Denrocratice Matchman.

BY P. GRAY MEEK.

INK SLINGS.

-It was a year ago this morning that we had a killing frost in many parts of Centre county.

-Now don't come around telling us that council isn't going to have that new policeman any longer.

-Sunday, Monday and Tuesday must have been the kind that gave rise to the query as to what is rarer than a day in Tune.

-The Britons may beat us at polo, but polo is a game that the skill of the boys from the back-lots has never had a

--- If Uncle Joe Cannon doesn't say something pretty soon the public will be at a loss to know whether he has really been "lost, strayed or stolen."

-If the Inter-State Commerce Commission doesn't want to make a ruling on that freight-rate case why doesn't it platform endorses the initiative and ref- and industrial justice that our generation hope. "I look for a great landslide for throw up its job and go home.

-Talking about dry towns and dry counties Bellefonte and Centre county are about as dry as any places we know of now-so far as H2O is concerned. ---High tariffs do tempt smugglers but the UNDERWOOD law is not open to that objection notwithstanding our pessi-

Ledger. -No. the Coinel won't speak in Pennsylvania in the fall. English throat specialists have decreed that he must keep quiet, if he hopes to save his vocal organs from total paralysis. --- Mexico need not despair of finding a strong man for President. There are one fundamental condition which is ab- and ask support for Brother Gifford the Senate could veto the iniquity. plenty of men down there who smell worst they are welcome to ROOSEVELT.

-Nittany valley farmers are making hay. The grass is short but thick and should it set in wet after the first crop is taken off these early birds stand a splendid chance of harvesting a better second

-Mothers who can't find time to properly chaperone those daughters who are adopted authorizing the chairman to ap- and industrial justice." How can Broth- istration of Woodrow Wilson has made just budding into womanhood might later spend all of their time nursing hearts three gentlemen in question, to prepare a ROOSEVELT and FLINN? It is true that he has been accustomed to impossible what more could the insurgents ask for. broken by the downfall of the misguided

-The total cost of the primary camcirculation

-Dr. Dixon suggests that "if you must use alcohol in hot weather burn it in a chafing dish." This is all very pretty, but wouldn't a fellow be a sight toting a highest esteem of the Democratic voters. chafing dish along with him when he But they were never commissioned to goes fishing

-Mr. PAGE says rich men stand very little chance of being elected to office. Happily for our candidate for Governor, grossest and most offensive form of who has already invested $33,000 in the bossism that has ever been perpetrated the Democratic State committee, conchance, we don't believe Mr. PAGE knows in Pennsylvania. If Colonel Guffey and tinues to wage a factional fight in the what he is talking about.

-Have you been to the Carnival? It is not quite so uplifting as the Chautauqua will be, but you might go and take a little slide backward just to cut out a little more work for Dr. PEARSON and his uplifters, when they come.

-Eighty thousand men will be needed to harvest this season's wheat crop. There probably are that many unemployed in the country, but, if there are, seventy-nine thousand of them would rathar die standing in a "bread line" than follow a binder in the harvest field.

-In Clinton county the votes McCor-MICK and PALMER secured cost nearly $1.50 per vote. The campaign fund there was over $1400.00 and the total number of votes polled for McCormick was 1419. Of the funds raised PAUL O. BROSIUS, the newly appointed postmaster of Lock Haven, contributed $375.00.

-A dozen or more motors go up High street every day with their "cut-outs" wide open, and we haven't heard of a penny in fines dropping into the borough treasury. What's the use of the clause away the keys when an accommodating in the traffic ordinance if it is not to be enforced. Better take it out entirely than have it daily held in contempt.

-Why is it that every bit of a boy who walks with a girl on the street must has made some Congressmen earn their needs grab her by the arm and hang on. salaries and kept others in Washington She doesn't need his help. He doesn't need to be led. If mothers were to get obliged to spend most of theirs. together and do a little hard thinking over what these gradual bits of familiarity lead to we are sure that this one of to "stop tipping" by offering its employees the steps by which some girls get to the fair wages we would have more faith in the meeting of the ward committee at PAYNE tariff would have looted the peothat they rattle would be cut out.

-The President has unearthed an organized campaign on the part of big business to scare Congress into adjourning before it has completed his program of Congress out of revising the tariff down-water is low. ward, it also tried to scare it out of passing the new currency bill, so that big business ought to have discovered by on his primary platform" but he can't this time that this Democratic Congress shove Penrose off without tipping it up.

STATE RIGHTS AND FEDERAL UNION.

BELLEFONTE, PA. JUNE 19, 1914.

VOL. 59.

Democratic Platform of Pennsylvania.

That there is considerable opposition croachment imaginable.

These provisions of the measure, how- the Colonel. mistic friend, the esteemed Philadelphia Democratic people of the State in the tion of the other. manner they should be expressed.

paign for McCormick and Palmer, in the State committee asked that the paper Roosevelt or half as efficient. There-that Republican dominance is the only ince of Alberta, Can, of a gushe, rising the read in order that it might be ratified fore, if Brother Amos is going to create remedy. He may fool a few but not only ince of Alberta, Can, of a gushe, rising the research of the committee asked that the paper Roosevelt or imminent and the discovery at Dingman, in the province of Alberta, Can, of a gushe, rising the control of the committee asked that the paper Roosevelt or imminent and the discovery at Dingman, in the province of Alberta, Can, of a gushe, rising the control of dency to put a lot of new money into or amended, they were voted "out of a censorship he ought to play fair with enough to accomplish his purpose. order." The chosen representatives of the people were denied a voice in the matter.

The three gentlemen who met in Philadelphia or Washington may enjoy the draft and promulgate a Democratic platform for the Democrats of Pennsylvania. Their usurpation of this power was the In place of giving to the party a Demo- 253,788. Mr. CAUFFEL, Mr. WOOD and managers say the increase is necessary product will be a trifling circumstance crats generally.

-It is only two weeks until the of election. tion arises, will Bellefonte again cele- if the chairman of the Democratic State year to the aggregate cost of living. brate safely and sanely, as in the past committee persists in factional war. Whatever industrial paralysis there two years. One thing is certain, Belle

-For almost a half a day last week there were no prisoners in the county jail and sheriff A. B. Lee was thinking seriously of locking up and throwing officer of the law brought him several boarders.

-One great virtue of the WILSON administration has been overlooked. It so continuously that they have been point where they are said to be so loose the opinion of the General Manager of one place and held it at another. In ple for a generation. commissions serve what she likes with her cash. ping."

-Of course Dr. BRUMBAUGH "stands

Brother Amos is Inconsistent.

Mr. Amos R. E. PINCHOTT, brother of the point of view of the individual mem- VELT and Mr. PERKINS began while PER- control of the Senate in the next elecber of the party. A man may be a local KINS was a member of the firm of Mor- tion." The coveted landslide in 1916 optionist and a Democrat or he may GAN & Co. It developed during various wouldn't be much use to men of the To the objection so long and so persistentimagine that the initiative and referendum visits of Mr. Perkins to the White House, Frick type if the Republicans are in the ly adhered to by the mediators, namely, in no sense impairs the force of the con- while that concern was "working" ROOSE- minority in the Senate and the next elecstitutional mandate that the "legislative VELT, as President of the United States, tion is their only chance to get control. power of this Commonwealth shall be for its own advantage. Colonel Roose- There would be no use in taking the stitutional succession is impossible. vested in a General Assembly, which VELT cannot well allow such an asper- President away from his breakfast to abshall consist of a Senate and House of sion upon his friend to go unresented or rogate laws of Congress against combina-Representatives." These are psychological unrebuked. If he resents the attack of tions, as he did when the Tennessee Iron Representatives." These are psychological unrebuked. If he resents the attack of questions and may be interpreted according to the frame of mind. But there is factor he can't come into Pennsylvania Steel trust, if a Democratic majority in would be frankly a revolutionary and unsent from the present platform of the without stultifying himself. Therefore, For Mr FRICK's purposes all branches of strong and if the worst comes to the Democratic party of Pennsylvania. It denouncing PERKINS by one PINCHOTT is the government must be obedient to the does not express the sentiments of the clearly destroying every hope of the elec- call of monopoly.

Morris Waging Factional War.

Mr. ROLAND S. MORRIS, chairman of two or more of his friends had under- party. If he knows anything at all he taken such a thing they would have been must be aware that complete harmony crucified, figuratively speaking. The affords the only hope of success at the

there is a fighting chance. Chairman Morris is plunging into fac- sistance.

Mr. Frick's Ideas and Hopes.

Mr. HENRY C. FRICK, former partner to the so-called Democratic platform pro- the Bull Moose candidate for United of ANDREW CARNEGIE and since that mulgated at Harrisburg on the 3rd in- States Senator in Pennsylvania, shows closely associated with J. PIERPONT MORstant is not surprising. For more than more courage than discretion in reading GAN in the Steel trust and kindred entera hundred years the party has regularly George W. Perkins out of the leader- prises, has returned from Europe and expressed opposition to sumptuary legis- ship of his party. What he says of PER- joined the chorus of calamity howlers. lation and this deliverance boldly de- KINS is unquestionably true. He has "The equanimity of affairs has been upclares for local option. From the begin- been and still is one of "monopoly's ar- set," he declares, "by tariff legislation ning the party has insisted upon a strict dent supporters," as well as "one of the and the administration's attitude toward construction of the constitution and this most distinguished opponents of social business." But happily he is not without erendum, a sort of Populistic device to has produced." But he is the intimate the Republicans in 1916," he adds. -Brother Amos may be confident of subvert the constitution. Always the personal friend and political adviser of Speaking of the request of the railroads the financial strength of the family but party has favored "the largest liberty to THEODORE ROOSEVELT and the most lib- for permission to increase freight rates Brother GIFFORD has a better idea of the brother GIFFORD has a brother G form endorses every governmental en- he was the heart of the ROOSEVELT cam- tled to more." His motto will probapaign of 1912 and is the future hope of bly always be "all the traffic will bear." cession to the present regime shall be ever, are faults or merits according to The intimacy between Colonel Roose- "would like to see the Republicans get opinion. The three delegates will deterconstitutional body.

The character of the new provisional

As a matter of fact Mr. FRICK knows Moreover Brother Amos is quite as in- about as much of the science of govern-Some days before the meeting of the consistent in denouncing PERKINS as he ment as an Angora goat knows about the Democratic State committee at Harris- is indiscreet. ROOSEVELT himself is signs of the zodiac. Having through the burg three gentlemen assembled in Phil- hardly less ardent in his support of mo- fruitage of special privilege acquired a adelphia or Washington and prepared nopoly than Perkins and Boss Bill vast fortune he has fallen into the habit this paper. At the meeting of the com- FLINN, of Pittsburgh, has PERKINS "skin- of buying what he wants at whatever that they will have difficulty in finding this paper. At the meeting of the com- FLINN, of Pittsburgh, has PERKINS "Skin- of buying what he wants at whatever mittee in Harrisburg a motion was ned a mile," as an opponent of "social price asked. But the Democratic admining reasons to object. With one of their representatives in the Presidency, and adopted authorizing the chairman to appoint a committee of nine, including the er Amos condemn Perkins and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committee to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms, and cherish such traffic in affairs of government as committed to Constitutionalist reforms. platform. This committee of nine ac- PERKINS is less hypocritical than the oth- and he wants a return of old conditions. cepted the paper prepared by the self- ers and possibly doesn't make as much With that purpose in mind he is trying appointed committee of three, and issued pretense of virtue. But he has never to make the people believe that indusit as the platform. When members of been more servile to monopolies than trial paralysis is present or imminent and From the San Francisco Chronicle, port presented to the Domi

> The weather this week has been --- The esteemed Allentown Democrat extremely cool for this time of year, the that it will be run on a different plan The same day ripe cherries were brought out of a total of more than 350,000,000 was a matter of doubt. from that which has made the Allentown to the Bellefonte market, hay was being barreis, but it such gusners are well distributed over what is admittedly an oilmade in some parts of Centre county and on some farms the corn was just showing these amounts will be increased enorthrough the ground. A good soaking rain about this time would be welcomed by the farmers.

The Evil of Commissions.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has been dallying with the rate question "Old Guard" was repudiated because its coming election. For the office of Gov- for more than a year. It is one of the leaders were accused of bossism and for ernor, for example, the aggregate vote problems left over from the TAFT adminthe reason that their successors in con- of McCormick and Ryan, at the May istration. The railroads east of the Mis- Canada, it means most of all. trol promised to eliminate bossism. Yet primary, was 200,854, while the Republisissippi river ask the privilege of increasthey are out-Heroding Herod in bossism. can candidate, Mr. BRUMBAUGH, received ing freight rates five per cent. Their cratic platform, they have simply given to Mr. RITTER, candidates for the Republi- to avert bankruptcy. The most extenthe public a one man platform. It is no can nomination, polled a total vote of sive shippers have freely consented to wonder the document is being repudiated 66,309. If Mr. McCormick is able to hold the proposition. They understand that in every part of the State, and by Demo- all his own primary vote and get that the consumer will have to pay, anyway, coast. cast for RYAN and the three minority and it makes no material difference to Republican candidates, he has a chance them whether the rate is high or low. But it makes a vast difference to the con-Fourth of July and naturally the ques- But this result can hardly be expected sumer. It will add millions of dollars a al centre between those fields and the

Those Republicans who voted against has been within the past year is ascribafonte merchants are not stocking up BRUMBAUGH for the nomination have lit- ble to the delay in settling this question. with fireworks, so that there will be no tle encouragement to come to the Demo- If decided in favor of the railroads they cratic candidates if the manager of the would start the boom instantly. If set-inform so many persons of deposits on jumped just in time to prevent the spring of the Democratic campaign is driving Demo- tled against the railroads the chances which we pay interest," said the receiv- rattler and the two men caught the snake with a cratic voters away. Men inclined to leave are fifty to one that necessary improvetheir own party are not likely to attach ments and repairs would be made with themselves to an organization which is industrial activity as an inevitable conset the $3,000 limit and some of them were weakened by discord and dissensions. quence. But the Commission doesn't de-They need the incentive of the hope of cide. Presumably the commissioners success to entice them into new alliances want to favor the railroads but are afraid and there can be no such hope where of the consequences. Public resentment during the past year." there are factions. The margin is meagre is an unpleasant if not a dangerous force under the most favorable conditions. But Public commissions are not courageous bodies. They prefer lines of little retionalism with all his energy, nevertheYet the tendency everywhere is toward her $100,000 life savings to the work of less. With the view of gaining strength government by commission. It is the her $100,000 me savings to the work of the Methodist board of foreign missions. in the Philadelphia city committee he ready answer to every vexed problem We can only guess that she must be a -If the Pullman Company would try has resorted to every conceivable trick. that arises. If tariff reform had been In one Senate district his followers called left to a commission the Aldrichthat company that "you cannot stop tip- other districts fake contests have been a double purpose of the politicians, howcreated and in still others the fairly elect- ever. They evade responsibility and ed State committeemen are being malign- multiply offices. They avert blame and -It's a pretty smart sucker that ed in the bitterest terms. Probably Mr. supply jobs. They are a delusion and a manages to evade the grappler and the Morris doesn't want to win, however. snare and the man who proposes a comsmall boy who keeps a close watch on Men of his calibre usually prosper better mission for any purpose of government legislation. Big business tried to scare the creek, during the day when the in the minority and it looks as if he is is a public enemy. The record of the "'electioneerin' fer a lickin.'" The can- Interstate Commerce Commission in its

this time that this Democratic Congress shove Penrose off without tipping it up.

They must stand together on or off the bug-a-boo bobs up.

—Calamity howling is absurd enough anywhere but Senator Penrose howling costs you no more than the cheapest paper in the county.

—Remember that the WATCHMAN and some other papers that cost you just as much.

—Remember that the WATCHMAN and some other papers that cost you just as much.

—Remember that the WATCHMAN and some other papers that cost you just as much.

NO. 25.

The Mexican Settlement.

that the method of succession now pro-

by whose act a devolution of that office upon an agreed successor could be le-government being agreed to, it would be necessary only to secure an agreement upon its personnel. A concensus of opin-

Canada's Oil Boom.

ment by Alfred von Hannerstein, within her own dominions, while, of advantage to manufacturing consumers, tre of commercial gravity to the Pacific

Moreover, the Alberta oil fields constitute another assurance of ample traffic for the Panama Canal, while San Fran-

Saving Deposits.

started a comparatively short time ago.

New accounts are increasing in number every week. Thrift among all classes seems to have increased tremendously

Her Life Work Invested.

very old woman to have saved so much at a trade that is only so-so as a money maker. At any rate, there has been no great waterway.

From the Wall Street Journal.

From the Brooklyn Eagle.

but with the certain shifting of the cen-

mously

From the Philadelphia Record.

-The rebuilding of the plant of the South Fork Brick company, which was destroyed by fire some time ago, will be completed in the next few days. Almost the entire structure was new-

SPAWLS FROM THE KEYSTONE.

-George W. Hipple, a prominent manufacturer at Lock Haven, died at his home at that place on Friday afternoon. He was sitting in an easy chair and was suddenly stricken, dying shortly after. Mr. Hipple was in his 81st year.

-Four thieves of Lock Haven, who have made a practice of visiting a certain house, were scared away on Thursday night, when Mrs. George Good, a neighbor to the victims of the thieves, hissed a vicious bulldog on them.

-Edward Elinksky, a coal miner employed near Snow Shoe was taken to the Lock Haven hospital Tuesday suffering from probably fatal burns the result of an explosion of powder. His hands, arms, face and head are badly burned. His home is in Wilkes-Barre.

There shall be a provisional junta de -The great task of re-indexing the recorder's gobierno to take over the Mexican govoffice at Sunbury, which will cost about $20,000 ernment from General Huerta; and the United States, together with the A. B. C. Powers of South America, will formaland the contract for which is held by former Rocorder E. V. Nicely, was begun last Thursday by a woman, Miss Grace Crosby, of New York. ly recognize this government as soon as an expert in this line of work.

convenient after its institution. This, in substance, is the first article in the peace -In the Quemahoning coal mines, at Jerome, protocol, and it has been agreed to by the American and Mexican delegates and by the three mediators. The wording of Alex. Bartholomew, aged 27 years, was badly injured in a wreck. His left lung is punctured, splinter from the mine cars having penetrated the article indicates that General Huerta his body. He was hurried to the Johnstown is to have no hand in the proposed transhospital, where it is believed that he will die.

fer of authority. His contribution to the -Mrs. Dora Daire, aged 35, mysteriously dissettlement will be an unconditional resappeared from her home in Coalport. Ever since the tragic death of her son, who accidentally the government to be established in suc-

-Joseph Bobish, aged 12 years, of Patton, was one that will command the confidence of Of course and naturally Mr. FRICK all Mexicans and the support of public ton on Tuesday evening. The lad had a rope attached to the cow and the other end tied around mine when these conditions have been his waist. The cow scared at an umbrella and secured, so that Huerta may eliminate made a wild dash dragging the lad after her and himself in accordance with his promise. breaking his neck.

-Ray Corsell and Roy Jones, of Carbondale, were drowned in Miller's pond near Pleasant Mount, Wayne county, on Tuesday, when the posed would be violative of the Mexican boat from which they were fishing was overturned by the wind. Neither of the men could swim and sank two hundred feet off shore before Mexico has no constitutional President help could reach them.

-Dewey Culver, of Kylertown, while in bathing with several other boys who are camping near that place, was drowned on Thursday afternoon. He was caught in a whirlpool and the strong suction drew him under. Culver was an orphan 16 years of age. His body was found several hours afterward.

-John Svinor, a miner in the No. 42 mine of the Windber-White company, at Windber, was ion as to the agrarian and other reforms killed on Saturday afternoon when a train of to be instituted in Mexico was arrived at empty cars became uncoupled. Svinor was in the first stage of the mediation. The caught in the smashup and his body was badly prospect of an early completion of the mangled. He was only 22 years of age and had conference, is, therefore, excellent. The Constitutionalists, of course, claim a right been married but a short time. to be heard; but the agreement will probably be so favorable to their cause

-Miss Ruth McKinley, aged 17, of Williams port, at a hearing before an alderman at that place admitted that she in company with a young man, forged checks on several banks in the city, totalling $1,000. She at first laid the blame upon her mother, but finally admitted to the charge.

-A colony of men furloughed at the Standard steel works, at Burnham, during the past week are preparing to leave for the harvest fields of Oklahoma, working their way towards the northwestern wheat belt as the season advances. They can see no indication of industrial improvem at Burnham before the winter sets in and the rate issue is decided.

-While he was sleeping on a chair on on his front porch Saturday, John Sarachi who Wallopsburg, fell heavily from the porch to the more than four years ago predicted a big ground, a distance of about fifteen feet. He is future for oil and natural gas in that region. Hitherto Canada's contribution to expresses confidence in the success of thermometer Wednesday morning being the Allentown Chautauqua. Let us hope the Allentown Chautauqua. Let us hope down to forty-eight degrees above zero.

Interest Canada's contribution to the world's annual petroleum supply has been something less than 250,000 barrels not recovered consciousness and his recovery

-Miss Florence Bauer, of St. Mary's, while sleeping at her home Tuesday morning, was bearing area of great extent both of suddenly awakened when she felt her face smart. She arose and found that some one had thrown To the oil-consuming world the new red pepper in her face in the hope of blinding discovery is, indeed, a promising sign, since it is a further guarantee that the her. On going down-stairs she saw a man running through the yard, and also found that a increasing supply of the most efficient fuel will keep pace with the rapidly in-creasing demand. To Great Britain, with window in the house was open. The man evidently was bent on robbery.

-Earl Shearer, aged 23, of Johnsonburg, was her large navy, and still larger merchant accidentally shot in the abdomen on Friday aftermarine, it must be specially gratifying to note the assurance of big supplies noon. He wanted to buy a revolver from a friend of his by the name of Rhinehart. To properly display the weapon Rhinehart buckled course, to the Pacific coast division of the belt and holster around Shearer's waist, and in showing how quickly the weapon could be Far from being adversely affected, Cal- drawn, the revolver was discharged. Shearer is ifornia will be considerably benefitted by in a serious condition in the Lock Haven hosthe discovery. The competition with our pital.

-One thousand pennies were presented to compared with not only the consequent Alderman James I. Paul at Williamsport Friday morning by the Heller Dry Cleaning company in payment of a ten dollar fine imposed for exceedng the speed limit in violation of the provisions of the traffic ordinance. The alderman stated that hereafter all those who paid their fines in coppers must have them wrapped up in packages of 25 each or he would not take the trouble to cou

-"Now I'll have a quiet smoke," said Michael Berish, of Munson, on a fishing trip, as he lit a pipe of tobacco and proceeded to take huge whiffs. "I love the pigs and chickens, but this is the life." "Look out there, Mike, you're sitting on a rattlesnake," shouted Code Davis, coming ing teller of one of the largest savings banks in New York. "In the last few weeks several dozen accounts reached before the largest savings forked stick. It was adorned with twelve rattles. —While swimming in the river at the mouth of Deer Creek vesterday Dewey Culver of Victor and Vi

Deer Creek yesterday Dewey Culver, of Kylertown, aged 16 years, lost his life by drowning and Arthur Dale, of the same place and about the same age, made a very narrow escape. Neither of the boys could swim very well, and had ventured out where the water was too deep. Young Dale was rescued and revived by some npanions, but Culver could not be reached and fully two hours elapsed before his body was recovered. The boys were part of a number of young people who had gone to the river to enjoy the day picnicking.

-On Monday of last week Chief Game Warden Berrier, Harrisburg, and Joseph Smith, of Muncy, a game protector, went to Renovo and arrested four men, E. A. Hillard, William Mills. Lloyd Kunes and Edward Smith, charged with ing and eating a wild turkey. The men consowing to the wind, and she is doing fessed their guilt before a magistrate and paid a fine of $100, the costs running the sum up to $110. The men shot the turkey while on a fishing excursion. It proved to be a hen and from the number of eggs it contained there would have been quite a flock of young turkeys in that section had the hen not been shot.

-Inventory of the estate of Abram Benner, a Dewart storekeeper, who died suddenly about two months ago, shows that he was worth $82, 095.48. More than $70,000 of this was in cash in bank of Milton. Nothing about Mr. Benner's

No Monte Carlo at Panama

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The plan of Parisisians to make Panama

the world's gambling center does not take into account the interests of the United States in that Republic. An institution of that sort would be quite as weldidates who have more at stake should treatment of the rate question is ample quitoes and yellow fever to the former National bank and $14,535.88 in the First National plague spot of the world.