

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE SINGERS.

With the Churches of the County.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.
Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 9½ E. High street.

Gospel services to be held in the Y. M. C. A. building Sunday, July 5th, at 7:30 p. m. Subject The Prodigal. Services to be conducted by Mrs. E. A. Holbrook, of Bellefonte.

Children's day services will be held in the M. E. church at Coleville on Sunday evening at 7.15 o'clock. The address will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. D. J. Frum. The public is invited.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Only a few more days yet and the wheat will be ready to harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. States visited friends at Alexandria on the Sabbath.

W. D. Port and wife visited friends at Centre Line the latter part of last week.

Mrs. L. Mothersbaugh was taken to the Bellefonte hospital Monday for treatment.

State College and Scotia folks are arranging to make the eagle scream on Independence day.

Ralph Illingsworth, of Tyrone, is getting a tan on his grandfather Snyder's hay field.

Roy Gates is home from a New York electrical college, spending his vacation in his mother's hay field.

Wm. Haroster and family spent the latter part of the week at the H. C. Houck home west of town.

John Lytle and sister Ruth were over Sunday visitors at the William Lytle home at Rock Springs.

Charley Klingler is breaking ground for a new barn near the old burned site. Will Stover has the job.

Theodore Kitchey, Esq., of Altoona, spent several days last week at the L. H. Osman home at Pine Hall.

Rev. John E. Roush, of Loganton, came over in his new Maxwell car and is showing his lady friend around.

Mrs. Kate Roan, of Pittsburgh, is visiting friends in the valley. Though her locks are silvered she is looking well.

Mrs. Eckle, daughter and sister, Miss Stewart, of Altoona, are visiting the Mrs. Brocker and J. R. Smith homes this week.

Rev. James J. Glenn, of Cumberland Valley, with his wife and son are visiting relatives at State College and down Pennsylvania.

A. H. Hartwick, who was last week taken to the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, is back home much improved and on a fair way to recovery.

The stork was busy during the hot weather last week, bringing a girl baby to Ed. Lucas' home and a chubby little boy to the Ed. Kocher home.

Curt Cronemiller, the popular baker at Patton, had a blaze recently which destroyed his bakery and ice plant. He was only partially insured, but will rebuild at once.

Mrs. Alice Buchwalter with her two sons, Henry and Howard, are up from Lancaster for their mid-summer outing at the G. W. McWilliams home at Fairbrook.

Harry and Will Collins, with their families, came over from Wilmerding for their annual summer outing, with headquarters at grandpa Collins' home on west Main street.

A Sustaining Diet.

These are the enervating days, when, as somebody has said, men drop by the sunstroke as if the Day of Fire had dawned. They are fraught with danger to people whose systems are poorly sustained; and this leads us to say, in the interest of the less robust of our readers, that the full effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla is such as to suggest the propriety of calling this medicine something besides a blood purifier and tonic, say, a sustaining diet. It makes it much easier to bear the heat, assures refreshing sleep, and will without any doubt avert much sickness at this time of year.

Chance to Show Their Skill.

From the Washington Post.
Perhaps the Cincinnati surgeon who found a way to open the heart might be induced to help those Cleveland tax assessors operate on John D.
