interest in party af- to Petrikin hall. The exchange will be fairs. During the second Cleveland administration he was appointed deputy in their new room in Petrikin hall. Herring. In 1908 he was elected to the declined a re-election.

PHILIPSBURGERS EXPECT BIG GLASS

Mrs. J. J. Garbrick, of Bellefonte. One proposes building a 24-blower tank winbrother, Frank B. Stover, died in Altoona brother, Frank B. Stover, died in Altoona which will employ 120 men. These men,

The plant will be located on grounds The funeral will take place from her between Cold Stream and the Tyrone pike, about one and a half miles southlate home at two o'clock this afternoon, east of Philipsburg, where the company burial to be made in Rose Hill cemetery. has completed a plot for the establishing of a suburban town, and were men are flight of stairs and sustained injuries which resulted in his death on Wednes which resulted in his death on Wednes- includes inexhaustible quantities of the very finest glass sand, in addition to fire

Huntingdon county, and educated in the in this territory in the manufacturing of glass and fire brick. We are informed at Centre Line, this county. In addition ville, where he was graduated in 1862. other manufacturers interested, and will to her husband she is survived by the In March, 1863, he was admitted to the seek to encourage them to come here where the raw material exists in such

A VERY OLD CLOCK .- The following pointments in the Central Pennsylvania interesting item is from the Lewistown She also leaves a number of brothers M. E. conference. His death is the correspondence in the Altoona Tribune: B. F. Sheibly, a local optician, is in possession of a clock said by eminent jewelers to contain the finest workmanence during the past year. Rev. Miller ship it has ever been their good fortune was unusually successful as an evangel- to see. The clock was made by Jacob ist. For twenty-six years he served as Heller, of Aaronsburg, Pa., one of the chairman of the Conference Board of oldest towns in the State, and even the oldest resident cannot recall when Hel-The cases, as well as secretary of the Board works are made of brass, hardened by She was aged 24 years, 2 months and 10 of Home Missions and Church Exten-days and in addition to her husband sion strands of steel chain it regulates the A large number of ministers were time, strike and the changes of moon present at the funeral which was held on and seasons. The works show the wear ty days shows it to be a most accurate time keeper and many would like to know its history.

----The woman's Exchange of Belleopen as usual Wednesday of next week

----New furniture and fixings are now fice and when the complete equipment has been put in place the postoffice force graph. —Don't miss Hadley's picture car-nival Tuesday, February 3rd, at the opera than formerly.

Dr. Hugh L. Fry, who has been practicing his report for duty on February 2nd. He is a former Pine Grove Mills boy, a son of Dr. W. H. Fry, and his many friends will be glad to learn of his promotion in his profession.

Wm. Glenn will till the broad acres of the Mitchell farm near Lemont; the present tenant, Mr-Herman, will take charge of the Dr. Dale farm. Harry Hoy will farm the Sunday farm on the Branch; Jim Hoover, the J. W. Kepler farm; Frank Lohr, the T. E. Corl farm; E. T. Parson the Dr. Houser farm; Ray Williams the Reed farm, and Wm. Lytle the Fry farm at Rock Springs.

Our nimrods have their Marlins in readiness for a pack of hounds that are running deer on the mountain. Last Thursday several hounds brought a large doe and fawn across the valley to Tussey mountain. The fawn was almost exhausted from the deep snow, and occasionally the mother would wait on the youngster to coax it along. When they disappeared in the mountain, the dogs were close to them.

At a recent meeting of the First National bank of State College the following board of directors were chosen for the year 1914: Hon. J. T. Mc-Cormick, N. E. Hess, Wm. Frear, Dr. C. T. Aikens, D. A. Grove, S. H. Bailey, W. L. Foster, C. H. Foster and A F. Markle The following bank officers were elected: President, W. L. Foster; first vice president, C. H. Foster; seco vice president, A. F. Markle; cashier, D. F. Kapp; assistant cashier, N. E. Robb.

The stockholders of the Farmers' Trust company of State College, at their annual meeting, elected the following directors for 1914: Hon. J. T. McCormick, Dr. L. E. Kidder, N. E. Hess, I. L. Foster, T. M. Huey, Dr. Wm. Frear, E. C. Musser, W. L. Foster, J. M. Campbell, C. H. Foster, G. W. Sholl, J. P. Jackson. The board chose the following officers: President, Hon. J. T. McCormick; first vice president, N. E. Hess; second vice president.Dr. L. E. Kidder: treasurer. D. F. Kapp; trust officer, N. E. Robb.

LEMONT.

Otterbein Dale spent a few days among friends here this last week.

John Mitchell is visiting among friends near Philadelphia, this week.

A pack of dogs were running deer on Nittany mountain last Saturday.

William Ross and Thomas Williams had a sled oad to Boalsburg last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. C. Ross is on the mend now, she having had a very bad attack of rheumatism.

John Houtz came up from Aaronsburg last week to hunt foxes, but found the snow too deep. The Evangelistic meetings being held in the Houserville U. B. church are meeting with some success, as there have been four seekers forward. The carpenters put the roof on Elmer Ross' barn last week, and it is hoped that we will get no more snows like the one that broke roofs and trees down.

Recognized. Merchant-Have you collected that bill of Smith's? Collector-Have I collected it? I called at the house and found that seven Smiths lived there. Six declared they owed nothing, and the seventh kicked me out of the house. Merchant-That's the one. Go back and get the money.-London Tele-

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.