DEMOLITION OF STUDENT'S TRUNKS.-This has been a busy week on railroads hereabouts because in addition to the Granger's picnic at Centre Hall it was the week for the opening of State College and all the trains the fore part of the Zion.-John W. Eby, Foster Sharer, Samuel week were literally swamped with students and their baggage. The train coming from Sunbury on Monday morning carried between 350 and 400 pieces o baggage. It filled one baggage car and had upwards of one hundred pieces over. At the Lemont station the main track is furthest from the platform so that the extra baggage was piled out on the side track. The full car of baggage was cut from the train and shifted onto the sidetrock. Two freight cars were standing on the siding near the crossing. Their brakes were not set, but they were held in place by a block under one wheel. The baggage car was shunted against the ble times they have had in years. two freight cars, which were thus set in motion and the three cars rolled down the track and went crashing through the pile of student's trunks, creating havoc of a most destructible kind.
