ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

MEMORIAL DAY IN BELLEFONTE.—Owing to its being Saturday and payday for the American Lime and Stone company Memorial day was not as universally observed in Bellefonte this year as usual, especially by the closing of stores. Aside from the postoffice and banks all stores and business places were open except from one to four o'clock in the afternoon, during the memorial exercises.

The exercises were under the auspices of Gregg Post No. 95, G. A. R., and as evidence of the ravages of Father Time among the ranks of the old veterans was the fact that only twenty-one old soldiers were present to pay this annual tribute to their dead comrades. The parade which formed in the Diamond was composed of company L, the Coleville band, Gregg Post and the Undine fire company. At the cemetery the exercises were in charge of commander Samuel B. Miller. Special exercises were held at the graves of ex-Governor Curtin and General James A. Beaver. There were flowers in abundance and not a single soldier's grave went undecorated.

From the cemetery the crowd returned to the court house where a very patriotic address was delivered by Rev. Ezra H. Yocum, pastor of the Methodist church. The day's exercises over, the veterans were the guests of the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks from four until six o'clock, during which time a most substantial luncheon was served.

REV. HEWITT RECEIVES FLATTERING CALL.—Rev. However, when he returned home he found among his mail a letter containing a call to the pastorate of the largest Episcopal church in Raleigh, N. C. The offer is a very flattering one as the church has five hundred communicants and the salary will no doubt be in proportion. Rev. Hewitt has been given until September to accept or refuse the offer, and this will enable him to complete his work at Sunbury before going to Raleigh, should he decide to accept the offer.
