Democratic Watchman.

Belletonte, Pa., June 12, 1914.

To CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications aublished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. ber of honor students. Of the above

----Free automobile given away at the big lot sale.

-A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dunlap, of east Lamb street, last Friday.

-Every person over 18 years of age attending the sale will get a chance on the new 1914 touring car.

-A few friends of Mrs. Charles Robb, of east Lamb street, called on her last Thursday and enjoyed a birthday celebration.

six coaches came through from Pitts--Beginning June 15th, this store burgh with several hundred who will close every evening at 6 o'clock, ex- were there for the week. Saturday was cept Wednesday and Saturday, when it another day of athletic events. band conwill close at the usual time.-Lyon & Co. cert and the final review of the college

-Exit the Bellefonte Academy and cadets. State College students, and during the next three months only the home grown variety of young man will be in evidence hereabouts.

-Early cherries and home grown strawberries are now in market and still there is here and there a farmer throughout the county who has not gotten his corn all planted.

-The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will hold an exchange in the vacant room in the McClure building, on Bishop street, on Saturday, June 20th. The patronage of the public is solicited

-Would you take your watch to a blacksmith shop to have it repaired? Then why give your Panama hat to a boot-black to have it cleaned. Cive it to Gross, the cleaner. Aikens block, basement.*

---In Blair county court this week E. did was to start a movement for the E. Rine plead guilty to the charge of lar- erection of a fifty-thousand dollar social ceny, preferred by officials of the Ad- hall as a memorial to Gen. James A. ams Express company, and at the request Beaver. The hall will be planned as a of the prosecutors sentence was suspended upon payment of the costs.

-Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, of bers of the alumni association when they east Bishop street, who have been doing visit the College. the rag rug weaving in Bellefonte for At the annual business meeting of the several years have sold their looms and alumni the following trustees were electwill move to Houserville, where Mr. ed: H. Walton Mitchell, Pittsburgh; J Johnson will work in the factory at that F. Shields, Philadelphia, and James L place. Hamill, Columbus, Ohio. The delegates re-elected the following trustees: W. H. ---Word was received in Bellefonte this week of the death of Matilda Wet. Patterson, of Clearfield; Vance C. Mcmore, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cormick, Harrisburg, and Charles M. S. M. Wetmore, of Spartansburg, S. C. Swabb, of Bethlehem. They also elected Mrs. Wetmore will be remembered as L. T. McFadden, of Crawford county, Miss Kate Dale, of Lemont, a daughter vice president of the Pennsylvania Bankers association, a trustee for one year to of Mrs. I. Y. Dale.

fill out the unexpired term of the late -----The Sisters of St. John's parochial eneral James A. Beaver, and R. E. Petschool are training the children for an tibone, of Wilkes-Barre, general manelaborate closing June 29th. The chief unexpired term of the late J. T. Ailman. showing the martyrdom of Joan of Arc. filled by Gen. Beaver for sixteen years. The commencement exercises proper were held on Wednesday morning and the main feature was the commencement address by Governor John K. Tener. The Governor took as his subject "The Penn State Ideal." and he gave the students a phone Mrs. Joseph Ceader. good, sound, practical talk. He told -The many friends of Patrick Gherthem that now that they had been edurity will no doubt regret to learn that he cated by the State they were to start out is a sufferer with dropsy, at his home on in life with the determination of doing the Seven mountains, and is not able to everything possible for the betterment of conditions within the Commonwealth. taken care of however, by his nephew, whether it be political, economic, social Walter Gherrity, who also looks after the or in the world of labor. In thus doing comfort of any guests who may happen they would reflect honor upon their Alma Mater, and the money appropriated -One of the largest boilers ever in- by the State for the upbuilding and upstalled in Centre county is now being keep of State College would not have put in place at the Milesburg plant of been spent in vain. He also urged them the State-Centre Electric company by the to keep in touch with the College and by E. Keeler Co., of Williamsport. The their influence assist in keeping up its boiler weighs twenty-two tons and a good work. The Governor stated that special wagon which weighed eight tons he was glad that he had had the opporand was drawn by a traction engine was tunity during the past three years and a used to convey it from the railroad to half to materially aid the College and that in the future he would do anything it was possible for him to do for its ad--The first advertising car for the vancement. The valedictory for the Senior class was delivered by James Wheaton Carpenter, following which came the conferring of degrees and awarding of prizes. The special military award was given to Gerald Robison Butz, of State College: Frederick Charles Dose, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Edward Nixon Sullivan, of Cynwvd.

BIG COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT STATE COLLEGE .- The fifty-fourth annual com- Dougherty, Lemont.

College is over and it was by far the biggest commencement in every way ever held at that institution. Just 323 students were graduated and given their diplomas and one very notable thing in connection therewith was the large num-class 19 were awarded first honors and 49

one-fifth the class, all of which shows the thorough system of instruction and the opportunity to learn all they can dur-

The commencement exercises began events, and with an inrush of a bigger

College on one day. A special train of

The baccalaureate sermon on Sunday occupied the time on Monday.

could not get here.

ing their four years' course.

mencement at The Pennsylvania State Ralph Emerson Bitner, Centre Hall. Robert William Meyer, Rebersburg. Raymond Rhys Jenkins, Tyrone. At three o'clock, on Wednesday, Doctor

Sparks met the parents of the graduating cleaning his motorcycle in a room in the class, this being followed by the dedica- Struble home, using gasoline as a cleantion of the new $120,000 horticultural hall. er. It was after dark and he was using Dean R. L. Watts, of the Agricultural a lantern to furnish light. The fumes of School, acted as chairman, introducing C. the gasoline eventually caught fire from second honors, a total of 68, or more than J. Tyson, of Floradale, who, as one of the the lantern and an explosion followed. trustees of the college, gave a short his- Struble's clothes caught fire and it was tory of the development of horticulture owing to the fact that the family were the determination of the young men who at the Penn State College. Following all at home and their prompt action in attend State College to take advantage of him Professor M. G. Kins, the newly ap- smothering the flames that the young pointed head of the department, talked man was not burned to death. As it was on the "Potentialities of Horticulture in his hair was badly burned, his face and Pennsylvania." Dr. D. H. Stewart made hands blistered and his breast and stomlast Friday with a number of athletic the presentation of the portrait of the ach badly seared from his burning clothlate Gabriel Heister, it being accepted by crowd of visitors than ever invaded the President Sparks.

> and Mrs. Tener received visitors on the and confined to the house. president's lawn, after which came the junior farewell reception.

-For the last time we desire to call the attention of the people of Bellefonte to the entertainment to be given at the High school building this (Friday) even- Hall. morning was preached by Rev. William ing by Major R. H. Hendershot, the R. Jennings, pastor of the First church drummer boy of the Rappahannock, and of Germantown. In the afternoon at his son. As the entertainment will be four o'clock there was an organ recital, given under the auspices of Gregg Post dedicating the new $6,000 pipe organ there should be a good attendance. presented the college by the class of 1914. The class day exercises, track ----Clarence Martin, of Warriorsmark valley, who worked on a farm near Port Martin Ramsey. meet and the Junior oratorical contest Matilda, was returning from a visit home Tuesday was really alumni day, as the on Saturday and missed the train on the old Grads had something doing most of Bald Eagle Valley railroad, He attempted the time, One of the interesting feato board an eastbound freight but fell and tures was a reunion of the class of '64. sustained a fracture of both legs at the Of the fourteen members of the class ankles. He was found some time later still living eleven were present at the reand taken to the Altoona hospital early union, and one of the professers of that Monday morning. time joined with them. One member of ----Next Monday will be Flag Day, the class who lives in Minnesota started and it should be generally observed by east but was detained by a cyclone and all patriotic people. Bellefonters should not lag behind, but pay due honor to our Another important thing the alumni national emblem by a proper display of the stars and stripes. The Bellefonte Lodge of Elks will observe the day with a public meeting in the evening. Judge Ellis L. Orvis will make an appropriate place for holding student meetings with address. Everybody is invited. rooms for the accommodation of mem-

-A chance of a life time. Buy lots ten days.

at the big lot sale. -Antrim & Landsy, of Philadelphia, delivered to dean R. L. Watts, at State College, on Tuesday an exceptionally strong oil portrait of the late Gabriel Heister, of Harrisburg, for many years a trustee of the college and a leading figure in advanced agricultural enterprises. The painting was presented to the college at the commencement exercises Wednesday by the students in the agricultural course.

-Centre county gardeners are complaining about the depr worms on their cabbage, but a near ager of the Delaware and Hudson coal Bellefonte woman, who is cultivating a interests, a trustee to serve during the good sized garden, probably made the record catch on Tuesday when she pick-The trustees organized by electing H. ed a gallon and a half bucket almost full the Harrisburg High school, her neice, Ruth Walton Mitchell president, a position of worms. And before throwing the worms into Spring creek as food for the fish, she proved her catch by showing them to several Bellefonters who happened to pass her way. -A quiet wedding will be celebrated at the home of ex-sheriff Benjamin F. Schaeffer, at Nittany, at five o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when his grand-daughter, Miss Verne Allison, will become the bride of Paul Pearson, of Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Pearson has been located at State College the past year or two as an instructor in physics under Dr. W. R. Hamm. Only immediate relatives will be present at the wedding. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pearson will leave for Chicago where Mr. Pearson will pursue research work during the summer vacation period. ----County commissioner Noll, who has been pretty seriously "under the weather" the past two weeks and was forced to take a needed rest, has been back again on his job of helping to care for the interests of the taxpayers of the county since Monday last. Some people may think that the work of a county commissioner is a "cinch" but if they will ask Mr. Noll or any other citizen who has undertaken, and tried to perform the duties of the position, they will discover that they have cultivated a decidedly wrong impression of the work that is to be done, and the ease with which the affairs of the public can be attended to.

Ralph Conrad Bathgate, Peter Earl BADLY BURNED IN GASOLINE EXPLO-SION .- Ernest Struble, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Struble, and who is a student at State College, was badly burned in a gasoline explosion on Tuesday evening of last week. Young Struble was ing. Fortunately his burns did not prove fatal, though he has suffered considera-President and Mrs. Sparks, Governor ble agony and is still swathed in cotton

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. George Smith, of Syracuse, is with her parents, Mrs. J. C. Showers. -Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Ray had as week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Ray, of Mill

-Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wetzel, of east Linn street, are entertaining Miss Elizabeth Sharp, of Trenton, N. I. -Mrs. Mary Nolan and Mrs. Joseph Thomas went out to Pittsburgh on Monday to visit friends for a few days. -Miss Kate Dunlap returned to Bellefonte Saturday, after a visit in Altoona with Mrs. -W. L. Malin and his daughters, Miss Sara Malin and Mrs. Shugert, are entertaining Miss Evelyn Malin, of Baltimore. -Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morris Jr., entertained Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Bell, of Sunbury, during their stay in Bellefonte last week. -Miss Ella Hyatt, of Connellsville has been guest this week of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Dorworth. at their home on High street.

-Mrs. John Keichline, of Petersburg, and her three children are visiting with Dr. Keichline's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keichline, -Wilbur F. Harris and John Toner Harris, both of Harrisburg, were in Bellefonte over last Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Henry P. Harris. -The Misses Helen and Roxanna Mingle have had as guests during the past week, Miss Beulah Dundore and Mrs. Charles Yoder, of Wormelsdorf.

-Mrs. James P. Coburn is at Norristown visiting with her sister, Mrs. F. D. Sower, having left Bellefonte Tuesday expecting to be gone -Miss Harriet Burrows, of Watsontown, was the guest for a short time early in the week of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Mayes, at their home on Academy Hill.

-Rev. and Mrs, W. D. Engle, of Indianapolis, arrived in Bellefonte yesterday for a visit with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell.

-John C. Larimer, of Philadelphia, was in Bellefonte for a short stay with his mother. Mrs. J. F. Larimer, of Linn street. He left fonte yesterday

-Miss Helen McClure has returned to Werners ville to resume her work, after spending a two weeks vacation in Bellefonte with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McClure.

-Mrs. A. B. Steele was an over Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Steele, of Tyrone. -George Kirk, of Luthersburg, was a visitor this week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk.

-Mrs. Campbell, of Williamsport, was an over Sunday guest at the Fitzgerald home on | -Clifford Thomas, of New York city, has been south Spring street. -Joseph L. Montgomery has been in Chicago this week, having left here Monday on a business trip through the west. -Percy Miller, of Punxsutawney, a nephew of county treasurer John D. Miller, was a Bellefonte visitor over Tuesday night. -Miss Catharine Edmunds, of State College spent Friday in Bellefonte on her way over to Juntingdon to visit friends. -Mrs. Frank Derstine and son, of Altoona pent Sunday in Bellefonte with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Donachy. -Miss Mary Schad, a student at Oxford College for women, Oxford, Ohio, returned home on Saturday for her summer vacation. -Thomas H. Harter, of Loganton, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday, having motored up through the dust and hot weather. -Miss Lillian Koch returned on Monday from pending several weeks with her grandparents,

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Koch, at Boalsburg. -Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sheffer are at Mc-

Keesport visiting, having gone out last week on account of the serious illness of Mr. Sheffer's brother

-Boyd A. Musser and little son Harold, cam down from Altoona and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Musser, on east Lamb street.

-Mr. Peter Smith, a well known farmer of ear Centre Hill, was a business visitor in Belle- her brother, Darius Waite. Miss Waite anticifonte on Saturday and a welcome caller at the WATCHMAN office.

-Mrs. M. C. Levi and young son Leopold pent last Friday in Lock Haven, while there being the guests of Jacob Levi, who holds a good osition in that city. -Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown and two little daughters, of New York city, are in Bellefonte visiting Mrs. Brown's grandmother, Mrs. Agnes McCulley, on Bishop street. -Capt. W. H. Fry, the well known veterinarian of Pine Grove Mills, and Harry P. Austin, of Milesburg, have been in Williamsport this week serving as jurors in the United States district court.

-After spending the winter in Pittsburgh with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Depler, and also with friends in Altoona, Miss Bessie G. McCafferty, returned to her home on east Lamb street, Mon day evening.

-Mrs. Martin Haines and daughter, Miss Catharine, who were guests during High school commencement week of Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram, left on Saturday for their home in Rossiter, Pa.

-Jack Lyon, who is now located in Pittsburgh in charge of the electrical department of the Duquesne Power company, spent Saturday and Sunday in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mullen, of Shamokin pent some time in Bellefonte this week when there was nothing big on at the State College commencement: their son John being a student at that institution.

-The Misses Beatrice and Frances Durbin, of Ramey, who have been visiting for the past two veeks with their aunts, the Misses Margaret and Jane Miller, will leave Bellefonte this week to return to their home in Clearfield county. -Mrs. Shem Hockenburg and her son Charles, vere in Bellefonte the after part of last week with Mrs. Hockenburg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Weigley. Mr. and Mrs. Hockenburg have lived for two years on the William Allison farm near Spring Mills.

-Miss Lyda Miller, of Philadelphia, is spending her two weeks vacation in Bellefonte with her father. Robert Miller a guest of his sister, Miss Thomas, this week, while in Bellefonte looking after some business.

-Mrs. Sabra Simpson, of Pittsburgh, arrived in Bellefonte yesterday and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Knisely.

-Miss Anna Keichline left yesterday for Ithaca, N. Y., to attend the annual commence ment at Cornell University, which will be held next week.

-Mr. Clyde Krebs autoed down from State College to Bellefonte Saturday evening, to see his invalid aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs, of east Lamb street.

-Mrs. William Daley and son Edward will go to Pittsburgh the beginning of next week for a risit with Mrs. Daley's daughter, Mrs. Walter Fulton and family.

-Miss Grace Mitchell, an instructor in the Westover school at Middleburg, Conn., came to Bellefonte this week, to spend a part of her summer vacation with her father, Isaac Mitchell. -Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gettig and their son Donald, will leave tomorrow in their machine for Brownsville, for a visit with Mrs. R. Wynn Davis, who before her marriage was Miss Ethel Gettig. The trip will be made by the way of Bedford a Cumberland.

-Miss Imilda Buckingham, of Baltimore, is a guest of Miss Helen Schaeffer. Miss Buckingham has been spending a week at the Beta Theta house at State College, and has stopped here for a visit of several days on her way back to Maryland.

-Miss Laura Waite, who has been teaching in Georgia for several years, is at present a guest of pates spending the summer in Centre county, visiting and attending the summer school at State College.

-Miss Edith Ramey, of Tyrone, came to Belle fonte last week for the commencement exercises, and during her stay has been visiting with Miss Pauline Johnston, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy Johnston, of east Bishop street.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Beaver and their son, a party from Huntingdon, were here Sunday on a motor trip through Centre county. Mr. Bell is a son of Mrs. Charles Bell, who with Mr. Bell and their family lived in Bellefonte for a number of years.

-Mrs. Ward Fleming, of Philipsburg, with her son John and her mother, Mrs. Donaldson, of Butler, came to Bellefonte Tuesday expecting to spend ten days or two weeks with Mrs. W. I. Fleming. Mr. Fleming will join them here for a hort stay, before their return to Philipsburg.

-Robert and Sara Maitland, children of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Maitland, of Williamsport, have been visiting in Bellefonte with their aunt, Mrs. Charles Cruse. Robert and Sara were on their way home from Kansas City, where they had been to see their father, who is west on ac of ill health

-Mr. and Mrs. Orin Ishler and child are in Bellefonte visiting Mr. Ishler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ishler. The Ishlers are now located in Philadelphia where Mr. Ishler has charge of the electrical equipment of the Pennsylvania railroad company and just now he is engaged in making an inspection of such equipment on the main line between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and on the Philadelphia and Erie division.

-Miss Anna Shuey, a Junior at Dickinson College, who returned to Bellefonte Wednesday for her summer vacation, is the possessor of two well merited prizes amounting to fifty dollars. The first, given by Alexander G. Patton, of Curwensville, in memory of his father, General John Patton, is for General Excellence, and the second for Economics. Miss Shuey is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey, and has number on the program is "Joan of Arc." a tragedy in three acts. The play concludes with a most effective tableau,

----Owing to their inability to secure a room, the committee in charge of the rummage sale has been obliged to postpone it until October, asking that the public in general will pack and hold all contributions until notified of the date. Those unable to do this will please telebe out and around as usual. He is well that way on a fishing excursion.

the plant.

Chautauqua was in Bellefonte on Wednesday and yesterday and during the stay here a big street banner was put up, two thousand illustrated programs distributed, and gaily colored posters and streamers put up announcing the fact that the Chautauqua will be here the week beginning July 7th. The second advertising car will be along in about a week or ten days.

-For probably the first time in its history Gregg Post No. 95 G. A. R., was not represented at the State G. A. R. encampment held at Indiana, Pa., this week. 'Squire W. H. Musser, the delegate elected to attend, did not feel able to make the trip and the rush of work at the baggage room at the P. R. R. station owing to the State College commencement kept the alternate, Col. Emanuel Noll, from attending.

-Miss Sara Rishel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al. Rishel, who has been in the Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh, since the Holidays, undergoing treatment for a diseased bone in her leg, was brought home on Saturday practically cured. The bone Guernsey Webb, Gerald Robison Butz, has all filled in and the leg healed up Henry Shelley Cocklin, Harold DuBois with the exception of two or three slight Foster, Harry Edgar Corl, Samuel Redabrasions. A trained nurse was in secker, Lucy Christine Kemmerer, of charge of Miss Rishel and she will remain until her patient has entirely regained her health and strength.

The John W. White scholarship, $400. was awarded to Miles Horst, and the fifty dollar medal to Mildred Emma Ride. The Millers' association prizes were awarded to William Alexander Noll, William Bruce Mather and Hylton Roller Brown.

President Sparks announced that John B. White, of London, had made a bequest to the College of $7,000 to institute a course in Spanish.

Of the 323 graduates seventeen are from Centre county, as follows: John Orvis Keller, Bellefonte.

Frederick Patterson Weaver, Eric Linden Martz, Edgar Boyd Moyer, Alan State College.

Albert Murray Houser, of Pennsylvania Furnace.

ھر

-Free train leaves Bellefonte 10:30 the mornings of the 19th and 20th, for the big lot sale.

-On Tuesday afternoon Mervin S. Betz, of Jacksonville got together four of his friends and in his new Ford car started for State College to see the State-Chinese baseball game. They crossed little Nittany mountain from Jacksonville to Hublersburg and came up the State road. Everything went all right until the double turn in the road beyond Beaver's farm. Merv was looking to one side instead of straight ahead and to avoid running into the fence made a short turn while the car was going at a good clip. The result was it overturned and the five men were ditched. Fortunately none of them were injured worth mentioning but practically all the trimmings on the body of the car were smashed. The machinery, however, was not damaged and after the car had been righted it was run into Keichline's garage on its own power.

-John Blanchard was in Philadelphia this week, having gone east Monday to attend the wedding of his cousin, Morris Wood, a grandson of Mrs. Wistar Morris, of Overbrook. -Mrs. J. D. Geissinger went to Harrisburg last week to attend the commencement exercises of Kerstetter, being a member of the class of 1914. -Walter Furst, of New Haven, Conn., has been in Centre county during the past week, visiting with his mother, Mrs. Austin O. Furst, and attending the State College comm -Mrs. Winters, wife of Ensign F. H. Winters, of the Battleship Maine, is visiting with her grandfather, Rev. James P. Hughes. Mrs. Win ters will be remembered as Miss Emily Bassett. -Prof. and Mrs. S. C. Humes and Miss Kathe rine Hayes, all of Union City. Pa., have been among the guests whom Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Willard have been entertaining during the past week.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Willard Hall are in Williams port. Mrs. Hall visiting with her neices and nephews, while Mr. Hall acts as a grand juror in the United States district court in session this week -Miss Helen Valentine, who has been studying in Pittsburgh during the winter came to Bellefonte last week, to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Valentine -Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jenkins, of Tyrone, and Miss Catherine Snyder, of Altoona, were among those who stopped in Bellefonte last week or their way to attend the commencement exercises at State College. -Mrs. Blair, of Philadelphia with her sister, Mrs. Charles Mensch and her two sons, Thomas and Charles, left Tuesday for Franklin, where they are visiting with Mrs. Blair and Mrs.

Mensch's neice, Mrs. Cox. -Dr. R. G. H. Hayes returned from Harrisburg vesterday bringing with him his sister, Mrs, S-H. Orwig, and her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Orwig expect to be in Bellefonte for the summer on account of the ill health of Mr. Orwig. -Mrs. George Dallas Dixon and son-in-law,

Dr. Vaux, of Philadelphia, were in Bellefonte for a short time the latter part of last week, having come up for a visit with Mrs. Dixon's sister Mrs. Shelden, who is living at the Bush house. -Mrs. Robert Fay, of Altoona, and her daugh ter Patty, spent the fore part of the week in llefonte, having been called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Fay's mother, Mrs. John Lane. Mrs. Lane is rapidly recovering from her udden illness.

-J. Thomas Mitchell went over to Burnham last Friday and remained until Tuesday evening with his brother, Joseph D. Mitchell and family, Returning he met Mrs. Mitchell, who was returning from Pittsburgh, in Tyrone and accompanied her home. -Miss Margaret Darden, of Suffolk, Va., is spending the month of June in Bellefonte with Miss Ellen Hayes. Miss Darden, who is a schoolmate of Miss Hayes at Sweetbriar college, came here with the Hayes family upon their return from commencement at Sweetbrian

-Mrs. Leyden and her daughter, Miss Leyden, who left Bellefonte yesterday, have been visiting for a week with the Misses Anne and Caroline Valentine, at their home, Burnham Place. Mrs-Leyden and her daughter and the Misses Valentine met in Rome and became friends while traveling in Europe. -Mrs. Arnold, wife of Lieutenant Commander

C. L. Arnold, of the battleship Michigan, stationed at Seattle, Washington, arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday. Mrs. Arnold will spend an indefinite time with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, owing to her husband having been or-dered to Vera Cruz.

-Miss Margaret Harbison, of Strasburg, a school friend of Mrs. William Wallis, came to Bellefonte Friday of last week to visit with Mrs. Wallis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Conley. Miss Harbison is spending this week attending the commencement at State.

-Miss Grace Irene Beck, who has been visiting er parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Beck, at Snydertown, was a guest of friends in Bellefonte Tuesday night and Wednesday. She expects to return to Atlantic City next Monday to resume er duties as a professional nurse.

-Mrs. Hugh N. Crider and Miss Helen Ceader | Milroy. left Bellefonte Sunday to go to New York, as guests of Mrs. Crider's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freeman, of Tyrone. When returning this week, Mrs. Crider and Miss Ceader will stop for a short time in Philadelphia, and at the Shore. -Among the old students who were back for State College commencement was William B. Plank, '08, of Crafton, Pa., a mining engineer with the Pittsburgh Coal company; and while he was at the College his wife and child visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Beck, at Snyder-

-Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wagner, of Altoona, went over to Tussevville on Friday to attend the Heckman-Rossman wedding on Saturday. Returning they spent Sunday in Bellefonte with Mrs. Wagner's sister, Mrs. Francis Miller and family, going back to Altoona Sunday evening.

town.

-Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis returned to Clearfield Sunday afternoon. Mrs. McGinnis had come over for the High school commencement while Mr. McGinnis joined her here for the week-end at Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield's, who entertained their son-in-law, Charles Larimer, also, during that time.

-Theodore Davis Boal was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday and commenting upon how hot it was in Bellefonte he said that over at his home a Boalsburg it is never as hot as it is in Belleonte and never as cold in the winter time. And that is probably one of the reasons why Mr. Boal's home is so ideal.

-Mrs. Andrew Engle came down from Alcoona last Friday and leaving her little son Andrew Engle Jr., in care of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Caldwell, went to Chester and accom panied her sister Elizabeth Mewshaw, to Punysu tawney for a visit with another sister, Mrs. Alfred Tate. Mrs. Engle returned to Bellefonte on Wednesday

-The guests whom Dr. W. S. Glenn, of State College, has been entertaining this week in-cludes his daughters, Mrs. John Kottcamp, and her two children, and Miss Annie Glenn, of Brooklyn, his son William, a medical student at Cincinnati and his three brothers, Rev. George M. Glenn, of Philipsburg, Dr. Thomas O. Glenn, of Bradford, and Reuben M. Glenn, of Tulsa Oklahoma.

-Mr. and Mrs. William F. Rees and little daughter, of Patton, have been in Bellefonte this week visiting Mr. Rees' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Washington Rees. Will, by the way, was one of the successful candidates for the legislativ omination at the recent primaries and as Cambria county is naturally Republican he stands a good chance of being elected. Of course his Bellefonte friends wish him all kinds of succes

-Mr. James L. Noll, who spent a few days the early part of the week with his father, commis sioner W. H. Noll, out at the Gap, returned on Wednesday morning to Chicago, where he has been employed by the Tazenell Coal company for the past two years. Mr. Noll is another Centre county boy who is making good every day and earning a reputation for business push and integrity that is already attracting attention among the substantial men of his new home.

received recognition several times for her good work since entering college.

-One of the visitors at State College commencement this week was John B. White, a member of the firm of Beaver, White & Co., investment brokers and bankers, of London, Eng. Mr. White, who is a brother of J. Gilbert White. of New York city, and a nephew of the late Gen. James A. Beaver, graduated at State in the class of 1894, and it has been a number of years since he has visited the College. He spent a short time renewing old acquaintances in Bellefonte efore motoring over to his boyhood home a -Buy lots in State College, the fastest growing town in the State.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce. Potatoes per bushel, new... 75 $1,00 Eggs, per dozen

Bellefonte Grain Markets

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press.

Dave and the state and
Rye, per bushel	2.22.20
Corn, shelled, per bushel	4.1.2
Corn, ears ner hushal
Oats, old and new, per bushel	•••
Dars, old and new, per busnel
Barley, per bushel	0842

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the

	Wheat-Red	$1.00%@1.01
2	-INO. 2	99% @1.00
	Corn -Yellow	79%@80
	-Mixed new	78@781/2
	Oats	46%@47
	Flour -Winter, per barrel	3.85@4.10
1	" -Favorite Brands	5.00@5.25
3	Rye Flour per barrel	3.40@3.50
2	Baled Hay-Choice Timothy No. 1	1 10.00@19.00
3	" Mixed No. 1	14.00@17.50
	Straw	9.50@16.50

The Best Advertising Medium in Centra Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with indepen-dence enough to have, and with ability and cour-age to express, its own views, printed in eight-page form-six columns to page-and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsi-ble people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year.... Paid after expiration of year.... . $1.50 .. 1.75 .. 2.00 Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions. be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex cept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be sold at the following rates:

LEGAL AND TRANSIENT.

All legal and transient advertising running for our weeks or less,

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS. Per inch, each insertion......25 cts.

The following discounts will be allowed on ad nents continued for Four weeks, and under three mos..10 per ct. Three mos. and under six mos.....15 per ct. Six mos. and under 12 mos.......25 per ct.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unles accompanied by the cash.