Who "Billy" Brennan Is.

[NOTE. The following is furnished the readers of the WATCHMAN because of its absolute truth and because so few of them know the man personally. And "Billy" Brennan in addition to being the kindly, big hearted charitable worker the Republican shows him to be, is a DEMO-CRAT who is as honest in his political beliefs and actions as he is charitable and kind in his personal; has done more and spent more of his time and of his own money for the success of Democratic tickets, in the Republican gang ridden city of Pittsburgh and the Penrose bossed State of Pennsylvania, than all of his traducers and defamers put together. And that work was done for the party ticket, whether he had been allowed a voice in its selection or not. He has never been know to bolt a ticket nor to fail to do all in his power for the election of those its representatives had chosen as party candidates.-ED. WATCH-

From the Clearfield Republican.

One of the most misunderstood and most unjustly abused men in Pennsylvania politics today is W. J. Brennan, of Pittsburgh, "Billy" Brennan. There isn't a man in all the confines of the Keystone State who does more for his fellowman day in and day out, the year round, than "Billy"Brennan; does it out of the bigness of his big heart, without noise, without price. In all the many political battles in which he participated he fought for his friends never for himself, save once as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the ticket with Chauncey Black in 1886. and again a few years ago as a candidate for Judge. "Billy" Brennan not only fights for his friends politically, but he spends his own money. Never in all his long political career has a dirty dollar ever been traced to his pocket. When George W. Guthrie was elected Mayor of Pittsburgh Billy Brennan conducted his campaign and he spent more of his own money to win the battle than all other contributions to the campaign aggregated. Many Democrats throughout Pennsylvania who make up their opinions from the unfair, thoughtless criticism to be found in factional newspapers, have "Billy" Brennan pictured as a bloated, bulldozing, browbeating boss, whose weapons are the bludgeon and bundles of boodle in the political game.

Nothing further from the truth. William J. Brennan is one of the mildest mannered men on God's footstool. No man living ever heard him utter a blasphemous syllable, word or phrase. His strongest expression when forced to emphasize is "gash hang." No man ever saw William J. Magee.

Men who know "Billy" Brennan cannot help but like him. It is the men who do not know him who are eternally abusing him, and if you pinned them down for reasons they couldn't give you one that would justify their action.

The writer has known "Billy" Brennan for over twenty years and knows every statement above made is absolutely truthful. Many times he has been on the other side from us in political scraps, but we never questioned his sincerity, his honesty of purpose and his loyalty to his At the early age of 15, included the midst of his luxurious half of a much abused friend because no later than the past week have we again the midst of his luxurious preparation for the future and no one cratic party.

In Memory of J. Calvin Meyer.

The late Hon, J. CALVIN MEYER was one of the men who brought distinction to his party. He was a product of Pennsvalley, long our Democratic Gibraltar. He was proud of the community in which he was born and raised to young manhood. And when he went to Harrisburg to represent his county in the legislative halls his ability soon made itself known. In fact, at once, he became a Democratic leader in that cauldron of Republicanism. The Democrats made him their candidate for Speaker of the House; the highest honor they could confer upon any one of their number. They did this because of the eminent ability and fitness of this man who claimed Pennsvalley as his birthplace. Then the politica, Judas came in the person of a Swede named BENSON, from McKean county. BEN. SON was supposed to be a Democrat and, as such, was in honor bound to vote for MEYER. Did he do it? No! He voted for DEARDEN, a Republican. Last week this same Swede was over in Pennsvalley with W. D. ZERBY asking those friends and neighbors of CAL MEYER to make him their nominee for Congress. Will they do it? Mr. MEYER is gone and there is no one left to avenge the insult the impertinent young Swede gave him unless his friends do.

There are only two aspirants for the nomination for Congress from this District. They are EDWARD R. BENSON, 33 years old, a Swede, from McKean county and a Reorganizer.

WILLIAM E. TOBIAS 44 years old, a native of Clearfield county, nine years superintendent of the county schools and a Reorganizer.

They are both Reorganizers so the WATCHMAN can't be charged with factional partisanship in this instance. It is merely hoping that the Democracy of Centre county has enough of its old back-bone left to resent the impudence of this young Swede who betrayed MEYER at Harrisburg and now comes to his old home friends in Centre county and asks them to put their stamp of approval on the betrayal, Were Mr. MEYER alive today he probably wouldn't ask you to, but he would feel stabbed to the heart if you didn't.

Col. H. S. Taylor.

Of the eleven gentlemen who are aspirants for the Democratic nomination for Representative at Large in Congress most of the readers of the WATCHMAN know but one. That one is Col. HUGH S. TAYLOR, of Bellefonte. Four of the eleven aspirants will be chosen next Tuesday to represent our party on the ticket in the fall and it would be a matter of pride if Centre county could have representation

To put the matter before you as it actually stands Col. TAYLOR ought to have the support of all the Democrats of his home county. Though there may have been differences in the past, if ever our party is to get together in Centre county the time is here to begin closing up the breach rather than opening it wider.

Under the old precidents a home candidate always received the endorsement of his home community. This was so, even down to township candidates for county offices. If a man from a certain township were a candidate for a county office, no matter who he was, his home township invariably stood behind his aspiration as long as his name was balloted for in the county convention. The practice had its faults, but it left no sore spots to heal up afterwards. Bringing the argument home, Col. TAYLOR is a resident of Centre county. He is our only candidate for Congressman-at-Large, therefor would it not be well for the party to make him one of the four men whom every voter will have a chance to vote for

It is not our purpose to write fulsome eulogiums of Col. TAYLOR, but knowing personally most of the other aspirants for the same office we think we do them no injustice when we say that Col. TAYLOR is the equal of all and the superior of several, when it comes to the matter of equipment for the position. He is a law ver, an orator and has been in such intimate touch with all classes of men as to make him a peculiarly well equipped man to represent the masses in Congress.

On the eve of the primaries and without the solicitation or the knowledge of the gentleman in question the WATCHMAN makes this appeal to the Democrats of Centre county. It asks them to vote for Col. TAYLOR along with the three others they will be permitted to name. It makes the request because it knows that it will be for the good of our organization in Centre county. It asks it because precedents have made it customary. It asks it because Col. TAYLOR is as fit a man

The Mother's Pension Bill.

Publisher of Democratic Watchman. Believing in the divine right of every child to the influence of a home and the loving care of its own mother; believing that the opportunity is now at hand to secure for the dependent children of Centre county this same right, the State Woman's Club, at a recent meeting. passed the following:

Resolved: that the State College Woman's Club go on record as heartily en-dorsing the Mother's Pension Bill passed by the last Legislature and as being earnestly desirous of having it immediately put into force in Centre county.

By act of the recent Legislature the sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) was appropriated for a Mother's Pension Fund, this fund to be distributed among the counties according to their respective population. The law further provides that each county shall receive its allotment as soon as it sets aside for this purpose an equal amount.

Many counties have already met the State's requirement and the Mother's Pension Law is now in operation. The increase in taxation is so small that no self-respecting taxpayer would consider it. Less than a quarter of a mill increase secures for us the present appropriation.

The opportunity is now at hand to establish a better system of caring for our dependent children.

Mr. Taxpayer, will you fall into line? Will you protect and defend the sacred rights of the dependent and fatherless children in your county? Will you signify to the Commissioners your desire to have established in Centre county an act to succor and defend those whom our Master termed "the least of these?"

The question is now squarely before What will you do with it? MRS. FRANK GARDNER,
