

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Elmer C. Musser has the auto fever. John I. Thompson, of Lemont, was within our gates Sunday afternoon.

Farmer Charles Lytle, of Hollidaysburg, spent Friday with friends at Pine Hall.

Miss Ella Miller, of Somerset, is visiting the Ward sisters at Baileyville this week.

The much needed rain came on Monday and was followed by three inches of snow.

Harry Bigelow, the man of hammer and tongs at McAlevy's Fort, transacted business here on Friday.

A new concrete walk is being put down in front of the J. E. McWilliams house, occupied by J. A. Decker.

D. Ross Gregory, of Neff's Mills, loaded a car of hogs and sheep at Pennsylvania Furnace on Friday, for the Philadelphia market.

Dr. Frank Bailey, who has been nursing a sprained ankle ever since the second day of the hunting season, is improving but slowly, but we hope surely.

While teacher H. B. Everts attended to business at State College Monday, Miss Mary Kepler wielded the birch in the Kepler school very successfully.

Samuel Lohr, coal dealer and farmer, from Snow Shoe, spent the Sabbath with his brother Frank, at Pine Hall, who is improving from his late illness with the grip.

Calvin Murtoff, team boss at Scotia for the past thirty years, last week moved his family to State College, where he is one of Mr. Goodling's right hand men on the farm.

W. E. McWilliams, R. F. D. No. 1, has been on the sick list the past week with the grip. Miss Sarah is handling Uncle Sam's business very satisfactorily to the route patrons.

Remember the roast chicken supper and festival by the C. E. ladies in the town hall, tomorrow (Saturday) evening, for the benefit of the church. Come and bring your friends and wallet.

Monday's mail brought a bounteous supply of handkerchiefs, post cards and trinkets to Miss Vida Corl, as a reminder of her twenty-third milestone on life's journey. Her sister Bertha managed the surprise.

Last Thursday evening while Isaac Ellenberger, of Gatesburg, was talking with some friends on the front porch he suddenly sank to the floor, as the result of an attack of uraemic poisoning, but he is now improving.

Prof. M. S. McDowell, John S. Dale and wife, Miss Ida McDonald and Luther Dale were passengers west on the Monday morning train to attend the State Grange meeting at Meadville, Pa., this week. Mrs. John Dale is on the ladies court as Pomona.

On Tuesday evening of this week the home of Mrs. J. Calvin Sunday, on Tadpole, was taken by storm, being a surprise party for the good lady on her birthday. Refreshments were served and many presents brought. The affair was arranged by her daughter, Mrs. Waldo Homan, and was a success.

Last Friday was butchering day at Fred Meyers', on west Main street. Three porkers yielded nine cans of lard. At noon the hungry crew came in contact with a huge gobbler and soon knocked the stuffing out of him. Fred has the record for heavy weight porkers, one weighing 425 pounds. Ed S. Moore was a close second, his weighing 422 pounds.

LEMONT.

The people are about all through butchering. Mrs. John Eiters, who has been quite ill for some time, is worse.

Charles Fogleman and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a big son.

Bob Homan and family spent a few days among friends in town last week.

George Roan underwent an operation, for his eyes, in the Wills Eye hospital last week.

Sunday and Monday brought nice rains, that ended with snow, which has broken down many trees.

John Mitchell spent several weeks visiting friends in West Virginia, returning home the latter part of last week.

Eric Martz and wife returned home from the western part of the State, where Mr. Martz held a position as a boss farmer.

The Christmas Dinner.

In spite of the fact that the word dyspepsia means literally bad cook, it will not be fair for many to lay the blame on the cook if they begin the Christmas dinner with little appetite and end it with distress or nausea. It may not be fair for any to do that—let us hope so for the sake of the cook! The disease dyspepsia indicates a bad stomach, that is a weak stomach, rather than a bad cook, and for a weak stomach there is nothing else equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It gives the stomach vigor and tone, cures dyspepsia, creates appetite, and makes eating the pleasure it should be.

BOOKS, MAGAZINES, Etc.

A MAGAZINE WITH A NEWSPAPER.—Magazine supplements to newspapers are commonplace enough, but here, to mark the high-water achievement of newspaper publishing, comes a newspaper with its own special magazine in two colors and printed on fine coated stock, so that attractive illustrations may be reproduced. The paper is the Public Ledger of Philadelphia, and the special magazine will be a Christmas number, full of stories, poems and pictures by our most noted authors and artists. Owing to mechanical difficulties, it is probable that not a sufficient number of these papers will be printed to meet the demand, and only copies ordered considerably in advance will be supplied. The magazine will be issued with the Sunday, December 20, edition of the paper at the regular price.

Every man's vision is as broad as that of the newspaper he reads. The country newspaper, if he lives in the country, is indispensable to give him a clear view of his immediate surroundings; but the city newspaper is its equally indispensable complement. No man can be well-posted nowadays unless he keeps an eye on what the whole world is doing.

The Philadelphia Record is a world-newspaper. Its service extends to every quarter of the globe. Its representatives are in every foreign capital; its live wires connect with every city, town and hamlet in forty-eight States. Its business is to gather in the world's history day by day: to sift it, discarding the chaff; to boil down and condense the residue, and to present all that is worth while, in space proportioned to its importance, in such shape that intelligent people will derive profit or enjoyment, or both, from reading it.

You will get all the news that's worth while, and you will exclude the objectionable and the undesirable, if you make the Philadelphia Record your family newspaper.
