PINE GROVE MENTION.

The wet weather has put farming at a stand still.

Mrs. W. H. Goss and Mrs. Waldo Corl are among the sick this week.

Harry Struble, one of our hustling farmers, is ill with bronchial trouble.

Mrs. Fannie Gibboney, of Salsburg, is visiting friends in and around town.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamill Glenn spent Sunday at his father's home near Lemont.

Pennsylvania Lodge No. 276, I. O. O. F., recently voted to purchase a $500 player piano for their hall.

J. C. Rossman is breaking ground for a new barn on the old Robert Gohm farm he recently bought.

W. K. Goss is housed up nursing a colony of carbuncles, and his home is quarantined for measles.

N. C. Dreiblebs, on account of a badly sprained ankle, is making locomotion go on crutches this week.

Mrs. Kate Sprankle is now in charge of the domestic affairs at the Isaac Harpster home at Gatesburg.

Harry Stewart, of Sandy Ridge, and Samuel Kaup, of Altoona, greeted old chums along the line last week.

M. E. Heberling and wife spent the Sabbath at the old family home with his mother, who is slightly better.

Will Hoy, the popular drayman, is now delivering goods in a splendid new wagon, made by Wetland and Gingerich, Boalsburg.

Harry Kuhn, the genial clerk in Stewart's store, resigned and is now holding down the plow handles with his father, Charley Kuhn.

Howard H. Goss visited his old home folk at Adamsburg last week and noted the changes since he left a quarter of a century ago.

Robert Meyer, son of P. H. Meyer, is home from the Mountain city, greeting old cronies down Pennsylvania, and with one eye on another job.

Ed. Duff, farmer and lumberman, of Salsburg, transacted business in town Saturday and took several hundred dollars of the long green home with him.

J. Cal. Neidigh, of Altoona, was greeting chums of long ago on his old stamping ground at Pine Hall, last week. Cal. is a railroader and is making good.

Herschel Harpster, wife and two youngsters; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sunday and little Harry, came down from Tyrone and spent Sunday among friends in the valley.

Wednesday morning Rev. N. A. Price and wife turned the key in the M. E. parsonage on east Main street, and left for an outing among their home folk in Snyder county.

While ploughing in the field on Wednesday morning, Willis Houck, who lives on the Krebs farm, stepped into a hole and sustained a compound fracture of the left leg.

J. H. Bailey and wife spent Tuesday at State College. Mr. Bailey was looking after his cream separator trade, while Mrs. Bailey was sizing up the spring styles of ladies' head-gear.

Rev. William Potter VanTrie, after attending Presbytery at State College, came across the valley to greet old friends in the Glades and do a little angling along Spring creek for his share of the finny tribe.

In the Reformed church at Boalsburg, next Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock, Rev. W. K. Harsh will preach the Baccalaureate sermon to the High school graduating class. The graduating exercises will be held on May 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Showalter, of Millmont, have been visiting old neighbors and friends and noting the many changes in the sixteen years since they resided on the Branch. Mr. Showalter is a Civil war veteran and both he and his wife are hale and hearty for their years.

SPRING MILLS.

Politics here are as dead as a door nail. Is this the calm preceding the storm? Doubtful.

Harvey Brian is putting new siding on the back building of his residence. It will be a decided improvement.

Allison Bros. have torn down the old horse shed in the rear of the mill and will erect a more commodious and convenient one.

The social at the Methodist parsonage on Friday evening last was quite largely attended. Reverend Williams and family fared very handsomely.

Merchant J. H. Rishel, who has been in ill health for several months, was taken to Philadelphia on Thursday last. Dr. Braucht accompanied him.

We had quite a lively rain storm here on Sunday evening last, accompanied with thunder, lightning and hail. Fortunately it was of short duration.

Some of our fishermen did fairly well this week. Others report that they hooked enough for a good breakfast, while a few had only little nibbles and no fish.

The Spring Mills delegation attending the civil service examination at Bellefonte and State College on Saturday last returned on the 2.45 p. m. train, very much elated. They all expect to be postmaster.

Autos are evidently making up for lost time, as they are tearing up and down our main thoroughfare at a senseless rate of speed. If an accident occurs and only the chauffeur would be hurt, the verdict would be, "served him right."

Ray Rossman, the only assistant agent Lee has in the office, has been laid off three days per week. Possibly the next move the company will make will be to close the office every Tuesday and Friday. Retrenchment seems to be going mad.

Two men who were in the retail coal business, one of them being a wild kind of fellow, finally became converted and urged his partner to turn over a new leaf and do likewise. "Why Bill," he answered, "if I do that, who the deuce would weigh the coal?" His reply is not recorded.

Emotions Expressed in Dancing.

In the Vedas of the Hindus, some of which date back 6,000 years before Christ, there is steady reference to dancing as an expression of triumph, worship, and even the deepest grief. It is the same in the Zendavestas of the Persians. Dancing with cymbals and tambourines, with bells tied to their ankles and wrists or around their waists, was an art that the priestesses in the temples must understand.

Deep-Seated Objection.

"Our boy has such a refined sense of humor!" "Yes; I've noticed he evinces the greatest dislike to anything resembling the slapstick,"—Judge.

All With the President.

From the New York Sun.

Without doubt, the hour of grace has gone by. Any further display of consideration would be mere weakness, and would be so interpreted by Huerta himself. When the President makes his appeal to Congress today for power to act there can be no doubt as to what the reply will be. He will have the support of all parties and an united people in upholding the dignity of the country and fulfilling its duty toward Mexico as the same may unfold itself with the march of events. To this it need only be added that neither in the eyes of our Government nor of the American people will any hostility be directed against Mexico as a nation. The only foe man we shall know are those who have been exploiting the unhappy country and its population for their own selfish ends. In this spirit we shall approach reluctantly but serenely the ordeal that may lie before us with clean hearts and unselfish purpose.

"John" the Favorite.

A French journal has been digging into the soul of the young girl, and asking her what she wants in a husband as to color, age and name. The vast majority of 50,000 reply that they want a dark man of twenty-seven, and his name should be the French equivalent of John. None of your Algerians or Erics for the cautious damsel. None of your Hippolytes or Pauls—mercurial or subversive persons. They want John when it comes to husbands.

Growing Children and Study.

As soon as a child begins to grow rapidly all intellectual exertion should be checked. Such is the theory which Dr. C. Mercier, an English authority on children, expresses in an article in the London Lancet. Especially when there is any family tendency to nervous or mental disorder, rapidly growing children should be withdrawn from school altogether until the period of rapid growth is over.

What He Wanted to See.

Three-year-old Emerson had an idea all music was produced by a method similar to that of the talking machine, with which he was familiar. One time he attended a band concert and insisted on going up to the band stand after the band had played a selection. His father asked him why he wanted to go and he replied, "Want to watch them change the needle."

Physical Culture in Old Egypt.

That physical culture was a fad with the fashionable ladies of the courts of the Pharaohs is another phase of Egyptian life revealed by the rock pictures of the "Mother of Civilization." The more we moderns dig into the buried past of the Pharaohs the more moderate grows the estimation of our wonderful progress.

A half a hundred vexing ailments can be traced to constipation. Biliouness, headache, vertigo, sallowness, nervousness, sleeplessness, irritability, mental depression, and cold hands and feet are only some of the symptoms of constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets relieve constipation and remove its consequences.
