Bellefonte, Pa., October 23, 1914.

To CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Dr. I. M. Brockerhoff has been housed up the past week with a severe attack of rheumatism in his foot.

-Ex-sheriff W. E. Hurley is confined to his home on High street by a to fix it. severe attack of rheumatism in both -Friday, October 23rd, has been desagnated as fall Arbor day by Dr. Nathan ard street, and he had set aside twenty will also be a candy table which the C. Schaeffer, superintendent of public

-On Thursday of last week Governor John K. Tener appointed T. A. Hosterman a justice of the peace for Penn township.

-It you have any clothing that needs cleaning, dyeing, repairing or to be altered, call up or send to Gross Cleaning Establishment.

--- The Bellefonte Academy football team lost their first game of the season at Indiana last Saturday when the Farland talk on civic improvement. Normal defeated them 13 to 6 -On account of some legal technicalities which could not be settled to his satisfaction, Paul Reed, of Osceola Mills, explain why the street lights in general has decided not to take over the Hotel are so poor. He confessed ignorance, Dimeling, at Clearfield. -A. B. Steele has a Rhode Island red hen that laid an egg the other day which measured 63x81 inches in circumference and weighed four ounces. As a the town and do what he can to remehen's egg it is hard to beat. ---Samuel Sheffer had quite a sick spell on Sunday and the beginning of the week as the result of a chill, but yester- about it registering too strong. He statday was so much improved that he was able to sit up a part of the day.

-Mrs. Mary Payne and her daughter, Miss Edith will occupy the Walsh home on east High street while Mrs. Walsh and her daughters are spending ing the winter in New York city.

-A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gochanauer, at their home at Medford. N. J., last Thursday. Mrs. Gochanauer will be better remembered as Miss Margaret Brachbill, of this place.

-A new electric power ice cream Monday and since Tuesday they have perior quality. Try it.

mercantile business at Tusseyville since retire from business on account of ill about the brilliancy of the light at Howhealth and will dispose of his store some- ard and Allegheny streets. The matter time between this and spring.

-After being confined to the house for over a month Robert F. Hunter is able to be out on crutches and was down town this week for the first. His injured leg is healing nicely now and he hopes soon to be as good as ever.

-Alfred Heverley, whio for seventeen years clerked in C. C. Shuey's grocery store, resigned recently to take effect last Saturday evening and on Monday morning went to work for Robert Morris, in his grocery on Allegheny Street.

The ladies of the United Brethren church have certainly established a record for serving chicken and waffles. At their supper last Thursday evening two hundred and seventy-five plates were in the past two weeks. Mr. Naginey served, which was some chicken and also submitted a proposition of J. Mac

Admission, 10 and 15 cents.

---Three Altoona boys stole a horse and wagon from in front of the market presented a proposition of the Undine automobile. The gypsies, evidently behouse in that city on Saturday evening, and on Sunday evening they were arrested in the neighborhood of Martha Permace and taken back to Altoona where they were arraigned for horse

--- The Bellefonte High school athletic association has secured the Ithaca Conservatory Entertainment Trio for an entertainment in the High school building on Friday, November 6th, for the benefit the association. The Trio will give sketches, duets, trios, solos, monologues, impersonations and scenes from modern and classic plays in costume. Prices, 25 and 35 cents.

--- Centre countians of Philadelphia will hold their next annual banquet on Thursday, January 28th, 1915. The officers and directors of the associatian met last Friday in the office of William S. Furst Esq., the newly chosen chairman, and agreed to have the attractions of the coming event to consist of dinner. speeches, readings, vocal and instrumental music and dancing.

---William Bilger and Howard Wells of Pleasant Gap, recently purchased the houses on the hill above Nittany furnace which comprised the hamlet of Benona. are tearing them down and moving them out to Peru where they will re-erect carry free to New York all Christmas ed at 3 o'clock and you don't want to them in order to help meet the de- gifts for Belgian orphans and refugees miss one minute of play. Go out and brothers, were her two nieces, Miss Katherine mand there for houses to rent. Most of of the European war. This free service help swell the crowd. General admission Pickle, of Millersville and Miss Nellie Twitmire, the houses have already been torn down will be performed for all such freight price will be 50 cents, ladies 25 and 15

BOROUGH FATHERS IN LENGTHY SESon Monday evening and quite a number of questions were brought up for proper disposition.

Bishop street sewer. The matter was referred to the Water committee and Mr. Seibert stated that he had already investigated her complaint and found that the own premises, and that it was up to her

C. T. Gerberich was present and statwhich he will give to the borough on charge of. condition that they put down a sewer across the alley to take care of the surreferred the matter to the Street committee to carry out.

Burgess Blanchard extended an urgent Tuesday evening and hear Horace Mc-

Superintendent Howard J. Thompson of the State-Centre Electric company, was present by request and was asked to averring that they are carrying the same voltage now as had always been carried, but agreed to put on higher volasked regarding the meter they use, as there have been a number of complaints ed that it was a standard meter and meter.

fire marshall, John J. Bower; first assistby council.

A lengthy communication was receivfreezer was installed in Candyland on ed from Miss Anna J. Valentine making force the number is considerably complaint about the hospital dumping been making their own ice cream. ashes and refuse down over the hill in Candyland ice cream is of a very su- the rear of the Evangelical church and parsonage. The matter was referred to -C. W. Swartz, who has been in the the Nuisance and Sanitary committees.

A communication was received from the death of his father, has decided to G. Murray Andrews making complaint was referred to the Special committee.

The Street committee reported a new pavement being put down on Lamb street by the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, which will necessitate the borough putting down some kind of a crossing. That John McCoy wants permission to dynamite the point of the hill along the state road in order to put down a new pavement, and that work had been begun on the repair of east Lamb street.

The Water committee reported various repairs around town and also stated that a new roof is badly needed on the water works. The latter was referred to the committee with power.

Mr. Naginey, for the Fire and Police committee, presented burgess Blanchard's check for $19.00 for fines collected —The Boalsburg Civic club will hold upon both fire houses, which can be and if he did not like it bring it back and their annual masquerade in the Boal hall sounded from the telephone exchanges, get his own. Mr. Confer took the horse in-law and Charles Anderson got fifteen on Hallowe'en evening, October 31st, at for $100. But inasmuch as Mr. Naginey home and attempted to try it, but he on Thursday down Nittany valley. A 8 o'clock. The public is invited to at- knew nothing about the efficiency of the couldn't get it to budge when hitched up, number of other hunters also had fair tend. Those who desire to join in the proposed alarm, and the other members so took it back. But lo, the gypsies had luck. masquerade will be welcome to do so! of the committee knew nothing about it, the question of the purchase of more were allowed to go free. new hose, but as the committee has not looked into the matter close enough it was referred back.

Lyon stated that if the Fire and Police committee would make a statement of the exact loss suffered by the company and the expense entailed in attending the fire the parties directly interested would willingly pay the amount. An effort will meeting night.

The Sanitary committee complained borough limits and they were instructed to look up a suitable place for such a dump and then enforce its use. Bills to the amount of $292.62 were ap proved and council adjourned.

now and November 30th.

-Mr. F. Potts Green, the druggest, SION.—Seven members were present at was eighty years old yesterday and quite —On Saturday afternoon a Suffrage Tea the regular meeting of borough council a number of friends called informally to was given at the home of Mrs. Robert congratulate him.

-While at work on the sawmill at made complaint about water running in- sonville on Wednesday morning John

--- The ladies of St. John's Episcopal water came from a leaking pipe on her house on the afternoon and evening of the 5th and 6th of November. They will have all kinds of fancy work suitable for Christmas presents besides a delicaed that it was his desire to open up into tessen department from which can be lots some property he had on east How- had all sorts of good things to eat. There feet for an alley running north and south young ladies of the parish will have ---Only one more week of October face water. He also asked for a grade then November, the month of Thanksfor a pavement along his property there. giving will be with us, but why worry Council sanctioned both propositions and about that when you can go to the Scenic every evening. It is generally acknowledged one of the best moving picture shows in this section. Manager T. Clayinvitation to all members of council to ton Brown always looks out for anything attend the Woman's club meeting on new and up-to-date and manages to get it while it is fresh. Special ten cent features every Wednesday evening.

-While at work in his corn field on Saturday afternoon Wesley Biddle, of Julian, was surprised to see a wild turkey flutter down almost at his feet. He picked up the bird and found that its death was due to a load of shot, directed by some person unknown. Mr. Biddle turntage lamps in the business sections of helm who brought it to Bellefonte on ed the bird over to 'Squire Walter Talldy the matter. Mr. Thompson was also the district attorney presented it to the -Trout fishermen who whipped Spring creek during last trout fishing being properly adjusted can not but be season hour after hour without getting a established in the High school. Through correct. Any user who discerns trouble strike, and naturally reaching the con- the efforts of Mrs. Olewine, Mrs. John should notify the company and they will clusion that the trout were very scarce, P. Lyon and others, a course of cooking look after a proper adjustment of the might be somewhat surprised by an in- is now given to the girls of the High A written communication was received approach of the spawning season is mak- ready for their use. stating that at a meeting of delegates of ing the trout hunt the shallow waters the Logan and Undine fire companies the and just now they are coming up stream. following officials were elected: Chief On Wednesday afternoon the writer ant, Ralph Haag; second assistant, Luth- foot in length in the short distance be- board. er Smith. The election was approved tween the bridge and the falls, and that the water is coming over the falls in full John P. Lyon, or Mr. Jonas Wagner. augmented.

- Candyland, next door to the WATCHMAN office, opened for business at two o'clock last Saturday afternoon with the three Gregory brothers in immaculate coats and aprons behind the counters ready for the trade. And what a business they did. As an attraction they carnations to give away to customers and they were all gone before six o'clock. All told during the afternoon and evening between twelve and thirteen hundred customers visited Candyland. They sold out of homemade candies and a big hole was made in their general stock. On Monday Miss Margaret Gehrett went to work as clerk at the candy counter to assist the proprietors and from present indications Candyland is going to prove one of the most popular places in Bellefonte, as it is of a character distinctively its own.

---On Monday two gypsies who gave their names as Charles Michaels and John Hammon pulled off a horse trade with William E. Confer, of Howard. They were in camp near Howard when the trade was made and they told Mr. Con-Heinle to install an electric fire alarm fer to take the horse home and try it disappeared. Mr. Confer telephoned to it was referred back for proper investi- Bellefonte and surrounding towns then, gation and report. Mr. Naginey also with the constable, gave chase in an fire company that if the borough would lieving themselves safe from pursuit, pay to them monthly the amount it is came to Bellefonte and were arrested now paying for heating their building about five o'clock in the evening in the they would instal their own heating alley near the Haag house stable, just as plant and could pay for it in two years, they were about closing a horse trade after which all it would cost the borough with a Bellefonte dealer. When Mr. would be for coal. Referred to the Fire Confer came to town he was willing to and Police committee for certain investi- drop all legal proceedings when he got gations. Mr. Naginey again brought up his horse back and the traveling nomads

THE ACADEMY-INDIAN GAME SATUR-DAY.-Tomorrow there will be eighteen The Finance committee through Mr. full-blooded Indians, from a half dozen or more tribes in the west, in Bellefonte and they will be an attraction for old and young. These Indians compose the Carlisle Indian football reserves and they will come here to play the Bellefonte Academy eleven on Hughes field. Mr. be made to have the figures by next Hughes had considerable difficulty in inducing the reserves to come to Bellefonte and it is costing considerable money to oh Monday while Mrs. Benton will return about the promiscuous dumping of de. bring them here. For that reason a cayed fruits and vegetables within the large crowd from Bellefonte and the country roundabout should turn out and Claussen, of Freeport, are both with their sis see the game. You can rest assured that it will be well worth the money. The Academy has a heavy team and the boys have been playing good football. They mean to win from the Indians if it is at -The Pennsylvania railroad will all possible to do so. Game will be calland much of the material moved to the shipped by organized societies between cents for the small boys, no deadheads. John Brachbill, of Williamsport and W. E. This latter will be strictly enforced.

IN THE INTEREST OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE. Mills Beach and Miss Mary Miles Blanchard.

Miss Ammerman was present and the Lyon lumbering operation near Jack- learn the sentiment on Woman's Suffrage A plan for canvassing the town to was set on foot, and an announcement to her cellar, and she blamed it on the Dullen had his right foot crushed. He made of a convention of the Woman's was brought to the Bellefonte hospital Suffrage party of Centre county to be held on October 31st, at the same residence. This convention will be addresschurch will hold a Bazaar in the parish ed by Miss Hannah J. Patterson, chairman of the Woman's Suffrage party of Pennsylvania.

This was the first of the series of teas which are to be given with the object of interesting the women of Bellefonte in the question of Woman's Suffrage.

There will be short talks, followed by discussions, and an opportunity to contribute to the support of the Woman's Suffrage Association of Pennsylvania, whose headquarters are in Harrisburg.

This Association is in need of all the nelp the Suffragettes of the State can give next twelve months.

The second one of these teas was given on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Harry Keller and Mrs. Edmund Blanchard at the home of the former.

These will be followed by others in the different parts of town, the idea being United States court at Scranton this week, to invite one's neighbors and friends to an informal gathering, where there will be a subject to discuss over a cup of her sister, Mrs. John Cramer, on east Lamb over Sunday with Mr. Underwood's parents, will be gladly received.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES .- The Woman's club will hold its regular meeting on Monday, October 26th, at half-past seven p. m., in the High school building. Mrs. John S. Walker will give a talk on "The League of Good Citizenship."

At the last meeting of the club Mrs. John I. Olewine gave a report on the domestic science kitchen which has been spection of the stream now. The near school and a well equipped kitchen is

A large part of the equipment has been donated by Mrs. Olewine and others, but there is yet a sum of $160.00 to be raiscounted forty trout from six inches to a ed to pay for the tables, sink, and cup-

All contributions toward the cause can was when the water was very low. When be sent to Mrs. John I. Olewine, Mrs.

PENNSYLVANIA DAY AT STATE COLLEGE. year will come just ten days after the election and the college officials have already announced that the Governor-elect as well as Governor Tener will be invitlege cadets, the presentation of the two Lima, Ohio. steel flagstaffs to be erected by the P. O. S. of A., the glee club concert, a football game between State and the Michigan Aggies and the Senior dance in the evening. The students in the School of Agriculture will hold a county fair and exhibition of live stock on Friday and Saturday, November 13th and 14th, and on the latter day four new college buildings will be dedicated.

SQUIRREL QUITE PLENTIFUL.-Hunters who were out the first few days of the hunting season had fairly good luck in bagging squirrels. John Nighthart and a companion, hunting in the Barrens on Thursday got the limit of six squirrel each. Friday morning they went out and agent. bagged seven before being driven in by the rain, making a total of nineteen. Dr. VanValin and two others got thirteen on the opening day of the season up Bald Eagle valley, while Ed Gillen, his father-

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Carl Beck, of Pittsburgh, is with her mother, Mrs. John Harrison. Mrs. Beck came to Bellefonte Tuesday.

-Mrs. Fargo, whose home is in New York State, has been in Bellefonte with her cousin, Miss Sara Owen, since Saturday of last week. -Leo Toner, Harry Taylor's chief assistant at the Adams express office, left on Wednesday to spend his week's vacation taking in the sights in Philadelphia

-Dr. Emery Marvel, of Atlantic City, was a Bellefonte visitor over Sunday, coming here to ook over some property interests he acquired in Bellefonte some months ago. -Miss Margaret Donnelley, of Johnstown, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wash Rees; having accompanied Mrs. William Rees back to Bellefonte after a few day's visit in Johnstown. -Mrs. J. W. Miller, of Ramey, with her daugher and son, Mrs. Graffius, of Spruce Creek, and F. D. Miller, of Bellwood, were guests of the Misses Margaret and Jane Miller, while in Bellefonte a short time ago. -Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Benson came to Bellefonte from Pittsburgh last Saturday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Beezer and tomorrow. -Mrs. McClellan, of Denver, and Abner ter, Mrs. Samuel Sheffer, Mrs. McClellan expecting to remain in Bellefonte for the winter. On account of Mr. Sheffer's serious con Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sheffer and Mrs. and Mrs. Herbert Sheffer were all in Bellefonte for several days the early part of the week.

-Among those from a distance who were Bellefonte yesterday for the funeral of Mrs. Philip D. Waddle, in addition to her sister and of Asbury Park; Mills Alexander, of State Col-

-Mrs. M. C. Levi is visiting with friends in Butler, Pa., this week.

-David Barlett Sr., spent Sunday in Tyrone with his son, Sidney Barlett and family.

-M. A. Landsy returned on Wednesday from a three weeks business trip to Philadelphia. -Dr. Eloise Meek is in Johnstown, where she will visit for two weeks before returning to

-Richard S. Brown left on Tuesday for New York city, where he has prospects of securing a Kyle McFarlane.

-Mrs. Miller Stewart went to Philipsburg a week ago, where she has been making a short visit with Mrs. Hirlinger.

good position

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray Andrews have had as guests during the past week Mr. and Mrs. Elliot and Mr. Moran, all of Philadelph

-Mrs. Thaddeus Hamilton is in Philadelphia, having gone down Tuesday to visit for several weeks there, and with her sons in New York. -Mrs. John VanPelt, who went to Williamsport Tuesday, was under the care of Dr. Haskins, the eye specialist, during her stay of several -Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, went to Erie on Tuesday to attend the annual State

-Mrs. Roy Brandon, who with Mr. Brandon it in order to carry on the work of the moved from Bellefonte to Altoona a year ago, came here Monday for a visit of a few days with Miss Aiken. -Mr. and Mrs. Abner Alexander, of Centre Hall, were Bellefonte visitors on Tuesday, Mr. Alexander making a very agreeable call at the WATCHMAN office.

-Thomas H. Harter served as a juror in the while postmaster H. C. Valentine was in attendance as a witness.

street, left for her home in Wilkinsburg the latter part of last week

-Miss Gertrude Crawford is again in her position as the obliging clerk in Doll's bakery after a three weeks vacation spent with friends in the central and western part of the State. -Mrs. A. Wilson Norris returned to Harrisburg Tuesday, after spending the summer in Bellefonte. During her stay here Mrs. Norris occupied the home belonging to Miss Natt, on Curtin street -Mrs. McGargle, of New York city, who is with her cousin, Mrs. J. M. Dale, came to Bellefonte Friday to stay until the first of November, during which time Mr. McGargle will be on a business trip through the South. -Miss Florence Rhone, of Centre Hall, left on Wednesday for Wichita, Kan. She will spend a month stopping off at various points on her way out to visit friends and expects to remain for an indefinite time in Wichita, with her aunt, Mrs.

-William Benner, who two months or more ago had his right eye injured by a spawl flying into it while at work in the foundry of the Belle-fonte Engineering company, left for Philadelphia on Tuesday evening to enter the Wills Eye hospital for an operation.

-Mrs. Theodore Cherry spent the early part of the week at Beaver visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. Lawrence Nichols, and her new grand-son, who is now three weeks old. Mrs. Cherry had been at Beaver for a time, but came Pennsylvania day at State College this over to be with Mr. Cherry and their son last week.

-After spending six weeks in Bellefonte as guests of Dr. and Mrs. George E. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. McKean left on Tuesday for Daytona, Fla., where they may spend the winter ed and are expected to be present. The if they like it. Mr. McKean, who is a brother-inprogram will include a review of the col- law of Dr. Hawes, came here with his wife from -Among the relatives who were in Bellefonte on Wednesday for the funeral of the late Mrs. Edward G. Osmer were Mr. and Mrs. Newton F. Osmer and young son, John Lambert Osmer, of Franklin, Pa. Mr. Osmer, who was a nephew of the late Mrs. Osmer, is a prominent attorney at the Venango county bar. -Mrs. LeRoy Plumb and her child, who have been in Bellefonte since the middle of August with Mrs. Plumb's mother, Mrs. Joseph Fox, left vesterday morning for their home in Newton, Kansas. Accompanying Mrs. Plumb was her sister, Miss Anne Fox, who will visit in Kansas a month before returning to Bellefonte.

-Dr. George S. V. Howard, who has been laid up at the Brockerhoff house about a month on account of injuries sustained in an automobile accident, left yesterday for Pittsburgh to meet the general manager of the Waterman-Waterbury Heating and Ventilating company, with whom he holds the position of general eastern sales

-Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Osman drove to Bellefonte Tuesday from their farm three miles west of the College, Mr. Osman looking after business while Mrs. Osman spent the day shopping. Their daughter, Mrs. Ritchie, who was married re cently, is with Mr. Ritchie in Altoona, over seeing the decorating and furnishing of their new home.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Owens and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Owens and their young son were in Altoona on Saturday evening attending the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Love. Others among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Keller, of Pleasant Gap, with whom Mr. and Mrs. Love resided for a short time after their marriage.

-Dr. Thomas C. VanTries returned home last Friday after a months absence visiting his son, Rev. W. Potter VanTries, in Altoona, and his brother, George L. VanTries, in Pittsburgh. While in the latter city he took a boat ride down the Ohio river and ate some ham sandwiches and the result of which was a severe case of ptomaine poisoning. He was laid up several days in Pittsburgh and also in Altoona, and is not entirely over it yet.

-Finley G. Stewart, of Seattle, Wash., arrived in Bellefonte on Monday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Miller Stewart, and his brothers and sister. Mr. Stewart is engaged with his brother William in the salmon canning industry and spent all of last year at their fisheries in Alaska. Another guest at the Stewart home this week is Mrs. Stewart's niece, Miss Ella Green Stewart, of Orangeville, Columbia county, who arrived on Tuesday evening.

-Mrs. Harry Carl Ebert resigned her position as stenographer for Col. H. S. Taylor last week and left for Niagara Falls to join her husband who has a good position there as analytical chemist for a large manufacturing concern. Mrs. Ebert will more readily be reme Miss Ina Cronemiller, a daughter of Mrs. Reuben E. Cronemiller, of east Bishop street, and her marriage to Mr. Ebert, who was a student at State College, took place at Sunbury during commencement week last June.

-Among the many letters of commendation of the WATCHMAN, received the past week, we had none that gave us more real pleasure than one from Mrs. Anna H. Peifer, of Wilkinsburg, Pa., who in renewing her subscription to the WATCH-MAN writes, "I could not well get along without your clean paper. Its a good letter from home every time it comes." Mrs. Peifer is a daughter of our old-time Democratic friend, Mr. Hezekiah Hoy, of this place, who has been a patron and reader of the WATCHMAN since it was started in 1856, and evidently appreciates a clean home paper that distinguishes between actual news

-Miss Nellie McClellan spent several days last week with friends in Tyrone.

-William H. Dawson, of Altoona, was an over Sunday visitor with friends in Bellefon

-Mrs. William Wolf is the guest of her daugh. ter, Mrs. Frank Zeigler, in Altoona, this week.

-Mrs. Sarah Etters, of Lemont, spent last week visiting friends at Danville and Sh -Miss Margaret McFarlane is in Lock Haven, visiting for a few days with her mother, Mrs. J.

-Mrs. Charles Heverley left on Saturday on a visit to her son Elmer and family, in Hollidaysburg, as well as friends in Altoona.

-Ex-county commissioner Philip H. Meyer, of Centre Hall, was a Bellefonte visitor on Saturday and a caller at the WATCHMAN office.

-Mrs. Annie Barnes, of Johnstown, who had been visiting her many friends in Bellefonte for some time returned to her home this week. -Harry E. Fitzgerald, of East Pittsburgh, was in Bellefonte over Sunday with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. William T. Fitzgerald, on south Spring -Miss Eleanor Parker left on Monday to spend some time with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McGinness, at the Hotel Dimeling, Synod of the Presbyterian church now in session Clearfield. -Mr. and Mrs. Milton R. Johnson returned home the latter part of last week from a six weeks trip to Des Moines, Iowa, and other places throughout the west. -Miss Mildred Locke, who is at Plainfield, N. J., visiting with her aunt, left Bellefonte

Tuesday. Miss Locke spent the entire winter in Plainfield a year ago. -Miss Helen Corrigan, a masseuse at Hamond hall, Atlantic City, has been in Bellefonte this week visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry D. Rerick, on north Spring street. -Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Underwood with their three children, of Renovo, were in Bellefonte and Mrs. E. C. Tuten and family. -Claire Grove, who is just recovering from a pell of sickness, came down from Altoona on Friday to recuperate at the home of his parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Underwood. -Charles E. Gates, clerk at the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania depot, spent Sunday and the fore part of the week in DuBois, visiting Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Grove, in Spring townsh -Mrs. Jerry Nolan left Bellefonte a week ago to go to Tyrone for a visit with her son and his family. From there she will go to Johnstown, to stay some time with her daughter, Mrs. Harry

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swan, of Pittsburgh, are expected in Bellefonte today on a visit to their son Jack and wife, at the Brockerhoff house. Mr. Swan Jr. is an assistant engineer at the new -Capt. George P. Runkle, who since his retirement from the Schoolship Adams has been an officer on ships plying in the coastwise trade between New York and Norfolk, has been visiting Bellefonte friends this week. -Mrs. John Meese left Bellefonte on Wednesday for Crafton where she will visit her grand-daughter, Mrs. William B. Wallis. She was accompanied as far as Altoona by her daughter, Mrs. J. Will Conley. -Harold Gardner, who on account of ill health was obliged to resign his position in Pittsburgh a year ago, left Bellefonte the fore part of the week to resume his work. Returning to the Jones-Laughlin Steel Co., he will continue his work as

-Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Keep, of Buffalo, N. Y., arrived in Bellefonte on Saturday to spend a few days with their son, Henry Keep and family, of east Curtin street. Their visit at this time was made more particularly to see their little six weeks old grand-daug

-After a visit of two weeks at her old home in this place Mrs. John Guisewhite and two children, Frederick and Catharine, left for their new home in Meadville on Saturday. The Guisewhites recently moved from Cherrytree to Meadville where Mr. Guisewhite has accepted a position as manager of the Phœnix foundry.

-W. H. Taylor, the man who transports all the mail that comes into and goes out of Bellefonte over the Pennsylvania railroad from the depot to the postoffice, took a little vacation last week and attended the annual reunion of his old regiment, the Forty-ninth, at Huntingdon; remaining until Sunday with his son Charles and Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce. tatoes per bushel, new Bellefonte Grain Markets.
Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, he following are the quotations up to six o'clock uursday evening, when our paper goes to press. d Wheat

Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closi hiladelphia markets on Wedne ng prices of the Wheat-Red Corn Oats Flour —Winter, per barrel.
Favorite Brands...
Rye Flour per barrel.
Baled Hay—Choice Timot
Mixe

Rye, per bushel..... Corn, shelled, per bushel

The Best Advertising Medium in Centra Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year.... Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-cept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: ed amount of advertising space following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising run

Each additional insertion, per line Local Notices, per line.....

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS. Per inch, each insertion....

The following discounts will be allowed on ad ertisements continued for ur weeks, and under three mos...10 per coree mos. and under six mos......15 per co

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents e respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertising Agents taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless accompanied by the cash.