ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

CONCLUSION OF COURT.—Court was still in session when the WATCHMAN went to press last week and the cases disposed of in concluding the session were as follows:
Samuel Markowitz vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad company, an action to recover for land taken when the Bald Eagle Valley improvements were made last summer, and another action to recover for the land originally taken when the railroad was built. Mr. Markowitz's property is at Fowler station, the land at one time owned by the late John T. Fowler. In the first action the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant company in the second action.
Catherine A. Mulholland vs. M. D. Kelley and Matthew Shaddock, an action to recover damages for timber cut on plaintiff's land. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff against M. D. Kelley for $108.44, and one against Mr. Shaddock for $108.44, with triple damages or a total of $325.32.
DEVINE—GRAVEDALE.—Ross Devine, only son of Mrs. L. M. Devine, of Pine Grove Mills, and Miss Christina W. J. Gravedale, of Reading, were married in the latter city on October 6th, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. H. Hopewell. Only a few guests were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. H. P. Walters. The bride is a trained nurse and was employed at the Warren hospital, where she first met the young man who is now her husband. The young couple arrived at the Devine home in Pine Grove Mills last Saturday and were tendered quite a reception. Just what plans they have made for the future is not known, but for a brief time they will remain at the Devine home.
—The annual conference of the A. M. E. church closed in Williamsport on Sunday with the announcement of the appointments by Bishop Shaffer. L. V. Jones was assigned to the Bellefonte church and A. H. Moore to Philipsburg and Curwensville. W. L. Brown, who has been in Bellefonte the past year, was transferred to Erie.
—They are all good enough, but the WATCHMAN is always the best.

KUEHNE.—The death of Mrs. Frank Kuehne, (nee Bair) occurred in St. Louis, October 1st, 1914. Mrs. Kuehne is best known to the people of Brush, Penns and Sugar valleys as Samantha Bair, daughter of William and Sarah Bair, and wife of William Hosterman, a merchant of Rebersburg.
She was born October 2nd, 1839, in Sugar valley, but her youth was passed in Brush valley where she married Mr. Hosterman. The writer well remembers her as one of the most attractive and popular of the many beauties of that lovely valley. There was a magnetic quality in her personality which is difficult to describe.
They moved to St. Louis where Mr. Hosterman engaged in mercantile business for a few years when he died. In 1880 she married Frank Kuehne, a commission and produce merchant of St. Louis. She was a most sociable person, and was the centre of the gatherings of our Pennsylvania German Colony in St. Louis, notably the families of Abner N., Andrew J. and Robert K. Wolfe; Ida A. (nee Smull) Vandeventer, and the writer.
For many years she was earnestly engaged in church and charitable work—especially in the Altenheim, a German old peoples' home in St. Louis and the German General Protestant Orphans' Home. Her pastor, Rev. W. F. McMillan, of Lafayette Park Presbyterian church, in his funeral oration, justly characterized her as a natural leader. She will certainly be deeply missed in these circles of Christian Endeavor.
The large concourse of friends at her funeral and the lavish floral offerings testified to the esteem in which she was held.
Her sister, Mrs. J. H. Lease, of Cincinnati; and her nephew, Mr. William B. Herlacher, of Freeport, Ill., attended the funeral.
Her favorite scripture, the 14th chapter of St. John—"Let not your heart be troubled"—may well bring comfort to the bereaved.
C. C. ZIEGLER.

JACKSON.—John Jackson, a native of Centre county and a veteran of the Civil war, passed away at his home in Tyrone on an early hour on Wednesday morning. He had been ailing since the first of July with a complication of diseases incident to his advanced age.
Deceased was a son of Robert and Julia Jackson and was born at Houserville on February 21st, 1841, being at his death 73 years, 7 months and 23 days old. His boyhood life was spent at the place of his birth and when the war broke out in 1861 he walked to Boalsburg where he joined a company of young men being organized to go to the front. They were sent to Camp Curtin, at Harrisburg, where Jackson was assigned to Company C, 148th regiment, under command of Gen. James A. Beaver. He fought for three years and participated in all the battles in which the 148th took part. He was severely wounded several times but upon each recovery rejoined his regiment.
Returning from the war he resumed his occupation as a carpenter and on December 28th, 1865, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna L. Pennington, of Patton township. The family lived in Centre county until twenty years ago when they moved to Tyrone. Mrs. Jackson died ten years ago but surviving the deceased are the following children: H. F. Jackson, of Pine Craft; C. L. Jackson, of Altoona; Mrs. George Clark, of Stormstown, and Mrs. Calvin Robbins, of Tyrone. He also leaves one brother, Robert Jackson, of Bellefonte. Funeral services will be held at 2.30 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon by Rev. A. N. Pierce, of the Baptist church, after which burial will be made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyrone.

CLARK.—Mrs. Mary Swartz Clark, widow of W. H. Clark, died at her home at Mill Hall on Sunday afternoon of a hemorrhage of the lungs, following an illness of six months or more. She was born in Bald Eagle valley but for many years had made her home at Mill Hall. She was a member of the Methodist church and a woman greatly respected by all who knew her. Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are two brothers and one sister, namely: George Swartz, of Bradford; William, of Bushnell, Ill., and Mrs. Alexander Flannigan, of Mill Hall. She also leaves three half-brothers, Burdine, Frank and E. M. Butler, all of Howard. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Mill Hall at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Elmer F. Ilgenfritz officiated and burial was made in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

CODER.—Mary Jane Coder, wife of Bernard Coder, died at her home in Liberty township on Tuesday of last week, following a long illness with a complication of diseases. She was sixty-seven years of age and a member of the Lutheran church all her life. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: George, of Nittany valley; William, of Blanchard; Harry, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Robert Brittain, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. George Regal, of Liberty township, and Mrs. Harry Masden, of Howard township. Funeral services were held at her late home on Saturday morning by Rev. J. E. Dunning, of the Howard M. E. church, after which burial was made in the Schenck cemetery near Howard.

ORWIG.—Samuel H. Orwig, a brother-in-law of Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, died at the Hayes home on Spring street at eight o'clock last Friday evening. He had been ill since last April with hardening of the arteries.
Deceased was born at Mifflinburg in 1836, hence was in his seventy-ninth year. He took a course in Bucknell University and later graduated from the Yale law school. He began the practice of his profession at the Union county bar and some years later went to Philadelphia, where he continued the practice of his profession, achieving considerable notoriety in the trial of cases at the bar. From Philadelphia he went to Harrisburg where he was admitted to the Dauphin county bar and practiced very successfully for a number of years. He was also official county auditor for Dauphin county, being appointed by Judges Kunkel and McCarrell. When taken sick last spring he came to Bellefonte in the hope that the change would prove beneficial, and the summer was spent here and at Centre Hall.
Mr. Orwig was twice married, his first wife dying thirty years ago. Several years later he married Miss Sarah Hayes who survives with no children. He leaves, however, one sister, Miss Rebecca Orwig, of Des Moines, Iowa.
Funeral services were held at the Hayes home on Spring street at five o'clock on Sunday evening. Dr. George E. Hawes officiated and he was assisted by Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, and Rev. A. B. Sprague, of the United Brethren church. The remains were taken to Mifflinburg on the early train Monday morning where they were taken direct to the cemetery for interment.

LOVELAND.—Mrs. Frances W. Loveland, wife of ex-sheriff H. D. Loveland, of Lamar, died quite suddenly on Saturday afternoon. She had been in good health up until Friday evening when she suffered an attack of acute indigestion which resulted in her death within twenty-four hours.
Her maiden name was Frances Watson and she was born in Nittany valley, where she spent practically all of her life. She was a member of the Methodist church all her life and was an active worker in the church and Sunday school. Surviving her are her husband and the following children: Mrs. S. M. Huff, of Milesburg; Mrs. Harry Allison, of Gloucester, N. J.; Mrs. Helen Williamson, of Jersey Shore, and Blaine Loveland, of Antes Fort.
Funeral services were held at the Loveland home at 1:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, after which burial was made in St. Paul's cemetery at Lamar.

ALLISON.—Thomas Allison died at his home near Philipsburg last Friday afternoon as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained a week previous. He was born in England and had lived until October 27th would have been eighty-two years old. He came to this country when a young man and most of his life was spent in the vicinity of Philipsburg, where he followed the occupation of a miner. His wife died six years ago but surviving him are the following children: Mrs. John Mansford, of East Liverpool, Ohio; Mrs. Thomas Elders, of Juniata; Mrs. William Brighton, of Philipsburg; Henry, of Niles, Ohio, and James, of Pleasant Hill. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

HEVERLY.—Cloe Heverly, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heverly, of Blanchard, died rather unexpectedly on Wednesday evening of last week. Though he had been ailing with a complication of diseases for months his condition did not become critical until a short time before his death. He was born at Blanchard and was twenty-three years old. In addition to his parents he is survived by five brothers and one sister namely: Reuben, Milford, Joseph, Darlington, Richard and Mabel, all at home. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, burial being made in the Baptist cemetery at Blanchard.

MEYERS.—Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Meyers, of State College, are mourning the death of their year old son, Harold F., who died quite suddenly last Saturday after only a brief illness with pneumonia. The remains were taken to Beech Creek township, Clinton county, on Sunday, and the funeral held on Monday afternoon. Burial was made in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

HENSHALL—WILKINSON.—Percival Palmer Henshall and Miss Nell Wilkinson, both of State College, were quietly married in Philadelphia last Tuesday evening, returning to the College on Wednesday morning and the first inking their friends had of the happy event was when they received the announcements. Mr. Henshall is an assistant in shop practice in the engineering building while his wife has been associated with Miss Mira Kimpfort in the millinery business under the firm name of Kimpfort & Wilkinson. They are now receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

—A Suffrage Tea will be given by Mrs. Robert Beach and Miss Blanchard tomorrow afternoon, at three o'clock, at their home on Linn street. The guests to be women who have joined or are interested in this great movement are invited to consider the work which is to be carried on throughout the county during the winter.

—The women of the Lutheran church will give an oyster supper in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Tuesday, the 3rd of November. The supper, for which twenty-five cents will be charged, will be served from five o'clock on. Ice cream and cake to be extra.

Mrs. Margaret Moore Strayer of Medina, Ohio, is visiting her many Centre county friends.
Dr. John Bumgardner shipped a car load of fat hogs from here to Philadelphia last Friday.
Oscar Stover's new home is nearly completed. The plasterers and painters are on the job.
Squire W. H. Musser accompanied by his wife spent Thursday among old friends in town.
Earl and Jerome Ginscher, of Linden Hall, Sunday with Henry L. Dale, on the Branch.
James Glenn is laying pipes from the College line to his buildings down the White Hall road.
Miss Edith Sankey and Miss Florence Rhone are planning a visit to the Sunflower State soon.
Mrs. A. P. Ward, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of W. W. Wooster, at State College.
Joe. Wheeler, carriage builder, is now located in the old H. M. Krebs stand, ready for business.
N. E. Hess and M. E. Swabb loaded a car of wheat Wednesday for C. Y. Wagner, of Bellefonte.
J. Cal Markle, of Tyrone, is lending a helping hand to A. C. Kepler, gathering in the autumn crops.
D. G. Meek and wife spent Tuesday at the old home farm, trying their hand at stirring apple-butter.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. G. Mc. Fry Sundayed at the Fred Williams home in the Glades.
Sallie Jacobs Moore, of Philipsburg, with her little daughter Mary, is visiting her parental home west of town.
Mrs. James Mowery, of Centre Hall, is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Sallie Bloom, at Bloomsford.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sellers, of Lewisburg, are visiting old friends and neighbors at Boalsburg and Oak Hill this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Harpster are arranging to take their baby boy, Daniel, to a Philadelphia hospital to be treated for a dislocated hip.
Wm. Groh Runkle and Ward and Wallace Wellington Wooster drove up from Bellefonte and spent the Sabbath along old Tussey's heights.
David L. Dennis and Mrs. Maria Reed departed for Clearfield last Tuesday. Mr. Dennis returned this week and Mrs. Reed will return later on.
Mrs. Thomas Gramley, of Altoona, has been visiting at the Ross Loder home the past two weeks, adding her blessing to the new arrival. Its a dear little boy.
John H. Breen and son Daniel and Wallace Musser were among the sight-seers at Washington Sunday, returning home Monday morning, hungry, dirty and tired.
The new train schedule took effect Monday and hereafter we will have but two freight trains a week, one on Monday evening and one on Saturday evening, with no passenger service.

A plumb robe, black and brown, was lost on the Pine Grove and Spruce Creek road last Wednesday. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at the Krebs store at Pine Grove Mills.
The Colborne-Emery sale on Thursday was a wonder and bidding was brisk. Cows brought $95.00 and the hogs brought a total of $1,135.00. Everything was hammered down at top-notch prices, the sale totalling over $2,500.00, with $1000.00 worth of stuff not sold.
During the past week Mrs. L. M. Devine entertained Mrs. W. H. Hanna and daughter Margaret, of East End, Pittsburgh; Mrs. C. Trumbull, of Eldorado; Mrs. J. S. Burkhardt, of Galitzin, all had a joyous time during their stay. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ritz and son Harry, of Boalsburg, were among the party.
Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Homan last week departed for an extended trip toward the setting sun. Their first stop will be with their son David, at Orangeville, Ill., thence to Kansas and Boulder, Colo., to spend some time with Adam Fye, before crossing the Rockies to southern California to spend the winter. They will visit the great Pan-American exposition in the spring time.
Last Wednesday evening was a red letter day at the John E. Breen home on the Branch, it being the good house wife's birthday. Her two good daughters planned well and surprised their mother completely, so that it required some time to compose herself and take part in the evening fun and music. Everybody who had the good fortune to be bidden got a good fillip of the choicest that the old farm and market could produce. She was the recipient of many useful presents.
Wednesday, the 31st of September, James Sumner Miller was 34 years old. He was singing lullaby by the cook stove when the door swung open and a host of friends and neighbors flocked in and virtually stormed the castle. Never was more "skeert" than when his wife made the charge. As soon as he became reconciled he joined in the festivities of the evening. A splendid supper was served and some valuable presents brought. His wife and sisters managed the affair to a finish.

Last Friday evening a special session of Pennsylvania Lodge was held for the installation of the newly elected officers for the ensuing year. District Deputy Grand Master T. M. Gramley officiated and delegations from the Spring Mills and State College Lodges were present. Following the installation refreshments were served by the ladies. The officers installed were as follows: Noble grand, C. H. Homan; vice grand, John E. M. Williams; treasurer, E. C. Musser; financial secretary, L. S. Spangler; recording secretary, Ralph Walker; warden, W. H. Goss; conductor, C. H. Meyers; chaplain, R. M. Krebs.

LEMONT.
Potatoes are scarce in these parts this year. The farmers are busy husking corn and threshing.
The agent at this place sold sixty tickets to Washington, Saturday evening.
Many of the children of Houserville are housed up with the measles at this writing.
Mrs. H. J. Steele and Mrs. Yakely visited at the home of Jno. R. Williams, Wednesday of last week.
The rains on Saturday night and Tuesday evening are bringing the wheat up and the fields are looking green.
The state road between this place and Pleasant Gap was opened for traffic on Monday, which is a great improvement over the old road.

Take Over T. M. Davis Estate.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 7.—Conservators were appointed this afternoon at a special session of the probate court here, on the estate of Theodore M. Davis, of Newport and New York, and a well known Egyptian explorer. The reason appears to be that Mr. Davis, who is advanced in age, wishes to be relieved of the personal care of his estate.
Mr. Davis made application for the appointment, and while there was quite an array of counsel present, including Herbert Parsons, of New York, the hearing was friendly in every way. There was no objection to the appointment.
The conservators appointed were Theodore Davis Dean, of Boalsburg, Pa., and Dudley S. Dean, of Boston. The petition stated that the estate would not exceed $200,000, and bond was fixed at $300,000 for each conservator, with the New England Casualty company as surety.
Mr. Davis is taxed here for $130,800 personal and real estate, his summer home being known as The Reefs, on Ocean avenue, and he is also assessed on $500,000 intangible personal property.

[Mr. Boal is a nephew and namesake of Mr. Davis.—Ed.]

BOOKS, MAGAZINES, Etc.

About three-quarters of the newspapers of the country seem to be laboring under the impression of late that there is little of consequence going on anywhere in the world but the European war. A notable exception is The Philadelphia Record, whose editors preserve a just sense of proportion in the presentation of the news, as usual. The war is getting all the attention it deserves in The Record in the shape of full and satisfying accounts from all the foreign sources; but it is not allowed to overshadow reports of other events, at home and abroad, in which well-balanced newspaper readers are interested.
Record popularity is perhaps accounted for by Record versatility. The Philadelphia Record covers every phase of human activity in its various departments, and stands in the good graces of every member of the family. It is fair, clean, reliable, bright and entertaining. It is a level-headed all-around NEWS paper for intelligent people who want trustworthy news of all happenings worth reading about, in attractive form.

A General Survey of the War.

THURSDAY.

While the German artillery is shelling the city of Antwerp, the French and British troops which have been advancing in northern France are fighting furiously to break through the kaiser's defense and either turn his flank or reach out help to the beleaguered Belgian city.
German troops which were placed across the path of the allies' flanking movement in northern France, appear thus far to have failed to stop the Anglo-French advance, for dispatches from Paris place the fighting at Melnau, Poperinghe, Waerhem, Ypres and other Belgian cities.

Berlin officially announces that the German army under General Von Hindenburg, operating in Russia, has joined a large body of Austrians, and that the combined forces are engaged with the czar's army north of the Vistula river, near Opatow.

On fire in several places, with its outer forts in the hands of the Germans, shells from the kaiser's heavy siege artillery bursting in the streets and the besiegers attacking the third line of defense, the city of Antwerp is expected to capitulate at any minute.

In the meantime fighting of the most severe character is reported in the extreme northeast corner of France and western Belgium, where the Anglo-French army has been trying to break through and relieve the beleaguered Belgian city of Antwerp.

The long-expected battle between the Russian army of 1,000,000 men, in Poland, and the Austro-German forces of 650,000 under General Von Hindenburg, is in progress north of the Vistula.

FRIDAY.
On fire in several places, with its outer forts in the hands of the Germans, shells from the kaiser's heavy siege artillery bursting in the streets and the besiegers attacking the third line of defense, the city of Antwerp is expected to capitulate at any minute.

In the meantime fighting of the most severe character is reported in the extreme northeast corner of France and western Belgium, where the Anglo-French army has been trying to break through and relieve the beleaguered Belgian city of Antwerp.

The long-expected battle between the Russian army of 1,000,000 men, in Poland, and the Austro-German forces of 650,000 under General Von Hindenburg, is in progress north of the Vistula.

SATURDAY.
Antwerp and the forts surrounding the city are now in complete possession of the Germans, but the greater part of the Belgian army has escaped. It took the Germans just eleven days to capture the strongest fortress in the world.

The Germans, after shelling the city itself for many hours, making it untenable, entered the town through the suburb of Berchem, to the east. They had made a breach in the outer line of forts, some of which were destroyed by the big guns and others blown up by the defenders.

In France, according to the French communication, the allies have maintained their positions in several violent attacks at several points. The cavalry is still engaged along the Belgian frontier and across it, each side trying to work around the other's wing.

SUNDAY.
German aviators dropped twenty bombs into various districts of Paris, killing three persons and wounding fourteen others.

German troops are advancing swiftly toward Ostend, in Belgium, hoping to capture the city by a sudden attack and make prisoners of King Albert and the Belgian government officials, according to a dispatch from The Hague.

German cavalry was signally defeated in battle for the possession of positions necessary for the crossing of the River Lys, in France.

French troops were victorious in a two days' battle for the possession of the village of Apremont, east of St. Mihiel, and also on the center of the battle line, where they advanced to new positions after having repulsed a night attack of the enemy.

MONDAY.
With Antwerp in their hands, the German army operating in Belgium has begun a move toward Ostend, the temporary capital of the country, where King Albert is reported to have arrived with that portion of the Antwerp defenders which escaped to the westward.

Germany's evident purpose now is to prevent the retreating Belgians from joining the Anglo-French forces operating in northern France near the Belgian border and at the same time to break through to the coast.
