

Bellefonte, Pa., March 27, 1914.

P. GRAY MEEK,

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at th

following rates: Paid strictly in advance Paid before expiration of year -Paid after expiration of year -2.00

Brumbaugh in the Ring.

Dr. BRUMBAUGH had the advantage of a full view of the attitudes of all the other candidates for Governor before he presented his own to public scrutiny and he made the best of the situation. That is to say the Philadelphia educator has accepted every vote-getting proposition of the others and gone a step farther. He fayors a better child-labor bill, a more advanced workmen's compensation act, a more drastic employer's liablity law, more stringent regulation of corporations and is more emphatically for local option and female suffrage. In fact there is nothing platitudinous in the platforms of the other candidates which he has not improved upon.

But the Doctor has not permitted himself to be beguiled into a denunciation of PENROSE. It was fondly hoped by some of the enemies of the Senator that such a thing would happen and that though it wouldn't do BRUMBAUGH much good it might work vast harm to PEN-ROSE. However the foxy school man was too alert. He understands that he and PENROSE are bound together and must stand or fall together. DIMMICK is not for Brumbaugh and Pinchot will be supported by all the forces of the Bull Moosers while Lewis is more likely to get the strength of the dissatisfied regulars than BRUMBAUGH, for Governor. Under the circumstances the Doctor was wise in refusing to alienate the friends of PENROSE.

In his statement that he has "no entangling alliances of any sort," Mr-BRUMBAUGH was probably throwing a tub to the Bull Moose whale but the Moosers are not altogether stupid either. Any of Mr. BRUMBAUGH'S predecessors on the Republican ticket, since the beginning of QUAY's time would have said "if elected it must be with the understanding that I shall be entirely free to perform my official duties solely and steadily for the people of a whole." WIL-LIAM A. STONE, SAMUEL W. PENNYPACK-ER and EDWIN S. STUART said something of the kind and JOHN K. TENER was fully as emphatic on the subject. But each of them bowed to the inevitable and so will the professor when the order comes from Washington-if he is elected. If the people of Pennsylvania want a continuation of PENROSEism in the administration of the executive office at Harrisburg, all they have to do is to make Brumbaugh the Governor.

-If the other candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor had been more scrupulous there would have been no necessity for MICHAEL J. RYAN to identify himself in the public prints. But the other candidate imagines that "everything is fair in war," and that he is under no moral restraints were legal remedies are absent.

Sources of Penrose's Troubles.

The troubles which are buffetting Senator Penrose at this time come from various sources. His arrogance in the period of his political prosperity is important and his methods of party management are repugnant to many self-respecting voters. But it may be justly said that the presence of MICHAEL J. RYAN in the office of city solicitor of Philadelphia and that of RUDOLPH BLANKENBURG in the capacity of Mayor of that city has impaired his prospects more than any other thing. It is the check upon municipal profligacy which has shut off his source of supplies. These gentlemen have reduced him to the condition of an army absolutely cut off from its commissary.

In two years, therefore, it may be said that MICHAEL J. RYAN has accomplished more in the direction of defeating PEN-ROSE than all the self-styled reformers have achieved in a dozen years of false pretenses. With the copious flow of funds from contractors and officials in Philadephia, the PENROSE machine could deride the condemnation of the press and pulpit. But without this wherewithal to bolster up a bad cause, the machine managers are helpless and almost despondent. There is an impression that popular favor can always be bought but popular favor can't be bought without money to pay and the capable and courageous city solicitor of Philadelphia has cut off PEN-ROSE'S golden stream.

In view of these facts, and they can't be denied, it is not easy to justify the the present. On Sunday there were just day) morning, burial to be made in the Gettig. charges constantly being made by Mr. thirty-four cases, and while none of them Rose Hill cemetery. McCormick and his supporters, that Mr. RYAN is now or ever has been identified deemed best to observe strict quarantine with the Penrose machine. We are not regulations in an effort to stamp out the committed to any candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor or any other office. But we are most certainly in favor of exact justice to all Democrats whether they be candidates or not and refer to Mr. RYAN's achievements in behalf of good government in the interest of fairplay. Genuine reform is not accomplished by establishing a scandal mill or promoted by the villification of honest men who happen to hold opinions

Mr. Palmer and Senator Hall.

Judge John M. GARMAN, of Wilkes-Barre, having stated that Senator HALL contributed funds to pay expenses of one of A. MITCHELL PALMER'S campaigns for Congress, a correspondent of the Philadelphia Record wants to know about it. "Our candidate for the Senatorial nomination and his friends," writes this correspondent, "have taught us to believe that JIM HALL, of Elk, has for years been in league with PENROSE and his machine, and they have convinced me that no one who ever trained with HALL or his like in politics should be taken seriously by Pennsylvania Democrats. Now GARMAN asserts that PALMER has long been close enough to HALL to ask and receive contributions of money from the Elk county millionaire, and that HALL gave PALMER money for use in his campaign for Congress, although HALL does not live in his district. If HALL has been in cahoots with PENROSE, and it is true that he has also been thick enough with PALMER to necessary chances to make PALMER the Democratic candidate for Senator against PENROSE."

For a great many years Senator HALL has made a practice of contributing funds to promote the election of Democratic candidates for Congress and other offices. With one exception he has been the most liberal in this respect of all Democrats in the State. He has been equally zealous in bringing capable young men forward in public life. In fulfillment of this impulse he was largely instrumental in bringing Mr. PALMER into the political arena. Conditions were not satisfactory to the Democratic leaders in that Congressional district and Mr. PALMER, with a well-developed ambition as his principal asset, was encouraged to aspire to Congress. Probably Senator HALL contributed to his campaign fund. He was in the habit of doing such things and Judge office of temporary chairman of the down in health. HALL was already committed to him.

and has proved his benevolence by works. many months of illness. devil take the hindmost."

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.— An interesting district Sunday school institute was held in the Presbyterian chapel on Monday afternoon and evening. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt presided and after extending a cordial welcome to the delegates introduced Rev. W. M. B. Glanding, pastor of the Lutheran church. who addressed the meeting on the subject of "The Sunday School as the Gateway to the Church." At the conclusion Philadelphia, state superintendent of elementary instruction, was introduced and made a few remarks.

The following officers were elected: President, Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt; vice president, Rev. W. M. B. Glanding; secretary, Mrs. Thomas Jodon; treasurer, A. Lukenbach. Superintendent of the elementary department, Miss Kate Shugert; home department, Mrs. Elmer adult bible class, David Miller; temper- in the Trcziyulny cemetery. ance, C. C. Shuey; missions, Mrs. John A. Woodcock.

At the evening session Rev. George E. Hawes gave a talk on the temperance work in the Sunday school and Mrs. Baldwin told of the important work necessary to get in the class of front line Sunday schools. The meeting then adjourned.

were in a critical condition it has been disease as quickly as possible.

was born to Mrs. William A. Magee, at eight years old and in addition to his her home in New Jersey, Monday. Mrs. parents is survived by the following Magee is the wife of William A. Magee, brothers and sisters: Charles, Edward, chief weigher at the United States Cus- George, Guy, Helen and Marie. The toms House, at Philadelphia, and was funeral was held at 2.30 o'clock yester-Miss Leila Huyett, of Centre Hall, before day afternoon from the house. Rev. E. her marriage to Mr. Magee a year ago. H. Yocum officiated and burial was made

-They are all good enough, but the WATCHMAN is always the best.

CHARLES.—Samuel Charles, one of the oldest and best known residents of Miles- of the late Eli Baney, died at the Blair burg, died on Tuesday night of last week | county home in Hollidaysburg last Thursand other complications. He was eighty- vanced age. Her maiden name was three years old last October and had been Margaret Witmer and she was born at a resident of Milesburg for many years. Hartleton, Union county, on December Eagle valley. Surviving him are his wife girl she came to Bellefonte with her was held at eleven o'clock last Friday burg. She was a member of the Reformmorning, burial being made in the Miles- ed church for many years. burg cemetery.

Snyder county, but he came to Centre lin, of Lewisburg; H. C. Baney, of Niagacounty when nineteen years of age and ra Falls; George, of Punxsutawney; Mrs. give the latter money, is it not taking uncipal stations between Bellefonte and The remains were brought to Belleing for Robert Shirk, but in 1866 he went was made in the Union cemetery. into business for himself and for over forty-seven years, or until his recent illness, he occupied the same stand.

interesting tale has been told therein.

GARMAN would likely know. In any border, widow of the late David H. Kusta- ing died in its mother's arms after leav- would refuse. He said that there is event Mr. PALMER seemed to appreciate border, died at her home in west Fergu- ing the hospital. the friendship of HALL. As late as 1909 son township on Monday. She had been he solicited the help of WILLIAM J. BREN- ailing all winter with a complication of old to a day, had not been at all strong are always up to the minute, and rather NEN, of Pittsburgh, to secure him the diseases, the result of a general break- since its birth and its death was probably than take a chance I thought it best to

It has become fashionable to traduce on the farm at White Hall now owned by at the Gordon home on east Lamb street and also the national government, under Senator HALL and is now probably the George E. Harper on December 10th, at two o'clock on Monday afternoon by Democratic rule, continued success and cheapest and most effective expedient 1846, making her age 67 years, 3 months Rev. A. B. Sprague, of the United Brethren prosperity. No country in the world has that can be invoked. We don't know and 13 days. She was united in marriage church, after which the remains were such good prospects as ours, America. why this is true. Senator HALL never to Mr. Kustaborder on March 21st, 1867, taken to Boggs township for burial in the Lowering of the tariff has had nothing to betrayed a Democratic principle or can. and their entire married life was spent on Trcziyulny cemetery. didate. He has never gone into ecstacies the farm where she died. When a young over the Populist heresies which appear girl she became a member of the Lutherto aim at the subversion of the constitu- an church and always led a steadfast well known geologist of Lock Haven, has been known to export goods from this tion and the perversion of representative christian life. Her motto was the golden died on Monday evening of arterio scle- country. government as advocated by JEFFERSON. rule, and she practiced it with an unself- rosis. He had been ill for a number of But he has supported the candidates of ish sincerity of purpose that won her months and in the Lock Haven hospital Bryn Mawr, March 21st, 1914. the party faithfully, served the community many warm friends. Her church and her since March 11th. Deceased was born at in which he lives generously and well religion were her comfort during her Salona and was sixty-three years old last

He enjoys the respect and affection of Her husband died six years ago and any College, West Virginia, and read law his neighbors to an unusual degree and since then Mrs. Kustaborder had person- under his brother, H. T. Harvey, of Lock the confidence of his business associates al supervision and management of the Haven. On account of poor health he in full measure. Yet it seems to be farm, and she did it very successfully. never applied for admission to the bar. popular to traduce him and Mr. PALMER | Surviving her are four children, namely: | During the session of 1877-78 he taught has fallen into the habit. If praising Mrs. Emma M. Emigh, at home; Mrs. Greek, Latin, history and literature in him worked the same result probably Ida Harpster, of Tyrone; Mrs. Sarah the Lock Haven Normal and the follow-Mr. PALMER would praise him. Mr. Sunday, of Tadpole, and Mrs. Maggie ing year was offered a professorship at PALMER isn't particular about such Barto, of Bellwood. Funeral services State College in Latin and history but his things. He is for Mr. PALMER "first, were held at her late home at ten o'clock health was such he could not accept. last and all the time." He believes in the on Wednesday morning by Rev. L. S. During the years 1880 and '81 he was doctrine "everybody for himself and the Spangler, after which burial was made in principal of the Beech Creek schools. the cemetery at Gatesburg.

> wife of Charles Schreckler, of Milesburg, he was married to Mary E. Devling who died at the Bellefonte hospital early Mon- survives with two children. The funeral day morning. She underwent an operation was held yesterday afternoon, burial beabout ten days previous and apparently ing made in the Highland cemetery. was getting along all right until a collapse came the day before her death.

Milesburg, where practically all her life New York, last fall, by Frank Donovan, and marched out of the burning building was spent. She was married to Charles Schreckler about eight years ago and he right side of his face badly bruised and and answered to roll call. They had lost of his address Mrs. Maude J. Baldwin, of Lynn, Bruce and James. She also leaves survives with three young sons, namely: her parents and a number of brothers and sisters. She was a member of the animal was feeling good and plunged Presbyterian church since girlhood and a about until she tore loose from the lad, lost everything. I have hardly a note young woman who stood high in the esti- at the same time wheeling and kicking. nor a book, and of course, all our fine mation of all who knew her.

Funeral services were held in the o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Carson, of State College, had charge of the services and was assisted by Rev. Musser; teacher of training, W. Shope; Clark, of Milesburg. Burial was made CONFER.—Following a long illness with J. R. Confer, died in the Blair county hospital, Wednesday. She was a daughter of Mrs. R. H. Smith, who with Mr. Smith, however, to get home as originally John and Elmira Zeigler and was born in left Monday for her new home at Ogden, planned. Centre county thirty-three years ago. She Utah. had been a resident of Altoona the past twelve years. Her husband survives Davis' other intimate friends, were enter-EPIDEMIC OF MEASLES.—The borough with the following children: Maude L., of Unionville is now in the throes of an William F., and Harry J. She also leaves epidemic of measles and the churches four sisters and one brother. The funand public schools have been closed for eral will be held at ten o'clock this (Fri-Bellefonte with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

BANEY.-Christ Baney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baney, of east High street, died at the Bellefonte hospital on Tues--A young son weighing ten pounds day evening of pneumonia. He was in the Union cemetery.

-The best Job Work done here.

BANEY. - Mrs. Margaret Baney, widow following a brief illness with heart trouble day night of diseases incident to her ad-He was a shoemaker by occupation and 20th, 1833, being at her death 80 years, 2 Vance McCormick and Billy Sunday. was widely known throughout the Bald months and 26 days old. When a young Editor of the Democratic Watchman. and the following children: W. T. parents and it was here she was united Charles, of Tyrone; Frank, of Jersey in marriage to Eli Baney. All her mar-Shore; Joseph, at home; William, of Jer- ried life was spent here and it was only sey Shore; Harry, of Milesburg, and Mrs. the last few years of her life that were visit Bellefonte on Monday, March 16th.

She is survived by the following chil-"Sammy" Charles, as he was more fa- dren: Mrs. John Brown and Isaac Bamiliarly known, was born at Freeburg, ney, of Bellefonte; William and Franklocated in Milesburg. At that time Abe Robb, of Bellefonte, and Edward, Milesburg was a booming town because whose whereabouts are unknown. She of the old canal being the means of trans- was the last surviving member of her

Lock Haven. When Mr. Charles came fonte on Saturday and the funeral held from the cash that their families need to Milesburg he went to work as a shoe- at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Rev. badly. I consider this one of the greatest firm voice: maker for "Judge" Proudfoot, later work- W. M. B. Glanding officiated and burial swindles of modern times. During an township and could always be relied up- tion. She carried with her her baby $25,000, so that in three months he will on to do his part in any campaign. He daughter, Verenice Louise. She left the have received about $71,000. I am send-due to exhaustion. Inasmuch as it was send this great piece of news, fearing Democratic State convention. Senator Deceased was the only daughter of their only child the parents feel the loss you might miss it. Samuel and Sarah Harpster and was born very keenly. Funeral services were held Wishing the DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN, > November. He was a graduate of Beth-During his residence there he took up the study of geology and made that his SCHRECKLER.—Mrs. Nellie Schreckler, vocation the balance of his life. In 1882

cut. one of Frank's horses out to water. The by kimona and coat was conspicuous. The blow struck him square on the right collections are wiped out, but we will side of the face, knocking him down and come out of it. We must all begin over Milesburg Presbyterian church at two making the blood fly in all directions. At again, but how thankful we are that we first it was thought he might be seriously are all safe and that everyone has shown injured, but a later and more careful ex- such splendid courage. again ere long.

The Harmonic club with some of Mrs. tained by Mrs. L. H. Gettig Monday evening. Mrs. Davis, whose home is at Bellefonte, Daniel T. Lutz, of State Col-Brownsville, is spending several weeks in lege, and Miss Estella G. Herkimer, of Miss Helen Ceader was hostess at a dinner party, given Tuesday evening, at her home on Allegheny street.

A CORRECTION.—In the WATCHMAN of and Mrs. Lutz. last week we published an article over the signature of our good friend Mr. James Wolfenden, of Lamar, in which he has not partaken of whiskey, brandy, gin, "beer" or tobacco. He desires us to correct this statement, so far as the word "beer" is concerned. It should have read "rum," a little matter that we do with

Our Correspondents' Opinions.

Ins column is at the service of those of our people who desire to express their views on any subject of general or local interest. The "Watchman" will in no way be responsible for their ideas or state ments. The real name of the author must accompany all communications, but will be withheld from tubilication when the request is made. pany all communications, but will be from publication when the request is mo

Kindly allow me the honor of writing ago that Mr. Vance McCormick would James Starrette, at home. The funeral spent at the county home in Hollidays- Why did he not keep his word? Perhaps he felt sure that you would ask him if he remembered when he tried twice in his paper, the Harrisburg Patriot, to defeat Bryan for President, and he knows the rest. No further explanation is necessary, time is too valuable. Nuff said.

Now I would like your permission to say a few words about Billy Sunday, the once famous baseball player, and now one of the greatest money makers and so-called evangelists. It only shows how easy the people in general can be parted eight weeks engagement in Pittsburgh, finished just before he went to Scranton, crawling to the Twelfth street side of the GORDON.-On Saturday evening Mrs. Sunday's proceeds amounted to more Benjamin T. Gordon, of east Lamb street, than $46,000, and I am informed by one Mr. Charles was one of the main stand- went out to the Bellefonte hospital to see who knows that he is sure of taking out bys of the Democratic party in Boggs her sister, who is a patient in that institu- of Scranton, in three or four weeks, was a reader of the WATCHMAN for for- hospital about ten o'clock and at the ing you herewith a clipping taken from ty-nine years and one of the best friends time the baby was somewhat restless. It the Philadelphia Ledger of March 20th, the paper ever had. He will be missed soon became quiet, in fact so quiet that of news from Scranton with regard to not only by his family but by everybody coming in Water street the mother be- Billy Sunday in which he is reported to in the locality in which he lived, as his came alarmed and endeavored to arose have said in prayer how well satisfied he shop was a favorite meeting place for the child, but in vain. She hurried to the is with his present job. That he would the older men of Milesburg and many an office of Dr. Rogers, but he was not in not take Governor Tener's job, President and she then went up street to Hazel's Wilson's, the King of England, the grocery. There an examination disclos- Emperor of Germany, or if any other KUSTABORDER.-Mrs. Elizabeth Kusta- ed the fact that the child was dead, hav- King offered to trade places with him he nothing the world could offer that is bet-The baby girl, who was three months ter than the job he has. I am sure you do with the business depression. The new tariff law will give the American HARVEY.-Prof. Isaac A. Harvey, the producer the greatest opportunity that Gratfully yours,

EDWARD L. POWERS.

The Fire at Wellesleley College.

[Extract from letter of Miss Margaret H. Cook. a member of the Wellesley College faculty, to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cook, of this you that College Hall burned to the this morning to see how strong and calm | a garage, had driven home to dinner. every one was I think it would have felt kind of people and that they wanted to robbery.

After the robber left the automobile all this difficulty. There was no organ, the electricity being disconnected; the girls marched in singing, "O God Our Help in Ages Past." There was a note of thanks-KICKED IN THE FACE BY A HORSE .- Wil. giving in the Psalm and lesson, and in Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and liam Dickens, a twelve year old orphan Miss Pendleton's prayer, that we were Mrs. Bruce Wallace and was born at lad who was brought to this county from all safe. The girls had behaved so well is in the Bellefonte hospital with the as calmly as though going to a meeting, everything; at least most of them had, On Monday evening he was leading and the costume of night-dress covered

We of the Zoological department have amination revealed that he had suffered The fire did not start in our laboratoronly flesh wounds and should be out ies. We do not know the cause, but probably electric wire. We have already made plans for beginning April 7th. Col-SOCIAL AFFAIRS OF THE WEEK.—The lege is dismissed but I am going to stay card party given by the Misses Sara and for a week and get some lectures written tuberculosis Mrs. Bertha Confer, wife of Marjory McGinley Thursday night of and do other necessary work. I know last week, was in honor of their cousin, there is going to be lots to do. I hope

> Wellesley, Tuesday, March 17th, '14 LUTZ—HERKIMER.—Tuesday evening March 17th, at the Reformed parsonage Houserville, were married by the Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Blanche Herkimer, a sister of the bride, and Merle F. Poorman. The best wishes of a host of friends are extended to Mr.

VONGUNDEN-GRENOBLE. - On Tuesday, March 24th, 1914, at the parsonage he is made to say, that for eighteen years of St. John's Lutheran church in Bellefonte, Pa., Victor E. VonGunden and Miss Alice F. Grenoble, both of Pleasant Gap, were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. Wm. M. B. Glanding.

--- Every one who wants all the counpleasure, and regret that the error oc- ty news, that is county news, takes the training as an operator in the Bellefonte WATCHMAN.

AUTOMOBILE BANDIT ROBS ALTOO-NA BANK.

Youth Rides to Institution in Taxicab, Shoots Cashier and Depositor, Snatches $2883 and Escapes.

ALTOONA, PA., March 23.-A lone bandit stopped his taxicab in front of the Union National bank at 12.25 p. m. today, hurried inside, shot the cashier, A. P. Ruppert, and a depositor, William E. a letter to the WATCHMAN today. You Blackburn, grabbed $2883 in bills, ran announced in the WATCHMAN two weeks out, jumped into the auto, drove off and escaped.

The bank is located at Eighth avenue and Twelfth street, one of the busiest corners on the East Side. More than 2000 Pennsylvania Railroad shopmen pass it on their way home to dinner and when they return to work again between 12 and 1 o'clock every day.

Twelfth street leads to the most traveled bridge between the two sides of town. Within a square each way no less than 250 persons were hurrying about their business at the time of the robbery. The bandit timed his hold-up to the minute. The last customer had departed just as he reached the door. Entering, he walked up to the first window, behind which the teller, Chester C. Burket, was standing. Thrusting a revolver through the grill work, he commanded in a quiet.

"Hand out what you got in there." Burket saw that the man was in earnest and dropped under the counter, Cashier Rupert was standing behind his desk next to the big safe. The bookkeeper, Mrs. Oscar Shaver, was bending over the ledger.

CLIMBS OVER PARTITION.

Dividing the lobby of the bank from the work-room is a bronze partition, seven feet high. When Burket disappeared beneath the counter the robber proceeded to climb over this obstruction, breaking several small electric light globes which ornamented the top. Cashier Rupert and Mrs. Shaver started for the doorway leading to the cellar of the bank as the robber dropped from the partition. Mrs. Shaver reached it, but Rupert had further to go. A bullet struck him in the abdomen, inflicting only flesh wound, which is not serious. With feverish haste the robber stuffed packages of bills into his pockets, opened the teller's wicket and jumped into the lobby. He fired two more shots to terrorize the bank employees and started for the door. He left a small satchel he had brought, behind the counter.

Blackburn at this moment entered the bank. The bandit fired, the bullet entering Blackburn's left thigh. The wound s not serious. Several hundred people, attracted by the shots, were hurrying toward the bank when the robber emerged. He fir-ed right and left, and there was a wild ESCAPES IN AUTOMOBILE. Springing into the taxicab, the motor of which was still running, the robber started off down Eighth avenue. Across the street from the bank is John Butler's drug store. Half a dozen people were in the store at the time.

They rushed out when they heard the shots, and as the bandit drove past he fired three or four times at them. Two of the bullets shattered the plate glass windows and smashed show-cases. One buried itself in the wall by the telephone, which had been in use a moment before. Down Eighth avenue the handi I am going out presently to telegraph gathering speed as he went. Turning into avenue, then to Ninth street, where he ground this morning. Does it not seem abandoned the automobile in an alley. incredible? I am afraid you may not It was found there later by the police, get a straight story and be worried. We the engine still running. The automobile are, of course, perfectly safe, as is everyutes before he appeared at the bank one who was in the building. If the from the front of G. C. May's home, fifwhole world might have been in Chapel teen squares away. Mays, who conducts

The report of the theft of the automobile was received at police headquarters that Wellesley was made up of the finest simultaneously with news of the bank trace of him was lost. A woman saw him run down Ninth street, but he has been traced no further. Shortly after the robbery a stranger was seen to change clothes in an alley some distance from the bank, but the police could find no trace of him. Half a dozen suspects were arrested by the police, but all proved their innocence and were released. The police have not been able to obtain an accurate description of the man. He was about 5 feet, 8 inches tall, weighing 160 pounds, about 30 years old, and smooth shaven. He wore a gray suit and gray overcoat. When he entered the bank he wore a cap. When he left

The county commissioners have offered a reward of $100 for his capture. It is reported that $200,000 in school funds was in the vault near which the cashier was sitting when the bandit entered the bank, but it is not believed he knew anything about this money.

he wore a slouch hat of light color.

APRIL FIRST MOVINGS.—In addition to the movings already mentioned in the WATCHMAN James Carson will make sale of his household furniture and make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Houser will move into the Carson home in Bush's Addition.

Albert Thompson and family will move from Logan street into the new house erected by the Lambert sisters on Logan street.

Barney Gallagher and family will move nto the house on Logan street vacated by the Thompson family.

George Harpster and family are moving from north Allegheny street, into the house vacated by the Murphy family on east Lamb street.

Mrs. John I. Curtin and Mrs. John Furey Larimer have rented the E. C. Tuten house on east Linn street, and will move there just as soon as the Tutens can get out of the house to move to DuBois.

-Lloyd R. Wilson, a former Bellefonte boy, who has been manager of the Western Union telegraph office in Tyrone the past two years, has been assigned to the Sunbury office and will go there on March 31st. Mr. Wilson got his initial telegraph office.