Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.
Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 9 1/2 E. High street.

SERMONS ON THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST.

Rev. G. E. Hawes, D. D., will begin a series of sermons Sunday night which will doubtless attract much attention. In these days when Europe is passing through the greatest war ever known many people are studying prophecy to see if the Bible's predictions may not come to pass in this day. What do you think? What do you believe? Are we near the end of the present age? The sermons announced will deal with these great questions of prophecy. The dates and subjects are: Nov. 1st, "The Lord Will Come Again," Nov. 8th, "Two Age Programs," Nov. 15th, "The Last Days," Nov. 22nd, "The Lord in the Air," Nov. 29th, "The Great Tribulation," Dec. 6th, "Behold He Cometh," Dec. 13th, "The Millennium," Dec. 20th, "The Great Consummation," Dec. 27th, "Watch!" These sermons will be preached to the evening audiences to give the public an opportunity to share them with the congregation.

U. B. CHURCH NOTES.
The big meetings at the U. B. church are increasing in attendance and power. The subjects presented are both interesting and profitable. Christian people who wish to see Bellefonte stirred by a real revival are asked to lay their denominational differences aside. Hear the cry of the lost souls and come over and help, not hold down a seat.
November first will be communion Sunday, don't miss it. It is Father's table, hence his children are welcome. To any seeking a church home we extend a cordial welcome. To such the doors of the church will be open morning and evening. The evening service will be under the direction of the W. M. A.

A. B. SPRAGUE, Minister.
WORK ON CENTRE COUNTY HIGHWAYS.
—The WATCHMAN is in receipt of Vol. 1 No. 1 "Pennsylvania Highway News," an official bulletin of the State Highway Department. It is supposed to be an accurate report of the work done on the state highways from June 1st, 1911, to September 30th, 1914. Centre county is not credited with any completed or uncompleted highways, while the only piece of state-aid highway credited to the county is 4.975 feet in Snow Shoe township at a cost of $19,870.38. The engineering work and inspection on this piece of road cost $931.74. The Department claims to have done the following work in Centre county during the past three months:
On state highway route No. 27, 19.3 miles, running through the townships of Penn, Gregg, Potter and Harris, chuck holes and washouts have been filled, drains opened, loose stones removed and bridge repaired.
On route No. 29, 7.4 miles through Potter township from the Mifflin county line to Old Fort, the road has been shaped and crowned, gutters and drains opened, loose stones removed, road ditched and dragged and holes filled.
On route No. 56, 17.8 miles through Ferguson township from the Huntingdon county line to Pine Grove Mills, chuck holes and ruts filled, loose stones removed, road re-surfaced and ditched.
On route No. 57, 11.7 miles through Rush and Taylor townships from Osceola Mills to the Blair county line, holes in the macadam road between Osceola and Sandy Ridge filled with limestone and tamped; on the balance of the road gutters and drains have been cleaned, ruts filled and roads dragged.
On route No. 58, 13.4 miles from Nittany to the Clinton county line, road leveled and re-surfaced. From Bellefonte to Nittany weeds removed.
—A course in "Citizenship" has been introduced into the public schools of Bellefonte to cover every grade from the first to the eighth. The books are by learned and eminent women and they have the endorsement of ex-President William Howard Taft, who has written the introduction to the teacher. As an indication of what the course consists of in grade I is found articles on "Kindness to Playmates," "Kindness to Animals," "Making Others Happy," etc. Each grade is a higher step in noble and upright citizenship, the whole constituting a very interesting and instructive course. For the present only a half hour each week will be devoted to this course, which will be more in the nature of a talk or lecture on the subject by the teacher, than a lesson for the pupil to study and recite.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT—Herbert Schnarrs, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schnarrs, of Cuba Mines, near Philipsburg, was accidentally shot last Wednesday morning when his older brother, Henry, was trying to remove loaded shells from his father's gun. The shot caused instant death. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon from the Congregational church at Cuba Mines.
—Did you notice the Hallowe'en window in Brouse's grocery store? It is the most seasonable of any in Bellefonte. A background of corn with a window full of pumpkins, apples, potatoes, cabbage, etc., and a big jack-o'-lantern. Under a red light at night it is quite attractive.
—The Street committee has a force of men engaged in fixing up east Lamb street and when the work is completed that thoroughfare will be in better shape than it has ever been before.

EVAPORATING PLANTS CLOSED.—The evaporating plant at Centre Hall was closed on Friday and the one at Coburn on Saturday, and their shut-downs are ascribed to the European war. The greatest market for evaporated apples was in Germany and as that has become entirely shut off the market has become over-stocked. Even hand picked winter apples are hard to dispose of at a fair price on account of the abundant crop in Pennsylvania and New York. Thousands of bushels are being made into cider, but even there is a limit to this way of getting rid of the apples, owing to the scarcity of barrels.
—William G. Slagle, of State College, broke into the store room of the State-Centre Electric company at that place last Saturday night and was in the act of removing some material when he was detected and caught. He was placed under arrest and at a hearing before Squire Woomer on Monday he was sent to jail for trial at the next term of court.

PINE GROVE MENTION.
J. I. Markle, of Bellwood, is here for a week's squirrel hunting.
Next Tuesday is election day. Get out the vote and vote straight.
Geo. T. Miller, of Tyrone, is greeting his old friends here this week.
J. Hale Ross was here Tuesday and bought a bunch of cattle feeders.
J. I. Reed is very successfully steering a new Ford five passenger car.
You don't want to miss the stock sale at Kimports, State College, today.
W. K. Cort has invested in a new large size double row National corn husker.
Hugh McAfee, of Stormstown, was here Tuesday in quest of pumpkins, and got 'em.
Will Swabb is aiding M. I. Swabb in getting ready for the public sale November 25th.
Harry Sunday reports a new arrival. It's a boy. For the present its name is "cruver."
J. B. Heberling returned home last week from Philadelphia and is now convalescing nicely.
H. H. Goss and Mack Fry shipped a car of wheat Wednesday to C. Y. Wagner, Bellefonte.
Wild geese were homeward bound Sunday, followed by snow storms next day; the first taste of winter.
John I. Thompson and James Longwell and wife, of Lemont, were within our gates Sunday afternoon.
J. Roy Goss, of Clearfield, is here for his share of the irishy tribe. Roy is one of the Progress tyro floos.
O. P. Bloom and wife and Lee Markle and wife were entertained at the J. A. Fortney home, at Awlsworth.
George Tate, of Pittsburgh, is making his annual visit among the friends of his youth in Pennsylvania.
John W. Fry, who has been confined to bed the past week with a complication of troubles, is on a fair way to recovery.
Carpenter Will Stover had hard luck recently when he lost three fingers on his left hand, which were taken off in a planer.
A new boy arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Reed on Wednesday night, and the family have decided to keep the little stranger.
After a week's gunning along old Tussey's base, Rev. Dr. Spangler returned home last Thursday. This was his first outing in eighteen years.
Frank Clevenstone, of Bellefonte, is making his monthly circuit delivering goods and taking orders for December delivery and reports times brisk.
D. Ross Gregory last week shipped a car load of lambs, and Dr. J. E. Baumgardner a car load of porkers for their large trade in the eastern market.
The J. Cal. Neidigh family, at Altoona, are among those under quarantine for diphtheria. This, their many friends hereabouts, will be sorry to learn.
Ida Bowersox, of Tyrone, is in a Philadelphia hospital where she underwent a serious operation. She is reported in a very serious condition, and her life is despaired of.
Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Hess accompanied by their son John autoed to Williamsport Wednesday, in their big Cadillac car, to consult a specialist on throat trouble, with which John is affected.
Rev. Day, of Alexandria, will preach in the Presbyterian church here next Sunday, at 2.30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Barber, of Curwensville, filled the pulpit last Sunday, owing to Presbyterian having declared it vacant.
Mrs. Walter Woods, who spent most of the summer in Canada, joined her husband here recently for a brief visit among Centre county friends. Most of their time will be spent at the Dr. G. H. Woods home on west Main street.
George Hoover, the twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hoover, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Wednesday evening and operated on for appendicitis. Reports from the hospital yesterday stated that he was getting along all right.
Mr. D. W. Miller is busy as a nailer, looking up the voters in the western part of the county. Mr. Miller is a successful farmer, knows the needs of the common people and should be elected by a handsome majority, to aid in the job of house-cleaning in Harrisburg. Vote for Miller and you will never regret it.
Last Saturday Fred Randolph took Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fortney and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Walker on a joy ride down Pennsylvania, crossed over the Seven mountains to Lewistown, via Big valley, taking dinner at Belleville; then to Mill Creek, Huntingdon, Alexandria, Spruce Creek, and home by seven o'clock in the evening.
Oliver Piolet Bloom, of Bloomsdorf, went to State College on a business trip on Wednesday afternoon and when he returned home was surprised to find the house filled with friends and neighbors who gathered to congratulate him upon his thirty-sixth birthday anniversary. A big supper was a chief feature of the evening's festivities.

BOOKS, MAGAZINES, Etc.
WHY THE YOUTH'S COMPANION SHOULD BE IN EVERY FAMILY.—"If I could take only one paper," said the late Mr. Justice Brewer, of the Supreme Court, "it would be the Youth's Companion—a little of everything in a nutshell, and unbiased." The Companion is a family paper in the complete sense. It provides reading that, without failing to interest the young, still interests the mature. It unites young and old through their common enjoyment of delightful fiction, agreeable miscellany, and the clear exposition of public questions.
If you are not familiar with the Companion as it is to-day, let us send you sample copies and the Forecast for 1915. New subscribers who send $2.00 for the fifty-two issues of 1915 will receive free all the remaining issues of 1914, besides a copy of the Companion Home Calendar for 1915. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley street, Boston, Mass.

HOW TO VOTE FOR A JUDGE

TO MARK BALLOT FOR FRANK M. TREXLER AN EASY MATTER

Candidates for the Supreme and Superior Courts of Pennsylvania will not appear in the party ballots at the November election. This is because the Act of 1913 makes the office of judge non-partisan, and the voter must choose between the men named for the office without regard to any party at all.

Judge Frank M. Trexler of Lehigh County is the Superior Court candidate who bids fair to be elected without difficulty. His name will be second on the ticket for Superior Court. He is a Lehigh County man and in his 11 years on the bench of that county was sustained by the higher courts in nine out of ten of his decisions.

What is the Superior Court?
The Superior Court of Pennsylvania is the court which stands between the Court of Common Pleas and the Supreme Court. There are seven justices of the Superior Court, which meets each year in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Williamsport, and Scranton. During October, for example, the court will be holding sessions in Philadelphia.
The members of the Superior Court are Judge Head of Westmoreland County, Judge Henderson of Crawford County, President Judge Rice, Judge Orndy of Huntingdon County, Judge Porter of Allegheny County, Judge Kephart of Cambria County, and Judge Frank M. Trexler of Lehigh County.
Judge Trexler, appointed by the governor to fill the unexpired term of Gen. James A. Beaver, ran such a tremendous total in the primary of May 19th that his total was almost as great as that of his three opponents combined. The judge's vote in his home county of Lehigh was very complimentary, all parties uniting to back him for the place. Judge Trexler occupied the Lehigh County bench for 11 years. Last May he carried 47 of the 67 counties of Pennsylvania.

Jurist's Fine Record
Judge Frank M. Trexler of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, a candidate for the place made vacant through the death of Gen. James A. Beaver, and nominated in the spring primary on the non-partisan ballot, has a record as a jurist which is, to say the least, an unusual one.
In 11 years on the bench of Lehigh County he was sustained by the higher courts in 90 per cent. of his decisions. That is to say, in cases appealed to the higher courts from Lehigh County Judge Trexler's opinions and findings were upheld by the upper bodies nine out of ten times.
Judge Trexler, or Frank Trexler, as he is known to his friends, was born in Allentown January 9, 1861. His father was the late Edwin Trexler, for many years a farmer, and afterward a lumberman who helped develop many sections of Pennsylvania.
Judge Trexler was graduated from Allentown High School in 1876. In 1879 he was graduated with honors from Muhlenberg College at Allentown. He studied law and in 1882 was admitted to practice in the courts of Lehigh County. Within a short time he had built up a large practice. In November of 1903 he was elected to the Lehigh County bench. During the 11 years he presided over those courts he showed marked industry, court business was expedited and the docket cleared of old cases. This was done without the loss of thoroughness which makes a good judge. The same thing is true of Judge Trexler since he became a member of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania. He should be elected November 3, 1914.

SPRING MILLS.

The concert at the Grange hall by a quartette of colored artists, on Wednesday evening last, was largely attended.
Election only a few days off, and yet no one here hears anything about politics. Does this mean a political storm next week?
M. D. Leitzell, after an illness of ten days, died the fore part of last week and was buried in the Heckman cemetery on Friday last.
The Spring Mills gun club is making preparations to start on the war path early on the morning of the 10th proximo. Of course every member expects to capture a deer.
G. C. King has been running his cider press from early morning until late in the evening for several weeks, and the cry is, "still they come." He thinks that he will be forced to operate the press the greater part of next month.

Since the removal of the postoffice from his building Mr. Kruse has purchased a full line of Mens', Boys' and Youth's clothing and furnishing goods. This is in addition to his large stock of shoes, confectionery, stationery, etc. His store is now called the Emporium.
Our new postoffice building has just been handsomely painted and presents a very attractive appearance. The interior is well arranged for the reception and delivery of mail matter, and the rural carrier's department is very convenient in every respect. Mr. Zabler, our new postmaster, took possession ten days ago.
