

REGRETS.

Try to so direct your thoughts, your words, your actions, your whole life, in short, that regrets can find no room for intrusion.

Delaware's Circular Boundary.

The northern boundary line of Delaware is circular because the charter given to Penn states that Pennsylvania was to be "bounded on the east by the Delaware river from twelve miles distant north of Newcastle town until the three and fortieth degree of north latitude."

And George Did.

The battleship schools have made some startling contributions to literature. Here is the essay of a Filipino sailor who was told to write about George Washington.

"George Washington was sore because American persons is not free. He said to England on — (naming his own battleship) ship and say to King, 'I express declaration of independence for American persons.' King he say, 'Nothin' doin.' And Mr. Washington tell Admiral Dewey to shoot turret guns at him. Bime by king he say he will not rule American persons again. 'Let George do it,' say king, and today American persons is free."

He Dazed Lew Wallace.

Shortly after the first success of "Ben-Hur" Lew Wallace had occasion to go over to London and one day picked up a pirated copy of the novel at a railroad newsstand. To his amazement he found the subtitle left off, a preface interpolated and one of the chapters rewritten.

Begin Now to Live.

After a long stern chase I am convinced that the ingredients of happiness are very few and simple. The trouble with most of us is that we think we want too many things and so miss our true aim in the effort to obtain them.

Hotter Than Our Sun.

Scientific research shows that the sun has a temperature of 4,950 degrees; Aldebaran, that beautiful star in Taurus, 5,150 degrees; the polar star, 5,200 degrees, and the dog star Sirius, 7,500 degrees. This goes to show that the sun is undoubtedly one of the coldest of the stars.

Granted.

A sweet faced old lady walked up Fifth avenue hanging on to the arm of her husband, who was a little bit hard of hearing. A girl brushed past them rudely, bumping into the little old lady. "She didn't even say 'Excuse me,'" she said indignantly to her husband.

Forced Economy.

"Poor Tom! It cost him a terrible lot to give up his sweetheart." "Then why did he?" "Because it would have cost him a great deal more if he hadn't."—London Tatler.

Question of Height.

Lady Southwick, in her recently published reminiscences, tells a story of an Irishman who was cutting turf near a bog when a friend came up to him, crying: "Patrick is stuck in the bog up to his ankles."

To Seal Bottles.

Bottles may be securely sealed in the following manner: Melt together a quarter of a pound of sealing wax, the same quantity of resin and two ounces of beeswax. When the mixture froths, stir it with a tallow candle. As soon as each ingredient is melted, dip the tops of the corked bottles in the mixture. It will completely exclude the air.

Spirit of Independence.

"The spirit of American independence is growing stronger every year." "Mebbe 'tis," assented Uncle Floppole. "Mebbe 'tis. When I was a young feller they had a man to call the figgers at a dance. An' you bet we tried to mind him. Now everybody gets out on the floor an' lets his feet do jes' about as they please."

Sweet Grass.

We never know how much sweetness there is in grass till it is cut. Severed from the root, it gives out a perfume which the garden itself can hardly rival. Misfortune instead of making us bitter, should bring out the sweetness of the spirit, like the fragrance of the mown grass.

Superstition.

"What worries me about my wife," said Mr. Meekton, confidentially, "is that she is getting superstitious." "What about?" "Me. Whenever anything goes wrong she always manages to figure it out that I'm the person who brought bad luck into the family."

Guaranteed.

"What makes that man start laughing when he tells a story?" "He always announces that it will be a funny story, doesn't he?" asked Miss Cayenne. "Yes." "Well, I suppose he laughs to show that he has the courage of his convictions."

Use for Old Records.

Old talking machine records make very nice table mats for hot dishes. The mats can be made by gluing asbestos on both sides of records and covering with linen or cretonne and binding it with a brass strip with same material sewed into place.

Stuffed Cats Scare Birds.

A novel method of scaring away birds has been adopted by a Kentish (England) farmer. He has killed a number of cats, had them stuffed and placed them in various attitudes among the branches of the fruit trees in his orchard.

Attuned to Higher Things.

"What's the matter with the elevator?" asked the nervous man. "You keep trying to run it through the roof." "You'll have to excuse me," replied the operator. "I'm not used to one of these little 20-story buildings."

Still Soaking Sapleigh.

Sapleigh—"They say one should learn from the mistakes he has made and the foolish things he has done." Miss Keen—"If you followed that advice, Mr. Sapleigh, you'd be one of the brightest men on earth."

To Get Rid of Ants.

Sprinkle the place infested with red pepper or powdered borax or paint with a pure solution of carbolic acid. Follow the trail of the ants to the place of entrance and use the preventive freely.

Desperate Wish.

"Militant suffragettes have been destroying pictures!" "I wish one would happen around our flat before I'm called to climb a stepladder and take charge of the mural decorations."

Daily Thought.

As my life today has been determined by the way I lived my yesterday, so my tomorrow is being determined by the way I live today.—Ralph Waldo Trine.

Here is an Idea.

Instead of trying to stir up trouble in this old world, let us get busy and help those who are in trouble and see how much we shall enjoy the change.

Have Thought on Every Act.

We prepare ourselves for sudden deeds by the reiterated choice of good or evil that gradually determines character.—George Eliot.

Original Scotch Capital.

For many generations Perth, and not Edinburgh, was the capital of Scotland.

Darkness of Ignorance.

There is no darkness but ignorance.—Shakespeare.

Buried Treasures in Morocco.

In Morocco it is customary for a man to bury most of his riches in a place known only to himself. This custom is practiced by all Moors, for they cannot trust their own family, who would murder them directly if it were known where the money was.

Ups and Downs.

"Ups and downs," said an etymologist, "is a phrase of curious aptness." "Take ups. Aviators tell us, balloonists tell us, alpinists tell us, that the higher one ascends the more exhilarating grows the air, so that it is quite common, at a height of a mile or so, for men to sing and shout in pure hilarity and joy. So much for ups.

Why a Lake is Like a Person. A lake resembles a living being in many ways. It has a pulse. Its surface rises and falls rhythmically. It has a circulation. Its water not only ebbs and flows, but there are undercurrents by which the life giving oxygen is carried to organisms which dwell in its depths. It does muscular work. The shores are eroded, and wharves are moved by the ice pressure. It digests food, and some lakes, said to say, sometimes have indigestion. And so we might continue the comparison and tell of its smiles and frowns and the music of its waves upon the shore.—Atlantic Monthly.

Blended.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the creator of Sherlock Holmes, once said that he wrote his first book at the age of six. It appears to have been a story of adventure of the most exciting kind. "There was a man in it and a tiger," Sir Arthur said. "I forget which of the two was the hero of the story, but it didn't matter which because about the time the tiger met the man they became blended into one!"

All Hanging On.

Patience—And you say there were a lot of women hanging onto the straps in the car? Patience—Yes, and a lot of men hanging onto the seats.—Yonkers Statesman.

Not Giving Time.

Customer—I want this suit by the 80th. Can I have it on time? Tailor—No, sir; we do a strictly cash business.—Boston Transcript.

Wipe out the past, trust the future and live in a glorious now.—Towne.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Pure Blood Makes Healthy People

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, OLD-TIME REMEDY, MAKES PURE BLOOD.

Hood's Sarsaparilla surely and effectively removes scrofula, boils and other blood diseases because it drives out of the blood all the humors that cause these diseases. They cannot be successfully treated any other way. The use of external applications for their removal has been proven to be almost useless because they cannot drive out the impurities that are in the blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure, rich blood, perfects the digestion, and builds up the whole system. The skin becomes smooth, clean and healthy. This great blood remedy has stood the test of forty years. Insist on having Hood's, for nothing else acts like it—there is no "just as good" medicine, no real substitute. Get it from your druggist and begin taking it today.
