Bellefonte, Pa., September 11, 1914. P. GRAY MEEK, TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice following rates . Paid strictly in advance - -Paid before expiration of year -

Democratic State Ticket. For United States Senator. A. M. PALMER, Monroe county. For Governor. VANCE C. McCormick, Dauphin county, Paid after expiration of year .

For Lieutenant Governor, WILLIAM T. CREASY, Columbia county. For Secretary of Internal Affairs, WILLIAM N. McNAIR, Allegheny county

For Congressman-at-Large, ROBT. S. BRIGHT, Philadelphia county. MARTIN JENNINGS CATON, Allegheny Co. ARTHUR B. CLARK, Blair county. CHARLES N. CROSBY, Crawford county.

For District Congressman, WILLIAM E. TOBIAS, Clearfield. For State Senator, WILLIAM H. PATTERSON, Clearfield. For Member Legislature, DAVID W. MILLER, Ferguson Twp. For State Committeemen, W. D. ZERBY, Bellefonte. For County Chairman.

ARTHUR B. LEE, Bellefonte.

Democratic County Committee for 1914 Bellefonte N W
Bellefonte S W
Bellefonte W W
Centre Hall Boro
Howard Boro
Milesburg Boro
Millheim Boro
Philinsburg 1st W John J. Bower, P. H. Gherity, L. H. McQuistion, D. W. Bradford, John Deihl, Edward Grove, R. S. Stover Millesburg Boro
Millheim Boro
Philipsburg 1st W H. W. Todd,
Philipsburg 3rd W Philip Dawson,
Philipsburg 3rd W E. G. Jones,
S. Philipsburg
Snow Shoe Boro
State College Boro
Unionville Boro
Benner Twp N P
Benner Twp N P
Benner Twp N P
Boggs Twp NP
Boggs Twp NP
Boggs Twp E P
Boggs Twp W P
Boggs Twp SP
Boggs Twp James Sankey,
John I. Weiland
George Bixel,
George Weaver,
J. W. Kepler, Pine Grove Mills
Ira Harpster,
Wilbur Lucas,
Wm. A. Neese.
Spring Mills
Spring Mills
Spring Mills Wilbur Lucas,
Wm. A. Neese,
A. N. Finkle,
W. L. Warntz,
W. H. Guisewite,
D. C. Harpster,
Frank Ishler,
John A. Fortney,
A. M. Butler,
O. D. Eberts, Ma A. M. Butler, Howard
D. Eberts, Martha Furnace
D. Wagner, Blanchard
lbert Bergner, Monument
W. Orr U. S. Shaffer, F. A. Carson, Chas. A. Miller. Hublersburg Corman Jr., Zion Reese, Port Matilda

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

til she passed peacefully away at the nesday afternoon. time above stated.

Deceased was a daughter of Fleming terian church and a good christian wom- ship road supervisor for several years.

home in Centre Hall at 9.30 o'clock this the Philipsburg cemetery. morning by her pastor, Dr. W. H. Schuyler, assisted by Rev. R. Raymond Jones, of the Reformed church. Burial will be made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

Mrs. Harry Barnard, near Mill Hall, at sixteen years of age, and worked for W. result of general infirmities. She was and several brothers and sisters survive. for many years resided in the vicinity of learned. Pleasant Gap, this county. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal who knew her.

dren: John Schreffler, of Mill Hall; Mrs. in Petrikin hall to pray for a speedy end-Harry Barnard, living near Mill Hall; ing of the European war. Rev. Dr. Fied and Charles, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Edward Evers, of Harrisburg, and Wessister, Mrs. Joanna Kreidler, of Mill Hall. ministers from attending. Quite a num-Brief funeral services were held at the ber of people were present and a very by Rev. Elmer F. Ilgenfritz, and on Wed. first of the kind to be held in Bellefonte. nesday afternoon the remains were taken through Bellefonte to Pleasant Gap where final funeral services were held in the best take the WATCHMAN and you'll Methodist church by Rev. D. J. Frum, have it. after which burial was made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.

LOVE-Miss Emma Love, a sister of the late Judge John G. Love, of Bellefonte, died at her home in Tyrone at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, following a long illness. She was a daughter of James and Catharine Gray Love and was born at Loveville in January, 1859. She grew to womanhood and received her education in her native town and in the early eighties moved with the family to a beautiful home they built at Nealmont, near Tyrone, where they lived until several years ago when they moved to Tyrone. When a girl Miss Love became a member of the Centre Line Methodist Episcopal church, and was always a sincere worker in the church and Sunday school. After moving to Nealmont she transferred her membership to the First Methodist church of Tyrone.

Her only immediate survivors are two sisters, Misses Lydia and Annie Love, at the family home in Tyrone. Three brothers and one sister preceded her to the grave, namely: Winfield Scott Love, who died in Sinking valley; Judge John G. Love, of Bellefonte; Harry C. Love, who died in Tyrone, and Mrs. Mary Kinsell, who died while the family resided at Loveville.

Funeral services were held at the family home at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning by Rev. W. W. Hartman, after which burial was made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyrone.

KOCHER.-Following an illness of ten weeks Mrs. Bessie Kocher, widow of M. Kocher, died at her home at Pennsylvania Furnace last Thursday afternoon. Her death was the result of a complication of diseases following a siege of typhoid fever.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Everhart and was born near the Seven Stars on May 7th, 1879. Since her marriage to Mr. Kocher she had lived in the vicinity of Pennsylvania Furnace. Her husband died several years ago but surviving her are the following children: Eugene, Henry, Sara, Mary and Ruth, all at home. She also leaves her mother. Mrs. Sarah Everhart, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Margaret Gates, of Pennsylvania Furnace; Mrs. E. M. Johnston, Altoona; John H. Everhart, of Graysville, and Benjamin Everhart, of Franklinville.

She was a member of the Spruce Creek Presbyterian church and Rev. R. M. Campbell had charge of the funeral services which were held last Saturday afternoon, burial being made in the Graysville cemetery.

BEAVER.-Following an illness of two weeks with a complication of diseases John S. Beaver, an employee at the Schmitt house, Altoona, died at the Altoona hospital at an early hour on Sun-

Stover Beaver and was born at Aarons- of the people should control this quesburg, this county, on August 12th, 1889, hence was 25 years and 25 days old. When a youth his parents moved to aspired to holding office for the emolu-Milroy and after he grew to manhood he ments thereof, has never been a candidate worked there until two years ago when for a State or county office, but has been he went to Altoona. He was unmarried and is survived by the following brothers and is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Frances Russler, of the Houtzdale school board and for nine POTTER. — Mrs. Martha McCormick Altoona; Mrs. Vera Aurandt, Mrs. years was the president of the school board at Clearfield. While a member of Potter, wife of Joshua T. Potter, of Cen. Catharine Calhoun and Mrs. Anna Reed, tre Hall, died at 2.35 o'clock on Wednes all of Milroy; Miss Mary Beaver, of day morning. She suffered a stroke of Shamokin; Frank, of Axe Mann; Miss ment method of instruction, and in con paralysis on March 4th, which left her Laura Beaver, of State College; Jennie, nection therewith manual training, doabsolutely helpless and unable to talk. Melda and Rufus Beaver, of Milroy. Since then she gradually grew worse un. Burial was made at Milroy on Wed-

STONEBRAKER. - John Stonebraker, a and Delinda McCormick and was born at well known resident of Rush township, Salona sixty-two years ago last March. died on Wednesday morning of last week She was married to Mr. Potter on March after an illness of four months. He was 4th, 1878, and for many years they lived born at Bald Eagle on September 11th, on their farm west of Centre Hall. A 1834, making his age 79 years, 11 months few years ago they retired from the farm and 21 days. His entire life was spent and moved to Centre Hall. Mrs. Potter in Rush township where he followed lumwas a life-long member of the Presby- bering and farming. He was also town-

He is survived by one son, John Wes-She is survived by her husband, one ton Stonebraker, of Philipsburg, three son, Harry Potter, of Everett, Wash., and sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. one daughter, Miss Mary Delinda, at Martha Miles and Mrs. Alice Miller, of home. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Tyrone; Mrs. Charles Cartwright, of San-Hayes, of Watsontown, and one brother, dy Ridge, and Weston Stonebraker, of crowd of paid admissions was slightly 2:20 trot and pace, purse $250-D. D. McCormick, of Kansas City, Mo. Philipsburg. The funeral was held last under that of last year, Thursday's was Funeral services will be held at her late Friday afternoon, burial being made in also a few less but there were between

HARDIGAN.-John Hardigan, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Seeley Hardigan, who live near the electric light plant, died yesterday with diphtheria, which makes SCHREFFLER.-Mrs. Mary Anna Schrefthe second death from that disease withfler died at the home of her daughter, in a few weeks. The young man was seven o'clock on Sunday morning, as the R. Shope, at his coal yard. His parents aged 81 years, 6 months and 25 days and The time of the funeral has not been

PEACE MEETING IN PETRIKIN HALL. church and was highly esteemed by all In compliance with a call by Mrs. George, state president of the W. C. T. U., a Surviving her are the following chil- meeting was held last Sunday afternoon Schmidt presided, Rev. Dr. Glanding and Rev. Shuey taking active part. Unavoidley, of Osceola Mills. She also leaves one able circumstances prevented the other Barnard home on Wednesday morning earnest, inspiring meeting resulted—the

-If you always want to have the

-Have your Job Work done here.

William H. Patterson, Candidate for State Senator.

bor Laws. He will urge sufficient approobtaining State aid in support of the hospitals and believes that the State should field National Bank for the past twenty which it is entitled.

Mr. Patterson also stands for a repeal of the present State Highway laws and advocates the division of the highways into sections containing a number of miles each, and the election of supervisors from the community in which the section is located, whose duty it shall be to employ the workmen, purchase the materials, build, and keep in repair, under the supervision of a county engineer, the said sections of road in conformity with certain specifications, the whole to be under the supervision of a Highway Department. This would model the Highway Department along the lines of the common schools of the Commonwealth as at present constituted, and the money appropriated by the State experimental farms at State College, who would be expended upon the roads and not go into the pockets of favored and faithfully for more than thirty-seven political contractors and State employees.

Mr. Patterson also stands for county wide Local Option laws being submitted to the people. He believes that the elec-tors of this State and Senatorial District should have the privilege of voting upon Deceased was a son of John and Flora this question and that the majority vote tion.

Mr. Patterson has always been a Demsome years he served as a member of the Clearfield school board he succeeded in introducing into the school the Departmestic science, physical culture, vocal and instrumental music, and a department of elementary chemistry.

He is now serving his third term as a

Trustee of The Pennsylvania State College, to which institution he has given much of his time and energies, but with the satisfaction of assisting and affording the young men and women of this Commonwealth, engaged in the agriculture, mechanical, mining and industrial pursuits, the opportunity of obtaining an education free of cost. It has been his pleasure to have assisted young men from this Senatorial District through college, who are now occupying responsible posi- the counties of Centre and Clearfield.

Centre county people and there were events were won in straight heats they er's "Waverley" won the first two heats and the crowd thought the big gelding had a cinch on the race but in the third heat he broke badly and came in at the tail end, narrowly missing the flag. "Lady Bess," G. B. Welliver's little bay mare, last year.

are as follows:

2:18 trot and pace, purse $250-

2:25 trot and pace, purse $200

Kaulmont s. g. (Grace Kelley). Dan Wilkes, b. g. (Thomas Rank) Rex Alarch, b. g. (Peter Lead).... Count Wiggins, b. h. (W. A. Shani Carrie Hal, b. m. (Elmer E. Day)...

Time, 2:20, 2:21, 2:22.

Time, 2:271/6, 2:28, 2:26

Bell Cord, b. g. (H. E. Dunlap)
Senator Hal, b. g. (John Phoeniger)
Tony Patch, s. s. (A. Rabb)
Shilling, b. g. (W. V. Larimer).....

CENTRE COUNTY FAIR A SUCCESS.—The won the heat, and also the two successbig Centre county fair closed last Friday ive ones and the race, although it was and it proved a success in every particu- almost dark when the race was finished. lar. The attendance for the week about "Tony Patch" won the 2.20 event. The equalled that of last year. Wednesday's summaries: three and four hundred more paid admissions on Friday than on Friday of Time, 2:23, 2:24, 2:25. As stated in last week's report the

Time, 2:17½, 2:17, 2:19½, 2:21½, 2:21¾.

enough of them that every race was hot-The only unfortunate occurrence of ly contested. Thursday's races were the the week was the fall of aviator W. slowest of the week and while both Leonard Bonney. While the accident gave the large crowd a thriller they will were interesting enough to hold the never forget it was unfortunate because crowd until the finish. The summaries it prevented Mr. Bonney's ascent on Friday and resulted in the almost total destruction of his machine. The fortunate side of the accident was the few injuries sustained by the daring aviator. Though shaken up and bruised he was able to leave the Bellefonte hospital on Friday evening and Saturday evening he and his mechanician left for New York city. Mr. Bonney avers that this was the fourth accident he has had, and the fall the highest of any. His greatest re-exciting event of the week. J. C. Pack- represented practically all he had. Sad Regrets.

She-"If I'd known before we were married that you swore so, I'd never have accepted you." He-"Confount it! That's what comes of being ? hypocrite."

As a candidate for the office of State Senator in this District, Mr. Patterson stands for the enactment of Equitable Labor Compensation Laws and Child La tions of trust in many of the largest Manufacturing. Industrial, and like institutions in the United States. Mr. Patterson is also preaident of the Shade Tree

C. McCo Commission of Clearfield, the object of priation for State College to afford the which is to furnish and beautify the alyoung men and women of the district, ready attractive city. He is also engaged and of the Commonwealth, engaged in in the business of mining and shipping agriculture, mechanical, mining and in-dustrial pursuits to obtain free of cost a collegiate or technical education. He is experienced any labor troubles or disin favor of a change in the manner of putes with their employees. Mr. Pattercreate and appropriate a Budget for this years and is one of the Governors of the purpose, the Budget to be appropriated Chamber of Commerce of Clearfield, an and divided pro rata among the hospitals institution that has made Clearfield one Chamber of Commerce of Clearfield, an of the State according to the number of free patients receiving treatment the year previous. This would take the hosber of the Presbyterian church for the pitals out of politics, and each hospital past thirty years and is actively engaged would receive the amount of State aid to in Y. M. C. A work. To many of the citizens of Centre county, William H. Patterson, candidate for State Senate, is a comparative stranger. His grandfather, Captain James Patterson, several generations removed, who settled at Conestoga Manor, in Lancancaster county, Pa., in 1715, was also the grandfather of the descendants of Gen. James Potter, Hon. Andrew Gregg Curtin, and Gov. Curtin. His grandfather, Capt. John Harris, of Mifflintown, Pa., also several generations removed, was also the grandfather of the descendants of James Harris, who with Col. James Dunlop laid out the town of Bellefonte in 1795. He also has the proud distinction of being the nephew of William Calvin Patterson, late Superintendent of the citizens, Mr. Patterson comes from the ple of Centre and adjoining counties to same forebears who have done so much believe that the crowd would be enorto advance the material interests of Cen- mous and they couldn't stay away. At

Mr. Patterson was born on a farm at His father was John Irwin Patterson, modate during the three days. who served over four years as a member of Company I, 5th Pennsylvania Reserves, and was quartermaster of his regiment. Centre county. His youth was spent upon a farm, his education being obtained in the common schools, at Millersville the winter and attended school and studied law in the summer. He read law with the late H. M. Baldridge, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., was admitted to the bar he continued the successful practice of the law until April, 1895, when he rehis profession. In 1882 he married Francis, a daughter af the late Judge William

C. Folev. pest interests of all the people of his Senatorial district, irrespective of party affiliations. And to that end he solicits the influence, support, and votes of the electors of the 34th Senatorial District of the State of Pennsylvania, composed of races were the best ever seen at the fair, because most of the horses were new to

The big free-for-all on Friday was the gret is the wreck of his machine, which

THE GRANGE ENCAMPMENT- The County Grange committee has the Park at Centre Hall in readmess for the great forty-first annual encampment and fair. ning the fourth Monday, Sept. 28th: The prospects for the successful opening of the gathering, September 12th to 18th, were never so promising as at present, every arrangement will have been completed by Saturday for the reception of the camping parties who have engaged tents.

The railroads are prepared to bring hundreds and thousands by regular and special trains during the week. Special trains will be run Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Sunday, September 13th, 2:30 p. m.-Colver. Harvest Home celebration in the Auditorium; Anniversary Address by Rev. Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall. Subject, "The Church and the New Rural Life." Monday, September 14th-Opening of Exhibition.

Tuesday, September 15th-Washington Party day.

1:30 p. m.-Addresses by Hon. Gifford Pinchot, candidate for U. S. Senator, and G. Runkle, Ex. of Catharine Harper, Dr. Wm. Lewis, candidate for Governor. Dec'd. Wednesday, September 16th-Democratic day.

10 a. m.-Addresses by Hon. Wm. T. Creasy, Master of the State Grange, and R. P. Kester, Lecturer of the State

1:30 p. m. -Addresses by Hon. Vance C. McCormick, candidate for Governor; Hon. A. Mitchell Palmer, candidate for U. S. Senator, and other Democratic State Candidates

Thursday, September 17th-Republican

10 a. m.-Addresses by Hon. E. B. Dorsett, Overseer of the State Grange, and Miss Bakewell, Vice President of the Woman's Suffrage Association.

1:30 p. m.—Addresses by Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, candidate for Governor; Hon. Boies Penrose, United States Senator, and other Republican State candi-

Friday, September 18th-General sales day and closing of Exhibition." There will be addresses by prominent members of the Patrons of Husbandry on forenoons of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Excursion rates will be given over all railroads in Pennsylvania including Baltimore, Md., and Elmira, N. Y. All trains stop at Grange Park. Special trains Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

PHILIPSBURG HAD SUCCESSFUL CELE-BRATION.-Philipsburg had a big three day's celebration in the early part of the week and no doubt a good part of it was served that institution efficiently and due to the indefatigable work of the arrangement committee's press agent, Ellis Thus, while a stranger to most of our Freeman. He simply compelled the peoany rate Philipsburg had about as many Warriorsmark, Huntingdon county, Pa. guests as she could comfortably accom-

The industrial parade and band contest were the chief events on Monday. The His mother was Sarah Hutchison, a near parade was the largest and best gotten at the Bloom home. up ever seen in Philipsburg and the band contest was between eight well known bands in Central Pennsylvania. Five State Normal, and at State College. To prizes were awarded and Our Boys band, obtain this education he taught school in of Milesburg, took the third prize of $50.00.

The big event scheduled for Tuesday was a head-on collision between two rail- new house is completed. in May, 1878, and located at Houtzdale, road trains on the Allepopper railroad. Clearfield county, the same month, where The one train was made up of an engine and three passenger coaches and the steins to improve his herd. moved to Clearfield, where he is now liv- other an engine and six freight cars. A ng, actively engaged in the practice of number of starts were made and it was not until five o'clock that both trains got W. P. Ard, son of the late Joseph Ard, a senior off on time so that the collision would oc- at Susquehanna University is spending hisvaca Mr. Patterson proposes and promises, cur at the proper point. The trains were tion with friends in town. f elected, to advocate and work for the running at an approximate speed of Mrs. Emma Potter with her son and his wife thirty-five miles an hour when they came and daughter are down from Altoona for a weeks together. There was a terrific crash and both engines reared up in the air, while the air was filled with escaping steam his youth at Lancaster, Rev. L. S. Spangler was and flying debris from the broken cars. greeted with a large congregation on Sunday The collision was featured and taken by the Lubin moving picture company.

A big program was also given on Wednesday so that the town can look back to Badger State. the celebration as one of the biggest times it ever had.

In Society.-A luncheon, for which Rev. C. M. Price. eight covers were laid, was given by Mrs. A. Hibler yesterday, at her Allegheny street home, the honor guest being her niece, Mrs. Telford Fink, of Philipsburg. ing home the same evening. A dance for Miss Mary Schad before her return to school, was given by Miss Eleanor Westen, Friday night of last week, at her home on west Linn street.

SHORTLY. - Rubin and Rubin, Harrisburgh's leading eye specialists will be at stables. They have bred at an incred-Krumrine's drug store, Bellefonte, on ible rate, and their swarms now form Wednesday, September 23rd, for a ten a serious menace to health in the coldays' stay.
This is the same firm that was in Bellefonte last April, in the same drug Two good eye specialists to examine your eyes free, and a pair of glasses as low as one dollar.

Look at our ad. in this paper.-2t Mr. Stubb's Mean Warning. "One-half of the women in this world retail gossip," remarked Mr. Stubb, as he lit his after-supper cigar. 'Quite considerate of you not to say all of them retail gossip," snapped Mrs. Stubb, as she washed the dishes. "Oh, no, only half, Maria. The other half wholesale it."

Not a Matter of Wages. "No person can live properly on less than a thousand a year," says a writer. But some persons wouldn't live properly no matter how much or how little they got

Mary Denlinger Holt and J. Kennedy Johnston, Adms. of J. H. Holt, Dec'd. et al. The W. T. Rawleigh Medical Co. vs. H. S. Taylor, A. E. Schad and E. T. Roan, guarantors of John Long Jr.

Stoney Brook Slate and Brick Co., vs Centre Brick and Clay Co., guarantor. J. D. Wagner vs. C. J. Winkle.

Samuel Markowitz vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Catharine A. Mulholland vs. M. D.

Trial List for September Court.

Following is the trial list as arranged for the September term of court, begin-

TRIAL LIST FOR FIRST WEEK.

Forest E. Harter vs. Thomas Scholl.

Edward Bubb and John Bubb, trading as

Thomas J. Hart, Edward F. Hart and

Albert Hart, trading and doing business

as the National Engraving Co., vs. T. R.

Farmers and Breeders Mutual Reserve

Fund Live Stock Insurance Co. vs. W. F.

TRIAL LIST FOR SECOND WEEK

L. D. Merritt vs. Catharine Reese and

Mrs. Nancy Baker Sr., use of Tillie

Edelin, now use of Alfred Cherry, vs. W.

Bemis & Vosburg vs. T. V. Yothers.

Mary H. Denlinger (now Holt) vs.

Bell M. Mattern vs. Irvin G. Gray,

James A. Reese, Admrs. of Christian

Same vs. Stewart S. Keen.

D. W. Geiss vs. N. J. Hockman.

Bubb & Son.

Hamilton.

Reese, Dec'd.

Schwanger-Klein Co. vs. S. E. Kimport.

Mrs. Effie Taylor and John Taylor vs.

Kelley and Matthew Shaddock. The Monitor Steam Generator Mfg. Co., of Lancaster, vs. Lot M. Neff. Keeler Motor Car Co. vs. John Sebring Jr.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

G. W. Scholl was a Coburn visitor last Mon-

H. C. Houck was among the Philipsburgers or

The frost is on the pumpkin but the corn is not on shock. Miss Helen Tate is visiting the Dreese family at Adamsburg. Arthur Burwell made his weekly visit among his friends in Halfmoon on Saturday.

Mrs. Matt Goheen gave a tea party to a number of her lady friends Saturday evening.

Harry Callahan and family, of Philipsburg, enjoyed an auto ride through the valley Tuesday. You don't want to miss the festival in the town hall Saturday evening, by the Lutheran ladies. Prof. Fehr, head of the German department at State College, just returned from his European

W. E. McWilliams, our efficient rural mail carrier, is attending the mail carriers convention at

Miss Matilda Fortney, of Altoona, is visiting G. B. Emerick and Geo. Heckman, of Centre of the Old Fort, spent the Sabbath at Bloomsdorf Harry N. Walker, wife and little folks are here from Selinsgrove for a few weeks outing before College term begins.

Hall, were Sunday visitors at the J. H. Williams home at White Hall. Ira Carter and wife and Geo. Potter and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Meyer and little Julia were Sunday visitors at the Curtin H. Meyer home on the Branch Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Cronover have taken rooms at the Red Lion hotel at Boalsburg until their H. H. Goss was a Snyder county visitor last week and purchased some thoroughbred Hol-Will Houtz, Will Glenn and wife and several friends autoed to our town and spent Sunday

among friends of long ago outing at the J. F. Kimport home at Walnut grove. After spending his vacation among friends of bower on the farm the past ten years, last week took Horace Greeley's advice and landed in the Rev. J. C. Chambers, of Altoona, was greeted

Forest Dry, who has been Matt Goheen's right

by his former parishioners and very ably filled the M. E. pulpit in the absence of their pastor,

Hugh Burchfield, a former Pine Grove Mills lad, now of Altoona, passed through town with an auto party early Sunday morning for Penns Cave. They took dinner at the Old Fort return-

Plaque of Cockroaches in England. Egyptian cockroaches are swarming in the workings of a large colliery in Glamorganshire, England. The crea-NOTED EYE SPECIALISTS WILL BE HERE | tures came over, and were introduced in some Egyptian fodder used in the liery. A Sutherland expert has been engaged to attempt their extermina

Just Possible.

It is not so many years since that there was found in Moravshire an ancient iron heutoir (door knocker) of rude and ponderous workmanship which one valiant Scottish antiquary did not hesitate to suggest might have been the very implement which so awoke the echoes of that memorable night at Macbeth's castle, says & writer in the House Beautiful.

The Dissemblers.

Gibbs-"I'd really like to know the secret of social success." Dibbs—"My boy, there are many secrets of social success, but one of the most important is to be able to pretend you are having a good time when you're not.'