

Bellefonte, Pa., August 21, 1914.

P. GRAY MEEK, EDITOR

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. - Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:

Paid strictly in advance $1.50
Paid before expiration of year 1.75
Paid after expiration of year 2.00

Democratic State Ticket.

- For United States Senator, A. M. PALMER, Monroe county. For Governor, VANCE C. MCCORMICK, Dauphin county. For Lieutenant Governor, WILLIAM T. CREASY, Columbia county. For Secretary of Internal Affairs, WILLIAM N. MCNAIR, Allegheny county. For Congressman-at-Large, ROBT. S. BRIGHT, Philadelphia county. MARTIN JENNINGS CATON, Allegheny Co. ARTHUR B. CLARK, Blair county. CHARLES N. CROSBY, Crawford county. For District Congressman, WILLIAM E. TOBIAS, Clearfield. For State Senator, WILLIAM H. PATTERSON, Clearfield. For Member Legislature, DAVID W. MILLER, Ferguson Twp. For State Committeemen, W. D. ZEBBY, Bellefonte. For County Chairman, ARTHUR B. LEE, Bellefonte.

Democratic County Committee for 1914

Table with columns: Precinct, Name, P.O. Address. Lists names and addresses for various precincts across the county.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

CATTLE POISONED.—Four head of cattle died at Coleville—two on Sunday and one each on Monday and Tuesday—as the result of arsenical poisoning, and three others were affected but will live according to the last accounts.

CROSS-LOFT COLLAPSED.—Last Saturday afternoon a week ago H. A. Garner drove his threshing outfit to the barn of Thomas Tressler, on the old Meyers farm up Buffalo Run, and having a few repairs to make decided not to do any threshing until Monday morning.

PHILIPSBURG WINS FIREMEN'S CONVENTION.—At a session of the Central Pennsylvania District Firemen's association, at Patton on Wednesday, Philipsburg was selected as the place of meeting next year and the following officers elected:

President, Frank Kephart, of Philipsburg; first vice president, John E. Johnson, of DuBois; second vice president, George Davis, of Winburne; secretary, W. C. Langford, of Clearfield; treasurer, John Grebe, of Philipsburg; delegate to state convention, Robert Simcox, of Patton; alternate, Joseph Phillips, of Clearfield.

—Have your Job Work done here

BROUSE.—Following an illness of six weeks with an abscess on the lung, R. S. Brouse died at his home on Thomas street at 10.30 o'clock last Thursday night. In company with Dr. Locke he took a trip to Philadelphia the last of June and in some way caught a cold. It settled on his lungs and finally an abscess developed which defied all remedies known to medical science and after six weeks of suffering he quietly passed away at the time above stated.

Richard Stewart Brouse was a son of Joseph Bosler and Sarah Neiman Brouse and was born at Ogontz, near Philadelphia, on November 7th, 1862, making his age at death 51 years, 9 months and 6 days.

When but fourteen years of age Mr. Brouse started on the road as a traveling salesman selling silk thread and an evidence of his success was the fact that he held the same job until he married and located in Bellefonte.

In politics Mr. Brouse was a Republican and was one of the first men of that party to be elected burgess of Bellefonte, which was in February, 1889, for a term of one year.

He was a member of the Bellefonte club, the Nittany Country club and the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks. He was a lover of outdoor life and for a number of years was a member of the Panther hunting club and a fishing club which camped on Fishing creek.

Mr. Brouse's death caused universal regret throughout Bellefonte. Socially he was a man of most genial nature, unselfish and very companionable. He lived his life according to the precept "do unto others as you would have them do unto you," and in all his business dealings he was the soul of honor.

He is survived by his wife and three children, namely: William H., of Seward, Cambria county; Mrs. F. W. Tope, of Brooklyn, and Richard S., at home. He also leaves three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Helen Flower, of Cynwyd; Mrs. C. J. Rhodes, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Mrs. C. H. Riley, of Pitman, N. J., and J. Howard Brouse, of New York city.

The funeral was held at ten o'clock on Monday morning and out of respect to his memory the stores were closed for one hour. The services at the house were in charge of Rev. Charlton, of the Episcopal church, and Dr. Schmidt, of the Reformed church, and interment was made in the Harper lot in the Union cemetery.

Of his immediate relatives Mrs. Flower and Mrs. Riley were here for the funeral while quite a delegation of friends from Tyrone were also in attendance.

GATES.—Mrs. Mary J. Gates, widow of George Gates, was found dead in bed at her home in Gatesburg on Tuesday morning. She had been in failing health for some time although able to be up and around. She retired early on Monday evening and at all appearances slept well during the night. About four o'clock on Tuesday morning a little grandchild, who slept with her, woke up and discovered her grandmother already cold in death.

Deceased's maiden name was Meyers and she was born in Halfmoon township about sixty-eight years ago. Her husband died twenty years ago but surviving her are the following children: Nathaniel D. G. Gates, of Tyrone; Mrs. John J. Hamilton, of Philipsburg; Mrs. E. H. Turinton, of New York, and Miss Golda P. at home. She also leaves a number of step-children, and two brothers, Peter Meyers, of Philipsburg, and Daniel, of West Decatur. The funeral was held yesterday, burial being made at Gatesburg.

WATTS.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Watts, of Ferguson township, are mourning the death of their baby boy, George Jackson Watts, which occurred on Saturday afternoon after a brief illness with whooping cough. He was aged three weeks. In addition to the parents two brothers and five sisters survive. Burial was made on Sunday morning in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills.

BROWER.—William I. Brower, a well known farmer of Dix Run, Union township, died at 11.45 o'clock last Saturday morning. He went to the barn in the morning to look after the stock and was kicked by a colt. The kick produced heart failure from which he died. And right here it might be stated that Mr. Brower's mother was burned to death when he was a boy; his son-in-law, Albert Lucas, was killed on the railroad in Clearfield in February, 1912, and last November his son, Joseph Clyde Brower, was killed on the railroad near Greensburg, after only two months employment.

Mr. Brower was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brower and was born in Union township on February 18th, 1855, making his age 59 years, 5 months and 25 days. He followed farming all his life and was a well known and highly respected resident of Union township.

He was an active member of the Bush Hollow Advent church until it was abandoned several years ago. Funeral services were held at his late home at nine o'clock on Wednesday morning by Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, following which burial was made in the Stover cemetery near Unionville.

REESMAN.—Mrs. Sarah Jane Reesman, widow of the late John A. Reesman, of Centre Hall, died at the home of her grandson, Clay Reesman, at Thorofare, N. J., some time Saturday night, as she was found dead in bed on Sunday morning.

Her maiden name was Sarah J. Zeigler and she was born at Millheim sixty-eight years ago. She was married to Mr. Reesman over forty years ago and most of their married life was spent in Centre Hall.

She was a member of the Methodist church all her life and a woman highly esteemed by all who knew her. Mr. Reesman died on November 8th, 1912, and her children preceded her to the grave. She is survived, however by the following brothers and sisters: Daniel Zeigler, of Millheim; John, Tyrone; Mrs. Lydia Smith, of Tyrone; Mrs. Emma VanPelt, of Ithaca, N. Y., and Mrs. Benjamin H. Arney, of Centre Hall.

Private funeral services were held at her late home at Thorofare, N. J., on Tuesday. The remains were taken to Centre Hall Wednesday morning, and taken direct from the train to the Centre Hall cemetery, where services were held by Rev. R. Raymond Jones, of the Reformed church, after which burial was made.

SWITZER.—Mrs. Margaret Switzer, widow of John Switzer, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Catharine Baumgardner, at Pleasant Gap, at 6.30 o'clock on Monday morning, of general infirmities. Her maiden name was Margaret Lombarger and she was born in Centre county a little over ninety years ago. A good part of her married life was spent in Indiana, but after the death of her husband, and between two and three years ago she came east and had since made her home with her sister, Mrs. Baumgardner. She was a member of the Methodist church and a good old mother in Israel.

She leaves no children but is survived by one brother and two sisters, namely: John Lombarger, 84 years old, residing in Kansas; Mrs. Baumgardner, 86 years old, of Pleasant Gap, and Mrs. Matilda Richards, 92 years old, of New Maysville, Armstrong county, Pa. Brief funeral services were held at the Baumgardner home on Tuesday morning by Rev. D. J. Frum and the remains were taken from Bellefonte on the 1.15 p. m. train the same afternoon to Attica, Ind., for interment alongside the grave of her husband.

MILLER.—Harry T. Miller, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Miller, of Bellefonte, died quite suddenly of heart disease at Canandaigua, N. Y. last Saturday evening. He had been ill only a few hours.

Deceased was born in Bellefonte on January 14th, 1878, hence at his death was 36 years, 7 months and 1 day old. He learned the trade of a plasterer under his father, an occupation he followed all his life. He was a Spanish-American war veteran and served for two years in Troop G, United States regular cavalry, in the Philippines. He was a member of the Catholic church and an exemplary young man. Surviving him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Miller, of this place, and two brothers, Arthur J. Miller, of Erie, and Francis, of Bellefonte.

The funeral was held at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Rev. Father McArdie officiated and burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

STEWART.—Mrs. Annie Stewart died at her home in Providence, R. I., on August 8th. She was a daughter of the late Lawrence and Nora O'Leary and was born in Bellefonte. Surviving her are her husband, several children and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Samuel Viall, of Providence; R. L. O'Leary, Lawrence and Mrs. Michael Harrity, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Joseph Wise, of Spring Grove, and Daniel, of Bellefonte. Burial was made at Providence on August 11th.

TO ERECT FLAG POLES AT STATE COLLEGE.—One of the important matters which will be brought before the state convention of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, at Altoona next week will be that of erecting flag poles at State College. This was brought up at the Altoona convention last year and a committee of five past state presidents was appointed to investigate and make a recommendation this year. The committee is composed of the following persons: J. Calvin Strayer, of York, chairman; Roy L. Schuyler, of Lock Haven, secretary; E. F. Hendricks of Reading; William Mueir, of Reading, and William I. Swoope, of Clearfield.

It is understood that this committee will recommend that two steel flagstaffs 100 feet high be erected on the front campus at the main college building, one for the national flag and the other for the state flag. The staffs will be made of steel with metal base. On the base of each will be a tablet upon which will be inscribed the names of the donors. They will cost the organization $1,000. There is no doubt that the recommendation will be adopted by the convention, for when the subject was brought up last year enthusiasm was manifested in the project and it encountered no opposition.

GLENN—KOONTZ.—A quiet wedding was celebrated at the parsonage of the Reformed church at 5.30 o'clock on Monday morning when Thomas E. Glenn and Miss Edna Beatrice Koontz were united in matrimony by the pastor, Dr. Amrose M. Schmidt. There were no attendants, only the necessary witnesses being present.

The young couple went to Unionville in an automobile where they breakfasted after which they left on the train west for Monessen where Mr. Glenn has accepted a position as manager of the general mercantile store of N. W. Shulp. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koontz and is a pleasant and attractive young lady. The bridegroom is originally from College township but during the past dozen years or more has been a clerk in Joseph Bros. store. The WATCHMAN extends congratulations.

ZEIGLER—SCHOLL.—At the United Evangelical parsonage, by the Rev. E. Fulmer, Mr. Howard J. Zeigler, of Nigh Bank, and Miss Ella N. Scholl, of Bellefonte, were united in matrimony on Tuesday of this week.

A very commendable movement for the weed extermination in Bellefonte, has been started by the Street committee of the council, by which all residents of the town are notified to dig out or cut down all weeds on or about any ground they may own or occupy.

The Y. M. C. A. swimming pool has been closed for two weeks undergoing extensive repairs. The ceiling, windows, doors and rails have all been finished in hard white enamel, making it one of the most beautiful and sanitary pools in the world.

The home-coming week services which are being held at Gray's church this week are proving very interesting. The afternoon services have been held in the grove in the rear of the church, and the evening services in the church.

A report was current on the streets yesterday that Bellefonte business men had been reported to the United States government for conspiring to raise the price of foodstuffs without any just cause for doing so.

F. S. Knecht, of Mill Hall, has opened up a vulcanizing and tire repair shop in the basement room of the Bush Arcade on Water street.

—Mrs. Mollie L. Valentine this week sold her home on West High street to George E. Lentz, conductor on the Lewisburg passenger train which makes Bellefonte the lay-over station at night.

—The Midway attractions at the fair this year will be clean and strong, just the kind to keep the crowd occupied before the races and between the heats. Don't fail to see them.

—Henry Keep, a superintendent with the Thompson-Starrett Construction company, is now in charge of the work at the deathhouse in the new penitentiary.

Our Correspondents' Opinions. This column is at the service of those of our people who desire to express their views on any subject of general or local interest. The "Watchman" will in no way be responsible for their ideas or statements. The real name of the author must accompany all communications, but will be withheld from publication when the request is made.

Righteous Individuality.

Editor Democratic Watchman. In commemoration of the victorious Mexican Peons in the battle as constitutionalists, to obtain their own labor coin—silver and gold—by inhabitants thereof and open market of square deal to every honest toiler, I have this day hoisted the American flag over Silver Avenue residence, Lamar, Pa.

Wednesday has been declared a National holiday in honor of constitutionalists to establish equitable government by the people, for the people, and stability in their endeavor that equity shall rule; by ever being in the open and willing to know the various conditions of humanity in the struggle wherewith to labor intelligently, by individuality and cooperativeness, to make our Commonwealth most lasting and for its betterment by equity, truth and liberty.

JAMES WOLFENDEN, Lamar, Pa. Aug. 19, '14.

Jury List for September Court.

Following is the list of jurors drawn for the September term of court, beginning Monday, September 28th, 1914:

- LIST OF GRAND JURORS. H. H. Branstetter, farmer, Halfmoon. John Behres, farmer, Patton. Homer Barnes, merchant, Bellefonte. John S. Dale, gentleman, State College. W. B. Daugherty, merchant, Snow Shoe Twp. Lloyd Fisher, farmer, Boggs. E. M. Flugal, plumber, Philipsburg. James Houser, painter, Benner. William Hassinger, laborer, Spring. Robert Kline, foreman, Bellefonte. Alfred Jones, farmer, Liberty. W. A. Lyon, butcher, Bellefonte. Oscar M. Lonerbarger, farmer, Spring. George W. Miller, carpenter, Spring. E. M. Murray, engineer, Curtin. A. V. Miller, gentleman, Spring. L. D. Musser, laborer, Ferguson. W. F. Pells, blacksmith, Boggs. W. I. Scholl, carpenter, Bellefonte. C. W. Stover, agent, Harris. William Tressler, gentleman, Bellefonte. Michael Smith, laborer, Potter. F. H. Waite, carpenter, Miles. Harvey Walker, farmer, Liberty.

- LIST OF TRAVERSE JURORS, FIRST WEEK. Charles Blowers, laborer, Philipsburg. William Boozer, laborer, Centre Hall. George Barnes, clerk, Philipsburg. Clyde Bradford, drayman, Centre Hall. W. S. Bigelow, farmer, Rush. Benjamin Bron, laborer, Gregg. John Black, miner, Gregg. C. C. Bailey, painter, Centre Hall. C. R. Custer, painter, Philipsburg. David Chambers, operator, Snow Shoe Twp. P. E. Cook, gentleman, Bellefonte. Thomas Donachy, laborer, Bellefonte. Frank Donovan, farmer, Spring. Aaron Fahr, farmer, Huston. Irvin Fravel, laborer, Liberty. W. H. Garner, clerk, State College. W. M. Grove, surveyor, Gregg. Perry Gentzel, farmer, Spring. M. J. D. Hober, blacksmith, State College. Benj. Hoffer, merchant, Philipsburg. Harry Holz, clerk, Bellefonte. John Hosterman, farmer, Gregg. H. K. Hoffer, clerk, Philipsburg. M. P. Holter, mechanic, Howard Twp. Joseph Herr, farmer, Howard Twp. John H. Knarr, butcher, Centre Hall. Joseph Knapper, mine boss, Philipsburg. Edward Kinzie, gentleman, Milesburg. James Lucas, carpenter, Snow Shoe Twp. S. S. Miles, gentleman, Worth. M. M. Miller, farmer, Potter. George Mitchell, farmer, College. L. C. Miller, farmer, Boggs. Thomas McCafferty, laborer, Bellefonte. E. M. Powell, laborer, Bellefonte. Harry Rice, laborer, Bellefonte. James Russell, miner, Snow Shoe Twp. John M. Robb, liveryman, Howard Twp. James Reeder, farmer, Gregg. F. P. Smith, farmer, Liberty. W. H. Vaughn, laborer, Rush. Lloyd White, farmer, Spring. E. M. Powell, laborer, Milesburg. John M. Ward, mechanic, Halfmoon. D. L. Willard, merchant, Bellefonte. Harry Weber, laborer, Philipsburg. J. M. Woodring, agent, Philipsburg.

- LIST OF TRAVERSE JURORS, SECOND WEEK. William Billett, carpenter, Spring. W. L. Archfield, merchant, Philipsburg. Isaac Baney, farmer, Benner. S. M. Bechdol, farmer, Liberty. Frank Daley, laborer, Curtin. Samuel Durst, farmer, Potter. George Heston, farmer, College. John Evans, Jr., miner, College. W. H. Farber, engineer, Patton. R. F. Finkle, farmer, Gregg. Samuel Grove, laborer, Ferguson. Albert Gingerich, mechanic, Harris. Clement Harter, farmer, Marion. David Hoy, contractor, Spring. Green Heaton, farmer, Benner. David S. Lingie, laborer, Potter. John McGowan, farmer, Snow Shoe Twp. E. R. McClellan, farmer, Potter. Oscar Miles, merchant, Milesburg. James Nyman, laborer, Curtin. W. A. Peters, inn keeper, Unionville. J. L. Fletcher, farmer, Howard Twp. T. E. Palmer, farmer, Potter. Arthur Peters, farmer, College. O. S. Rothrock, merchant, Penn. H. S. Snyder, blacksmith, Philipsburg. Ammon Snook, farmer, Penn. R. C. Swisher, laborer, Huston. Charles Schad, farmer, Spring. A. H. Spayd, lumberman, Walker. W. F. Straw, conductor, Philipsburg. Charles Shaffer, clerk, Bellefonte. George Tibbens, farmer, Spring. A. F. Vonada, laborer, Gregg. William White, farmer, Marion. Jacob Whitman, miner, Snow Shoe Twp. Arthur Wasson, laborer, Potter. John H. Wagner, laborer, College. Cyrus Zeigler, laborer, Miles.

Many Like Solomon. "I ain't never heard tell that the Lord pays taxes, or cuts the firewood, or mends the roof when it leaks, or gets shoes for the children, and all them things has got to be done. Solomon Hatch leaves things he don't like to do to the Lord. He gets me and the Lord mixed up."—Kate Langly Bosher in "The House of Happiness."

With the Churches of the County.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 9½ E. High street.

THE SIXTH VESPER SERVICES AND LAST Will be held in front of the High school building next Sunday evening at 6:45, and not 7 o'clock. The religious meeting last Sunday evening was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Hawes, of the Presbyterian church. He clearly explained that godliness-religion is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. The Christian faith presents the best type of godliness. The ungodly and the disbeliever are ever the beneficiaries of Christ's religion. No one wishes to live in a community where there are neither godly people nor churches. The godliness of Christ is profitable unto babyhood and old age. The person who rejects the belief in a Hereafter is anxious to hear about the life "which is to come." After next Sunday the congregations will hold their regular Sunday evening services in their own respective churches.

There will be no services held in St. John's Reformed church until Sunday, September 6th; at which time the annual Harvest Home service will be held. Sunday school and Christian Endeavor service will be held as usual.

United Evangelical church Bellefonte, Pa. Communion services on Sunday at 10.30 a. m., by the pastor. In the evening at 7.30 p. m., preaching by Rev. H. A. Benfer, presiding elder of Lewisburg district, of the United Evangelical church.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. N. C. Neidigh is among the sick this week. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dale spent Sunday with friends in town. Benjamin Bodle and family are snugly fixed up in their new home. Reuben Stewart, of Pittsburgh, is greeting old friends in the valley. James Longwell, wife and son enjoyed a spin up the valley Sunday. Miss Sadie Detrick, while stepping from a buggy, fell breaking her left arm. Mrs. T. S. Bailey is among the sight-seers at Niagara Falls and Buffalo this week. Mrs. F. W. Weber, of Boalsburg, spent last week at the Ross home west of town. Ross Gilliford and Edward Bowersox, of Altoona, were among the throng Saturday. Dr. J. E. Ward and wife, of Bellefonte, spent the Sabbath at the old home tree in town. Isaac Woomer is looking up his large milling trade through Clearfield county this week. Curtin Neidigh and sister Esther are attending the freeman's convention at Patton this week. Hon. J. T. McCormick and wife enjoyed a spin and spent Sunday at the John Bowersox home. John Elliott Ward and son Charles, of Washington, Pa., were greeting old friends here Saturday. George Potter, wife and little son William, visited friends in the valley in the early part of the week. David Porter Henderson, a well known farmer of Spruce Creek, is visiting friends in Pine Hall this week. Dr. Frank Bailey and Frank Graham autored up from Milton to mingle with the Baileyville picnickers. Mrs. Esther Ritchie was called to Altoona Monday on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. Susan Fry. Prof. S. P. McWilliams and wife, after a month's visit at their old home, left Saturday for their home at McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Homan are planning an extensive visit west, to continue until after the Panama Exposition. Miss Eretta and Edna Ward were passengers west Monday morning for a month's visit with friends in the Iron city. Frank Lohr is suffering with several broken ribs, sustained in getting squeezed between the wagon ladders and wall. Alvin Myers, wife and family, of Jacksonville, Florida, are spending their annual vacation among friends in the old Keystone State. Prof. E. E. Houck and wife, of Pittsburgh, and John Houck and wife, of Warriorsmark, were entertained at the H. C. Houck home Tuesday. Rev. S. C. Stover, wife and son Elmer are spending their outing at their old home in Somers county, and will be there for several weeks. W. R. Dale returned home from the Bellefonte hospital Friday, making good recovery. This was the second time he was under the knife within a year. H. N. Koch and wife and J. H. Musser and wife left Monday morning to visit Mr. and Mrs. Devoe, at Lansing, Michigan, and will visit other points of interest while away. You don't want to miss the old home picnic by the Boalsburgers in McFarlane's grove August 27th. The Boal band will co-operate and furnish music. A festival will be held in the evening. John Boop and C. B. Brocher autored from Millin in time for dinner at the Baileyville picnic. The weather man smiles perfectly Saturday, and more than 4000 people thronged the grounds, representing all sections of the State. The receipts were over $620. Sunday after the picnic the Frank family had a family reunion at Mrs. Mary Frank's home at Graysville, where the seven sisters with other relatives gathered around her festive board. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Buck, of McVeytown; Mrs. Lloyd and Mrs. Williamson, of Houtzdale; Mrs. Wm. Forker, of Scotia; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beck, of Reading; Clara Lloyd, of Briston; Lloyd Frank and family; Edward Isenberg and family and Charles Isenberg and family, of Boalsburg. A royal good time was had by all.