Dorworth celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary yesterday and during the afternoon and evening a large number of his friends called upon him in an informal way and tendered their congratulations. Miss Sara P. Malin, who has lately been appointed Kester & Hardin's representative in Bellefonte, is so keenly interested in her new work and so determined to make it a success, that perfect satisfaction will be the result of any order placed with her. Kester & Hardin are florists of Williamsport, and Miss Malin will sell their cut flowers in numbers or designs, and also potted plants.

The State-Centre Electric company will begin work on remodeling their office building on High street just as soon as the weather becomes more favorable for outdoor work. The building will be modern and complete in every way.

On Wednesday evening of last week the girls of the household division of the Senior class of the Bellefonte High school gave a banquet to the football squad at the High school building. Forty-eight guests were present and toasts were responded to by members of the faculty and football players. The banquet was a practical demonstration of the practicability of the establishment of a domestic science course in the High school, something that has been advocated very strongly the past two or three years.

J. LINN HARRIS CHOSEN REPUBLICAN COUNTY CHAIRMAN.—Six members of the Republican county committee and twenty-six proxies held a meeting in the grand jury room at the court house on Saturday afternoon and elected J. Linn Harris chairman of the committee to succeed Henry C. Quigley Esq., who resigned last week. The members present were Samuel B. Miller, Orin Kline and Allen B. Waite, Bellefonte; Levi Miller, Spring township; Thomas Dubbs, Rush township, and J. H. Rathmell, Walker township.

Mr. Quigley called the meeting to order and secretary Edmund Blanchard was requested to take notes. Mr. Quigley made a brief speech in which he reiterated the fact that his reason for retiring was that it would take too much of his time to conduct the forthcoming campaign and it would be better to have some one who could give it the proper attention. He then formally withdrew as chairman of the committee and of the meeting.

Samuel B. Miller was selected to preside over the other five members and the twenty-six proxies and in taking the chair he proceeded to make one of his old-time Republican speeches, with slight variations. Mr. Miller had evidently not been properly coached as he was in favor of adjourning the meeting until some future date when more committee-men could be gotten together, but Levi Miller, of Pleasant Gap, who had evidently been selected in advance as spokesman, stated that with the proxies sent in to Edmund Blanchard and Joseph L. Montgomery and the members present a majority of the committee was represented and he favored going ahead. Chairman Miller then appointed a committee to examine the proxies and see that they were all right, and they reported them all in due form.

J. Linn Harris was then nominated by Levi Miller for the office of county chairman. After allowing a sufficient time to elapse somebody moved that the nominations close and it was so voted. Then one of the other members moved that Mr. Harris be elected by acclamation and all the members and proxies present voted aye.

The new chairman was invited to the chair and made a speech thanking the members and the proxies for the honor conferred upon him and pledging himself to do his utmost to pilot the g. o. p. to victory next fall. Uncle Sammy Miller could not resist the inclination to make another speech and after brief talks by several others present the meeting adjourned.

A TALK ON ARCHITECTURE.—A good sized crowd was present at the weekly meeting of the Study Class, in the High school auditorium on Tuesday evening, to hear Miss Anne Keichline, Bellefonte's young woman architect. Her theme was illustrated by twenty or more lantern slides of Bellefonte residences, showing the old style and modern architecture and her talk was plain, practical and easy of comprehension. One of the slides showed Bellefonte's big spring and how its natural beauty was rendered unsightly by the shabby buildings adjoining it as well as the lumber yard in the background. The Stewart home on west Linn street was referred to as one of the most pleasing to the eye of any in Bellefonte while a number of the older residences in the town were exhibited as evidence of the builder's ideas a half century or more ago. Miss Keichline's talk was very interesting and was listened to with close attention.

DEEP SNOW AND COLD WEATHER.—One of the deepest snows that has fallen in Centre county in years was that of last Friday and Friday night. Though it snowed all of Friday afternoon the bulk of the snow fell at night and Saturday morning the ground was covered to a depth of sixteen inches. While traffic was not blocked all trains were late, the Lewisburg & Tyrone not reaching Bellefonte until 12.30. The weather was also quite cold, it being below zero every night. Light snows have fallen since then and the high winds of Sunday and Monday drifted some of the country roads fence high with huge snow drifts. The prediction is for warmer weather today or tomorrow, and if it comes it will be the first let-up since this ground-hog weather set in.

A LAUGH THAT ROLLS INTO THOUSANDS.—No more diverting comedy has ever been offered upon the English speaking stage than "Baby Mine," from the pen of Margaret Mayo, and which comes to Garmans Tuesday evening, February 24th, one night only. "Baby Mine" ran for one solid year at Daly's theatre, New York, to record-breaking business, and reached its second year at Sir Charles Wyndham's Criterion theatre, London. The production which is sending a gale of laughter around the world, is made by Richard Clark, and it comes to Bellefonte well recommended. Prices, 25, 35, 50, 75 cents and a few at $1.00. Reserved seats at Parrish's.

MUST CLEAN PAVEMENTS AND GUTTERS.—The Street committee of borough council hereby serves notice to all property owners and tenants that all pavements and gutters must be thoroughly cleaned this week, and if the work is not done by the proper persons the borough will have the work done and collect for same. It is especially necessary that the gutters be cleaned out, otherwise if a rain or thaw comes pavements will be flooded and rendered impassable.

The big patch of pine trees on the hill to the right of the pike just beyond the toll gate is a favorite retreat for crows, both winter and summer, and this winter there seems to be an epidemic among them as the ground is strewn with dead ones. While this may be a little hard on the crow family, it is a fact that will doubtless be appreciated by the farmers next corn planting.

A Colonial Supper to which every one in Bellefonte is invited, will be given at the Y. M. C. A., by the Woman's Auxiliary, Thursday evening, February 26th. The supper typical of those of colonial times will consist of a good substantial meal, served by girls in the dress of that period and will begin at early candle-light—five o'clock. Tickets for the supper will be thirty-five cents.

Miss Louise Hall, executive secretary of the Woman Suffrage association, will speak in the court house in Bellefonte Friday evening, February 27th, at eight o'clock, on Suffrage, the topic uppermost in the minds of the men and women of today. There is much for both the Suffrage and anti-Suffrage followers of the locality to learn, consequently, no one should miss hearing Miss Hall next Friday night.

Mrs. Edward R. Chambers, who with her family left Bellefonte after the death of Mr. Chambers about two years ago, is critically ill at her home at Kennett Square. Mrs. Chambers was taken sick three months ago with the grip, this being followed by pluro-pneumonia left her in an exhausted condition from which she was never able to recover and which now has become so serious that much anxiety is felt by her family concerning her recovery.

The winter weather of the past week makes it very uncomfortable being out on the street, and why stay out when there is such a comfortable place as the Scenic to go to. Always warm, even in the coldest of weather, and every evening a good program of motion pictures. It costs only five cents and you get from an hour to an hour and a half's entertainment. Can you ask anything better than this? The Scenic is as high class as any moving picture theatre in the State.

The annual children's dance given by Mrs. Harry Garber upon ending the winter term of dancing school, will be held Saturday evening, February 28th. This promises to be the most successful of the many beautiful dances Mrs. Garber has already given, for coming so near the Washington Day celebration. The dance hall in the Arcade will be elaborately decorated, making a fitting background for her large class of children who will appear in continental costume.

S. M. Weber, of Washington, D. C., but formerly of Aaronsburg, has just been appointed assistant superintendent, division of foreign mails, in the Postoffice Department. Mr. Weber was appointed to the railway mail service from Aaronsburg in August, 1901, and was assigned the run on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania from Bellefonte to Mill Hall. On July 1st, 1903, he was transferred to the bureau of the second assistant postmaster general as a clerk in the division of which he has now been made assistant superintendent. He formerly taught school in Centre and Clinton counties.

One of the crying needs of today is conservation of the natural resources. Conventions are held to discuss ways and means to handle the matter; the press and magazines are continually placing information before the public and everywhere it is a much discussed subject, because of national interest. The Study Class program says that Mr. J. Linn Harris will talk on Conservation, on Tuesday evening, February 24th, at the High school building at eight o'clock. He will discuss forestry particularly, in which he is thoroughly conversant. Mr. Harris is a member of the State Forestry Commission. Hear him.

The Ladies Aid society of the Buffalo Run M. E. church will hold a birthday social in the Grange hall near the Meyers cemetery this (Friday) evening. There will be a program of speaking and singing, while ice cream, cake and other refreshments will be served. All who attend are expected to pay the doorkeeper one cent for each year of his or her age, or at very least a half a cent a year. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church and the public is urged to attend and help the good cause along. The same society will hold an oyster supper at the home of Mrs. Lewis Marshall on Friday evening, February 27th, to which the public is invited.

At a six o'clock dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. George S. Grimm, at their home at Punxsutawney last Saturday evening, announcement was made of the engagement of their eldest daughter, Miss Mary L. Grimm to Joseph F. Winslow, of Punxsutawney. The table centerpiece at the dinner was a huge bouquet of American beauty roses from which red ribbons extended to the ten plates. At the end of each little ribbon was a gold wedding ring upon which was seated a tiny cupid holding little heart shaped cards bearing the names of Mary L. Grimm and Joseph F. Winslow. Among the guests present was Miss Lillie Smith, of Bellefonte, who is visiting Miss Grimm. No date for the wedding has been announced.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOROUGH COUNCIL.—Seven members were present at council meeting on Monday evening. A. A. Dale Esq., representing the State-Centre Electric company, requested council's concession to the company laying and maintaining a pipe from its plant across Water street to the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania property. In explanation he stated that with the installation of the new and improved machinery the company proposes equipping its plant with it will require a large amount of water for condensing purposes and the best method to secure the same would be by suction from the creek. The water will be sucked up one pipe and returned through another channel, only about five per cent of the actual volume being used. The matter was referred to the Special committee for investigation and report.

Burgess Edmund Blanchard reported that so far the new police headquarters in Temple Court were proving an excellent system. Several calls have been made during the night and promptly responded to. He presented a bill for $8.00 for furniture, with the statement that if council objected to paying the same he would take care of it. He also called the attention of council to the slippery and dangerous condition of the pavement on the corner at Beezer's butcher shop. A number of people have fallen there, but fortunately none have been badly hurt. Mr. Blanchard also spoke of the condition of Garman's opera house, which he characterized as extremely dangerous and unsanitary, and stated that with council's permission he would compel the proprietors to make the necessary improvements or would close the house. The president of council granted him the permission and instructed the Fire and Police committee to render any assistance possible. On the same subject the Sanitary committee reported that they had visited the opera house and would recommend that it be given a good scrubbing, but they didn't suggest who should do the scrubbing.

Mr. Nagney, of the Fire and Police committee called attention to the fact that many of the cellars under stores and business places were filled with boxes, paper, and rubbish of all kinds and were extremely dangerous in case of fire. He stated that he knew personally of four and had called the attention of the proprietors to the fact that they would have to be cleaned out, and one or two of them resented the request. The president told him that the committee had the power to enforce the cleaning up of all such places, and the newspapers were asked to request all business men to clean out their cellars, as it not only does away with firetraps but keeps down the insurance risks.

The Street committee also called attention to the dangerous condition of the pavement at Beezer's butcher shop, and the matter of changing its condition was referred to the committee with power to act.

The resolution presented by the Fire and Police committee at the last meeting of council relative to changing the system of the fire companies' response to an alarm of fire was discussed, but it was finally decided that the present system was about as good as any and no action was taken in the matter.

The report of the burgess, enclosing check for $2.50 for fines collected less costs, was presented and ordered entered of record.

Mr. Seibert stated that he had not yet been able to confer with Col. Reynolds relative to the repairs needed at the Phoenix mill pumping station.

Bills to the amount of $167.52 were approved and council adjourned.

A GREAT TEMPERANCE ORATOR.—The temperance people of Bellefonte and community will have an opportunity to hear one of the strongest advocates of their cause on Tuesday evening, March 3rd, when "Catch My Pal" Patterson will appear in Petrikin hall. An exchange has the following to say of him:

Who will say that it was chance that brought the six men to the lamp-post in Armagh on the evening of the 13th of July, 1909, and that led around the corner at the fitting moment the founder of this great movement? What hereditary and other influence, God-directed, brought this young minister, with his fixed convictions, his power of initiative, his originality, verve, aplomb and humor, in contact with those six men who were the very individuals to respond to this unique treatment? Surely Mr. Patterson was raised up of God, and gifted with his versatile talents for this very work. The need was here, claimant and urgent; the work was waiting; the man has at last been found. Here is the greatest opportunity of a century.

SECTION FOREMAN INJURED.—Robert Malone, section foreman on the Pennsylvania railroad at Snow Shoe, was struck by an engine on Tuesday morning, knocked from the track and is now in the Bellefonte hospital suffering with a compound fracture of the right leg. Mr. Malone was engaged in cleaning the snow from the switches in the yard at Snow Shoe while the yard crew were switching cars. The latter were at work on the main track and Malone went to work on the side track with his back to the engine. He heard the latter approach but thought it was on the main track until it was almost upon him. He jumped but did not clear the track and was struck by the engine and his right leg broken. He was brought to Bellefonte by a special engine and caboose and taken to the hospital for treatment.
